

Ye Chen 5281

Chapter 5281

After paying the one million intention deposit, Koichi Tanaka followed that female salesperson and took a car to the first floor.

Liu Manqiong, on the other hand, had by now gone one step ahead of him and arrived at the flat on the top floor with Sister Xian.

Sister Xian followed Liu Manqiong, still feeling ashamed of her overconfidence just now, she could not help but speak up, "Miss Liu, fortunately you have the foresight not to listen to my second-hand advice just now and pay the intention deposit in advance, otherwise, this house would have been bought by that person just now .....

I'm not really far-sighted, I'm just relatively cautious, maybe ninety-nine times out of a hundred, but in my opinion, it's worth it if even one of them actually comes in handy."

Sister Xian nodded gently, her expression seemingly calm, but her heart was extraordinarily awed.

Having been a housekeeper for a long time, she was also a cautious person overall, but not as cautious as Liu Manqiong.

She felt that a cautious style of acting should be slowly cultivated later in life. With Liu Manqiong being so young and having such a privileged family background, such a top wealthy second generation simply did not have the soil to cultivate a cautious style.

There is no pressure from people or things in their lives, there is just the ability to do as they please.

This is why many of them are impulsive, reckless and do not even think.

This is because they have always lived in an environment where everyone compliments them and praises them, giving them the illusion that they are very capable and that they are good at everything they do.

Some of them even think that all they need to do is to create a random internet platform and they will have tens of millions or hundreds of millions of users, and they will be able to incubate top companies with tens of billions of market capitalisation, easily surpassing the lifelong efforts of their fathers.

However, Liu Manqiong gave Sister Xian the feeling that she was never that confident, even if she was only here to interview a lecturer at Jinling University, she was still not sure she would be able to get the offer on the way here.

She wondered what kind of environment the Liu family had given Liu Manqiong to develop such a cautious style of action.

But she did not know that the reason why Liu Manqiong's style of acting was so cautious was entirely due to her mother.

Back then, her mother's father's philandering, moody all the time, and neglecting her health because she was pregnant with her sister, was the reason she eventually let the cancer develop to the point where money could do nothing to undo it.

Obviously having a family of ten thousand dollars, obviously having mastered the top resources in the world, but her mother still did not survive.

This was a hurdle in Liu Manqiong's heart that she could never overcome.

Since then, Liu Manqiong has developed the character to be as cautious as possible in all matters.

At this moment, Liu Manqiong looked at the rolling river not far away and thought of her own mother.

She remembered her mother's favourite spot on the hilltop when she was young, overlooking Hong Kong Island at night, overlooking Victoria Harbour with its jagged waves and boats passing by.

It made her a little impatient to be here, to see the Yangtze River at night.

When Sister Xian saw that she didn't even look at the house once she came in, but stood in front of the huge floor-to-ceiling windows looking at the river view, she couldn't help but remind her, "Miss Liu, would you like to have a general look at the layout of the house, and if there's anything you're not satisfied with, or anything you want to adjust, I can do it for you."

"Oh, good ....." Liu Manqiong then came back to her senses and, together with Sister Xian, went through the whole house.

Chapter 5282

It made her a little impatient to be here, to see the Yangtze River at night.

When Sister Xian saw that she didn't even look at the house once she came in, but stood in front of the huge floor-to-ceiling windows looking at the river view, she couldn't help but remind her, "Miss Liu, would you like to have a general look at the layout of the house, and if there's anything you're not satisfied with, or anything you want to adjust, I can do it for you."

"Oh, good ....." Liu Manqiong then came back to her senses and, together with Sister Xian, went through the whole house.

This flat is not that big, more than two hundred square feet, there are four bedrooms, one of which has been decorated as a study, in addition to that, there is also a flower hall against the Yangtze River side, the developer has added exercise equipment to it, which is considered a rather petty fitness area, and the living room, because of the floor-to-ceiling windows on the front wall, can see the river view when sitting on the sofa.

To a wealthy second generation like Liu Manqiong, who is used to seeing luxury homes, this house is nothing compared to a real penthouse flat.

The Liu family's flat in the Central area of Hong Kong Island has an actual usable area of over a thousand square metres and is located on the top floor of the Liu family's skyscraper.

It appears to be a commercial property of every inch of land, but the Lau family has used the best floor for private use. In the kind of location where a workstation costs several thousand tens of thousands of Hong Kong dollars a month, the feeling of a single living room of almost two hundred square metres is something that the average person simply cannot imagine.

For the truly wealthy, they also simply do not care to buy residential properties developed by property developers like Thomson One, preferring to play unrestrictedly in their own properties without any restrictions.

Therefore, Liu Manqiong could not say whether she liked or disliked this house, except that the location, the traffic, the type of house and the floor level all met her current needs better.

After looking at it roughly once, Liu Manqiong said to Sister Xian, "Sister Xian, the decoration and space arrangement of this house is quite reasonable, the study and fitness area are already there, I live by myself, and there doesn't seem to be anything that needs to be changed."

Sister Xian nodded and asked her again, "What about the furniture? Are you still satisfied?"

"It's quite good." Liu Manqiong smiled slightly and said, "It's basically ready to move in with a bag."

Saying that, Liu Manqiong added to her, "Sister Xian, it's hard for you to take me shopping for some household items and a change of underwear later on, I want to stay here tonight."

Sister Xian asked tentatively, "Miss Liu, why don't you stay at the Purple Mountain Villa tonight, there are plenty of rooms there ....."

Liu Manqiong shook her head slightly and said, "Grandpa and Grandma Qiu are old, I'd rather not bother them, I'll stay here for one night today and then go back to Hong Kong Island tomorrow after signing the contract."

Sister Xian spoke up, "Actually, both Mr. and Mrs. Qiu like you very much, they must be very happy if you can go over to keep them company."

Liu Manqiong pondered for a moment and spoke, "Let's do it this way, first pay the final payment and take the keys, then buy some household items and bring them over, in the evening I'll go and have dinner with Grandpa Qiu and chat with them after dinner, and I'll come back when they've rested."

Saying that, Liu Manqiong turned her head to look out of the window at the river again and spoke, "I haven't stayed by the river for a while, I really want to see the night view here at night."

"Good." Sister Xian nodded understandingly and said, "Then I'll go with you to buy some things first, and we'll go back after we've set up."

"Thank you Sister Xian ....."

Meanwhile, downstairs, Tanaka Koichi took his mobile phone and made a video of the whole house and sent it to Ito Nanaeko who was packing her luggage in Kyoto, followed by a voice message and said with some shame, "Sorry Miss, I really couldn't find a villa to your liking these days, are you still satisfied with this flat? "

Ito said with a smile, "It looks fine, let's go with this one, it's really hard for Tanaka-san to look around in such a short time."

Chapter 5283

Evening.

After settling in her newly purchased household necessities, Liu Manqiong, together with Sister Xian, returned to the Purple Mountain Villa.

When they found out that Liu Manqiong had been hired, both Qiu Ying Shan and his wife were very happy, and had their maids set up an elaborate celebration table at home to celebrate Liu Manqiong's success.

To Qiu Ying Shan's surprise, Lin Wan Er, who has never been a fan of the party, was happy to join in.

At the dinner table, Qiu Ying Shan said to Liu Manqiong, "Manqiong, in future, if you come to work in Jinling, if you don't have anything to do, why don't you simply stay at Zijinshan Villa and let Ah Xian arrange a big room for you!"

Liu Manqiong hurriedly said, "Grandpa Qiu, this afternoon Sister Xian accompanied me to buy a house in Jinling, and the school will also provide me with a single flat in the future."

Qiu Ying Shan said in surprise, "Already bought a house? It's safer to buy a house outside, rather than living here, and it's more convenient for you to live here as you have A Xian and the girls to look after you."

The old lady Qiu also agreed, "Yes, Manqiong, living here will save you a lot of trouble, you don't have any family or friends in Jinling apart from us, and it's really not safe for a girl to live outside by herself."

Liu Manqiong explained, "The security in the community I bought is quite good, besides, the mainland is much better than Hong Kong, and no one knows my identity here, so there should be no danger."

Qiu Ying Shan knew that her mind was made up, so he nodded and said, "In the future, if you want to stay in Jinling, if you need any help, don't be polite to us, if we are not here, you can find Sister Xian as well."

If we're not here, you can call Sister Xian." He added, "I'll transfer some more people from Malaysia in the next few days, so that we can respond quickly if anything happens."

Lin Wan'er had no more manpower at the moment, as the exposure in Northern Europe had left her with only one loyal old servant who had not yet arrived in the country, and the rest were people like Sun Zhidong and Qiu Ying Shan.

In order to ensure Lin Wan'er's safety, Qiu Yingshan and Sun Zhidong have reached an agreement to secretly deploy troops to Jinling in the near future to ensure Lin Wan'er's safety.

To Qiu Ying Shan, since Liu Manqiong was his own worldly granddaughter, it was definitely something that he would have to take more care of in the future.

Although Liu Manqiong felt that she would not be in any danger, she still said to Qiu Ying Shan with great gratitude, "Thank you, Grandpa Qiu!"

At this moment, Lin Wan'er, who was curious, asked, "Sister Manqiong, where did you buy your house?"

Liu Manqiong said, "I bought it in Townsend One in Jinling, it's not far from the school, it's only a ten-minute drive away."

Lin Wan'er faintly froze and muttered, "Townshend First Class ah ....."

Ever since she found out Ye Chen's other identity in Jinling, Lin Wan'er knew Ye Chen's address, she didn't expect that Liu Manqiong had bought it in the same neighborhood.

But she didn't feel surprised when she thought about it, after all, Liu Manqiong was running after Ye Chen, and it was normal to buy in the neighborhood where Ye Chen lived.

Liu Manqiong thought Lin Wan'er was a little curious about her newly bought house, so she said with a smile, "If Xiao Wan is interested, I can show you around, the house is not very big, but it's better because the river view is not bad."

Lin Wan'er said with a smile, "Sister Manqiong, I'll go with you after school starts, I'm lazy and homely these days, I don't want to go anywhere."

Lin Wan'er didn't dare to go to Tangchen Yijin.

After all, it was just too close to Ye Chen.

Although she had come to Jinling just for Ye Chen, before school started, she was most afraid of seeing Ye Chen.

When Liu Manqiong saw Lin Wan'er's polite refusal, she didn't think much of it and just said with a smile, "If you don't want to go back over here occasionally after school starts, I can reserve a room for you."

"Sure." Lin Wan'er said with a smile, "Then it's a deal."

After dinner, Liu Manqiong said goodbye to Qiu Yingshan and his wife and Lin Wan'er, and was sent by Sister Xian to Tangchen Yijin.

Chapter 5284

When she arrived at the first house she had bought in Jinling, Liu Manqiong suddenly had a feeling of stability.

She opened the window of the viewing balcony and lay on the edge of her bed, looking at the night view along the Yangtze River and the slow-moving ships on the river, blowing the evening breeze coming from the river, and her mind was instantly opened up.

The view from the top floor is excellent, and the fact that the house is on the side of a penthouse, so there is basically no noise disturbance from the neighbours, makes Liu Manqiong feel that it is good value for money.

She was even tempted to stay in Jinling for a few more days because of this.

However, on second thought, she thought it would be better for her to leave Jinling as soon as possible after she had signed a contract with Jinling University, and she was thinking of telling Ye Chen that she had been hired by Jinling University after she had officially started work.

Meanwhile.

Right in the villa area of Townsend One, Ma Lan had finally survived the 72-hour blockade of the platform.

When she put on heavy makeup and picked up her phone once again to start live streaming, her live stream, once again, encountered the same problem as three days ago, no one was watching.

This time, although there were some netizens who entered the live stream by mistake and said some sarcastic and ironic words, but Ma Lan had the experience of being banned last time, and this time, she dared not chase after people and scold them.

But not being able to fight back meant that he couldn't get his anger out.

After half an hour of live streaming, not a single follower had been added, but instead, he was infuriated by these offensive netizens.

Depressed to the core, Ma Lan closed his live stream for a while, and then started to brush up on other people's live streams, trying to learn from them how to broadcast and what to broadcast in order to have enough followers.

After looking around, Ma Lan found that the popular non-strip live streams had a variety of live content, but each one had its own characteristics, such as live game playing, live outdoor activities, live some kind of talent, and even live teaching.

Looking at them all, Ma Lan felt that she could not do any of them.

The main reason for this is that she doesn't have any talent at all, she can only sing, and she doesn't sing very well, not enough to make people stop and listen.

After pondering and pondering, Ma Lan still couldn't find any breakthrough point, which made her feel a bit reticent.

After swiping around the live stream on her phone, she couldn't help but sigh, "Grandma, it looks like I'm not really cut out for this ....."

While depressed, she couldn't help but sigh: "It doesn't matter if I can't eat this bowl of rice, the key is not to let her Qian Hongyan eat so painfully! Seeing her eat and drink to her heart's content is worse than losing a million dollars!"

As she was depressed, she slipped her finger into another live broadcast room.

There were more than 30,000 viewers in this live broadcast room, and the anchor was a middle-aged man who looked plain and ordinary, and this man was saying in an impassioned voice: "Family members, Brother Yong, I have always fought fakes with my life, and all the family members in the live broadcast room should know this. She is actually not at all a beautiful student, the name she is using now is not her real name, and her real education is actually a secondary school in a small city in the south, and she was expelled for fighting before she even graduated! Now when the number of viewers in the live stream reaches 50,000 and the number of likes reaches 3 million, I will immediately release the evidence!”

Someone in the comment section immediately sent out a message, “This beautiful doctor, I have long suspected that something is not right with her, I asked her to do a basic calculus question in her live stream last time, and she actually pulled me out directly! Support Brother Yong to expose her!”

Immediately, there was a large number of people posting various comments in the comment section, basically questioning the beautiful doctor that the male anchor was talking about.

On top of that, there were a large number of pop-ups giving out gifts, looking dazzling and lively.

When Ma Lan saw this, he instantly lit up and thought to himself, “Even if you fight fakes, you can get fans live? Then I might as well fight fake Qian Hongyan!”

Chapter 5285

Ma Lan, who had a flash of insight, realised almost immediately that the idea that had suddenly popped into his head was extremely feasible.

Qian Hongyan was now a very popular internet celebrity, and the number of people online in her live stream was always in the tens of thousands, sometimes even reaching 20,000 to 30,000. If she could fake such a popular big anchor, she would definitely attract a lot of fans’ attention.

Moreover, for Ma Lan, beating up Qian Hongyan, even if she doesn’t get any fans, no income or any benefits, she is still willing to do it in a million ways.

If someone told her that she should pay 100,000 yuan for Qian Hongyan to lose her reputation and become penniless, she would definitely grit her teeth and take out the 100,000 yuan.

That’s why she felt that her idea was like killing two birds with one stone, killing two birds with one stone, which was absolutely fantastic.

As soon as she thought of this, Ma Lan was immediately energised, her mind began to calculate and her mouth kept muttering, “How can I beat that bitch Qian Hongyan?”

Then, she whispered to herself, “The best way is to secretly film her actual state after she goes off air, so that people will know that she is not only a big liar, but also very rich now, and then put these video clips on the internet, one by one, ten by ten, her Qian Hongyan’s reputation will naturally stink in the street!”

Thinking of this, Ma Lan slapped her thigh in an instant, annoyed: “Oh my god, I’m so stupid! She Qian Hongyan was so stupid before! The big G of Mercedes-Benz came to me to get rid of me, took me out for high consumption, and even showed me her contract for booking Rolls-Royce Cullinan. I took the video, and taking it out now will definitely bring her down Qian Hongyan!”

Realizing that he had missed a good opportunity to bring Qian Hongyan down, Ma Lan was so depressed that he picked up his mobile phone almost without thinking and called Qian Hongyan, wanting to ask her out again to spend some money and seize the opportunity to leave evidence to expose Qian Hongyan.

However, Qian Hongyan's phone could not be reached, and after calling several times, Ma Lan did not get through, and then she remembered that Qian Hongyan might have already started her live broadcast.

Thinking of this, she hurriedly opened the short video website and searched for Qian Hongyan's account on the search bar. Although she had been blocked by the administrator of Qian Hongyan's live broadcast room and could not watch Qian Hongyan's live broadcast, she searched for Qian Hongyan's account. When using Yan account, you can still see the prompt that Qian Hongyan's account is live.

When she thought that she couldn't even see a ghost in her own live stream, but Qian Hongyan's live stream had tens of thousands of family members who were in the dark and were constantly sending money to Qian Hongyan, she felt even more depressed and wanted to die.

The more bored she was, the more she couldn't stay at home, so she went downstairs alone with her crutches and went around the villa where Qian Hongyan lived, her eyes always looking above the villa, as if she was looking for an opportunity to strike.

The more I looked at it, the more itchy I got. Looking at my crippled leg, I couldn't help but sigh: "Damn bad luck, if my leg hadn't been crippled, I could have climbed up the balcony quietly and taken a mobile phone to capture Qian Hongyan's state at home after she went off the air. .... but now that my leg is crippled, it's impossible for me to climb up there even if I'm exhausted ....."

When I was looking at the building and sighing, an angry shout suddenly came from behind Ma Lan: "Ma Lan! What are you doing sneaking around here, you bitch!"

Ma Lan's body shivered with fear at the rude voice, and she felt as if her body suddenly ached all over.

The reason why she was so scared was because this voice had been Ma Lan's nightmare for a long time in the past.

When she had been sent to prison for stealing Ye Chen's money, she had been tormented by the owner of this voice every day until she doubted her life.

The owner of this voice was Zhang Guifen, who was in the same cell as Old Lady Xiao and was now living under the same roof.

When Zhang Guifen was released from prison, although she had been hurt by Mrs Xiao's family, she did not have a good impression of Ma Lan, so when she saw her wandering around her villa, she guessed that she had no good intentions, so she immediately scolded her.

Chapter 5286

Ma Lan looked back at Zhang Guifen, who was a big, thick woman, with her two sisters, Dong Yuling and Li Yueqin, by her side.

At this moment, Dong Yuling was also looking at Ma Lan with an angry face and asked in a cold voice, "Ma Lan! What are you thinking about here?"

Li Yueqin echoed her words, "Yes! Speak up! Or I'll kill you!"

Ma Lan was scared out of her wits and her first thought was to run.

But when she thought that she was still limping, she couldn't outrun the three of them in any case.

But if she shouted for her son-in-law to save her, she might alert Qian Hongyan, who was on the air upstairs.

If Qian Hongyan knew that she was sneaking around the villa, she might be able to guess her intentions, and if she started to watch out for herself, wouldn't she have no chance to take her down?

At this point, Ma Lan's mind was racing and her eyes were spinning.

When Zhang Guifen saw that she was looking at her with furtive eyes and did not say anything for half a day, she immediately grabbed her by the collar and gave her a big slap with her hand, saying angrily, "I'm tired of seeing you, get lost!"

Ma Lan was angry and scared after the slap, but when she saw that all three of them were wearing the same t-shirt with the logo of the same cleaning company on their chests, and they all looked tired, she had a bright idea and said, "Gui Fen, Gui Fen, listen to me, you were kind to her at first, and now Xiao The old lady's family has become so rich overnight that they can feed and clothe the three of you with a little bit of money from their mouths.

When Zhang Guifen heard these words, she was stunned.

It had to be said that Ma Lan's words had hit her in the heart.

When the three of them were released from prison together and received by the Wu family's limousine all the way to this top villa in Jinling, they all thought that it was the work of Old Mrs. Xiao, and were extremely grateful to her.

But who would have thought that when she saw them, Mrs. Xiao would be so disgusted that she would even speak ill of them, and would immediately throw the three of them out of the house.

At that moment, Zhang Guifen's heart was particularly hard.

When she found out that the house was not owned by the Xiao family and that the three of them could live here, she was no longer polite to the Xiao family.

For a long time, Xiao's family had always been overshadowed by them. Not only were they not as well fed and housed as they were, but they were also subservient to the three of them at home, fearing a beating.

Although the three of them were not very capable, they worked hard at their jobs as housekeepers and their quality of life was assured.

Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong, the two invalids, could not even afford to eat in bed, not to mention taking medicine, and the old lady was often so hungry that she had to stick her chest to her back.

Later on, Xiao Weiwei went out to work as a courtesan, and she was cheated by others. The meagre salary she earned was not enough for the family.

But suddenly, from one day onwards, Xiao Weiwei made more money and the family's standard of living rose rapidly, leaving the three of them behind very quickly.

If that was all, Zhang Guifen would not have been too far behind, but the key was that these days, somehow, Xiao's family was getting richer and richer, especially Qian Hongyan, who had bought a Mercedes Benz worth two to three million dollars, making Zhang Guifen envious of them.

She couldn't understand why Xiao's family, who were already so down and out, could still rise up again, and rise so high!

When she thought of this, Zhang Guifen was even more annoyed and her back teeth were clenched.

Ma Lan accurately caught her change and immediately knew that she had hit a sore spot in her heart.

So, she immediately lowered her voice and said incomparably serious: "Let me tell you, Guifen, the reason why the Xiao family can turn over a new leaf is because of the shameless, shameless daughter-in-law of Old Lady Xiao, Qian Hongyan, who even conceived a child with a wild man outside last year!

Chapter 5287

"Qian Hongyan?!"

When Zhang Guifen heard this, her eyebrows immediately wrinkled like Zhang Fei, and she asked in a stern voice: "Just that broken shoe of hers, how can she still turn over? Does she sleep with others by selling her sex?"

Ma Lan sneered, "Sell her sex? Just her? She's the kind of girl that sells her sex for a couple of doughnuts at most!"

After saying that, Ma Lan took a look around and upstairs and said, "Guifen, this is not the place to talk, let's go over there and talk, don't let Xiao's family hear us upstairs!"

Zhang Guifen immediately gave a wink to her two best sisters, and Dong Yuling, understanding, immediately went forward and helped Ma Lan with her, quickly walking to the far side of the fence.

Seeing that there was no need to worry about being overheard by Xiao's family, Ma Lan stopped them and said, "Three, three, let's talk here!"

Hearing Ma Lan's words, Zhang Guifen stopped in her tracks first, and the other two also stopped immediately.

Then Zhang Guifen asked Ma Lan, "Ma Lan, tell me, how did Qian Hongyan's broken shoe turn over?"

Ma Lan said with righteous indignation, "That shameless bitch is a fucking thief! She's now doing live-streaming on a short video platform! Tens of thousands of viewers follow her every day, buying whatever she pushes, and the money goes into Qian Hongyan's pockets! She makes tens of millions of dollars a year!"

"What?!" Zhang Guifen cursed angrily, "How can that misogynistic cunt make tens of millions a year? Is God blind or is he in trouble?"

Ma Lan, with a look like I know you best, slapped his leg and said, "Guifen! I'm not going to lie, we're both really thinking the same thing! You think that bitch Qian Hongyan, who is fifty years old, can still get pregnant with a wild man and infect her husband with sexually transmitted diseases, she's the kind of person who should be struck dead by lightning in summer. Don't you think so?"

Without thinking, Zhang Guifen said, "That's right! There are two kinds of people I hate the most in my life: bastards who are not filial to their parents, and bitches who don't behave like women!"

As she said that, Zhang Guifen asked her, "You haven't said how she Qian Hongyan got rich?"

Ma Lan looked like she was getting close and asked her, "Guifen, do you usually watch live streaming? It's the kind of live streaming that sells goods online!"

Zhang Guifen shook her head and said self-deprecatingly, "We work at the owner's house all day long and rarely touch our mobile phones, so we don't have time to watch live streaming, and besides, even if we did, we don't have money to buy it."

Ma Lan said, "Guifen, give me your phone, I'll find Qian Hongyan's live broadcast for you, make sure you'll be even more angry after watching it!"

Zhang Guifen took out a few hundred yuan Android phone from her pocket, unlocked it and handed it to Ma Lan.

Ma Lan immediately opened the short video software and searched for Qian Hongyan's live streaming room.

At this moment, Qian Hongyan was sitting on the bed, feeding Xiao Changqian while saying with a sniffle and a tear, "Family members, Yanzi is not going to hide it from you, since my husband was paralyzed, he has not been able to eat anything nutritious, he is starving in bed, his skin and bones look heartbreaking... .."

Chapter 5288

She handed the bowl she was holding to the camera and said, "Thanks to the company that provides this nutritious rice paste, they knew about my family's difficulties and sent us a batch of nutritious rice paste, and since my husband ate this rice paste, he has recovered a lot."

Xiao Changqian's mouth was open and he even raised his neck to reach the rice spoon in her hand.

Qian Hongyan hurriedly fed a spoonful into his mouth and continued, "There are five flavours of this nutritious rice paste, which can be eaten with just one flush of boiling water. The company's products are available in 12 packs, normally sold in the market for 108, now in Yanzi live, Yanzi to the family to get the benefits of 99 yuan two boxes, a total of 24 packs, in addition to send a box of 6 packs of travel set, that is 99 yuan can buy 30 packs, very cost-effective!

Said, Qian Hongyan continued: "Because this price is too cheap, manufacturers are not willing to give too much stock, Yanzi here a total of only 20,000 single, buy out no more replenishment orders family members, so please also need everyone to seize the time, come, let's get on the car now!"

Zhang Guifen looked at the video dressed in rags Qian Hongyan, as well as that ragged room and furniture, surprised, "This ..... this is too fucking fake! That room of theirs was luxurious before, how did it get like this?"

"On purpose!" Ma Lan said without thinking, "This bitch is now telling the public that she is supporting a paralyzed husband, a paralyzed son and an 80 year old mother-in-law by herself on live streaming. She earns tens of thousands of dollars a day from live streaming!"

Zhang Guifen's fists clenched in anger and she gritted her teeth, "How shameless! She has hands and feet, she can earn money by hard work, just like us! But she's doing this kind of scam on the internet, this kind of person should be shot!"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Ma Lan seemed to have found her soulmate and agreed, "Shooting her is too cheap, I say she should be executed!"

Zhang Guifen was surprised and asked, "What does it mean?"

Ma Lan said, "It means to let the dogs bite her to death! Then the dogs will eat her and turn her into shit!"

Zhang Guifen's expression flinched, not realising that Ma Lan was much more ruthless than herself.

Seeing that the mood was in place, Ma Lan hurriedly came up and said, "Guifen, let me tell you, I have a good plan now, as long as this plan is carried out, it will definitely make Qian Hongyan lose her reputation and bring the family back to their original form!"

As she said that, she looked at her crippled leg and sighed, "Ai! Unfortunately, my leg was broken by Old Lady Xiao and that Xiao Weiwei when I was in prison, and it has fallen ill, and I'm not too sharp now.

The three of us will help you carry it out. The four of us will join forces to deal with Qian Hongyan, that broken shoe!"

Ma Lan was waiting for these words, so she hurriedly asked in surprise, "Guifen, is it true what you said? Are you really willing to help me?"

Zhang Guifen said coldly, "I have long been displeased with Old Lady Xiao's family! The enemy of an enemy is a friend, so we are also considered comrades in arms!"

Ma Lan said excitedly, "That's great! With the three of you joining us, we will be able to successfully complete this plan and ensure that Qian Hongyan will return to her former life overnight!"

Zhang Guifen said without hesitation, "No problem! Just say it!"

Chapter 5289

Although Ma Lan is not a smart person, she definitely has a lot of ideas to fix people.

She had a way to expose Qian Hongyan, but she had difficulty with her own legs and the risk was too great for her alone.

The three of them lived under the same roof as Qian Hongyan's family every day, and they were strong and powerful, so it would be much easier for them to climb up and down than for themselves.

So she hurriedly greeted the three of them and whispered her plan in detail to them.

After hearing Ma Lan's plan, they all felt that it was very feasible, so Zhang Guifen patted her chest and said, "Ma Lan, don't worry, leave it to the three of us, we will definitely do it according to what you said."

After saying that, she added, "But you must also promise us that after we have done what you want, you must also bring down Qian Hongyan as you have said!"

Ma Lan said without thinking, "Guifen, don't worry about that, no one in the world is more eager for her to fall than me, I will definitely do my best to bring her down!"

Zhang Guifen nodded in satisfaction and then said, "Then we will go back and start working on it now, we will inform you of any progress at the first time."

Ma Lan hurriedly said with an enthusiastic face, "Aigoo Guifen, let's add a WeChat directly, we are all neighbours, we won't see each other in the future, it's convenient to add a WeChat!"

Zhang Guifen frowned and said with some caution, "It's not necessary to add WeChat, I have a phone number, so I can call whenever I have a situation."

I don't know what she told you at the time, but I guess she must have said that my daughter-in-law was not filial to her mother-in-law, that I had moved out of the villa and wouldn't let her live in it, and that I was not a good mother-in-law. I also had to say that I kicked her out of the house and called the police to arrest her and put her in jail, didn't I?"

Zhang Guifen subconsciously nodded her head.

When she was in prison, Mrs. Xiao had indeed accused Ma Lan of many crimes, but the core of her accusations were the three points Ma Lan herself had mentioned.

Ma Lan gave a bitter smile and sighed, "Ai! I know that you are a filial daughter and you can't stand to see people not being filial to their parents and in-laws, but have you ever thought about what a good person she is, old lady Xiao? Have you ever thought about the fact that you helped this old woman so much in prison? She just sees you as a pawn to be used, using your kindness to achieve her goal of fighting against me, but she fundamentally despises you."

Ma Lan's words hit the heart of Zhang Guifen's wound.

When Ma Lan saw that her expression was not right, she continued to strike while the iron was hot, "So now you think about it again, how can I be filial to such an old woman? If I let her live in our house, it won't be long before she turns around and kicks me out!"

After hearing this, Zhang Guifen also felt that Ma Lan had a point.

After getting along with Old Lady Xiao, she also realized that this old lady was not an easy person to live with, nor was she a good man or woman.

In this way, when Zhang Guifen looked at Ma Lan in front of her, she suddenly realised that her face was not so repulsive anymore.

When she thought of how she had been deceived and used by that old woman in prison, she felt even more resentful, so she naturally saw Ma Lan as her ally.

So she took out her mobile phone and said to Marashi, "Come on Marashi, let's add a WeChat friend."

Ma Lan was naturally flattered and said, "Fine, fine, I'll sweep you up!"

Zhang Guifen said to her two sisters, "Let's add Ma Lan as a friend too, so that we can communicate more easily in the future."

Chapter 5290

Ma Lan said without thinking, "That's great, I'll start a group right away and add all four of us to it, so that we can communicate with each other in the future if anything happens."

Soon, with the creation of a WeChat group called "Destroy Qian Hongyan, eliminate the evil for the society", the four of them immediately started to split up.

Ma Lan went home on crutches, while Zhang Guifen immediately headed for the villa where she lived.

When they arrived at the downstairs of the villa, Zhang Guifen looked up at the rooms on the first floor and whispered to the other two, "They have really closed the windows and doors. You go to the door of their room, plug in the headphones of your mobile phones, stick that microphone under the doorway and record their voices inside, send all this to Ma Lan later, she said she will use her mobile phone to mash the picture and sound together."

"Okay Sister Gui Fen!"

The two agreed in unison and then rushed into action.

At this moment, in the bedroom on the first floor, Qian Hongyan was still broadcasting live.

She had prepared ten products for tonight, and had now reached the last one.

As today is not a weekend, the traffic is not too heavy, so Qian Hongyan also plans to go off air early to rest, don't look at her daily live broadcast only two or three hours, but these two or three hours almost all have to talk non-stop, nerves and attention must be tense all the time don't make a mistake, don't reveal a flaw, so a live broadcast down, people are still very tired, so she also hope to hurry to finish speaking to hurry off air to rest.

At this moment, she did not know that Zhang Guifen, who was physically fit, had climbed down from the third floor terrace to the terrace of her room on the first floor. Fun Corner

Although the curtains of the bedroom on the first floor were drawn tightly, the sliding door's screen curtain revealed an inverted v-shaped vacancy off the middle.

For a mobile phone camera, as long as it was close enough, even if it was only a finger-thick hole, it would be enough to capture the full picture inside.

A few minutes later, Qian Hongyan finally finished broadcasting the last product, and once the live-streaming families had snapped up all the stock, she said with a pious face, "Thank you to all the families for supporting Yanzi this evening, Yanzi is able to support her paralysed husband and son, as well as her 80-year-old mother-in-law, thanks to the help of her family members. Thank you for your help!”

Xiao Changqian, who was paralysed in bed, also said in a vague voice: “Thank you ..... thank you all .....”

Xiao Hailong choked on the other bed and said, “Thank you all for your help, when I recover, I will definitely bow and kowtow to you all in the live room!”

Old Mrs. Xiao, who was dressed in rags, also came to the camera trembling at this time, and bowed her hands non-stop, “The old lady is here to thank everyone ..... Thank you!”

When everyone had finished saying thanks, Qian Hongyan reluctantly said goodbye to her family once again, and then closed the live broadcast room.

The moment the live broadcast room closed, she immediately reached out and pulled off the wig she was wearing on her head, revealing a head of very elaborate chestnut curly hair, and complained discontentedly, “Damn, this shitty head covering is too damn hot!”

Xiao Hailong said, “Mom, why do you think you have to perm your hair?”

Qian Hongyan angrily rebuked, “What the hell do you know! Your mother and I are at least worth tens of millions of dollars now. You can’t just let me drive around in a Mercedes G and look like a hired gun, can you? Besides, now that the live stream is becoming more and more popular and has more and more viewers, I must find a way to change my makeup when I go out, the more different I look from the live stream, otherwise what if the live stream viewers find out outside?”
