

Ye Chen 5311

Chapter 5311

And in that WeChat group formed with Zhang Guifen's trio, Zhang Guifen also voiced out in the group, "Aiya Ma Lan, you're too good at this! You've brought Qian Hongyan down in one go!"

Li Yueqin also sent a message, "Yes, Ma Lan! That was a great move on your part!"

Dong Yuling laughed, "I've always been annoyed with them since I lived with them, but today I finally got it off my chest! You're the one who has the solution!"

Ma Lan grunted proudly, "Of course! I'm not bragging, it's just like playing with Qian Hongyan!"

Zhang Guifen sighed, "I don't know where I can buy firecrackers, if I could, I'd have to put up a firecracker to celebrate!"

When Ma Lan heard this, her eyes lit up, then she came out of the room with her crutches, moved to the door of Xiao Changkun's room, tapped on the door and shouted, "Xiao Changkun, open the door!"

Xiao Changkun, who had been still a bit dishevelled, said impatiently from inside, "What are you tapping for, I have to rest if you don't sleep!"

Ma Lan said impatiently, "Open the door when you're told to, what the hell is this nonsense! Open up!"

After saying that, he started to slap vigorously again.

Xiao Changkun had no choice but to open the door, looked at her and said in an annoyed manner, "What's the matter?"

Ma Lan looked at Xiao Changkun and saw that he was only wearing a pair of trousers, so she frowned and said, "Hurry up and put your trousers on, and drive me out to buy two firecrackers, I want to celebrate with a firecracker!"

"Set off firecrackers?" Xiao Changkun muttered discontentedly, "It's not New Year's Day, so what kind of firecrackers are you setting off?"

Ma Lan blurted out, "Qian Hongyan is getting cold, this is a big happy event that is celebrated by the whole world, so we have to set off cannons to celebrate?"

Xiao Changkun waved his hand impatiently and said, "You can't do that! The city doesn't even allow firecrackers during New Year's Eve, so you want to set them off now? Do you want to eat shit?"

Ma Lan said angrily, "I just want to set them off! Don't talk so much, just drive me out and see where I can get some!"

Xiao Changkun grunted, "You can release it if you want, but don't blame me for not reminding you when you are detained."

When Ma Lan heard about the detention, she was scared and panicked.

She had been detained in both China and the United States, so she was already a veteran and had nothing to fear.

But Qian Hongyan had just been detained, and she hated Ma Lan to the bone, so it seemed to Ma Lan that if she went in and was detained in the same place as her, she would tear herself alive.

So Ma Lan warned herself in her mind, "I'd better be honest in the meantime"

With this in mind, she had already decided to give up.

When Xiao Changkun saw her expression ashen, he deliberately sighed and said, "Aiya, since you want to let go so much, I'll take you to find out."

After saying that, he grabbed his trousers, picked up his car keys, and lifted his feet to put on his trousers while speaking, "Go, let's go now."

The corners of Ma Lan's mouth twitched twice and she waved her hand, "Oh forget it, I'm not going."

Xiao Changkun asked with a funny face, "Don't forget it! You said it yourself, it's a big celebration, so it's not right not to set off some fireworks?"

He said, "I have a friend who seems to be a fireworks dealer, he has a black warehouse in the suburbs that specialises in fireworks, let's go there directly, I'll get you some firecrackers with 100,000 rings, and get you some kickers, it'll be a great time!

When Ma Lan heard this, she shook her head and said, "Forget it, I'm not going, it's too late and I'm sleepy."

She said, waving her hand, "So what, hurry up and go to bed, I'll go back to the house too."

Xiao Changkun smiled and said, "Oh, look at you, come on! I've got my trousers on!"

Chapter 5312

After Ma Lan gave up on the idea of buying a cannon to celebrate, Xiao Weiwei rushed to the police station and led Xiao Changqian, Xiao Hailong and Old Lady Xiao out of the station.

Tonight, Xiao Weiwei was in a meeting at the company when she received the news of her mother's accident, so she drove a company business car and rushed home, but before she could reach home, the police officer's phone call reached her, asking her to go to the police station to collect them.

So she rushed to the police station again, and after doing the formalities, picked up her father, brother and grandmother.

On the way back, Xiao Weiwei drove, the old lady sat in the passenger seat, while Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong both sat limply in the back seat, bound by their seat belts.

In the car, the old lady Xiao kept whimpering and crying, chanting, "The Xiao family is finished completely finished"

Xiao Hailong also had teary eyes, gritting his teeth and cursing, "That bitch Ma Lan really deserves to die! Our family has been ruined by her! She ruined our family's chance to turn over a new leaf!"

Xiao Changqian also gritted his teeth and said in a cold voice, "When I recover, I'll find a chance to kill Ma Lan! If I don't avenge this, I, Xiao Changqian, will never be a man!"

Without thinking, Xiao Hailong said, “Dad! When the time comes, count me in too! I want her life!”

“That’s enough!” Xiao Weiwei, who was driving, suddenly stopped the car at the side of the road, and after shouting angrily, she reprimanded, “You guys still don’t remember, do you? Have you forgotten how you were paralysed? How dare you go looking for trouble with the second aunt?”

When the father and son heard this, they immediately wilted.

The reason why they were paralysed was because they wanted to find an opportunity to take revenge on Ma Lan, but in the end, they didn’t expect to kidnap Ye Changmin at the beauty salon by mistake, and ended up with their arms and legs broken.

When Xiao Hailong thought back on that time, although he still had palpitations in his heart, he still muttered with some defiance, “I can’t swallow this grievance anyway! Originally, our family could have become billionaires! Maybe in a few years’ time we could be worth billions! But after this, it’s all fucking over! How can I be happy about that?”

Xiao Weiwei said very seriously, “Brother, stop daydreaming here! I told you a long time ago that the live streaming is a thunderbolt that will explode sooner or later! And the later it explodes, the more powerful it will be! Do you know why you and Dad got out today? It’s because the thunder burst early! And you guys are really paralyzed in bed too! If you follow through and pretend to be terminally ill like Ma said in the video, then Ma will be sentenced, and you two will definitely go in too! At that point, when the person goes to jail, all the money you’ve earned will be confiscated too!” Funky Court

Xiao Hailong said unconvinced and indignant, “There are many people who sell misery and engage in live-streaming with goods, and I haven’t seen anyone arrested.”

Xiao Weiwei said angrily, “Mom this isn’t the one that got caught! Do you still want to wait until you get caught in it too?”

Xiao Hailong said resentfully, “Weiwei I’m your real brother! Why do you keep disliking me so desperately

Xiao Weiwei said in a very dissatisfied tone, “Brother, if you’re still so untalented in the future, then I won’t care about you!”

After saying that, she raised her voice a few more notches and said loudly, “If everyone in the family is untalented, then I’ll move out of the house tomorrow and I won’t care about anyone anymore!”

Xiao Changqian hurriedly said, “Weiwei, don’t be angry, your brother has been untalented for more than a day or two, don’t be too mean to him

Xiao Weiwei sighed and said angrily, “Dad, I’ve advised mum a long time ago to stop using these crooked ideas for money! It was bad enough when you targeted second aunt, don’t make the same mistake again, but she just didn’t listen! I told you then that I was getting better and better off, you and brother hadn’t been able to get good treatment before and had delayed a lot, but I had some money now and could send you to hospital for proper treatment and recovery, but Mum just wanted to keep you around to sell your misery live, and as a result you both haven’t recovered from your injuries now, and she’s tossed herself in... ..”

Xiao Changqian also sighed despondently, "Weiwei you're right"

Xiao Weiwei was silent for a moment, as if she had made some decision, suddenly restarting the car and turning right at the next intersection where she should have been going straight, before speaking, "Forget it! I'll take you two to the hospital now! You two hurry up and get well, and after you recover you can go out and get a proper job!"

Chapter 5313

Xiao Changqian nodded and said in a disheveled voice, "To be honest, after lying in bed for most of the year, I'm going crazy, I'll go find a job when I'm well"

After saying that, he looked at Xiao Hailong and urged, "Hailong, you've been hanging around for half your fucking life, it's time to do something right! When the time comes, the two of us will look for work together, no one can stay at home and eat dry rice!"

Xiao Hailong also knew that his dream of being a rich second generation had been shattered, so he could only nod his head and choke up, "I know dad" I'll work hard when I get well"

The old lady Xiao is a human being, she knows that Qian Hongyan can no longer turn over a new leaf now, she is afraid that she can only rely on Xiao Weiwei in the future.

In addition, when she saw that her son and grandson had already taken a stand with Xiao Weiwei, she also hurriedly said to Xiao Weiwei: "Weiwei, why don't grandma also go to the supermarket and find a job, even if it's still pulling plastic bags for people, at least she can share some of the burden with the family"

Xiao Weiwei shook her head and said seriously, "Grandma, you should not go out to work again, you are so old, and my current income is enough to support you, you can just stay at home and retire."

When Old Mrs. Xiao heard this, she was instantly relieved and at the same time a little glad that she was old after all, it would be difficult for her to adapt if she was really allowed to go back to work again.

Anyone at that age would not want to go back to running around for a living, and the same was true of the old lady.

And when she heard that her granddaughter was willing to give herself a pension, she was still very content in her heart.

However, Xiao Weiwei's tone suddenly became serious at this time and said seriously, "Grandma, there are some things I have to say up front, you absolutely must not engage in those petty thoughts of family politics in the future at home!"

Old Mrs. Xiao quickly sophomORIZED, "Weiwei, I'm not engaging in any family politics."

Xiao Weiwei said seriously, "Grandma, our Xiao family used to be quite united when Grandpa was still alive. Not only did the family turn into two families, but the Xiao family's business also went down the drain, and later the company went bankrupt and collapsed, so that even the family home was gone.

At that time, I was young and ignorant, and I targeted Sister Churan and brother-in-law at every turn, making many mistakes and taking many wrong turns. If we can all realise our mistakes and correct them properly in the future, we will definitely have a better life in the future.”

Old Mrs. Xiao’s expression was embarrassed, but she also said with some indignation, “The main reason I targeted your second uncle’s family in the first place was because that girl Chu Ran was full of anti-bones, I told her to divorce Ye Chen a long time ago, but she just wouldn’t listen”

Xiao Weiwei immediately said in a cold voice: “Fortunately, Sister Churan didn’t listen to you! If she had listened to you and divorced Ye Chen and married Zhang Wenhao, she would have been left with nothing now, just like us! The Zhang family may have been a good family, but they’ve been bankrupt for a long time, you know that! And look how happy Sister Churan is now! The villa she lives in is not a charity or a loan for them to live in temporarily! And her brother-in-law is also a prominent figure in Jinling, with him around, no one dares to bully her family!”

Xiao Weiwei’s eyes were red as she choked up, “I used to listen to you on everything, but look at how many detours I’ve been led by you. When you told me to go with Wang Yunfei, he kicked me out, and then you told me to go with Xiao Yiqian, which ruined my reputation, so much so that no one is after me now! Even though my mother managed to escape from the black coal kiln, it was you who took the lead in isolating her and abusing her, so that our family has come to this state step by step! All this proves that you are not capable of running the Xiao family at all!”

Old Mrs. Xiao’s face turned red with shame and she wanted to burrow through a crack in the ground.

Xiao Weiwei wiped her tears and said forcefully, “From today onwards, I am in charge of everything in the Xiao family! I hope you will put away those thoughts and stop making waves! As long as you can live your life peacefully and honestly, I will definitely give you a pension, but if you still do all that nonsense, then I’m sorry, even if you go to court and sue me, I won’t support you anymore!”

Chapter 5314

Xiao Weiwei’s forcefulness caused a shock in Mrs. Xiao’s heart, and at the same time she could not help but feel a chill in her back.

She was shocked because she had not expected that Xiao Weiwei, who had never had any initiative and had always been led by her own nose, would become more and more assertive since taking up the position of manager in the ceremonial company, and had even now made it clear that the family would have to listen to her from now on.

As for the chill at her back, it was because she realised today that Xiao Weiwei had never forgiven herself for what she had done at the beginning, and that the main reason why she did not bother with herself and did not think of taking revenge on herself was because she was getting older.

However, the meaning of Xiao Weiwei’s words was also very clear, if she continued to rely on her old age, then she would really have nothing to live for.

Old Mrs. Xiao is not a fool, she knows that in a family, whoever holds the power of money has the power of speech of the whole family.

As she was old and had few assets, it had become a problem to even feed herself. Under such circumstances, it would be impossible for her to continue to run the Xiao family.

And if she wanted to live without food or clothing, she naturally could not anger Xiao Weiwei, her granddaughter.

So, she could only honestly state: “Weiwei ah you do not worry, grandmother is not the same grandmother back then in the future grandmother will definitely not engage in those there is no longer, in the future this family, everything listen to you”

Xiao Weiwei saw the old lady’s sincere attitude, the anger on her face also dissipated a lot, she nodded and spoke, “Grandma, I’ll send dad and brother to the hospital first today, it’s not practical for you to take care of the two of them on the hospital side, you’ll rest at home for the next few days, I’ll ask the nurses to help take care of the hospital side, when mum comes out, then let mum go to the hospital to help.”

Old Mrs. Xiao also knew that in her condition, not to mention going to the hospital to take care of her son and grandson, even if she cooked for them, I’m afraid she was a bit overwhelmed, so at the moment, as long as she didn’t make any trouble, she would be contributing to the family.

So she nodded her head without thinking and said, “Weiwei, don’t worry, there is still a lot of firewood, rice, oil and salt at home, and your mother also bought a lot of chicken, fish, meat and eggs earlier, which is enough for me, an old lady, to live on for the time being.”

Xiao Hailong remembered something and hurriedly said, “Weiwei, you have to hurry up and take our mother’s Mercedes G away! That car is still parked in front of Ye Chen and Xiao Churan’s house!”

Xiao Weiwei said with an expressionless face, “If you want to drive it, you go and drive it, I’m not going.”

Xiao Hailong was anxious and busily said, “You drive that car to our house first, when I recover later, that car will naturally be driven by me”

Xiao Weiwei turned her head and gave him a contemptuous look and said in a cold voice, “You may not have been watching the news, the short video platform where Ma live-streamed her goods has already issued a statement demanding that Ma return all her live-streamed earnings and is already preparing to start legal proceedings, in other words, every penny that Ma earned from live-streaming her goods has to be returned. Including that Mercedes-Benz big G, that car is already second-hand, when the time comes, the discounted amount will definitely still be different from the purchase amount, as well as the money Ma squandered during this period of time, the money she ordered for the Rolls-Royce Cullinan, in the future, they are all big holes that she will have to fill one by one, if she can’t fill these holes, she will probably become an old scoundrel in the future.”

“Ah?!” Xiao Hailong said in a moment of horror, “Mom has worked so hard for so long that she can’t even keep the car?!”

“A car?” Xiao Weiwei said in a cold voice, “If we can’t plug these holes, in this life, mum won’t even be able to buy a Wuling Hongguang.”

Chapter 5315

As Qian Hongyan was detained and Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong were sent to the hospital, Qian Hongyan's dream of getting rich was officially declared shattered.

.....

The following day, August 5th.

Nana Ito, her father and aunt flew into Jinling in the morning on the Ito family's private jet.

Also arriving in Jinling with them were the maids that Nanaiko Ito had carefully selected from the family, and a large quantity of high-grade flowers purchased from all over Japan.

In the field of agriculture, the Americans are good at genetic modification, while the Japanese are good at breeding, and Japan is more adept at high-end categories.

The flowers that Nanaiko Ito brought from Japan were also top quality locally bred varieties that were not only full and beautiful but also very fresh.

As Koichi Tanaka had arrived in Jinling a few days ahead of the Ito family, a special motorcade was arranged to pick them up today.

As the Ito family left the airport by car, the flowers that had arrived randomly were taken away together with the multiple refrigerated trucks that had been prepared in advance.

Although only Ye Chen was on her mind, Nanaiko Ito's first stop was at the Buckingham Palace Hotel.

However, instead of going to Buckingham Palace, Ito Yohiko was taken by Koichi Tanaka to the Tomson Ichiban. Before the wedding, Ito Yohiko did not intend to go to Buckingham Palace because he was, after all, a prominent figure in Japan and was worried about being seen by too many people and exposing the secret of his legs being reborn.

It was only when Nanaiko Ito's motorcade arrived at Buckingham Palace that Richard Chan got the news.

When he found out that she had arrived, he immediately called Ye Chen and reported the news to him.

When Ye Chen heard that Nana-chan had arrived, his first reaction was naturally surprise.

Su Ruoli, on the other hand, had been in the Sky Garden at Buckingham Palace since yesterday, preparing for her parents' wedding. She knew that it had not been easy for her mother over the years, so she wanted to do her best to create an unforgettable wedding for her.

Because the Sky Garden at Buckingham Palace is not normally open to the public, this time it was deliberately taken out for Su Shoudao He Yingxiu's wedding, so Su Ruo Li also had plenty of time to do the site preparation in advance, unlike many popular hotel banquet halls, which only allow the set-up to start the night before the wedding, making it particularly rushed.

At this moment, she was meeting with the project manager of the wedding company to discuss the scenery plan, when she suddenly saw Nanaiko Ito walk in with a group of maids, she was surprised and greeted her, saying: "Miss Ito, why are you here so early? I thought you would not arrive until tomorrow or the day after tomorrow."

Nanaeko Ito laughed, "The wedding is on the eighth, so I can't be too late."

She said, "I've brought a lot of flowers with me, the staff will bring them up later, and we'll match them up for you to see which feeling you like better."

Su Ruoli subconsciously asked, "I'm afraid the flowers won't last for three days if we put them up now, right?"

I have already arranged for the flowers for the wedding, they will be carefully selected and cut in the morning of the 7th, and will be flown from Japan to Jinling in the afternoon. The flowers will be in full bloom by the time the wedding takes place on the 8th.

Su Ruoli said with a surprised look on her face, "This is too costly to prepare two batches of flowers like this and have them all flown in, isn't it?"

Ito Nanaeko patted her hand and smiled slightly, "This cost is not enough for the Ito family, and Miss Su should not be too concerned, our goal is to enable Uncle and Auntie to have a perfect wedding, what's a little flower."

Su Ruoli was touched in her heart and said very reverently, "Miss Ito, thank you so much"

Nanae Ito shook her head and smiled, "After what happened to my parents, we are now friends, so why are you so polite with me."

Su Ruoli nodded gently, she understood the meaning of Ito Nanaiko's words, her mother, as well as Ito Nanaiko's father, had both been disabled with amputated limbs, some time ago they had received Ye Chen's Breakthrough Dan in the United States at the same time, and it was that experience that made the two become familiar with each other quickly.

Chapter 5316

So Su Ruoli asked Nanae Ito, "May I ask if Mr. Ito is here?"

"Coming." Ito Nana-chan said in a low voice, "Oudosan he has been living in deep seclusion since his legs recovered, worried about being discovered by outsiders, so he went to his residence to rest first, he asked me to convey that he will definitely come to the scene to congratulate on the wedding day."

After saying that, she asked Su Ruoli, "Is Auntie He here?"

Su Ruoli smiled, "Mum is trying on her wedding dress in the hotel room, Miss Song arranged for a designer to come here to tailor her, and Mr Chen then arranged for a presidential suite to facilitate the wedding preparations in the next few days."

Ito Nanaiko nodded and smiled, "That's good, let Auntie He take care of herself, and leave the wedding venue to us, the younger generation, to set up."

Su Ruoli nodded slightly and then asked Ito Nana-chan, "By the way Miss Ito, have you told Mr. Ye in advance that you are coming here today?"

"No." Ito Nana-chan said slightly shyly, "Ye Chenjun must be quite busy during the week, so I didn't tell him in advance."

Su Ruoli laughed, "Even if you didn't tell him, Mr. Chen would have told him first, Mr. Ye attaches such importance to you that he might be on his way here right now."

Ito Nana-chan blushed and said, "Not at all I see that Mr. Ye Chen also attaches great importance to you"

Su Ruoli, in a rare moment, also spoke with some shame, "I am in a different situation from you I am Mr. Ye's subordinate and you are Mr. Ye's confidante... .."

Ito Nanaeko looked at her and asked in mock curiosity, "Is it really just a subordinate?"

Su Ruoli said a little unnaturally for a moment, "It's really just a subordinate Mr. Ye has saved me many times and helped me so much, I naturally have to always follow him around to repay his kindness to me, so naturally I'm his subordinate"

Ito Nanaiko nodded slightly and said with a smile, "In fact, I envy you more, being his subordinate, at least you can see him often, unlike me, it is not easy to see him once in a while."

Su Ruoli faintly froze when she heard this.

Originally, she was very envious of Ito Nanaeko, after all, anyone with a discerning eye could see that although Ye Chen also had many confidantes, he had a special preference for her.

But when you think about it, what Ito Nana-chan says is not without merit.

She was usually in Japan and it was indeed not easy for her to see Ye Chen, unlike herself, who was in Jinling and naturally had many more chances to meet him.

Just as she was sighing in her heart, a sound of high heels came and Su Zhiyu, who was dressed in a professional suit and very capable, walked in quickly.

When Su Ruoli saw her coming, she hurriedly said to Nanaiko Ito, "Miss Ito, my sister is here, you and she should know each other too, right?"

Ito Nanaeko smiled and nodded, "I know each other, after all, we are both shareholders of Isuzu Shipping Company on the surface."

Su Zhiyu had by now walked quickly in front of Su Ruoli, who said with a joyful face, "Sister, what brings you here?"

Su Zhiyu said with a smile, "Dad is getting married, so I, as a daughter, must come over."

With that, she looked at Nanaiko Ito and smiled, "Miss Ito is here too, it's been a long time."

Nanaiko Ito nodded and smiled, "It's been a long time Miss Su."

Su Zhiyu looked around and asked Su Ruoli, "Ruoli, isn't Dad here?"

Su Ruoli said with some embarrassment, "That dad he's in the presidential suite accompanying my mum to try on her wedding dress. "

Su Zhiyu nodded slightly and asked again, "Then is Mr. Ye here?"

“Not in.” Su Ruoli shook her head and asked her, “Sister, are you looking for Mr. Ye for something?”

Su Zhiyu pursed her lips and said with some uncertainty in her heart, “I’m looking for Mr. Ye because I want to beg him to give my brother a chance to come back for the wedding My brother is still on his way to kowtow the long head, Dad is getting married, he as the eldest son should be there, but I don’t know if Mr. Ye will agree”

The words had just fallen, and she heard a familiar voice that often sounded repeatedly in her dreams: “Since Miss Su wants Su Zhi Fei to come to the wedding, then I will arrange for someone to fetch him over!”

Chapter 5317

Hearing this voice, the three women looked at the sound and saw that Ye Chen had already stepped into the Sky Garden.

The expressions of the three women all involuntarily became excited in this instant.

However, because they knew that Ye Chen was talking about Su Zhiyu’s brother, Su Ruoli and Ito Nanaezi only smiled at Ye Chen and did not say anything.

Su Zhiyu was overjoyed and hurriedly confirmed with Ye Chen, “Mr. Ye, are you saying that you can bring my brother back?”

“Yes.” Ye Chen nodded and said blandly, “But only to attend the wedding, after the wedding, he will have to continue his unfinished punishment.”

Su Zhiyu subconsciously asked, “Then then Mr. Ye, if my brother comes back for the wedding, after the wedding is over, will he still return to the position he was picked up from before, or will he start everything from the beginning?”

Ye Chen laughed: “Of course from where he came from he will go back to where he came from, how would I let him start from scratch.”

Su Zhiyu immediately sighed with relief and said gratefully, “Thank you Mr. Ye for your generosity, then I will arrange for someone to pick him up”

Ye Chen waved his hand: “I’ll have Chen Zekai pick him up, your brother’s movements, Chen Zekai’s men are always watching, they can pick him up at any time, besides, he’s been gone for so long, he’s been sleeping and sleeping in the wind all day, he doesn’t have any contact information on him, it’s hard for you to find him for a while.”

“Good” Su Zhiyu nodded and said respectfully, “Then I’ll be grateful to Mr. Ye.”

Ye Chen said, “I’ll make the arrangements here, if it’s quick, he’ll arrive in Jinling tonight.”

Su Zhiyu gathered the courage to ask: “That Mr. Ye can I ask you one more thing”

Ye Chen nodded and said, “You say.”

Su Zhiyu pursed her lips and said quietly, "As you know, my mother has been settled in Jinling since her divorce, and she misses my brother a lot during this time, so I want my brother to come back this time, so you can let him meet with my mother as well."

Ye Chen agreed readily and said, "No problem, I'll ask Lao Chen to bring him back by tonight, from today onwards, until August 10th, he can move freely within the jurisdiction of Jinling City, at 8am on August 10th, just have him come to Buckingham Palace on time and report to Lao Chen."

Su Zhiyu did not expect that although his father's wedding date with He Yingxiu was on the 8th, Ye Chen had given him two extra days, so he was grateful and said without thinking, "Yes Mr. Ye, I will stay in Jinling and keep an eye on him to make sure he reports to Buckingham Palace at 8am on August 10th!"

At this time, Chen Zekai learned that Ye Chen had arrived at the hotel, so he came to hear about it. Ye Chen then greeted him and asked, "Old Chen, where has young master Su Zhi Fei Su arrived now?"

Chen Zekai was slightly stunned, then he glanced at Su Zhiyu and said with some embarrassment, "Young Master Su is almost a third of the way there and has already arrived in San Qin Province."

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Arrange for someone to pick up Young Master Su, the faster the efficiency the better, but when you pick him up, remember to mark the location when you pick him up, and then send Young Master Su back to his original location on August 10th."

"Okay." Chen Zekai said without thinking, "I'll arrange for my local men to pick up Young Master Su by helicopter, we have a plane at Chang'an Airport, so when Young Master Su arrives the plane can take off and bring Young Master Su back directly."

"Okay." Ye Chen instructed, "You go and arrange it as soon as possible."

.....

Soon, a helicopter took off from the outskirts of Chang'an, the capital of San Qin Province, and flew quickly all the way towards the southeast.

The distance between here and Su Zhi Fei's location is only about forty kilometres in a straight line.

At this moment, Su Zhifei, who is walking on the land of the Three Qin, is still continuing his pilgrimage despite his unkempt beard and tattered body.

Chapter 5318

Every three steps he took, he had to kneel on the ground, then kowtow to the ground and rise again, and after rising, he took three steps again and continued to kneel down, and so on.

At the beginning of the journey, Su Zhifei's body could not withstand such intense exercise, and his body suffered so much that he was already at his limit after travelling three or four kilometres a day, which was much slower than the normal believers' speed of ten kilometres a day.

But as time went on, and as the distance got longer and longer, he gradually adapted to the pace, and slowly went from travelling three or four kilometres a day, to the current seven or eight kilometres.

In more than five months, he had already covered more than a thousand kilometres.

Originally, Su felt that he was a standard deviant, kowtowing every three steps on the road during the day and sleeping in the open at night.

But as he went further and further along the road, he gradually discovered many people who, like himself, were kowtowing long heads and making a pilgrimage to the southwest.

Unlike them, these people were people of faith, while Su Zhi Fei himself was an atheist; others were doing this for the sake of faith, while he had to do it because he had been ordered to do so by Ye Chen.

However, as he travelled further and further away, Su Zhi Fei's mind became more and more relaxed.

During the march, he had almost reviewed his life of more than twenty years several times over.

In the process of doing so, Su Zhi Fei became more and more aware of his many mistakes and shortcomings, and over time, he felt that he was a guilty man.

The first sin was that he was arrogant and domineering and uneducated as the young master of the Su family.

The second sin was that he was saved by Ye Chen but had no gratitude.

When his father was hollowed out by his grandfather and his mother and sister were murdered by him and their lives were unknown, he went to compromise with his grandfather for the sake of his future, which was the third sin.

Over time, although Su Zhi Fei did not have any religious beliefs, he was surprised to find that this near corporal punishment that Ye Chen gave himself could calm his mind.

After his mind was calmed, the daily physical exertion was no longer a torture for him.

He was like a man who had never worked out but had become addicted to it because he kept working out, and gradually began to immerse himself in it, unable to extricate himself from it, never stopping his march as long as it was not windy and rainy.

Moreover, after he reflected on his mistakes and sins over the years, the hatred towards Ye Chen in his heart gradually disappeared, and he finally understood Ye Chen's intention of letting him go on a pilgrimage all the way.

Before, he had been overwhelmed by profit and materialistic desires, and his kinship and humanity had been greatly affected as a result. After such trials and tribulations, his materialistic desires had long since been reduced to the extreme, and mansions, luxury cars, yachts and aeroplanes were all just a passing fog to him, and he now only needed to fill his stomach every day, and he was already living a very fulfilling life.

He began to miss his relatives and sympathise with the poor people along the way. When he saw areas that were still poor, he took them to heart, hoping that he could do something for them in the future when he was able to.

In his journey, Su Zhi Fei not only overcame the hardships of the road, but more importantly, he was purified and sublimated in his own spirituality.

As Su Zhi Fei continued to take three steps and bow, a helicopter whistled in the sky and flew quickly from afar to in front of him, then slowly landed in front of him.

After kowtowing, Su stood up from the ground and looked at the helicopter, wondering why this helicopter was blocking his way.

At that moment, the hatch of the helicopter opened and a middle-aged man jumped down from the aircraft, stepped in front of Su Zhi Fei and spoke, "Young Master Su, my young master asks you to return."

Chapter 5319

"Your young master?!"

Su Zhi Fei was surprised and asked, "May I ask who your young master is?"

The middle-aged man said with a respectful expression, "My young master is Ye Chen of Jinling!"

"Ye Chen?!" When Su Zhi Fei learned that the middle-aged man in front of him was actually sent by Ye Chen to invite him back, his heart was instantly shocked!

He looked at the man and asked in surprise, "You said that Mr. Ye invited me back?"

"Yes." The middle-aged man nodded and said seriously, "The plane is already at the airport waiting to take off, and Mr. Ye means to send you back to Jinling as soon as possible."

Su Zhi Fei's eyes widened and he spoke, "Hello, I want to know, I haven't reached the end of the line yet, why is Mr. Ye letting me go back now?"

The middle-aged man did not make any concealment and said bluntly, "Young Master Su, your father, Mr. Su Shoudao Su, is getting married soon and the wedding is being held in Jinling, Mr. Ye's intention is for me to pick you up to go back to the wedding first and then come back to continue the pilgrimage after the wedding is over."

"My father is getting married?" Su Zhi Fei's jaw dropped a little for a moment, but he quickly calmed down and opened his mouth to ask, "May I ask if my father is getting married to Auntie He?"

The middle-aged man shook his head and said with an apologetic face, "Sorry, Young Master Su, I'm not sure of the details, I'm the head of the Ye family in Shaanxi and Jin provinces, I don't know much about the situation in Jinling."

After saying that, he added, "Young Master Su, my young master hopes that you will arrive as soon as possible, he said that your sister is waiting for you in Jinling, and your father and your mother are also in Jinling, so by going back sooner, you can also have more time to reunite with them."

Su Zhi Fei came back to his senses and nodded hastily, "Yes, yes! Thank you for your hard work!"

After saying that, he looked at his surroundings and asked the middle-aged man, "Can you please record exactly where I am now?"

The middle-aged man said, "Don't worry, Young Master Su, I have already recorded the gps coordinates, and I will still be responsible for sending you over when the time comes."

Su Zhi Fei then put his mind at ease, and was about to get on the plane when he saw that he was dirty, so he said with some embarrassment, "I might get the upholstery of your helicopter dirty"

The middle-aged man smiled and said, "It's fine, you don't have to care, let's just hurry up and get going!"

"Alright." Only then did Su Zhi Fei nodded and stepped onto the helicopter.

As the helicopter took off, Su Zhi Fei kept looking at the place where he had just boarded, wanting to remember the geography of the place so that he could make sure he wouldn't get it wrong when he returned.

As the helicopter rose higher and higher, he looked at the majestic and majestic Qinling Mountains in front of him, and his heart swelled with longing and reverence.

What he didn't know was that the whole process, from before the helicopter had landed until he finished his conversation with the middle-aged man and got on the helicopter again, was being accurately captured on camera.

The video, at this point, had already been sent to Richard Chen's mobile phone.

Ye Chen was in the sky garden at the moment, quietly watching Nanaeko Ito carefully arrange a bouquet of flowers she had brought from Japan.

With her long and slender fingers, Ito Nanaeko carefully matched the different flowers together. The bouquet already had a wonderful beauty, a beauty that was unprecedented for Ye Chen, for Su Ruoli and Su Zhiyu.

And with each additional flower added by Nanaiko Ito, the bouquet gave a refreshing feeling, as if every decision she made was the finishing touch, a constant surprise.

The two sisters, Su Zhiyu and Su Ruoli, had been completely impressed by her superb flower arranging skills and her distinctive aesthetics, while Ye Chen felt equally amazed, not realising that Nana-chan had such a talent.

Chapter 5320

At this time, his mobile phone suddenly vibrated, and he opened it to find a video from Richard Chen, which he had specially instructed him to arrange for someone to quietly film, in order to see the real state of Su Zhi Fei now.

After seeing Su Zhi Fei's performance, Ye Chen's impression of him had also changed quite a bit.

The reason why he had been asked to kowtow at first was not simply to mete out punishment to him, but also so that he could have a chance to reflect on himself.

There were countless ways to punish him, in fact, the best way was to be like Jiro Kobayashi and just put him in a dog farm, so that he could spend his days in the company of dogs.

However, in Ye Chen's view, Su Zhi Fei was after all Su Zhiyu's brother and also Auntie Du's own son, so if he could still go back to the right path, it would be a great thing for Su Zhiyu and for the whole Su family.

Originally, Ye Chen thought that he would have to wait at least until he had finished this journey before he could change his mind from the bottom of his heart, but judging from Su Zhi Fei's current performance, he had basically exceeded Ye Chen's expectations for him.

Putting down his phone, Ito Nanaeko's first bouquet of flowers had already been placed.

Su Ruoli and Su Zhiyu were already looking at it obsessively, and Su Zhiyu couldn't help but sigh, "Never thought that a bouquet of flowers could be so beautiful, no matter which angle you look at it from, it's perfect"

Su Ruoli, who was on the other side, was also so excited that her eyes were red.

She was originally thinking about how she could make her parents' wedding, different from other people's weddings.

However, when she really started preparing for this matter, she realized that in fact, so many rich people all over the country had already played around with wedding ideas long ago.

No matter what kind of proposal one thinks will be stunning at first, when one really asks people who know what they are doing, they will immediately come up with a whole bunch of similar cases.

The hardware at the Sky Garden is great, but Jinling is only a second-tier city after all, and you can't count on two hands the number of high-end banquet halls like this in first-tier cities.

What's more, one wasn't about to be wasteful, so it would be even more difficult to make any truly innovative elements.

However, once she saw Nanaeko's flower arrangement skills, she immediately realised that this was the most precious and rare innovation of all.

Such a stunning flower arrangement would have stunned everyone if it had filled the venue on the day of the wedding.

After Nanae Ito finished the bouquet, she looked at Su Ruoli at the side and asked her, "Miss Su, do you think this match is still satisfactory?"

"Satisfied, too satisfied!" Su Ruoli said excitedly, "Miss Ito, I've never seen such a great flower arranger as you These flowers seem to be more like works of art than flowers when they come into your hands!"

I think I've got about seven or eight options for my aunt and uncle's wedding before I come here, so you can pick them when I'm done with the scene. design it according to her wedding dress."

Su Ruoli hurriedly said, "The style of the wedding dress has already been decided, it is now being tailored and modified, I will take you to see it later!"

“Good.” Nana-chan nodded, then looked at Ye Chen and asked him with a smile, “Ye Chen-kun, Father-sama is also here this time, if it’s convenient for you at noon, when I’m done here, go with me to have a cup of tea with Father-sama, what do you think?”

Ye Chen smiled and asked, “Where is Mr. Ito? Why didn’t you come here?”

Nanaeko Ito laughed, “He didn’t want to be too flashy, so he went back to his place of residence first.”

Ye Chen asked again, “Is he staying at the hotel?”

“No.” Nanaeko Ito winked and laughed, “I asked Tanaka-san to buy a house in Jinling in advance, oh yes, it’s in Townsend One!”
