

Ye Chen 5301

Chapter 5301

Xiao Churan found Ma Lan's short video account, pointed to the account name and said to Ye Chen, "Look at this exposure account, it's called Fight Fake Fighter Ma Lan, isn't this her"

Ye Chen froze, and then laughed: "Then it seems that Ma has found an ally, This video must have been taken by her instructing an ally, to say that it's not good that one person is taking the video outside and one person is secretly recording inside, otherwise the sound can't be so clear."

Saying that, he suddenly remembered something and added, "It wouldn't be the three people who live with Qian Hongyan, right?"

Xiao Churan said in a moment of some panic: "Mom has exposed Eldest Aunt so thoroughly, Eldest Aunt must hate her to death, you say she did something wrong, why must she make enemies for herself everywhere"

"This" Ye Chen smiled sarcastically twice and said, "Mom's character and you do not know, Qian Hongyan in front of her so proud, she probably long ago almost angry, maybe this time has been looking for opportunities to revenge. "

"Hey" Xiao Churan sighed and said helplessly, "It's true that Eldest Aunt is quite bottomless in doing this, but to be honest, I don't want Mom to offend people everywhere... .."

Ye Chen said comfortingly, "Honey, it's useless to talk about this now, after all, the video has already been sent out, in the present situation, I think we can only let the troops come and go, let's take one step and see what happens, but don't worry, with me here, Qian Hongyan won't dare to do anything to mum, at most she will only come and curse the streets, if she has a hundred guts, she won't dare to come in and touch mum. She wouldn't dare to touch a finger on her."

The sound of a roaring engine and an ear-splitting braking sound instantly shattered the calmness of the neighborhood under the night.

Qian Hongyan brought the Mercedes-Benz G to a sharp stop in front of Ye Chen's house, and then jumped out of the car, hysterically, pounding the door with both hands and making loud banging sounds, while cursing under her breath, "Ma Lan! You son of a bitch, get your ass down here and I'll kill you!"

Ma Lan opened a crack in the curtain and saw Qian Hongyan banging on the door like a mental patient, so she couldn't help but laugh out loud.

At such a time, Ma Lan was not afraid at all, so she turned on the video function on her mobile phone and pushed her way up to the terrace with her crutches.

When he arrived at the terrace, Ma Lan looked at Qian Hongyan from above and asked with a smile, "Aiyo Hongyan ah, what's wrong with you? Why are you shouting at my doorstep instead of enjoying yourself in your hotel at night?"

When Qian Hongyan saw Ma Lan's dejected look, she was so angry that she almost vomited blood and yelled hysterically, "Ma Lan, are you still a fucking human being? I've fucking pissed you off, and you're fucking filming me and exposing it on the internet!"

Ma Lan said disdainfully, "Oh, look at you, I'm a fighter now! I don't hold any personal grudges against anyone, but you've been fooling the public with your goods, so as a fighter against counterfeiting, it's my duty to expose you!"

Qian Hongyan was furious, jumping to her feet and cursing, "Fuck you, fake fighter! I don't know what you're like, but I don't know what you're like! You're the only one in the world who doesn't like other people! You're the only one in the world who can't stand to see other people do well! You're just pissed off that I'm making money and you feel bad! That's why you're trying to fuck me up! Get down from there! I'll kill you, you son of a bitch!"

Ma Lan leaned over the railing and said in a serious voice while surreptitiously filming the video, "Qian Hongyan, I've been doing the right thing all my life, and I can't have any sand in my eyes! Even if you put a knife on my neck, I will still expose you without any hesitation or reluctance!"

Seeing that Ma Lan had screwed herself over, yet she was still constantly self-aggrandizing, Qian Hongyan was even more furious and trembling all over!

She pointed at Ma Lan and cursed, "Damn it, you're not coming down, are you? If you don't come down, I'll go up and throw you off the terrace! If I don't kill you, I won't be a human being!"

Ma Lan looked disdainful: "Aiya, you scared me to death Qian Hongyan, you've earned some money as a black-hearted anchor, so you've become lawless and disregarded the law, haven't you? Do you know that trespassing is punishable by imprisonment? If you dare to come in, I'll call the police now!"

When Qian Hongyan heard these words, her arrogance suddenly shrivelled up a bit.

She was smarter than Ma Lan and knew that in this situation, she could hardly do anything out of the ordinary except to move her mouth and curse her mother.

Not to mention the fact that trespassing was against the law, Ma Lan's son-in-law, Ye Chen, was a man she could not afford to mess with.

Ye Chen was a very powerful man in Jinling, and many rich and powerful people followed him around, calling him Master Ye all the time.

However, at this moment, she had nowhere to vent her anger and was so devastated that she simply took off her shoes and slammed the door frantically, cursing under her breath, "Ma Lan! I'll kill you sooner or later if you cut off my money! I won't let you go even if I die! You come down here!!!"

For a while, the whole neighborhood was in a flurry of chickens and dogs.

However, this was after all an upscale neighbourhood, and when they heard the bickering and noise from below, no one broke into song, just a lot of people poking their heads out to watch the fun, and then they stopped asking questions.

Even Liu Manqiong, who lives on a high floor and is enjoying the river view, was attracted by the commotion inside the district. Seeing someone cursing in the district, she went to the south window and frowned at it, and vaguely saw a crazy woman outside someone's door in the villa area, so she simply closed all the south windows.

At this moment Qian Hongyan, like Li Yunlong without guns or cannons and alone to fight Ping'an County, eyed the sturdy door of Ye Chen's house and cursed hysterically.

Ma Lan was lying on the railing, although her ears were full of Qian Hongyan's unpleasant curses, but she looked at that Qian Hongyan's exasperated look and laughed out happily.

She stopped the video recording and took out a handful of melon seeds from her trouser pocket, and while stoned, she dropped the skin from the terrace, while looking at Qian Hongyan with a playful face, shaking her head and saying: "Qian Hongyan, to be honest, I like to see you want to kill me but you can't do anything about it, like a barking dog that can't get a bone. It's so much fun!"

Qian Hongyan was so angry at her words that she almost vomited blood, stamping her foot and cursing, "Ma Lan! I'll fucking rip your fucking mouth off!"

Ma Lan said contemptuously, "Ai yao yao Qian Hongyan, aren't you usually quite polite in your speech? Why is your quality so low now? You don't usually talk like this to your family members in the live broadcast!"

As she said that, Ma Lan imitated Qian Hongyan's tone of voice when she was live-streaming with goods, she cried and cried, "Family members! Come and help Yanzi! Yanzi's husband and son are both paralyzed! Her mother-in-law is starving to death! Yanzi is pregnant with the overseer's baby at the black coal mine, and she's about to give birth, and has no money to buy milk powder for the baby. Yanzi also has a venereal disease that she can't afford to treat, and she's itching and scratching all day, so she can't afford to see a doctor.

Qian Hongyan didn't expect Ma Lan to expose her shortcomings here, and the more she listened, the angrier she became.

Chapter 5303

Ma Lan reacted quickly and dodged it with a tilt of her head, turning towards Qian Hongyan and smiling playfully, "Hey, you're smashing your sister here too!"

Qian Hongyan gritted her teeth and took off her other shoe and smacked it, Ma Lan again tilted her head to dodge it perfectly, then looked at Qian Hongyan and laughed, "Aiya, still taking your grandma Ma as Bush?"

The President of the United States of America, George Bush, was thrown two shoes in a row by an Iraqi journalist, but both were easily dodged, and that scene has always been a classic scene in international news.

Qian Hongyan was so angry with Ma Lan that she had a shortness of breath and a dizziness in her brain because she was so angry. I've only been around for a few days and you're trying to screw me over! I've been bullied by old lady Xiao for half of my life, and now I've just turned over a new leaf, and you're screwing me over again.

Ma Lan said smilingly as she stomped on a melon seed, "Qian Hongyan, your mistake is that you shouldn't be so proud in front of your grandmother Ma, what? Even if I don't expose you, someone will expose you sooner or later."

Even if I don't expose you, sooner or later, someone will expose you." Said Ma Lan, smiling with narrowed eyes, "Oh, I don't know much about the law, so I don't know if this is considered fraud or not? If it is fraud, you are involved in a huge amount of money, so maybe the police will come and arrest you!"

When Qian Hongyan heard this, she was scared out of her wits!

As she drove all the way here, all she could think about was that her fortune had been cut off and she hated Ma Lan with a passion, but she had forgotten that after she was exposed, it seemed that her fortune was not just cut off!

The fact that she had fabricated her own story to deceive the public and concealed her income without filing her tax returns was a big hidden danger!

Just when Qian Hongyan was at a loss for words, a number of law enforcement vehicles, including the police, the tax department and the industry and commerce department, drove into the small area one after another.

The blue and red lights on the various law enforcement vehicles were flashing, blindingly bright, and scared Qian Hongyan so much that she shivered.

Among them, two police cars stopped in front of Qian Hongyan's Mercedes Benz, and several police officers stepped out of them and came in front of Qian Hongyan.

One of them looked at her and asked in a cold voice, "You are Qian Hongyan, right?"

Qian Hongyan looked at the police officer in front of her and asked with a pale face, "I am you What do you want?"

The officer said expressionlessly, "According to the situation exposed on the internet, we suspect that you are suspected of fraud and also may be involved in tax evasion, please come back with us to cooperate with the investigation!"

As soon as she heard that she had to cooperate with the investigation, Qian Hongyan knew that she was really going to be finished this time, and said in a panic: "Officer I didn't commit fraud... I'm not fraudulent... is there a mistake?"

The police officer said indifferently: "Whether there is a mistake or not, we will naturally know after the investigation is clear, hurry up and come with us!"

With that, the officer pointed to the villa in front of him and asked, "Is this your home? Do your husband, your son and your mother-in-law live here? They have to cooperate with us in the investigation too!"

Qian Hongyan was shivering with fear and dared not speak. Ma Lan, with an excited face on the balcony, pointed to the villa next door and said, "Officer Sergeant, this is my house, not hers, her house is next door! Her husband, her son and her mother-in-law, who you are looking for, all live next door too!"

Chapter 5304

Hearing Ma Lan's reminder, the officer nodded towards her and opened his mouth to ask, "Who are you? Do you know Qian Hongyan?"

Ma Lan smilingly said, "Yes! I'm the one who exposed her on the internet!"

After hearing this, the officer asked in surprise, "You're that fighter Ma Lan?"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Ma Lan laughed heatedly, "It's me it's me, I'm the fighter!"

The police officer gave her a thumbs up and complimented her, "Thank you, Ma Lan! If you hadn't exposed it, this Qian Hongyan would surely have cheated more people, and by then our city of Jinling would have lost face to her! On behalf of the people of Jinling, I thank you!"

Ma Lan was flattered and said, "Aiya, you're flattering, it's all what I should do!"

The police officer then instructed the people around him, "You guys take Qian Hongyan to the car first, then go to the villa next door and bring back all those people who appeared in the video to cooperate with the investigation!"

"Yes!" Several police officers immediately responded, and then two of them helped Qian Hongyan up and brought her into the police car.

Qian Hongyan was already terrified to the extreme, unable to control her constant trembling, and asked with trepidation, "That police officer how will I be The punishment ah? I'm not going to be sent to jail, am I"

The police officer said in a cold voice: "Whether or not you will be sent to jail depends on whether or not you have broken the criminal law, if so, we will not condone it and will definitely hand you over to the prosecutor's office for prosecution!"

Qian Hongyan was instantly scared and howled.

Although she had never been in prison, she had heard about the situation there, and was naturally terrified.

Ma Lan at this time watched her cry as she was stuffed into the police car, her heart was even more smug, looking at Qian Hongyan, shouting loudly, "Yanzi, go in and make sure to reform well ah Yanzi, don't fail to live up to the expectations of tens of thousands of injustice species on you!"

Qian Hongyan was so annoyed that she poked her head out of the police car and cursed, "Ma Lan you wait for me! I'll get you killed sooner or later!"

When the police officer heard this, he immediately scolded, "Qian Hongyan! Be careful what you say! Threatening someone's personal safety, even if you don't do anything, is still a crime that can be added to the crime of provoking and causing trouble!"

Qian Hongyan wilted in fear, so she could only look at Ma Lan with hatred, and then bowed her head honestly.

Soon, a few police officers arrived at the villa next door.

At this time, Old Lady Xiao was already asleep. Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong could vaguely hear noisy commotion outside, but as they were paralysed in bed, they could not go out to investigate for a while, so they could only lie in bed and discuss.

Xiao Changqian said to Xiao Hailong, "Hailong, why do I always think that the person making noise outside looks like your mother!"

Xiao Hailong said awkwardly, "Dad, Grandma didn't open a window for us when she left, and the window is so well sealed that I really can't hear it clearly, but just now I vaguely heard someone laughing, and it sounded like that smelly bitch Ma Lan!"

"Ma Lan?" Xiao Changqian said in surprise, "Is it possible that your mother is choking with her?"

"Can't be." Xiao Hailong muttered, "Didn't Mom leave long ago? She must have gone to the hotel, there's no way she's still arguing with Ma Lan at this time."

Xiao Changqian nodded approvingly, "It's also your mum has been gone for half a day, she's probably lying in the hotel enjoying herself!"

Xiao Changqian said with a depressed expression, "I'm angry when I think of your mother, she's not the one who is proud of making a little money, she's at home all day long, treating us like two dogs"

Chapter 5305

Xiao Hailong is also helpless, sighing: "Oh Dad our family now this situation you also know, Mom can take advantage of the live with goods to turn around, is already a blessing, as for her temper now, to be honest I have no good way, mainly because some time ago we hurt her too deeply, especially you and Grandma, that simply does not treat mum like a human being!"

Xiao Changqian said with a puff of anger, "I can't be blamed for that! It's not like you don't know what your mother did! Not only did she get pregnant with someone else's child, but she also infected me with a disease! What other man would be able to bear this?"

After saying that, Xiao Changqian said resentfully, "Even if that's not the case, but the fact that the incident was made at the hospital and everyone knew about it, I have no place to put my face!"

"Oh yes, there's also that bastard Ma Lan, hanging dozens of green hats on her balcony, that's a deliberate attempt to disgust me.

Xiao Hailong sighed: "Hey Dad, I'll be fair, I don't think it's all Mom's fault, if it wasn't for you two working together to screw Ma Lan, Ye Chen wouldn't have been able to send Mom to the black coal kiln. The first thing that happened was that you hid behind and let mom face Ye Chen alone. But after all she has done for you, you still dislike her, can she not be angry with you?"

Saying that, Xiao Hailong said glumly, "I also didn't think about this earlier, if I had thought about it earlier, I would never have been the same as you guys and treated mum coldly."

Xiao Changqian scolded in exasperation, "Hai Long, I know, now you just see that your mother has made it to the top and you want to be in her good graces."

Xiao Hailong hurriedly said in a serious manner, "I am not! I'm helping reason, not relatives!"

“Come on!” Xiao Changqian snorted coldly, “I still don’t know you? You’ve always been a mama’s boy! Not to mention your mother, even if Ma Lan has money for you to spend, you can still go and call her mother!”

Xiao Hailong said in a fury, “Dad, what you said is insulting! I’m being objective myself, you can’t blame Ma for these things per se, you have to reflect on the problem from yourself!”

“Fuck you!” Xiao Changqian said angrily, “You’re a fucking white-eyed wolf!”

Xiao Hailong hurriedly said, “Dad, this is all about your mentality, if you were more objective, you would have thought the same as I did.”

“The same as you!” Xiao Changqian said with contempt, “I know exactly what kind of goods you kid is!”

“Oops dad

“Don’t you call me dad, get out of the way!”

Xiao Hailong was also a bit angry and said sullenly, “You, you’re so stubborn! It doesn’t matter if you yell at me now, but if you don’t correct your mind in the future, the money mum earns in the future will definitely not be spent for you!”

Xiao Hailong said, “Don’t forget, today mum also said that your script is to have pancreatic cancer, pancreatic cancer is so fast that you will lose your life in a month or so, which means that from now on, at most in another month or two, mum will not need you in her live studio, if you still don’t satisfy mum by then, then you will have to suffer!”

When Xiao Changqian heard this, he immediately panicked a little.

He was naturally very upset when Qian Hongyan bad-mouthed him and even hit him, but when he thought of Qian Hongyan making money like water now, he couldn’t help but think about what Xiao Hailong had just said. If Qian Hongyan really didn’t want him to spend her money, then wouldn’t all these humiliations be for nothing? And if Qian Hongyan really didn’t want to spend her money, then wouldn’t all these humiliations be for nothing? And Qian Hongyan really wouldn’t be able to use herself soon, so if she kicked herself out, that would be the end of the story!

Thinking of this, he also made up his mind, thinking to himself: “It seems that I still have to get along well with Qian Hongyan in the future. As for the little bit of dignity of a man, it’s already time, so let’s do nothing...”

As soon as the words were out of his mind, there was a knock at the door and someone outside asked, “Is this the home of Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong?”

Chapter 5306

Hearing someone knocking on the door, Xiao Changqian subconsciously asked, “Who is it?”

Just as the words left his mouth, the door of the room was pushed open and several police officers walked in, one of them looked at Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong and asked, “Are you Qian Hongyan’s family?”

Xiao Changqian subconsciously said, "I am I am her husband."

Xiao Hailong also said, "I am her son"

The officer nodded and spoke, "Okay, get up and come with us and cooperate with us in an investigation."

"Cooperate with the investigation?" Xiao Changqian subconsciously asked, "Officer, is there something wrong with Qian Hongyan?"

The officer said indifferently, "Haven't you seen the video that was exposed online?"

"Video?" Xiao Hailong asked offhandedly, "What video? We don't know anything about the video ah"

The police officer asked with a look of disbelief, "The video that exposed you guys on the internet, haven't you guys seen it yet?"

"Expose us?" Xiao Changqian asked nervously, "What the hell is going on? I can't even understand what you're saying."

The officer said indifferently, "It doesn't matter if you don't know, we'll let you know when you get to our place, get up and come with us."

Xiao Changqian hurriedly said, "Comrade officer, my son and I are both paralysed and have not recovered yet, so we can't get up at all."

The officer asked him with a frown, "You're addicted to acting, aren't you? Don't think I don't know that you are all fake, aren't you just acting on purpose to show those netizens online so that they can place orders for things on your live stream? You all still dare to act in front of the police, you've got some nerve."

Xiao Changqian hurriedly said, "Comrade officer, this is a big misunderstanding. If you don't believe me, you can go to the hospital and investigate our files, they are all there."

The police officer frowned, recalling that the two of them had been lying on the bed since he entered, almost motionless, so he believed Xiao Changqian's words for a while.

He then said, "If you really have difficulty moving around, then I will call two people to come and help you into the car, and first go to the police station to cooperate with us for an investigation, and then we will send you two back after the investigation is over."

Xiao Changqian asked nervously, "Comrade officer, what is this all about? What did you just say someone exposed us for? Expose my wife for live-streaming with goods?"

"Yes." The officer nodded, took out his phone, opened the video and handed it to Xiao Changqian, saying indifferently, "Take a look at it yourself, after all, it's all your own words, and there is no question of others falsely accusing you or throwing dirty water on you."

Xiao Changqian stared at the video, watching it play automatically, and the first thing Qian Hongyan said in the video nearly scared his soul away!

Xiao Hailong, who was lying on the bed next door, could not see the picture, but he knew roughly what was going on by listening to the sound, and all of a sudden he was also scared and had goosebumps all over his body.

The officer didn't wait for the video to finish before retrieving his phone and asking in a cold voice, "Now do you know why you were told to go back and cooperate with the investigation?"

Xiao Changqian's forehead was already covered in cold sweat as he stammered, "But but my wife can't be considered a liar and cheat when she's on air, because both of us masters are really paralyzed and really don't have much money for treatment... .."

The police officer questioned him, "Your wife is driving a Mercedes big g, you tell me you don't have money to cure your illness, do you think I will believe you?"

Xiao Changqian hurriedly explained again, "Officer you misunderstood, I'm not talking about now I'm talking about when she just started live-streaming with goods at that time we were really poor, so she thought of making some money through Live broadcast way to earn some reward, did not expect the attention of more and more people, so she did a live broadcast with goods, earn money is also live generation or after the thing."

Chapter 5307

The police officer asked in a cold voice: "If you have earned so much money, why are you still constantly selling misery? That Mercedes big g of your wife should be enough to cover your grandparents' living expenses as well as medical expenses, right? After the kind-hearted netizens have helped you solve your problems, why don't you hurry to stop in moderation and why do you continue to consume the netizens' sympathy for your family? You obviously already have endless money to spend, yet you still talk about how miserable and tragic your family is in front of the camera, do you think this is right?"

Xiao Changqian was suddenly somewhat dumbfounded, he knew that this matter was talking out of turn, his family was not justified, just like the water drop fundraising, obviously 3,000 yuan to cure the disease, but had to raise 30 million on the water drop fundraising, this is definitely problematic, the police came to the door, also earlier he had envisaged a situation.

In desperation, he and his son Xiao Hailong had to be carried out of the room with the assistance of a number of police officers.

Along with them, they were taken out of the house, along with old lady Xiao, who had just fallen asleep but was awakened by a knock on the door.

The old lady still did not know what had happened and when she saw that the officers had carried her son and grandson out, she hurriedly asked, "Chang Qian and Hai Long, what's wrong with you two? What are the police doing arresting you?"

The police officer hastily explained, "Don't misunderstand, old granny, we are not arresting you three, but because all three of you are suspected of fraud, we want you three to come to the police station to cooperate with us for an investigation."

Old Mrs. Xiao was shocked and said, “Comrade officer, that daughter-in-law of mine did all the cheating, I didn’t do it, you mustn’t put me in jail too.”

Old Mrs Xiao, who had been in prison, did not feel any nostalgia for that place, but was instead filled with horror.

She knew that what her daughter-in-law had done was not very honourable and might even have been suspected of committing a crime, so the first thing she wanted to do was to hurry up and clear her name, so that she would not be dragged into it.

But the police officer still said patiently, “Old granny, don’t be too alarmed, we are just asking you to go over to assist in the investigation, and will send you back if there is nothing wrong.”

Old Mrs Xiao had no choice but to follow her to the police car.

Soon, several police cars quickly left Townsend One and headed for the city bureau.

After arriving at the City Bureau, the four members of Qian Hongyan’s family were interrogated in isolation. Due to their poor mental capacity, it did not take long for all four of them to give an account of what had happened.

What the officers did not expect was that Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong were really paralysed.

Originally, they thought that the paralysis of these two men should also be a fake, but now, through the hospital’s medical records and the visual examination of them, they could confirm that they were indeed paralysed.

This one made it a bit tricky for the officers.

If the two men’s cases had been forged, the family would have been guilty of fraud, but the two men’s cases were genuine, which proved that Qian Hongyan had not forged documents to deceive the public.

So, this fraud charge is really not quite sufficient.

However, there was a precedent for this kind of live bandwagon of selling misery and making up stories in terms of administrative punishment, which would generally result in seven to fifteen days of administrative detention, depending on the severity of the circumstances.

So the police quickly made a decision to first impose a ten-day detention on Qian Hongyan, while permanently blocking her short video platform account, and then transferring her to the procuratorial authorities to initiate public prosecution if they investigated evidence that she had allegedly committed a crime.

Although Xiao Changqian, Xiao Hailong and Mrs. Xiao were accomplices, the father and son were paralyzed in bed and Mrs. Xiao was old and had to take care of a couple of grandchildren, so the three were given a free pass and exempted from punishment.

She thought to herself, “I don’t care if I’m detained for 10 days, as long as my money is not confiscated.”

But as soon as she thought that, the tax man approached her and said, “Qian Hongyan, after we verified that your bank card has been credited with more than ten million dollars during this period of time, but you haven’t paid a single penny of personal tax, what’s going on?”

Chapter 5308

Individual anchors like Qian Hongyan can personally apply for cash withdrawals directly from the platform for income from live streaming with goods, but this money is all pre-tax and requires the anchor to file their own tax returns.

But Qian Hongyan has never filed a tax return because she couldn’t afford to lose a large amount of income.

Now that the tax department has come to her door, she panicked and could only hastily lie, “Comrade, you have seen the situation of my family. ...”

She said, with a flash of light, she hurriedly gave herself another filler: “You see I live with the goods actually did not take long, only a month in total, in fact, I was planning, when busy with these days to hurry to go to the tax return

The tax department staff knew she was definitely lying, but just as she said, she had only been live-streaming her goods for just over a month, and if she said she had forgotten or was too busy to file her tax return, there was nothing the tax department could do to prove that she was deliberately stealing taxes.

The tax officer then gave her a step up: “We do understand your situation, and there are indeed some objective factors, so we will not pursue whether there is tax evasion, you just need to declare your personal tax as soon as possible according to your actual income.”

Qian Hongyan subconsciously asked, “What is our tax rate for this personal tax?”

The tax officer explained, “This kind of live banding you do belongs to labour remuneration, and labour remuneration belongs to the comprehensive income of citizens, after the remittance, the tax rate applies a personal tax rate of 3% to 45%, given that your amount has reached the highest grade, so the 45% bracket applies.”

“Huh?” Qian Hongyan immediately cried: “45% ah this this is too much

The tax officer said seriously, “Qian Hongyan, it is the obligation of every citizen to pay personal income tax according to the law, and our personal tax is not high in the world, the highest level of personal tax in Europe and Japan are above 50%, and the United States is also 45%!”

Qian Hongyan wanted to die, but she was able to wrap her head around the situation at the critical moment, thinking: “Since my income has been exposed, paying taxes is definitely essential, those stars and anchors who cheat on their taxes are basically nothing good, and I must be the same

“And, I am considered less bad luck, after all, I make money for a short time, can use the excuse of forgetting to pay taxes or temporarily do not have time to pay taxes to themselves to make up for it, otherwise, when the time comes to pay back taxes plus fines, the amount will only be greater!”

At this thought, Qian Hongyan could only nod honestly and say, "I am willing to pay taxes! I'm willing to pay the tax! When I get out, I'll pay the tax first!"

At this moment, Qian Hongyan thought to herself that even if her income was cut off and she paid the income tax, she would still have at least a few million in cash in her hands.

The tax officer saw that her attitude was not bad, so he gave her some advice and left first.

Qian Hongyan, at this moment, also looked as if she had just escaped a calamity and sat down on the interrogation chair, letting out a long breath.

When the officer saw this, he said in a cold voice: "Qian Hongyan, I'll say it from the bottom of my heart, you have to thank the one who exposed you, Ma Lan, for exposing you today and letting you hang on to your horse, so you won't make a big mistake!"

Chapter 5309

After hearing this, Qian Hongyan was naturally unconvinced and indignant, and she thought to herself, "That bitch Ma Lan, she cut off my money and still wants me to thank her? I'll be sorry if I don't find a chance to kill her!"

Seeing her depressed face, the officer spoke up, "Did you think I was joking with you? To tell you the truth, we've seen the video of her exposing you. You said you were going to have your husband pretend to have pancreatic cancer, your son pretend to have uremia, and your mother-in-law pretend to be blind from crying. Fraud! At that point, the court might sentence you to ten years!"

"Ah?!" Qian Hongyan said in shock, "Will it take as long as ten years?"

The police officer said indifferently, "Once it is qualified as fraud, the amount of money involved in the case is already particularly huge, the starting sentence is ten years, and all the illegal gains will also be confiscated, if the amount of money you have increased in the meantime, you will definitely be sentenced to ten years or more."

Qian Hongyan was dumbfounded with fear, she didn't expect that just selling misery in a live broadcast with goods would have such serious consequences, and would even touch the criminal law.

However, although it was Ma Lan who indirectly helped Qian Hongyan to hang on to her horse, Qian Hongyan could not forgive her in the slightest, and she also secretly vowed in her heart that when she got out, she would definitely find a way to seek revenge on Ma Lan.

Meanwhile.

Qian Hongyan's video is still fermenting on the internet.

More and more people who had bought things from Qian Hongyan's live stream, seeing the video exposing Qian Hongyan, were instantly filled with righteous indignation.

They had originally ordered goods from Qian Hongyan's live-streaming room out of sympathy, and the poor quality of the goods had long made them very dissatisfied, but out of sympathy for Qian Hongyan, they had not asked for a refund before.

But now, when they saw Qian Hongyan's video, saw Qian Hongyan's ugly face, and even saw Qian Hongyan treating her own kind of clotheshorse as an injustice seed, they were also very dissatisfied in their hearts.

As a result, many people began to find the officials, hoping to return those things they had purchased from Qian Hongyan's live stream, and also hoping that the platform would impose heavy fines on Qian Hongyan.

The operating team of the short video platform held an emergency meeting at its headquarters in Yanjing.

During the meeting, the executives agreed that the platform must give consumers a satisfactory answer as soon as possible, not only to effectively calm their anger, but also to punish Qian Hongyan severely for her actions, so that other anchors would learn from this mistake and not make the same mistakes again.

The group's lead lawyer then made a suggestion that, in his opinion, the platform should make an upfront payment to these consumers by returning the full amount of all orders that were consumed then purchased in Qian Hongyan's live stream.

The total turnover of Qian Hongyan's live-streaming room is around 60 million RMB, so this amount of money is just a drop in the bucket for the platform.

If they refuse to pay, they will be sued, and if they win, they will have to pay compensation, and if they still refuse, the platform can apply to the court for enforcement.

In this way, Qian Hongyan must pay out all of her income from live-streaming with goods, and once she refuses to pay, she will be sanctioned by law, so that she can also greatly deter other live-streaming with goods anchors!

Qian Hongyan, who had just been sent to a detention center, was still glad in her heart that she could at least keep half of her income after she went out to pay back taxes.

But what she doesn't know is that every penny she earns will be refunded back in no small amount!

Chapter 5310

As the heat of the video continued to grow and Qian Hongyan was officially sentenced to detention, the Jinling police released the results of their handling of the matter to the community.

At first, when netizens heard that Qian Hongyan had only been sentenced to ten days of administrative detention, they were displeased with the outcome of the punishment.

However, the police then showed the public the medical certificates of Qian Hongyan's husband and son, who had indeed been paralysed in bed for several months and had not received active and effective treatment due to lack of money.

However, when netizens first saw this article, many were skeptical because in Ma Lan's subsequent expose, it was stated that the family actually lived in the famous Tomson Villa, which costs over 100 million dollars per unit, so people were questioning how Qian Hongyan could not give treatment to her father and son since she could live in Tomson Villa, even if her husband and son were really paralyzed.

The police also followed up by disclosing to the community the ownership of the villa where Qian Hongyan's family lived, proving that the villa was not owned by Qian Hongyan and Xiao's family, but by Jiangnan tycoon Wu Donghai.

Wu Donghai is a nationally renowned entrepreneur, and his son Wu Qi was even more famous nationwide some time ago, so when people learned that the villa was owned by Wu Donghai and that he had lent the villa to the family, they no longer questioned it in vain.

The people who knew the truth accepted the decision of the Jinling police to detain Qian Hongyan for ten days, and the Jinling police also joined hands with the video platform to permanently block Qian Hongyan's short video account from broadcasting live forever, which made everyone applaud.

After all, it had only been two to three hours since the video was released, and the fact that the Jinling police had completed the process in such a short period of time was indeed very quick.

And the short video platform officials didn't stay idle either.

They also quickly released the platform's decision on punishment.

This included a full refund of the consumer's purchase money, as well as officially launching a prosecution against Qian Hongyan, demanding that she return all of her live streaming earnings.

But since Qian Hongyan had already squandered a lot of the money she earned, it was definitely impossible for her to make up the hole. By then, Qian Hongyan would likely be listed as a defaulted executor by the court for not being able to fully refund her income, and at that time, Qian Hongyan would either have to find a way to make money to make up for these holes, or she would have to keep living a hard life as an old scoundrel.

Xiao Churan saw these reports and sighed helplessly at Ye Chen: "My mother this time again offended the eldest aunt you say are relatives, live so close, we do not see each other, how awkward in the future"

Ye Chen smiled and spoke, "This is not something we need to consider, besides, with mum's character, if we don't expose her, it is estimated that mum herself will be angry a good deal out."

Xiao Churan nodded gently, she knew her mother's character, if her eldest aunt's live-streaming with goods became better and better, her mother's mentality would definitely become more and more unbalanced.

At this time, Ma Lan, after seeing these punishment resolutions on her mobile phone, her whole heart was wildly happy and her hands were dancing with excitement.

She excitedly hugged her phone and shouted, "Hahahaha, Qian Hongyan, you have your day too! Didn't you drive a big G? Didn't you buy a Cullinan? Didn't you buy a villa? I'll see how you'll pay off these debts when you get out!" You're not the only one who is interested!
