

Ye Chen 5261

Chapter 5261

Qiu Ying Shan saw that the two of them were happy to see each other and said with relief, "It's rare that you two are so in tune with each other, so let's go in and sit down and talk."

The two of them readily agreed, and the group moved to the living room.

In the living room, after Liu Manqiong and Lin Wan'er sat down, Lin Wan'er asked her with some curiosity, "Sister Manqiong, why did you choose to come from Hong Kong Island to Jinling to develop your career? From a first-tier international city to a second-tier city on the mainland, the gap is still quite big."

Liu Manqiong smiled faintly and once again moved out the same rhetoric that she had said to Sister Xian on her way here, which was nothing more than feeling that Hong Kong Island was too fast-paced, that there were too many people and too little land, that the city's resources were seriously crowded, and that the overall feeling was not as comfortable as life in a second-tier city on the mainland.

After hearing this, Lin Wan'er nodded in agreement, but in her heart she did not think so at all.

She felt that Liu Manqiong's words, at first glance, seemed to be quite right. The pace of an international first-tier city like Hong Kong Island was naturally not slow, and it was also true that Hong Kong Island had a lot of people and little land, and many people could not afford a small house of 30 to 40 square feet even after a lifetime of hard work, so many young people from Hong Kong Island had started to gradually move to the Mainland, especially the Special Administrative Region adjacent to Hong Kong Island, which had attracted many young people from Hong Kong Island.

However, Lin Wan'er also knows very well that Hong Kong Island is a place where heaven and hell coexist.

There, it is not unusual for a poor family of six or seven to be crammed into a ten-square-metre room, and some people even live in places where they cannot even fit a bed.

But on Hong Kong Island too, the rich can build palatial mansions halfway up the bay and live in skyscrapers with hundreds or thousands of square feet of luxury flats.

The paper-drenched Hong Kong Island has been a paradise for the rich for the past few decades. Liu Manqiong's family is extremely well-off, and the fast pace of Hong Kong Island, the size of its population and the amount of land it has, has little direct relevance to her.

Her reasoning is akin to a top tycoon declaring to the public that he decided to leave the United States because of the bad law and order and the constant shootings.

At first glance, this reasoning doesn't sound like a problem at all.

In a country like the United States, where everyone is armed, armed robberies are a daily occurrence, zero-dollar shopping is a constant occurrence, and major shootings happen hundreds or thousands of times a year, living there does expose you to unknown security risks on a daily basis.

But these dangers, in fact, are for the lower and middle classes in the United States.

In other words, it is true that ordinary people who survive in the United States face the dangers of guns, but for the top wealthy people who live there, they are much safer in the United States than they would be in any other country in this one.

Because they have enough money to build their fences high enough and put a power grid on them, and enough money to hire enough people with enough guns to keep them safe 24 hours a day.

Chapter 5262

And, in the top wealthy neighbourhoods in the US, the police department would love to have one at the south gate of the neighbourhood and one at the north gate, and then each police department would have eight police cars and sixteen armed patrol officers patrolling the neighbourhood 24 hours a day.

A gunman who wants to commit a shooting would never choose the top wealthy neighbourhoods because he was stopped by the police patrol on his way to drive into them because the car he was driving was not good enough.

In such a situation, let alone if he dared to pull out a gun, even if he stuck his hand in his pocket for a stick of gum, he would be shot to a hornet's nest in a second.

And even if he was able to evade the police patrols, as soon as he dared to approach the estates of the super-rich, dozens of guns would immediately be aimed at him in the shadows.

It would be a fool's errand to think of a shooting in such a situation, and he would be afraid that he would not even have the chance to shoot himself.

And this sense of security for the super rich is precisely what other countries cannot give, because the vast majority of countries do not allow ordinary people to carry guns. It is simply a fool's dream for a rich person to find dozens of armed bodyguards to protect himself in a big way, and even if he usually hires some bodyguards, it would be futile once he encounters a bandit with a gun.

The reason why the young master of the Li family would be kidnapped in Hong Kong Island was because the bandits had guns and the young master and his bodyguards did not.

If the same thing happened in the United States, if the security company was given enough budget, they would be able to equip the young master on his way home with a few bulletproof Cadillacs comparable to armoured cars and a dozen or so bodyguards with assault rifles for close protection, and just a few bandits like Ah Keung and Ah Huan would not be enough to stuff these bodyguards.

Therefore, if an ordinary person says that he feels that life in America is not safe enough, that is 80% of what he really thinks.

But if a super rich man says the same thing to the public, it must be his excuse and never his real thoughts.

Therefore, Lin Wan'er concluded that there must be another reason for Liu Manqiong to come to Jinling.

Lin Wan'er's logic was that everything had to be rational first, and once the matter went against common sense, there were seven words that could not be escaped: there must be a demon when something goes against the norm.

And, just like multiplication, the larger the base and multiplier, the larger the result, and the reverse is also true: if the result is large, then the base and multiplier will not be small either.

Therefore, Lin Wan'er could not help but think in her heart: "Liu Manqiong is a hundred billion dollar family's rich girl, can make her, a hundred billion dollar family's rich girl, make such abnormal behavior, then this "demon" is not ordinary "demon", must be a big demon. It must be a big demon This basic logic also applies to me, I will come here, not really because I like this place, or my ancestors have some kind of connection with this place, but because there is a big demon hidden here, and that demon is Ye Chen!"

Thinking of this, Lin Wan'er frowned and said darkly, "And on the bright side of Jinling, there are almost no 'demons' worthy of Liu Manqiong's status, could it be that this Liu Manqiong is also here for Ye Chen?"

Chapter 5263

As soon as Lin Wan'er thought this, when she looked at Liu Manqiong again, she suddenly teased with a smile, "Sister Manqiong, I see that you have come all the way from Hong Kong Island to Jinling, it doesn't look like you are here to look for a job!"

Liu Manqiong was surprised and asked, "Why do you say that?"

Lin Wan'er smiled narrowly, "It feels more like you've come to pursue your beloved despite all odds."

Lin Wan'er's seemingly flirtatious remark instantly struck a chord in Liu Manqiong's heart, and she immediately panicked a little, but then hurriedly covered up and said, "How could that be I've never been to Jinling before, and I don't have any acquaintances here, let alone any heart. I've never been to Jinling, and I don't have any acquaintances here, let alone a sweetheart."

Although Liu Manqiong hastily concealed it, the hint of panic in her expression had already been accurately caught by Lin Wan'er.

It was this slight change that made Lin Wan'er even more certain that her judgement was definitely correct.

Combined with Liu Manqiong's status, who else could there be but Ye Chen, who could make such a grand lady as her put aside her reserve and chase her all the way from Hong Kong Island to Jinling?

However, Lin Wan'er understood human nature and knew that at this time, since Liu Manqiong was in a panic, she had to stop at the right moment, borrowing a phrase from the Art of War, that is, a poor enemy should not be pursued.

So she immediately turned her words around and said with a smile, "I am deliberately playing with you because you are so pretty, sister Manqiong!"

Lin Wan'er suddenly withdrew her troops, causing Liu Manqiong to sigh with relief; she was actually already a little vain and was afraid that someone would really see what was going on.

In her opinion, although she loved Ye Chen deeply, Ye Chen was after all a married man, so even if she chased him to Jinling, she must not tell others about her feelings, and other people must not guess the clues.

However, she did not expect that Lin Wan'er would suddenly make a comeback at this moment and said to herself, "Sister Manqiong's family is so well-off and so outstanding, I'm afraid there are too many talented young men pursuing you on Hong Kong Island, so how would she look at a man in Jinling?"

Lin Wan'er's retreat was an instant poke at Liu Manqiong's deep love for Ye Chen, and she blurted out almost without thinking, "It's not that absolute, although Hong Kong Island is more developed than Jinling, the men in Jinling are not necessarily inferior to those in Hong Kong Island."

In Lin Wan'er's eyes, Liu Manqiong was subconsciously defending Ye Chen.

As the saying goes, if you truly love someone, you will naturally defend everything related to him, and not only will you not allow others to say that he is not good, you will not even allow others to say that the city he lives in is not good.

She felt that Lin Wan'er should not think that Hong Kong Island was better than Jinling in every way, because there was absolutely no man like Ye Chen to be found on Hong Kong Island, so she had to make her position clear on this point.

However, she did not know that she had already been led back and forth by Lin Wan'er's nose a few times at this point.

At this moment, Lin Wan'er, smiled sweetly and said with an apologetic face, "Sister Manqiong is right, it's me who is too one-sided in my understanding of the issue and the way I look at it."

Qiu Ying Shan saw how innocent and lovely Lin Wan'er looked in front of Liu Manqiong, and while he was shocked, he couldn't help but think, "Miss has never behaved like this before, is this a deliberate attempt to test Manqiong? It's a pity that Manqiong herself doesn't see it at all."

At this moment, Mrs Qiu sighed, following the conversation they had just had, "Manqiong, you're not too young, it's time to find a boyfriend and talk about getting married."

Chapter 5264

Liu Manqiong stammered, "Grandma Qiu, I've just graduated and I'll be looking for a job soon, so I can't be bothered to find a boyfriend, so let's wait until everything has settled down."

Old Mrs Qiu nodded and sighed, "Grandma is just afraid that you will waste too much of a woman's good time."

She then asked, "What kind of boy do you like? Grandma will help you look for one later!"

Liu Manqiong hurriedly said, "No, Grandma Qiu, I think you have to take your time to find a guy, if you don't find one then it's just not your destiny, there's always one."

Seeing her firm attitude, Mrs. Qiu sighed lightly and nodded her head slightly.

After lunch, Liu Manqiong sat for a while at the Purple Mountain Villa, then accompanied by Sister Xian, she took the bus to Jinling University for her interview.

Lin Wan'er smiled like a flower as she escorted Liu Manqiong to the car, and when she turned around after the car had walked out of the gates of the Purple Mountain Villa, she had taken off that innocent looking smile and had returned to her old stillness like water.

Qiu Ying Shan followed behind him and said respectfully, "Miss, I have a question that I dare to ask to ask you"

Qiu Ying Shan had just seen that Lin Wan Er had been setting up Liu Man Qiong's words, so he was a little confused in his heart, not knowing why Lin Wan Er was doing this.

Lin Wan'er knew what he wanted to ask and simply said indifferently, "You go and check if Liu Manqiong and Ye Chen have crossed paths in the past, then you will know why."

"Ye Chen?!" Qiu Ying Shan asked in surprise, "Miss, do you mean to say that Manqiong came to Jinling for Ye Chen as well?"

Lin Wan'er nodded and said blandly, "I guess so, although I have ninety-nine percent certainty in my heart, but I don't dare to confirm it 100%, I guess Liu Manqiong and Ye Chen must have crossed paths."

When she said this, Lin Wan'er remembered something and said, "Since Liu Manqiong is coming to Jinling for the first time, then you can ask Old Sun to check the immigration records of Ye Chen's current identity to see if he has been to Hong Kong Island, and if so, then check if he had any contact with Liu Manqiong when he went to Hong Kong Island."

Saying that, Lin Wan'er asked curiously, "By the way, where is Old Sun? I didn't see him at lunch."

Qiu Ying Shan said, "He's sleeping in his room, saying that he doesn't want to meet strangers, and that his identity is mostly sensitive, so he doesn't want people to know he's in Jinling."

Lin Wan'er hummed and said, "Have him check it out, I'm quite curious too, let me know the results when you find out."

"Good."

Right now, Ye Chen, in front of Lin Wan'er, no longer had that best used disguise.

His current identity information had been grasped by Lin Wan'er, and with Sun Zhidong's special identity and background, it was as easy as pie to check Ye Chen's identity's entry and exit records at customs.

Soon, Sun Zhidong found out the entry record Ye Chen had left at the Hong Kong Island Customs when he went there before.

Subsequently, he had someone check the surveillance video of the airport.

Because the entry record had the exact time of entry down to the second and also had a clear entry channel window number, it was easy to find the surveillance of Ye Chen entering customs on Hong Kong Island that day.

As the public areas of the airport are all monitored 360 degrees without dead ends, it was then easy to find footage of Ye Chen walking out of the airport exit and the two Liu Jiahui couples greeting him respectfully.

When Qiu Yingshan saw the video footage, he was in awe of Lin Wan'er.

He couldn't understand how Lin Wan'er could have guessed that she was here for Ye Chen, and how she could have guessed that the two of them had crossed paths in Hong Kong Island.

Chapter 5265

When Qiu Yingshan reported the information he found out to Lin Wan'er with a heart full of doubts, Lin Wan'er was not surprised at all.

A trip to Hong Kong Island made Liu Manqiong come all the way to Jinling, so a trip to other places will probably also take away the souls of one or two young girls. If we pick up Ye Chen's travel track in the past few years, we might be able to pick up a whole bunch of infatuated women."

Qiu Yingshan smiled awkwardly and sighed, "I can only say that this kid has extraordinary charm, only that Manqiong likes him as a married man, I'm afraid that it will be difficult to fix him in the future"

Lin Wan'er smiled faintly, remembered something, then asked Qiu Ying Shan, "Can you find out what identity and what exactly Ye Chen went to do when he went to Hong Kong Island to meet Liu Jiahui last time?"

"That's good to do." Qiu Ying Shan nodded and said, "I'll just give Jia Hui a call and ask him about it."

"No!" Lin Wan'er stopped him and spoke, "Since Liu Manqiong's father knows Ye Chen, he must also know that the real purpose of his daughter's visit to Jinling this time is for Ye Chen, and he also knows that his daughter just had lunch with you, if you suddenly call him at this time and ask him about something related to Ye Chen, you will definitely arouse his suspicion, and afterwards, once he talks to Liu Manqiong Afterwards, he will then talk to Liu Manqiong, and we will not be able to explain our motives."

Qiu Ying Shan said with a chagrined expression, "I am foolish, I didn't even consider the stakes carefully, I am really ashamed of myself"

"It's alright." Lin Wan'er said indifferently, "It's also my fault for not making it clear to you, the premise of investigating this matter is not to be exposed."

Saying that, she added: "To investigate this matter, you must save the country with a curve, you can't ask him directly, you can't ask people around him or those who have interactions with him, it's best to find another controllable middleman to inquire."

Qiu Ying Shan thought about it and spoke, "That's fine, one of my former men is related to Jia Hui's butler, he later left me openly and went back to Hong Kong Island to develop, but in fact I secretly funded him to work for me in Hong Kong Island, I'll ask him to ask, the two of them are relatives, they should be good to talk to."

"Good." Lin Wan'er nodded, then added, "Right, you should talk to Old Sun again, I want all the entry and exit records of Ye Chen's current identity, since these two years, ask him to transfer them for me and compile a list and send it to me."

"Okay Miss!"

Ten minutes later.

Together with Sun Zhidong, Qiu Yingshan came to Lin Wan'er with a printed sheet of paper.

Qiu Ying Shan stood in front of Lin Wan Er and said respectfully, "Miss, the matter you asked me to investigate has almost been investigated."

Lin Wan'er nodded: "Tell me about it."

Qiu Ying Shan said, "First of all, it was the matter of Ye Chen going to Hong Kong Island to meet Jia Hui, the information I had people inquire was that at that time, Ye Chen's identity was an executive of the Isu Shipping Group, Jia Hui had always wanted to cooperate deeply with Isu Shipping, so Isu Shipping sent Ye Chen over to meet with him for an interview and to examine him in the process."

"Isu Shipping?" Lin Wan'er asked with a frown, "And what is this company's origin? With Ye Chen's status and strength, I don't believe he would hold a senior management position in any company."

Qiu Ying Shan was busy saying, "Isuzu Shipping is a big deal, it's an ocean shipping group run by a joint venture between the Japanese Ito family and the Chinese Su family, and since the two were already very strong in ocean shipping, after merging into one, they have become a giant in the shipping field."

"The Su family and the Ito family" Lin Wan'er pursed her lips in thought, "I've heard of both of these families, one is the strongest family in China and the other is the strongest family in Japan, there is nothing strange about these two strong parties joining forces in the business. There is nothing strange in the business world, but what is strange is why Ye Chen wants to meet Liu Jiahui as a senior executive of this company? There is no way Ye Chen would work for such a shipping company."

Sun Zhidong interjected at this point, "Miss, there is another layer of connection here that is even stranger."

Lin Wan'er asked him, "What relationship, tell me."

Sun Zhidong explained, "The Su family and the Ye family have been fighting with each other for many years, and in the early years, they had a very unpleasant relationship. It can be said that these two families have a long-standing grudge, so I can't understand how Ye Chen could be working for the Issu Shipping Line"

Chapter 5266

Lin Wan'er shook her head and said, "Your thinking is wrong, it's not how Ye Chen would help Isu Shipping, it's whether Isu Shipping is working for Ye Chen."

Qiu Yingshan and Sun Zhidong, neither could understand the significance of Ye Chen's mastery of aura.

But Lin Wan'er understood profoundly that with Ye Chen's strength, with Ye Chen's courage to go against the Broken Clear Society, there could never be any company in this world that could make him work.

So, having firmly established this view, and then analysing why Ye Chen would meet Liu Jiahui in his capacity as an executive of Isu Shipping, then the conclusion she could draw was that Isu Shipping most probably had a deeper connection with Ye Chen.

Qiu Yingshan, who knows the current situation of the shipping market very well because most of his industries are in Singapore and Malaysia, said: "By the way, Miss, the origin of this Isu Shipping is really not simple, I don't know why, but they have a very close relationship with Wanlong Temple, and now Wanlong Temple has set up an armed escort company, which almost monopolizes the entire Gulf of Aden. With the protection of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons, the ships of the Isu Shipping Line are like no one's business in the entire Gulf of Aden, and no pirates dare to touch them!"

"Ten Thousand Dragons Temple?!" Lin Wan'er frowned and muttered, "This is a famous mercenary organisation that used to only work with governments and local warlords, how could it be deeply bound to a company?"

Sun Zhidong suddenly frowned and muttered, "This man is also getting old, his brain is indeed not enough, I just remembered that there is a very important matter that is related to the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple."

Lin Wan'er raised her head and said eagerly, "Tell me quickly!"

Sun Zhidong said, "The Su family has a deep relationship with the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, the father of Ten Thousand Dragons Hall's master, Wan Breaking Jun, was once under the Su family's youngest master, Su Shoudao, and the Su family has always wanted to bring down the Ye family completely, some time ago they and Wan Breaking Jun joined forces to kill the Ye family's ancestral tomb, Ye Ling Mountain, to level the Ye family's ancestral tomb, and the Ye family, in order to save their lives, ceded half of their family property to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, which barely escaped a disaster"

"How is that possible!" Lin Wan'er said almost without thinking, "With Ye Chen around, how could the Ye family have lost?"

Sun Zhidong subconsciously said, "But the Ye family did lose This matter is almost unknown and unnoticed throughout the country"

Lin Wan'er shook her head and said, "Impossible, as long as Ye Chen was on Mount Ye Ling that day, the Ye family would never have lost."

Sun Zhidong then said, "Then perhaps Ye Chen was indeed not there that day"

"It's also not possible." Lin Wan'er added, "As you said, since Ye Ling Mountain is the Ye family's ancestral tomb, Ye Chen's parents must be buried there, and since Ye Chen even dared to strike at the Broken Qing Society in order to avenge his parents, how could he not go when the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall wanted to raze his parents' tomb?"

"This" Sun Zhidong fell into deep thought all of a sudden.

He was also a little confused by this series of inferences that had been wrapped around him.

Lin Wan'er muttered at this point, "The Su family has a connection with the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, and the Su family has a joint venture with the Ito family to engage in the Isuzu Shipping Line, none of this seems to be a problem, but the question is, if the Su family and the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple want to raze the Ye family's ancestral tomb, why would Ye Chen still go to see Liu Jiahui on Hong Kong Island in his capacity as an executive of the Isuzu Shipping Line!"

"It's like the three Axis powers during World War II, it's fine how they allied and cooperated with each other, but how could the United States suddenly shake hands and make peace with them when they were originally fighting them to death? So, I want to know, what defused the hatred between Ye Chen and the Su family and the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall?"

Sun Zhidong and Qiu Yingshan also looked at each other somewhat blankly.

The relationship between the Su Family, the Ye Family, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, the Ito Family, and Ye Chen, seemed to be so intricate and complicated that it was difficult to discern the truth.

At this moment, Lin Wan'er added: "Hatred does not disappear without a reason, hatred must disappear because one side has conquered the other, just like the United States dropped two atomic bombs on Japan in 1945, but Japan ended up becoming the most solid ally of the United States in Asia, once conquered, there will be no more hatred."

Speaking of this, Lin Wan'er said with a definite gaze; "And the Su Family and the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall could never have conquered Ye Chen, the only possibility is that Ye Chen conquered the Su Family and the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall!"

"Ye Chen has conquered the Su Family and the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall?!"

Hearing this, Sun Zhidong's entire body was shocked and said, "Miss this this is a bit exaggerated the Su Family was already stronger than the The Ye family is stronger, and the strength of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple cannot be measured in terms of money, they have tens of thousands of mercenaries under their command, and are now said to have invested in their own permanent base in the Middle East, how could such an organization be conquered by Ye Chen?"

Lin Wan'er said indifferently, "Ye Chen's strength is far from that of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, otherwise when the Su Family and the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple went up to Ye Ling Mountain together, they would not have left any way for Ye Chen to live, although we do not know exactly what happened on Ye Ling Mountain that day, but we can see from the results that Ye Chen was not affected in any way, this is enough to prove that the Su Family and the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple It was a complete failure."

After a pause, Lin Wan'er added, "As I said earlier, the enemy in Ye Chen's eyes is the Broken Clear Society, he has an unbreakable grudge against the Broken Clear Society just like me, but he is much stronger than me, I am still hiding and exhausted in the pursuit of the Broken Clear Society, but he has already launched a real attack on the Broken Clear Society from the shadows, from this point alone, how could a mere Ten Thousand Dragons Hall How could he be stopped? If he wanted to, he could have just taken out the top man of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall on Ye Ling Mountain!"

Sun Zhidong pondered for a moment and said with a frown, "In that case, the rumour that the Ye Family has ceded half of its assets to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall is actually a smokescreen released by the Ye Family to the outside world!"

Lin Wan'er nodded and said seriously, "To be exact, it should be a smoke bomb released to the outside world by Ye Chen!"

After saying that, Lin Wan'er suddenly remembered something and asked the two people, "Right, after Ye Lingshan, has there been any special news or changes from the Su Family and the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall?"

"Changes?" The two looked at each other and Qiu Ying Shan spoke up, "I don't know much about the Su family, but I have heard about the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, their situation in Syria suddenly became very proactive, and they soon joined hands with the Isu Shipping Line to monopolize the armed escort in the Gulf of Aden, and they completely wiped out a pirate organization before, which immediately scared the pirates in the Gulf of Aden. , no pirates have dared to come near as long as the merchant ships under armed escort of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons."

Lin Wan'er nodded, "This transformation is not a pretty one, I think there should be a high level person behind it to guide you."

The other side of Sun Zhidong thought about it and spoke, "Strangely enough, after the news came out that day and the Su family and the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall won a big victory on Ye Ling Mountain, the Su family instead suddenly kept a much lower profile, some people said they were making a big fortune by muffling their voices, but I always felt that they had a very high profile before they fought on Ye Ling Mountain, there was no reason to make a big fortune by muffling their voices after they won, wouldn't that be just like covering their ears and stealing the bell? It would be just like hiding a bell in your ear, wouldn't it? So I've always been rather surprised by this, and then the Su family soon underwent a change of headship, with the previous head of the family, Su Chengfeng, retiring into obscurity and passing the headship on to his 24-year-old eldest granddaughter, Su Zhiyu."

"Passed on to the eldest granddaughter?" Lin Wan'er muttered with a puzzled expression, "Why should an inter-generational grandchild be chosen to succeed directly to the family headship? Shouldn't a son be chosen to transition in the middle of this?"

Chapter 5268

Saying this, Lin Wan'er asked Sun Zhidong, "Could it be that the Su family has very few sons?"

Sun Zhidong busily said, "Back to Miss, on the contrary, the seven sons of the Su family, whose names are Morality, Benevolence, Justice, Ritual, Wisdom and Faith, five of them are sons and two daughters, all in their prime, and as for the grandchildren, there are even more"

"Strange" Lin Wan'er frowned, "Since there are five sons, why is it necessary to pass the family headship directly to the eldest granddaughter? Not to mention the fact that the eldest granddaughter is a female, just to mention that he crossed over the children and directly chose the grandchildren to succeed him would easily cause dissatisfaction among the five sons, and even that Su Zhiyu's own father would never willingly accept the fact that he was directly skipped over."

Speaking of this, Lin Wan'er added: "Back then, Ming Chengzu valued his imperial grandson Ming Xuanzong extremely, but even so, Chengzu did not directly pass on the throne to Xuanzong, but first passed on the throne to Renzong for a transition, this Su Chengfeng, even if he really valued Su Zhiyu, should first pass on the throne to Su Zhiyu's father, and then have her father pass on the throne to her, in this way, it would also solidify Su Zhiyu's foundation, otherwise Otherwise, with a father, four uncles and two aunts on top, how could she, a girl, be able to hold down the throne? Even if Su Chengfeng is behind her at all times, it will be difficult for Su Zhiyu to truly control the Su family."

Remembering something, Sun Zhidong spoke up, "Right Miss, after Su Chengfeng passed the family headship to Su Zhiyu, the person has retired into seclusion and is said to have gone to Africa to enjoy life."

Lin Wan'er's frown tightened: "He put Su Zhiyu on a blazing horse and retired without personally taking her for a ride and helping her tame the blazing horse? If he does this, even if Su Zhiyu is capable, there's no way she can hold it down!"

Sun Zhidong shrugged, "However, Su Zhiyu's position as the head of the family is very stable, and after she took over, she has done a lot of big things, and her cooperation with the Ito family in Japan to set up the Isuzu Shipping Line is her handiwork."

Lin Wan'er said with a serious expression, "From a human point of view, if Su Zhiyu inherits the family headship, her father, her uncle and her aunt will not be able to obey her, and Su Chengfeng did not stay by her side to help her keep the situation under control, so it is reasonable to say that it is like a scale, with Su Zhiyu herself at one end and her seven elders at the other. The one that the scales are pressing down on is definitely her seven elders, and Su Zhiyu's control over the family is bound to be nibbled away and hollowed out, but you say she's sitting on all fours, so there's only one possibility"

The only way for her to be able to hold on to the control of the family is for her to be able to hold on to it.

Sun Zhidong exclaimed, "Miss, judging from your analysis like this, that person must be Ye Chen!"

"Yes." Lin Wan'er nodded and said, "This way, everything will be logical, Ye Chen conquered the Su family on Mount Ye Ling, and even appointed the new head of the Su family. "

After saying this, Lin Wan'er could not help but exclaim, "In the battle at Ye Lingshan, Ye Chen clearly won, but he had to say to the public that he lost, and he had to say that it was a tragic defeat in which his family's assets were lost by more than half, Ye Chen's move was really too good!"

Sun Zhidong said approvingly, "Since that day, many clans no longer have the Ye family in their sights, thinking that they have become the end of their strength, I had even lamented this for a long time, but now it seems that this should be Ye Chen's intentional move!"

Lin Wan'er nodded and said, "Since it was Ye Chen who won on Ye Ling Mountain that day, the Su Family and the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall will definitely have to bow down to Ye Chen, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall need not be mentioned, it is likely that they have already pledged their allegiance to Ye Chen by now, as for the Su Family, if the head of the family is still Su Chengfeng, I am afraid that they will have to take out more than half of their family fortune to pray for Ye Chen's high hand, but the Su Family has changed a girl to be the head of the family"

Speaking of this, Lin Wan'er couldn't help but sigh and mutter, "Could it be another affair debt?"

Chapter 5269

"Windfall Debt"

Hearing Lin Wan'er's sentiment, Sun Zhidong suddenly remembered something and spoke, "Miss, I have the impression that the current head of the Ito family is also a girl, and should not be too far from Su Zhiyu's age, called Ito Nana-chan."

"A girl too?" Lin Wan'er couldn't help but say in shock, "What's wrong with these days? It's all the rage for girls to be in charge? Or does she also have some story with Ye Chen?"

Sun Zhidong said, "Oh yes, Miss, you asked me to investigate Ye Chen's departure records, and I found out that he spent some time in Japan last year, and it was only after he went to Japan that Ito Nanaiko took over the family headship. Since then, he has retired to the background, leaving his daughter in charge of the big picture."

Saying that, Sun Zhidong added: "I remember that Tokyo was in turmoil at that time, and the son and daughter of Su Shoudao, the boss of the Su family, were both kidnapped by a Japanese family; fortunately, the two escaped, and the Su family sent assassins over to wipe out that culprit's family in revenge."

"Interesting" Lin Wan'er laughed, "As long as Ye Chen has been to the place, something is bound to happen, if I am correct, that Su Zhiyu was in danger in Japan, she should have been saved by Ye Chen, that's why Ye Chen helped. What Ye Chen wants may not be for the Su family to cede the land and make reparations, but may also be for the Su family to bow down and submit to him."

Saying that, Lin Wan'er added, "There is also the Ito family, maybe it is also because of Ye Chen that they managed to survive to the end in that chaos, maybe that Ito Nanaeko is also Ye Chen's confidante, the whole Ito family is in her hands, if Ye Chen needs it, he can pour it all out at any time."

Sun Zhidong smiled, "Miss, you are a bit too high on this Ye Chen, you can't be sure that if anything has something to do with Ye Chen, it must be Ye Chen who is behind it, right?"

Lin Wan'er smiled slightly and asked him in return, "Ye Chen is obviously so capable, but most people don't know about his existence, even his wife and his mother-in-law, who live with him every day, don't know his true identity and strength, do you know why?" Funky Corner

Sun Zhidong asked in confusion, "Miss, how do you know that his wife and mother-in-law don't know his true identity?"

Lin Wan'er smiled and asked him rhetorically, "His mother-in-law went to the temple to make a wish, do you know what the wish was?"

Sun Zhidong said blankly, "I have no idea"

Lin Wan'er said, "His mother-in-law made a wish to the Buddha that she could make a lot of money by live-streaming with goods, how much could she make by live-streaming with goods and then making money? One hundred million a year? A billion a year? I'm afraid the interest on Ye Chen's assets thrown into the bank is much more than that, his mother-in-law is so short-sighted, do you think she would know what exactly Ye Chen's status is?"

Sun Zhidong exclaimed, "This isn't too realistic are people who live together all day long, how could they not know Ye Chen's true identity?"

Lin Wan'er said indifferently, "Actually, they made a mistake just like you."

Sun Zhidong was busy asking, "What mistake? I also hope that Miss will be explicit"

Lin Wan'er said seriously, "You instinctively don't want to think of Ye Chen as strong, you always think that he can't be that powerful, that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall can't be conquered by him, that the life and death of the Su family, the Ito family and those Japanese families can't be in his hands, and that those unimaginable things can't be done by his own hands. true identity, and even if you had spent time with him, I'm afraid you wouldn't have seen through his true identity."

I've seen Ye Chen's true strength, and I know how much weight his strength carries, so in my heart, I'm willing to think of him as the strongest. I instinctively want to believe that it must be Ye Chen's doing."

Sun Zhidong pondered for a moment, nodded gently and said, "What Miss said is very true I was influenced by my subjective perceptions to influence my objective judgement, if I subjectively believe that something is false, my objective logical thinking will also acquiesce to the correctness of my subjective perceptions, and I will not bother to correct my mistakes. "

Lin Wan'er nodded and said seriously, "Ye Chen's wife and mother-in-law live with him all day long, it is impossible that they cannot find out the clues, but once they subjectively believe that Ye Chen will not be that capable, or that Ye Chen is just an orphan and cannot have any great background, then when they find out the clues, they will not bother to dig deeper and think about it, in that case, Ye Chen will only In that case, Ye Chen would only need to follow this subjective perception of theirs and casually make up a reason, and then he would be able to fool them, making them subconsciously dawn on them that that so-called telos was really because of this."

At this time, Qiu Ying Shan on the side could not help but sigh: "This Ye Chen has the Ye family behind him, the An family, his own strength is also unmatched, after the battle of Ye Lingshan, and took in the Su family and the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, the Su family, strength further, in addition to this, there is the Japanese Ito family but even so, he can still take the initiative to show weakness, low-profile development, and spoil the shame, it seems that this person is indeed extremely uncomplicated!"

Lin Wan'er said indifferently: "The reason for pampering is probably due to his character on the one hand, on the other hand, it also means that at this moment, in his eyes, he still has a big enemy, you and I feel that his current strength is already very strong, but he himself feels that he can't reveal his sharpness yet, and he still has to lie down and try to make a secret move."

Speaking of this, Lin Wan'er's expression had become somewhat uncontrollably excited as she clenched her fist and said, "It seems that he has long been prepared to live and die with the Broken Qing Society!"

This is exactly the same as me! I really want to meet with him today, confess everything to him, and then join hands with him to deal with the Qing Breaking Society!”

Sun Zhidong said, “If you want to do so, I can contact Ye Zhongquan and open up to him, so I think we can get Ye Chen to meet with you.”

Lin Wan’er thought about it and waved her hand, “No, it’s not ripe yet, after all, I have put on a show in front of him. I don’t want a comrade who is always on my guard, I want to work with him on the basis of 100% mutual trust. I want to work together with him on the basis of 100% mutual trust to fight against the Qing Breaking Society.”

At this point, Lin Wan’er suddenly let out a long sigh and lamented, “I’m so looking forward to starting school soon! I’ll get to know Claudia first in September, meet Ye Chen through Claudia again in October, let Ye Chen drop his guard in November, then I can confess my true identity and origin to him step by step, give him a little more time to digest and accept it, and then we can join hands with him in December to discuss how to deal with the Qing Breaking Society!”
