

Ye Chen 5221

Chapter 5221

The next morning.

When the Purple Mountain Villa was still covered in a light white mist, Lin Wan'er, unadorned, tied her long hair into a ponytail and put on a nondescript summer dress and went to Mount Qixia alone.

Both Qiu Yingshan and Sun Zhidong offered to send their bodyguards with her to ensure her safety, but Lin Wan'er refused.

The Great Hermitage is hidden in the city. For her, since she has decided to study in Jinling, she has to live in the city with confidence and boldness from now on.

A girl who travels alone, even if she looks prettier, will only provoke attention, not suspicion.

But if the girl is accompanied by bodyguards or has bodyguards secretly following her all the way, once she is seen by someone with an eye on her, she is bound to arouse suspicion.

Seeing her firm attitude, both of them did not insist any further.

She had checked the route on her mobile phone last night and found that there was a direct bus to Qixia Mountain from the north of Zijinshan Mountain, a journey of about thirty minutes. Having been in hiding before, she had little experience of real life, and this time she decided to settle down in Jinling for a while, so she simply integrated completely.

This was Lin Wan'er's first visit to Mount Qixia, but she had heard from her father when she was very young that the ancestors of the Lin family were buried on Mount Qixia.

More than 600 years ago, when Zhu Yuanzhang, the founder of the Ming Dynasty, established the capital of the Ming Dynasty, the ancestors of the Lin family were officials in Jinling.

After the Battle of Jing Dynasty, the Lin family was ordered to move north with the dynasty when Zhu Di, King of Yan, succeeded to the throne and decided to move the capital to Yanjing.

The Lin family's ancestor died on the eve of the move due to his advanced age, and when explaining his affairs, he specified that he should be buried with his wife, who had been buried on Mount Qixia for ten years, so his descendants buried him on Mount Qixia.

According to the genealogy, the day after the burial of the Lin family's ancestor, the Lin family's descendants moved north, and since then, up to Lin Wan'er, none of the Lin family's descendants have been able to return to Jinling to settle in the six hundred years since then, so no one from the Lin family has been buried here, and the only ones left here are the ancestor and his wife.

Lin Wan'er went up the mountain on foot and searched around, but did not see any graves or tombstones, so she guessed that hundreds of years had passed and there was no way to know where her ancestor's grave was located on Qixia Mountain.

Originally, she wanted to find a secluded place on the mountain to pay her respects to her ancestors, but to her surprise, there were warning signs all over the mountain prohibiting fireworks, and there were surveillance cameras everywhere, so Lin Wan'er knew that if she burned incense here to pay her respects, there was not only the risk of fire, but also the risk of being caught.

She was thinking about this, so she planned to go to Qixia Temple in the middle peak of Qixia Mountain to burn incense and pay respects to her ancestors, although it was a temple, but after all, her ancestors were buried here, so burning incense there would be a way to pay respects to them.

Qixia Temple was built more than 1,500 years ago and is one of the four most famous Buddhist temples in China, as well as the most famous temple in Jinling and the province.

Lin Wan'er is proficient in the I Ching and the Eight Trigrams, and also respects Buddhism and the Tao, so she is very much in awe of this ancient temple with a long history.

When Lin Wan'er arrived at Zhongfeng, where Qixia Temple is located, Xiao Churan and Ma Lan also arrived just in time.

Chapter 522

In fact, they had parked their car a long time ago, but Ma Lan had difficulty with her legs, so she had to climb the stairs on crutches with the help of Xiao Churan, and only then did she arrive at Qixia Temple with difficulty.

It was a weekday, so there were not too many visitors to Qixia Temple in the morning. Lin Wan'er took a step to the Mahamuni Temple, but did not rush to enter, instead she took out three sticks of incense from her handbag, lit them and came to the incense burner outside the door of the temple.

Lin Wan'er put the three incense sticks on her forehead with both hands, bowed slightly and said in a low voice: "The ancestors of the Lin family are here, Lin Wan'er, an unfilial descendant of the Lin family, has come to pay her respects. I hope that when you both know this, you will not blame my father and other ancestors and elders for not allowing the Lin family to flourish"

Lin Wan'er was slightly taken aback, and said again: "Perhaps, they are over there... they have already met you two, and explained to you two in person..."

When she said this, Lin Wan'er's eyes were already slightly red.

The first generation of the Lin family has indeed had an extremely difficult journey over the past six hundred years, in the middle of which there were many family and national crises, many sudden changes in the wind and clouds, and many of the great families of those years had their legacy interrupted in this.

After a moment of silent mourning, Lin Wan'er inserted three sticks of incense into the incense burner, then held back her tears and turned around to enter the Great Hall of Heroes.

When Lin Wan'er entered, the incense worshipper on the left side of the pagoda was just getting up, so she walked up to the statue, kneeled down in front of it, folded her hands and closed her eyes slightly, and chanted in her heart: "Buddha is in heaven, I, Lin Wan'er, beg the Buddha to bless me so that I can avenge my father's death in my lifetime. I will return to Qixia Temple to offer incense and rebuild my golden body for you!"

While Lin Wan'er was making her wish, Ma Lan limped into the Great Hall with the help of Xiao Churan.

As Ma Lan's broken leg was her right one, Xiao Churan assisted her on her right side, and at that moment, the middle and right side of the futon was also vacant, so Xiao Churan helped Ma Lan to walk to the front.

Ma Lan's right leg was in plaster, so it was not easy to kneel down, so she simply stretched her right leg behind her, like an athlete starting to run, and kneeled on one knee with her left leg, although she looked funny, it was clear that her heart was very pious.

After that, Ma Lan said with a pious face: "Buddha, please bless me with a huge live stream in three days, and bless me to make a lot of money with live goods. God is responsible for letting this kind of person turn over a new leaf! It is said in "Journey to the West" that the Buddha in the West is very close to the Jade Emperor, I hope you can remind him of this, and if he does not open his eyes, I beg you to open your eyes"

Lin Wan'er was worshipping piously when she didn't expect to see a woman beside her chanting so much, and the more she said, the more outrageous she became, so she could not help but wrinkle her willow eyebrows together, and when she finished making her wish, she could not help but open her eyes and glance to the right, so she saw Ma Lan muttering solemnly, "Buddha, you don't know, that b*tch Qian Hongyan, she's a bad person! She was the one who screwed me to death in the first place"

Xiao Churan could not help but look at her mother at this time, with an embarrassed face, she reminded in a low voice, "Mom what are you talking about here"

Chapter 5223

Ma Lan, who was praying, was suddenly interrupted by her daughter and said with some dissatisfaction, "Aiya, I am asking the Buddha for blessings, what are you interrupting me for, really"

Xiao Churan lowered her voice and reminded, "How can you talk to Buddha like that You can ask for money yourself if you want, if Buddha really shows his spirit, he will naturally help you to fulfill your wish, but what are you doing here talking about those things of your elder aunt... ..Are you still asking the Buddha to punish people?"

"Yes!" Ma Lan was incredibly serious and said in a serious manner, "I just want Buddha to punish her properly! Anyone can get rich out of the 8 billion people in the world, but not her Qian Hongyan!"

If he doesn't actively correct the situation, he should ask Buddha Ru-lai to criticize him properly!"

Xiao Churan rubbed his temples and helplessly said, "People say that we should be kind-hearted, this kind of thinking that you can't see others well is not right-hearted in front of the Buddha, how can the Buddha bless people who are not right-hearted"

“What?” Ma Lan was not convinced and retorted, “I am not seeing no good in others, I am seeing no good in her Qian Hongyan, you should know that this Qian Hongyan is simply bad to the core!”

Xiao Churan said, “She’s bad, that’s her business, you don’t have to say it here

The first thing that I can do is to call the police. The Buddha is not as good as the police? If he can’t even understand this point, he doesn’t deserve to be Buddha!”

Although she had seen a lot, she had hardly ever seen such a foolish and ignorant woman as Ma Lan, who had even come to the Buddha Hall to spout her words.

At the thought of her speaking out of anger and raging against the Buddha, Lin Wan’er could not help but speak up, “There are three poisons in the Buddhist sect, namely greed, anger and foolishness. Greed is dissatisfaction and insatiable desire; anger is complaining about the status quo and hatred of others; and idiocy is darkness of mind and ignorance, most people usually have one of the three poisons, and it is rare to see anyone who commits all three poisons in a few words.”

Ma Lan froze and looked sideways at Lin Wan’er, seeing her hands folded and eyes slightly closed, she couldn’t help but frown, “Hey, are you talking about me? You’re just saying things to me, aren’t you?”

Lin Wan’er opened her eyes, looked at Ma Lan and said lightly, “Sorry, I was just mumbling to myself in front of the Buddha, so please forgive me if I have disturbed you.”

Saying this, Lin Wan’er stood up, gave the Buddha statue a reverent look and turned to leave.

“Hey don’t leave if you have the guts!” Ma Lan still wanted to argue with her, but she turned around and left without a second thought.

He had no choice but to give up.

Xiao Churan then said, “Mom, I think the little girl is not wrong, you act so greedy and foolish in front of the Buddha, can not see a bit of sincerity, the Buddha can not bless you.”

Ma Lan did not expect her daughter to help her either, so she simply brushed her mouth off and muttered, “Cut it out, if you don’t bless me, then pull back! As if there’s no place in the world to make a wish without Buddha! I’ll ask my son-in-law to adjust my feng shui at home, if the feng shui luck is good, I won’t be able to stop the fortune! It’s called “The east is not bright, the west is bright, I always have a solution!”

After saying that, Ma Lan said with a chagrined expression, “D*mn it, why didn’t I think of that earlier? It’s tiring!”

After saying that, she looked at Xiao Churan and said, “Let’s go! Churan, take mum home, I’m going to find a good son-in-law!”

Chapter 5224

Xiao Churan helplessly said, “Mom

Xiao Churan's words caused Lin Wan'er's body, who had already walked to the door, to suddenly startle. She muttered in her mind, "It's Ye Chen again? I've been in Jinling for two days and I can't get away from Ye Chen every day, am I that close to him? Which Ye Chen is that coarse woman's son-in-law? Could it be the Ye Chen of the Yanjing Ye family that I'm looking for?"

As she thought of this, she subconsciously glanced back at Xiao Churan and said, "This young woman looks similar in age to the Ye Chen I am looking for, plus there are not many people with the same name as Ye Chen, and there are even fewer of the same age, so could it be that the Ye Chen I am looking for is already married? Is his wife the woman in front of him?"

"I see that she is similar in age to Ye Chen, her looks and temperament are not bad, so she is one in a million, but this mother of hers is really ludicrous"

"It's not that I haven't seen those foul-mouthed women before, but even a shrew who can't read or write wouldn't dare to spill her guts in front of the Buddha's temple, she's really fearless"

"Ye Chen's status is also considered illustrious and his personal strength is unmatched by anyone, so why does he have such a vulgar mother-in-law? It's really strange"

Xiao Churan did not notice that outside the door of the hall, the stunningly beautiful girl was sizing up herself and her mother Ma Lan.

She was currently busy trying to persuade Ma Lan to dismiss the idea of letting Ye Chen show her feng shui.

For Ma Lan said with a face full of righteousness, "Ye Chen is my son-in-law, he can help so many people with their feng shui, can't he help me, his mother-in-law, to have a look?"

Xiao Churan sighed and said, "Aiya mum, didn't you say that this matter should not be known to Ye Chen? Besides, something like feng shui is supposed to be very macro, it's solving big problems on a macro level, there's definitely no way to be very tangible, so how can you manage the popularity of your live broadcast room? I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to get a good deal on this. It's not realistic at all"

"That's also true" Ma Lan said in a disheartened manner, "Forget it, anyway, I have brought all the words I should bring to Buddha today, let's see if Buddha will give face, if he gives face, not only I can be smooth, Qian Hongyan will also be unlucky, if he If he does not give face, then I will never come to him again"

The first thing you need to do is to ask Xiao Churan in a low voice, "Churan, do you think the Buddha would have taken advantage of Qian Hongyan first?"

Xiao Churan's head was as big as a bucket, he hurriedly helped her up, then whispered to the Buddha, "Buddha is sorry, my mother's mouth is incoherent, please forgive me"

After saying that, he hurriedly assisted Ma Lan to walk out.

When the mother and son arrived outside the temple, Lin Wan'er had disappeared. Ma Lan had wanted to look for her and argue with her, but after looking around, she saw no one, so she could only follow Xiao Churan out of the temple and prepare to go down the mountain.

As they began to descend, Lin Wan'er appeared not far behind them again, silently watching their backs, and then looked at her mobile phone.

On her phone was a picture of Xiao Churan helping Ma Lan out of the temple gate, which Lin Wan'er had secretly taken just now while hiding behind the crowd.

Chapter 5225

Although Xiao Churan and Ma Lan's information had not been encrypted in any way, it was not easy for Sun Zhidong to find out all the information about their identities through a single stolen photo.

At least, it would be difficult to find out in a short time.

So, Sun Zhidong called Lin Wan'er and reported over the phone, "Miss, do you have any other information about these two people? If there is other information, it will be relatively easier to investigate."

Lin Wan'er thought about it and spoke, "I don't have any more information on my side, that girl could be Ye Chen's wife, but Ye Chen's information is encrypted and we don't know Ye Chen's current ID number, I wonder if we can pull up all the relevant information about all the women in Jinling who are married to women named Ye Chen?"

Sun Zhidong replied, "Since Ye Chen's information is encrypted, then even if we use Ye Chen as the entry point and pull out all the information about all the women married to women named Ye Chen, there will not be the person you are looking for."

However, with this photo you sent, we can try to run it through the portrait matching system first, but since the angle of these two photos is not quite standard, if we put them into the system for fuzzy matching, we will at least find thousands of people who are somewhat similar, and then we can manually match them from the results."

Lin Wan'er remembered something and spoke, "Oh yes, although I don't know information about the two of them, I heard them mention a woman called Qian Hongyan, this young girl called Qian Hongyan as her eldest aunt, so I think Qian Hongyan must also be over fifty years old;"

"This way, you don't need to check the photos first, first help me check all the women in Jinling whose name is Qian Hongyan and who are above forty-five and within sixty-five years of age, after that, counter-check the social connections of these Qian Hongyan to see if anyone can match these two, 'Qian' is not a big surname, although it is in the hundred family names ranked second, but the population is not very large, plus the two levels of screening, Jinling and age, I'm afraid there are enough people who match the requirements on one hand."

"Good!" Sun Zhidong said without thinking, "Don't worry, Miss, I'll make the arrangements!"

Previously, Lin Wan'er had only given Sun Zhidong a photo of Xiao Churan and Ma Lan, but no other information, so it would take at least a few days or even dozens of days to find someone.

But with Qian Hongyan as a clue, then everything became much easier.

As Lin Wan'er said, there were not many people with the surname Qian, and there were only about thirty people with the name Qian Hongyan in the whole of Jinling.

Moreover, the age range of these "Qian Hongyan" ranged from a few years old to over seventy years old.

After sifting out those who were not of the age required by Lin Wan'er, there were only four people left who met the requirements.

It was too easy to check the social connections of these three.

All of them were ordinary people with nothing to hide, just click on her social connections in the system, and the system would immediately generate a tree table, listing all of her blood relatives in three generations for display.

Since the young girl Lin Wan'er wanted to check was called Qian Hongyan's eldest aunt, Sun Zhidong started by looking at these three Qian Hongyan's blood relations for the first time to see who had a younger uncle and had a daughter in the younger uncle's family.

The first, Qian Hongyan, aged sixty-two, had married and raised two children, but her husband had no younger brother in the family, only an older brother and a younger sister.

The second, Qian Hongyan, aged forty-nine, had also married and had a son. Her husband had a brother, but that brother had two sons and no daughter, so it did not correspond to what Lin Wan'er had said.

The third Qian Hongyan, aged fifty-five, had married thirty-three years ago and had given birth to twin sons, and her husband had two brothers, both of whom had daughters.

The fourth Qian Hongyan then leapt into view.

This Qian Hongyan, aged fifty-five, had married a man named Xiao Changqian thirty-one years ago, and had given birth to a son named Xiao Hailong thirty years ago, and a daughter named Xiao Weiwei twenty-seven years ago.

And Xiao Changqian had a younger brother named Xiao Changkun.

Xiao Changkun married a woman named Ma Lan twenty-nine years ago, and twenty-eight years ago, gave birth to a daughter named Xiao Churan.

Chapter 5226

Afterwards, Sun Zhidong checked the file information of Ma Lan and Xiao Churan, saw their photo IDs and compared them with the photo sent by Lin Wan'er, he immediately confirmed that these two people were the two people Lin Wan'er had asked him to investigate.

When Lin Wan'er returned to Zijinshanzhuang, Sun Zhidong already had all the information on these two people in his hands, and when he saw Lin Wan'er, he said respectfully, "Miss, you have returned just in time, I have found out the two people you asked me to investigate."

Lin Wan'er asked with delight, "So soon? Quickly give me a look!"

Sun Zhidong handed the phone to Lin Wan'er with both hands and said respectfully, "Please take a look at it, Miss."

Lin Wan'er glanced at Ma Lan's photo, which was left behind when Ma Lan changed her identity card some years ago. Although she was younger than now, her features had not changed much, so Lin Wan'er recognised her at once and said with a smile, "That's right! It's the person I'm looking for."

Saying that, she did not look at Ma Lan's profile again, but directly looked at Xiao Churan's column.

While looking at it, she said, "This shows that Xiao Churan is married, can we go through her and find out information about her husband?"

"Yes." Sun Zhidong was busy saying, "But I didn't retrieve Xiao Churan's kinship just now, you wait a moment."

Lin Wan'er handed the phone back to him, and Sun Zhidong then looked up the information related to Xiao Churan's spouse in that special software.

And this information was that layer of Ye Chen's identity in Jinling.

Although this layer of his identity had been encrypted, according to the logic of the encryption, once someone came to check him out from Xiao Churan's layer, the access to this path was open, so Sun Zhidong could easily find out information related to Ye Chen's current layer of identity.

The reason why Tang Sihai left this channel open after Ye Chen married Xiao Churan was because he was afraid that Xiao Churan would find out something when he bought a house, took out a loan or carried out other social activities that required access to information and files one day.

Moreover, Tang Sihai also believed that if someone wanted to investigate Ye Chen and found out about Xiao Churan, there was no need to hide Ye Chen's identity in Jinling, after all, Xiao Churan was his wife in his current identity, so if he deliberately hid it, it would make things awkward.

Lin Wan'er looked at this copy of Ye Chen's identity information and said excitedly, "The preliminary work of finding Ye Chen has been greatly accomplished, I really didn't expect it to go so smoothly"

After saying that, she couldn't help but sigh, "The person who helped Ye Chen hide his identity is really smart, and sophisticated and logical, he actually arranged for Ye Chen to go into the orphanage after he disappeared, and made a new identity for Ye Chen on the collective account of the orphanage!"

"For him to do so much on the orphanage, it proves that this orphanage must be under his complete control, and it's likely that all the staff of this orphanage are his men!"

Speaking of this, Lin Wan'er sighed, "No wonder so many people started looking for Ye Chen from Jinling and couldn't find him after twenty years of searching, it turns out he was hiding in Jinling all along! And it was perfectly hidden by someone using a special orphanage! This tactic has seamlessly fooled all those who wanted to find Ye Chen!”

Sun Zhidong said with a smile, “Miss, this manipulator is indeed very powerful, but he still hasn’t managed to fool you! You’ve only been in Jinling for just two days, and you’ve already investigated all the information you wanted to investigate. With all due respect, I haven’t seen anyone smarter than you under the sky.”

Lin Wan’er shook her head and said solemnly, “The reason why I was able to find Ye Chen so quickly was that my personal cleverness could only account for at most one third, the other third relied on Ye Chen’s misjudgement of me in Northern Europe in the first place, and the remaining third was due to luck...!”

“If I didn’t know Ye Chen’s surname and name and relied only on one side of the story, I might not have been able to find him even if I had been given twenty years;”

“If I hadn’t happened to see that Claudia’s identity information on the first day I came to Jinling University, I’m afraid I would have had to look for him for a long time in Jinling too;”

“If I hadn’t happened to meet his wife and his mother-in-law today, I wouldn’t have been able to find out his current identity information so quickly”

Chapter 5227

Through Xiao Churan and Ma Lan, she had found out all the information about Ye Chen’s double identity, which indeed made Lin Wan’er’s heart extraordinarily excited.

She felt that this time, when she came to Jinling, there seemed to be help from heaven in the underworld, making it all go extremely smoothly.

However, she had no intention of approaching this mother and daughter duo, let alone Ye Chen.

She felt that she was going to stick to her plan from yesterday and never initiate contact with Ye Chen until after school started and she became friends with Claudia.

At this time, Ye Chen did not know that the little girl he had accidentally saved in Northern Europe had already checked out all the information about his two layers of identity.

At this time, Chen Zekai called him and said respectfully over the phone, “Young master, I have confirmed everything with Hall Master Wan, the old lady you are looking for just returned to her rural hometown in Shu Nan with her son some time ago, I have got the exact address, when do you plan to go there?”

Saying that, Ye Chen added: “You arrange for a plane to leave tomorrow morning, and you accompany me.”

Chen Zekai immediately agreed: “Yes young master, I will arrange the plane now, as well as the vehicle upon arrival, because the old lady lives in the mountains, we have to fly to Zunhuai in your province first, then drive from Zunhuai to Shu Nan, after the plane lands, there is still almost four hours drive.”

“Good.” Ye Chen answered and instructed, “You should arrange for someone to go to Shudu today and buy a small second-hand villa that is closer to a tertiary hospital and more popular, then near the villa, buy another frontage house that is suitable for opening a small supermarket.”

The Phoenix Bone Vine given to Ye Chen by the old lady was priceless to Ye Chen, not only did it help him refine twenty reshaping pills, but the rest of it would be of great use in the future.

Therefore, Ye Chen was also quite grateful to the old lady.

Even though he had saved her and her son’s lives in Mexico, Ye Chen still felt that he still owed the old lady a favour.

He went to see the old lady this time, not only to honour his promise of that day, but also to give the old man, and her son, a peaceful rest of his life.

Shudu was the provincial capital of Sichuan and the best developed city in Sichuan. The old man lived in the mountains, not only in poor conditions, but in the future, as he grew older, he was bound to have many inconveniences.

Therefore, Ye Chen planned to first ask Chen Zekai to arrange for someone to buy a nice, cozy little villa in Shudu and a storefront house. Fun House

Although the old man’s son was not very capable, he had even travelled thousands of miles to Mexico with the intention of working as a seaman in order to give the old man a good life before. Although he was cheated, it could prove that he was indeed willing to suffer and work hard.

If he wanted to do something, he could just open a small supermarket in front of his home in the future.

Nowadays, although opening a small supermarket does not earn much, but it is better because the process is simple and the threshold is low, and if the storefront is his own, then basically he can make a steady profit without any loss.

Hearing this, Chen Zekai said without thinking, “Okay young master, then I will arrange for someone to go there first now, so that we can get it done before we meet the old lady tomorrow.”

Chapter 5228

After consulting it, Ye Chen found that the old lady’s background was very simple, but seemed to have something extraordinary.

The old lady’s surname was Jiang, her name was Nan Qiao, she was born and grew up in the mountains of Shu Nan since she was a child, and married not even far away, but to a young man from the same village.

And for the next fifty years or so, it is probable that she rarely left this small mountain village, for every census, she was the permanent resident of her family and the information was clearly marked that it was her own cooperation during the census.

At its peak, the village had only about forty households and three hundred people, but now the population loss is so severe that only about ten households and forty people, mostly middle-aged and elderly, are still living here.

So it seemed that the old lady should be the most ordinary old person left behind in the mountain village, having lived a simple and ordinary life all her life.

But the reason why Ye Chen felt that she seemed a little bit extraordinary was because of her name, Nan Qiao.

Ye Chen had read a lot of books in his childhood under his father's tutelage, so he could tell at a glance that this Nan Qiao came from the line "There is a tree in the south that cannot be rested on." in the poem "The Book of Songs – State Wind – Han Guang".

An eighty-year-old woman could not have been given such a name if her parents had not been readers.

Eighty years ago, the gold content of a scholar was not the same as today.

Moreover, Ye Chen still remembered that when he met the old lady in the underground cell in Mexico, she had told himself about the origin of the Phoenix Bone Vine bracelet, her ancestor was a famous doctor during the Tang Dynasty, and this Phoenix Bone Vine was passed down from her ancestor.

Passing on an object is easy, but passing on a skill is too difficult, the former requires only handing over something to the next generation, while the latter requires "teaching" the next generation what she has learnt in her life. The former may only take a second, but the latter may take a lifetime.

Moreover, although the old lady had only briefly described the origins of the Phoenix Bone Vine, this was proof that the old lady's family had been handed down in order since 1500 years ago.

This is an extremely rare thing.

In other words, to be able to ensure that the family's legacy was in order in a feudal society that had been in unparalleled turmoil for over a thousand years was proof that the family was very strong.

For example, if a family died after a turmoil and only a small child remained, and this child begged for a living and was eventually adopted and given a new surname and a new name, it would be extremely rare for him to remember his original surname, and for him to remember the basic information about his ancestors and the core of his family heritage. It would be a fool's errand to ask him to remember the basic information about his ancestors and the core points of his family's heritage.

But if he is strong enough, it is different. Even if he dies in the turmoil and is only a small child, but his family has ancestral property, gold and silver, a collection of books and a family tree, and with the help of relatives with foreign surnames, the child will still be able to carry on the family legacy when he grows up.

Of course, this kind of strength is not necessarily about having enough money and social status, but can also be some kind of special ability. If a certain craft has been passed down through generations and can keep each generation fed, then the family, most likely, will also be able to keep on passing on the family.

However, the old lady had said that the family's ancestral medical skills had long since been broken off, so it must be that their ancestors, must have had other extraordinary abilities.

Chapter 5230

Wan Bajun replied, "Mr. Ye, after they woke up, my subordinates arranged for someone to record the identity information of each of them. Since their passports were all destroyed, I had someone help them contact the embassy for replacement documents, and then bought tickets for them to go home, and gave each of them an emergency cash of three thousand US dollars, and sent them all on the plane one by one. "

Saying that, Wan Breaking Jun added, "However, the old lady and her son were an exception."

"These two people were personally escorted back to their country by the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, and they were sent home all the way."

"The general in charge of escorting them followed my subordinate's instructions and left 100,000 yuan in cash for the old lady and her son when they were leaving, but the old lady insisted on not accepting it, and my subordinate thought that you had said that you would visit them when you returned to China, so I did not let the general insist on giving them the money."

"I see." Ye Chen frowned slightly, although there were many doubts in his heart, but all the mysteries could only be solved after he met the old lady.

Just as the two arrived, the person in charge of the Ye family in your province had already driven a high-performance SUV to wait outside the airport in advance, as Chen Zekai had requested.

The place they were going to this time was located in the mountainous region of southern Shu and the road was inconvenient, so Ye Chen planned to drive there with Chen Zekai, without any of his followers except the two of them.

After getting the SUV, Chen Zekai drove the car while Ye Chen sat in the passenger seat. The two of them travelled through the winding mountains for nearly five hours before finally arriving at a village located at the foot of a deep mountain.

However, this village was not Ye Chen and Chen Zekai's destination. The village they were going to was halfway up the mountain on the edge of a cliff, and due to the steep terrain, there was only a steep mountain road up the mountain, and no vehicle other than a motorbike could climb up it.

The good thing is that although the road is difficult, the distance is not too far and the two men are strong enough to climb this kind of mountain road without any problem.

So, after walking for more than an hour, they arrived at a small mountain village perched on the edge of a cliff halfway up the mountain.

The village was quite dilapidated and the vast majority of the houses were dark, wooden buildings, old and in disrepair.

It seemed that it was extremely rare to see strangers coming here, and the few old men sitting together chatting at the head of the village felt quite surprised when they saw the two walking to the entrance of the village.

Among the few old people at the entrance of the village, Ye Chen did not see the old lady from that day. Luckily, Chen Zekai had gotten the images made by the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall from Wan Breaking Army and knew which way to take from the entrance of the village to reach the old lady's home.

Ye Chen and Chen Zekai set off early in the morning, but it was already late in the evening and smoke was already billowing from the courtyard.

The two drab wooden gates were only half hidden, so that someone could be seen walking out from under the hayloft where they were cooking, holding a handful of branches and firewood from the firewood stack at the other end of the courtyard.

Ye Chen recognised this person as the old lady's youngest child, the only one of her four sons who had grown up.

At this moment, the old lady's son did not see the two people standing outside the door, he carried the firewood and walked back again, Ye Chen knocked on the hidden wooden door at this time and asked, "Is this the house of Jiangnan Qiao Jiang's grandmother?"

The other party stood still and asked in a Shudi accent, "Which one are you?"
