

Ye Chen 5331

Chapter 5331

Lin Wan'er casually said, "It is just in the basement, from our car next to walk past the handsome man ah, quite tall, also very handsome."

"Yes is it" Liu Manqiong said in a panic: "I didn't see it ah, just now a little lost in thought... .."

"Okay." Lin Wan'er laughed, "Next time a handsome guy passes by, I'll be sure to tell you the first time."

"Okay" Liu Manqiong thought she had muddled through and subconsciously responded.

This series of her performance also convinced Lin Wan'er even more of her previous judgment that this Liu Manqiong, was here for Ye Chen.

Lin Wan'er did not say anything more, but took out her mobile phone and, on the search engine, typed in the five words Ito Nanaeko.

She had already read all of Ye Chen's files before, and had extrapolated Ye Chen's identity, experience, as well as his current business map and power blueprint step by step.

She guessed that the Isuzu Shipping Line must be led by Ye Chen behind the scenes, so she had also paid special attention to the information on the Su family as well as the Ito family. She had skimmed over Nanaeko Ito's profile, and she, who could never forget anything, had long remembered the woman's appearance, so the moment she saw Nanaeko Ito just now, she guessed the identity of the other party.

She clicked on some of Ito's public photos and confirmed that the woman she had just seen was none other than Ito Nanaeko.

At this moment, she couldn't help but think: "According to the information I checked earlier, Ye Chen and his wife's family live in the villa area of Townsend First Class, but why would he come to the underground garage in the high-rise area of Townsend First Class with Ito Nana-chan? Could it be that he is hiding his wife in a golden house here?"

Thinking of this, Lin Wan'er raised her eyebrows and couldn't help but secretly say, "It seems that this Ye Chen is really keeping his love everywhere, if he were to become an emperor in ancient times, wouldn't he have to gather all three palaces, six houses and 72 concubines to be satisfied?"

At this time, Sister Xian, who was driving, remembered something and spoke, "By the way, Miss Liu, your flight is at 3:30 pm, right?"

"Yes." Liu Manqiong subconsciously returned.

Sister Xian nodded and said, "Then I will take you to the airport after dinner."

Liu Manqiong then said, "Then it will be hard for Sister Xian!"

"It's the right thing to do." Sister Xian smiled faintly and asked, "Miss Liu, you probably won't stay too long when you return to Hong Kong Island this time, right? School starts at the end of the month at Jinling University, so as a new faculty member, you should report to school early, right?"

“Right.” Liu Manqiong explained, “The school requires teaching staff to report to school on the 20th of August, when they will make a unified arrangement of what the new lecturers will be doing, and then they will start to hurry up and prepare for their classes.”

Sister Xian smiled and said, “Then you won’t be able to stay for a few days this time, at most two weeks.”

“Yes.” Liu Manqiong said, “I plan to come back on the 18th of August, and when I arrive to rest for two days and prepare, I can report to school.”

Sister Xian nodded, looked at Lin Wan’er through the rear-view mirror and smiled, “You should also prepare yourself early, Miss, I’ve heard that military training in mainland universities is very hard.”

Lin Wan’er smiled and said, “I’ve heard a little about this too, but to be honest, I’m quite looking forward to it.”

When Lin Wan’er decided to enter Jinling University, she had already learned about the admission process of mainland university students and the specifics of life and study in advance, so she also knew that all freshmen had to participate in military training.

I’m afraid that other girls would be rather nervous and apprehensive when they thought of military training, but Lin Wan’er was looking forward to it, because she felt that if she wanted to get on well with Claudia, military training would definitely be the best opportunity!

Chapter 5332

When Ye Chen saw Yohiko Ito again, he found that he was in a very good state.

Having his legs back meant more to him than life, and made him appreciate the present moment even more.

When he saw Ye Chen, Ito Yohiko was enthusiastic and respectful. He personally came out to welcome Ye Chen and poured tea and water for him, and although he was busy, he could not hide his excitement.

Although he was busy, he could not hide his excitement. Koichi Tanaka, who was at the side, was even more respectful to the extent that he could not help but maintain a ninety-degree bending and bowing posture.

Ye Chen greeted the two men and curiously surveyed the house while saying with a smile, “I’ve lived in Townsend One for so long, but this is the first time I’ve come up to this high floor.”

Saying this, he looked through the huge floor-to-ceiling windows of the living room at the rolling river outside and exclaimed, “What a great view here! Mr Tanaka has a good eye.”

On the side, Tanaka Koichi said respectfully, “Mr. Ye, I originally wanted to buy the top floor upstairs, but unfortunately it was bought by a lady a few minutes late, if I could buy the top floor, the view would have been better!”

Ye Chen nodded with a smile and said, “This is not bad at all. If I had known that the view was so good, I should have come here and bought a flat.”

Ito Nana-chan said, "Ye Chen-kun can come over more often in the future, let Tanaka-san take a fingerprint for you later, just treat this place as your own home, if we are not here and you want to be alone for a while, you can also come up anytime."

Ye Chen was slightly stunned, not knowing for a moment whether to refuse or accept.

At that moment, when Tanaka Koichi saw that Ye Chen was a little hesitant, he hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, actually there is no need to take fingerprints so much trouble, the room code is the lady's birthday."

Ye Chen looked at Nana-chan, and only then did he realise that he did not know Nana-chan's birthday after knowing her for so long.

This was mainly because they hadn't seen each other much in the time they had known each other, and Ye Chen himself didn't pay much attention to birthdays, he couldn't even remember to celebrate his own sometimes and had to be reminded by others.

She had never told him what day her birthday was, or when her birthday was, and so on.

As she knew that she didn't know what day her birthday was, she said shyly, "Ye Chen-kun, my birthday only comes around once every four years"

Ye Chen suddenly realized and said offhandedly, "Then I know2 the 29th of February"

"Mmm" Nana-chan nodded shyly, her big eyes looking at him with affection, and asked, "Ye Chen-kun should know what year I am in, right?"

Ye Chen was busy saying, "Know know know this know"

Tanaka Koichi smiled and said, "Then Mr. Ye knows what the room code is!"

At this moment, Ito Yohiko's sister, Ito Emi, had already prepared a sumptuous table of Japanese cuisine.

Wearing a kimono, Emi Ito paced up and down to Ye Chen's side, put her hands down in front of her and bowed respectfully, "Mr. Ye, I have prepared the best Japanese cuisine for you, the ingredients are the highest end seafood that I ordered to be bought this morning and sent directly to the airport with us to China. The sea urchins, oysters, snapper and bluefin tuna are the best you can find in the Japanese market.

Ito Yohiko said with a smile, "Mr. Ye, Megumi's specialty is sashimi, and her sensitivity to ingredients is much better than those so-called three-Michelin-star chefs, and I'm afraid that the ingredients she comes into contact with on a regular basis are not something that those three-Michelin-star chefs have the opportunity to see."

After saying that, he pointed to the tuna sashimi in the exquisite dinner plate and said to Ye Chen: "Mr. Ye, these sashimi, are the meat on the two gills of the Blue Flag tuna, this fish is auctioned at three million dollars, but just this little bit of meat on the two gills costs hundreds of thousands of dollars, which translates to tens of thousands of dollars for a piece, even the best Michelin restaurants won't have them."

Yohiko Ito is not talking out of his ass. In the kind of paper-drenched society that Japan has, the really top-end items can be ridiculously expensive.

The highest record for a bluefin tuna at auction, one once bought for several million dollars, and most of the meat from such a fish goes to high-end restaurants, as if a restaurant high enough to eat this top quality ingredient could get one of its pieces at a restaurant for a hundred dollars.

Chapter 5333

But what really happens is that the meat from the two cheeks of a tuna like this simply doesn't make it to the back of any restaurant, having long been cut off in advance by top gourmets like the Ito family who throw their money around.

Most people can't understand why the top tycoons are so extravagant that a meal with tens of thousands of dollars of ingredients doesn't matter to them, and a bottle of wine that costs tens of thousands of dollars is worth nothing more than the sound it makes when they open it.

The main reason for this is that they are so rich, so much money that it is impossible to spend it all in several lifetimes without racking their brains to do so.

In other words, if he spends US$100,000 on a meal, his expenditure as a percentage of his total worth is the same as an ordinary person spending ten dollars on a bowl of noodles in vegetarian soup.

Although Ye Chen was also very rich, money didn't mean much to him, and he had never been in the habit of spending extravagantly, so after listening to Emi Ito's introduction, he nodded slightly and smiled, "Ms. Ito has worked hard, I'm not that spiteful, so a casual home-cooked meal is fine, no need to be so extravagant."

Nanae Ito said with a smile, "Ye Chen-kun's mouth is not that tricky, but my father's mouth is very tricky! These ingredients aren't just for Ye Chen-kun alone either, even if you don't come to the house as a guest, Auntie will prepare these for him, and every year just the cost of his own meals costs several million dollars, it's totally confusing what he eats, and these kinds of ingredients are honestly more of a gimmick than a reality in my opinion."

Ito Yohiko laughed and said, "Nana-chan, everything in this world, as long as you pursue it to the extreme, you can call it the Way. You love the Way of Flowers, so you will do everything you can to buy the most expensive flowers. tens of thousands, and the combination of the best flowers, with the best vessels, and in the most elaborate way, becomes the way of flowers, but a hundred dollars a bouquet from a roadside florist will never have anything to do with the way of flowers for the rest of your life;"

"And tea, ordinary people make a cup of tea, or make a tea bag, or make a tea bag and then mix it with milk, these can only be considered as drinking tea, only with top quality tea leaves, top quality tea sets, with the most elaborate brewing method, can be called the way of tea!"

"I don't know the way of flowers or the way of tea, but I know the way of food! That means eating the best ingredients and drinking the most expensive and good wine!"

Nanaeko Ito spat out her tongue and deliberately teased him, "If you crave, just say you crave, why boast so much"

Ito Yohiko laughed heartily and immediately took a bottle of sake with “XIV Generation” written on it and said to Ye Chen, “Mr. Ye, this is not the ordinary Daiji Shangzhu Bai, it’s the top quality Dragon’s Whistle Nine Days, even the Prime Minister, I’m afraid, doesn’t have the chance to smell it!”

“Dragon Whistling Nine Heavens” Ye Chen’s mouth twitched, awkwardly smiled sarcastically and asked him, “Why such a middle-class name”

Ito Yohiko laughed: “This is the ritual unique to Japanese brands, first regardless of whether something is good or bad, it must be packaged with a name that is high end, preferably so that someone can’t understand it, he will think it’s professional! The terms in sake could write a book if you took them out, the well-known brands and series are Black Dragon, Dragon Gin, Dragon Spring, and this Dragon Whistling Nine Days is the ceiling in the ceiling.”

Ye Chen looked at him and asked a question, “Mr. Ito, tell me from your heart, is this sake good?”

“Is it good, good?” Ito Yohiko was in deep thought for a moment, thought about it and said very seriously, “To be honest Mr. Ye, this stuff is far worse than even Coke in terms of taste alone.”

After saying that, he hurriedly added: “But this sake, after all, is Japan’s national treasure! The wine that the Europeans make from raw, rotten grapes is, to be honest, not as good as grape juice, but it’s also their national treasure!”

Ye Chen nodded with understanding and smiled, “Then it seems that this Japanese sake, French red wine, and our maiden stomping on the wine song, all have the same characteristics.”

Ito Yohiko laughed heartily and clapped his hands, “Mr. Ye is right!”

After saying that, he took the initiative to pour a cup of sake for Ye Chen and said with a smile, “But Mr. Ye, although the wine is not good, the feeling of being slightly drunk is really something that nothing else can give, so let Tanaka also accompany us to drink a little less, so that we can have more fun while drinking and talking!”

Chapter 5334

As Ye Chen pushed and exchanged glasses with Ito Yohiko and Tanaka Koichi, Nana-chan stood by and kept refilling his wine.

Interestingly, Nana-chan only refilled Ye Chen’s wine, Emi Ito only refilled Yohiko Ito’s wine, and Koichi Tanaka, on the other hand, had to refill his own wine.

The so-called “Dragon’s Whistle” was not very good in Ye Chen’s opinion. Apart from the pure rice flavour, it was really lacking in taste, and if you wanted to feel slightly drunk, it had to be at least forty proof.

However, since it was a national treasure brought all the way from Ito Yuhiko, Ye Chen naturally gave his face.

Including the top quality seafood sashimi prepared by Emi Ito, Ye Chen also continued to praise it.

But what was actually in his mind was that the sashimi itself had little flavour, what he ate was just the texture of the different fish, and after dipping it in soy sauce and wasabi, the overall taste was actually not too different.

This is very similar to hotpot, where all you eat is the taste of the base and the dipping sauce.

After having lunch at the Ito family's new residence, Ye Chen chatted with Yohiko Ito for a while before getting up to leave.

He had previously told Su Zhiyu that he would visit Du Haiqing's home, so naturally he could not go back on his word.

Although he had drunk a lot of sake with the two of them, it was good that he had his aura with him, and before he left, he used his aura to remove all the alcohol before he drove to the old mansion of his family back then.

Su Zhi Fei had changed into clean clothes, shaved and tied up his shoulder-length hair, making him look much quieter and sharper.

Su Zhiyu sat on the sofa, keeping an eye on the movement outside the courtyard, wanting to be able to see Ye Chen when he arrived.

And when the BMW car driven by Ye Chen slowly stopped at the entrance of the courtyard, Su Zhiyu's whole body was instantly happy and she hurriedly said to her mother and brother, "Mr. Ye is here!"

After saying that, she had already stood up and ran towards the door.

Du Haiqing and Su Zhi Fei also hurriedly got up and followed behind them to welcome them.

By the time Ye Chen got out of the car, these three people had already walked to the door one after the other.

Su Zhiyu pulled open the vintage iron grille door, a little blushing, yet not forgetting to say respectfully, "Mr. Ye you're here!"

Su Zhi Fei also said very respectfully, "Mr. Ye"

Du Haiqing, on the other hand, was not as formal as the two of them, she was like seeing her best friend's child and said cordially, "Ye Chen is here, come inside!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and said respectfully, "Hello Auntie Du, it's been a while since I visited you, how are you doing?"

Du Haiqing said with a smile, "I'm fine, the environment in Jinling is becoming more comfortable for me to live in, and I don't have as many worries as before these days, so I'm still very comfortable."

Ye Chen nodded, "That's good! I wasn't in Jinling during that time, but I shouldn't be going out during this recent period, so if you need any help with anything in Jinling, just contact me anytime."

"Good!" Du Haiqing didn't overdo the courtesy and agreed with a smile, and then invited Ye Chen into his home.

Entering this old mansion, Ye Chen couldn't help but have a feeling of being in a different world.

When his own parents had rented this old mansion, they had also done a careful restoration, just like now, and although it still looked so rustic, it managed to give people a feeling of newness.

After twenty years of inactivity, this old mansion had also once been dilapidated, but after Du Haiqing's careful restoration, it all seemed to have returned to the state it was in twenty years ago.

For a moment, Ye Chen even felt like he was seven or eight years old again, when his parents had just settled down in Jinling and the family was living here in a dull but happy way.

Chapter 5335

When Du Haiqing saw Ye Chen looking around, his whole body was already a bit lost in thought, so he intentionally did not say anything more, but let Ye Chen take a good look and think back on his own.

After a long time, Ye Chen withdrew his thoughts before he almost burst into tears, held back his tears and said to Du Haiqing with a smile, "Auntie Du must have taken a lot of trouble to clean up this house"

Du Haiqing nodded and smiled, and said, "It took a lot of effort, but it was also enjoyable."

Saying that, Du Haiqing pointed to the set of rustic old leather sofas and said to Ye Chen, "Sit down and rest for a while!"

"Okay!" Ye Chen nodded and sat down before he couldn't help but sigh: "Auntie Du, this sofa is basically no different from the kind of sofa I had when I was a child, Can you still buy this style of sofa now?"

Du Haiqing laughed: "When we were young, leather sofas basically looked like this, unless those imported from Europe and the United States would look a bit more flashy, but this kind of sofa can't be bought now, I specifically asked someone to make it by hand."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and could not help but sigh in his heart, "Auntie Du is really meticulous, and she also really knows Dad well, and her vision in many places is very similar to his"

After the emotion, Ye Chen intentionally digressed and looked at Su Zhi Fei at the side and opened his mouth to ask, "Young Master Su, it should have been a hard time over the past six months, right?"

Su Zhi Fei subconsciously stood up and said respectfully, "Back to Mr. Ye, it wasn't hard, I would also like to thank you for your enlightenment, if it wasn't for you, I might still be the same uneducated fop by now"

Ye Chen asked him, "I made you kneel all the way to the pilgrimage, do you not hate me at all in your heart?"

Su Zhi Fei said truthfully, "Back to Mr. Ye, at first for a month, I hated you to the bone every moment, and even imagined in my heart that if one day I could be stronger than you, I would make you pay back ten times or a hundred times, but, after a month, I gradually understood your good intentions"

Ye Chen asked curiously, "My good intentions? In the eyes of many people, I am a vicious person who often comes up with strange and bizarre ways to punish others, they are afraid they would hate to kill me, why are you the only one who says I have good intentions?"

Su Zhi Fei said sincerely: "In fact, you have plenty of ways to punish me, even if it takes my life, no one can do anything to you, not to mention that my life itself was saved by you in Japan in the first place, but you still gave me another way to live, and also gave me a chance to return to the lost path" "

said, Su Zhi Fei pursed his lips in silence for a moment and added: "Moreover, I know that you have actually always sent people to protect me in secret, I have been in danger of my life several times in the past six months, and eventually I was able to turn the danger into peace, it must be because of your help behind the scenes."

Ye Chen did not say anything, but Su Zhiyu, who was on the side, asked in surprise, "Brother, what kind of life dangers have you encountered? How come I didn't hear you talk about it?"

Su Zhi Fei said, "The second month of my departure, I began to treat this pilgrimage sincerely, so I dismissed the entourage that Mr. Ye had specially approved me to take with me in the first place, intending to really walk to the end by myself."

"When I fell ill after a rain shower, I stayed in a farmhouse, as many pilgrims do along the way, so I didn't feel bad about it"

"As a result, the couple took advantage of my high fever and almost coma and tried to sell me to a local kiln owner of a black brick kiln;"

Chapter 5336

"Hearing the two of them say that a four-legged adult can be sold for 20,000 yuan, while the normal recruitment of a worker to burn the kiln would cost at least three to four thousand yuan a month, the kiln owner would buy the person back and just squeeze for more than half a year to make back his capital, and the rest would be pure profit;"

"At that time, that kiln owner had already driven over, and because I looked unconscious, gave the other side to bargain and press the price back to five thousand"

Su Zhiyu's eyes widened and he hurriedly asked, "What happened afterwards?"

Su Zhi Fei said, "Then I was moved into an SUV by the kiln owner and his three thugs, at that time I tried to call for help, but because of the high fever, I was not even able to open my eyes completely, let alone resist"

"After getting into the car, I thought my life was definitely over, but to my surprise, the kiln owner's SUV didn't get very far before it was rear-ended by a car, and he got out with his thugs to argue with someone, and the four men were put down by a few shots from the other side"

Su Zhiyu asked impatiently, "And then what?!"

Su Zhi Fei whispered, "The two men who shot me, threw the bodies of the four of them into the ditch by the side of the road, then carried me out of the SUV and sent me back to that farmhouse again"

“Ah?!” Su Zhiyu was even more puzzled: “Why did you have to be sent back again ah?”

Su Zhi Fei said, “They thought I had been unconscious and didn’t know anything, so they discussed in the car that they would send me back to that farmhouse and then force that couple at gunpoint to take good care of me until I recovered, and then dispose of that couple after I left, but they didn’t know that I had heard all these conversations.”

The two men discussed in the car whether they should report the matter to General Manager Chen of Buckingham Palace, but they thought that I might encounter this small matter frequently in the future, and as long as my safety could be guaranteed, there was no need to report it every time, so I knew then that it was you who had been secretly arranging people to protect me.”

Immediately afterwards, Su Zhi Fei suddenly knelt down on the ground and kowtowed respectfully, saying gratefully, “Thank you, Mr. Ye, for saving my life so many times, I will never forget it!”

Ye Chen reached out to help him up and said indifferently, “For this matter, you don’t need to be grateful to me, you are Auntie Du’s son and Miss Su’s brother, and you didn’t commit a great crime of ten evils, so for reason, I can’t take your life, because of this, I let you go on a pilgrimage, the original intention, in fact, was to let you go on an ascetic training;”

“Although I have never made a pilgrimage on my knees, I have been experiencing all kinds of hardships since I was eight years old, until I was twenty-seven years old, and these hardships are, in my opinion, equally a kind of asceticism;”

“Austerity training can beat one’s heart, sharpen one’s will, and reshape one’s soul; no matter if you were previously well-clothed, arrogant and domineering, or if you had no food to eat, or if you despised yourself, you can find a transformation in austerity training;”

“If you can do this, it will be a good thing for you, and for your family;”

“If you can’t do it, at least you will also have a heart and a scruple because of the hard discipline along the way, and you will definitely be restrained in the future;”

Speaking at this point, Ye Chen turned his words and said in a firm tone, “But I definitely cannot let you lose your life on the way of hard discipline because of a natural or man-made disaster! In that case, not only would all this deviate from my original intention, I would also be unable to explain to Auntie Du and Miss Su.”

Chapter 5337

He was able to spare Su Shoudao and make him whole, not to mention a mere Su Zhifei.

The latter had a bicycle and the route was through the most economically developed areas of China, so as long as he was not blind and pedaled on the highway, there was basically no danger to his life.

However, Su Zhi Fei was different, as the environment was getting harsher and harsher all the way to the west, and there were dangers everywhere if he was not careful. If he did not protect him secretly, how could he explain to Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu in case he died on the way.

Su Zhi Fei also knew that Ye Chen was not really being kind to him when he asked people to protect him, but for the sake of his mother and sister.

But even so, he was still grateful to Ye Chen and to him for making him come to his senses from his former fop.

Therefore, he said to Ye Chen with immense devotion, "Mr. Ye, no matter what your motives are, I still thank you for your rebuilding grace!"

Ye Chen looked at him and said indifferently, "It seems that you have also come to your senses and returned from the prodigal son, so if you don't want to continue this time, the pilgrimage can be terminated."

When Ye Chen said this, Su Zhi Fei and the mother and daughter duo of Du Hai Qing and Su Zhi Yu, all looked surprised.

Su Zhi Fei thought that his ears were out of order, he never dreamed that Ye Chen would allow him to terminate the pilgrimage, knowing that he had only walked a third of the way, and it was the easiest third, the remaining two thirds were the harshest challenge, as the altitude became higher and higher, the road behind would become more and more difficult, it was no exaggeration to say that if he terminated it now, at least 80% of the ordeal could be spared.

Ye Chen did not say this out of pure sincerity.

He just wanted to see if Su Zhi Fei had really changed his ways.

If he could really change his ways and decide to abandon everything he had done before, then he would definitely choose to continue on this pilgrimage path.

But if he still had his heart in the right place, then he would definitely seize this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

The reason why Ye Chen was testing him so much was that he wanted to use this to decide whether or not to allow Su Zhi Fei to return to the decision-making level of the Su Family in the future.

Although the current head of the Su family was Su Zhiyue, it was impossible for Su Zhiyue to run the entire Su family by herself. Su Zhiyue was like a chairman of a group company with supreme decision making power and veto power, she could not do all the core things herself, so she still needed many core executive positions under her to help her run the entire Su family's industries.

A large group of companies, under the chairman, there are at least a number of executive directors, an executive president, and each company under the group, also need a set of management team, these core positions, is equivalent to the frontier officials, in the hands of a great deal of power, so there must be trusted people in charge, in order to avoid management failure to the maximum extent.

Her father has been under house arrest by the He family and cannot intervene in the affairs of the Su family. The old man, Su Chengfeng, has also left for Madagascar, and Du Haiqing has also divorced Su Shoudao, so it is naturally not convenient for her to have any further involvement with the Su Group.

Therefore, if Su Zhi Fei could manage to completely change his ways, Ye Chen still hoped that he could return to the Su family and be of use to Su Zhiyu.

It was because of this thought that Ye Chen decided to give Su Zhi Fei a real test.

If Su Zhi Fei passed this test, he would not stop him from becoming the number two person in the Su family.

But if Su Zhi Fei failed this test, then from today onwards, although he could regain his freedom, he would never be allowed to get his hands on the Su family's properties.

Chapter 5338

Because he was looking for a man for Su Zhiyu who was absolutely trustworthy and loyal, he could not plant any hidden dangers in this candidate, but if Su Zhifei had even the slightest thought of giving up on this pilgrimage, he would exclude him.

Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu did not know Ye Chen's true intentions, and when they heard that Ye Chen was willing to give Su Zhifei a lenient chance, they naturally could not hide their excitement in their hearts, hoping that Su Zhifei would agree to it in the meantime.

But Su Zhi Fei hesitated for a moment, but spoke, "Mr Ye, thank you for your kindness, but I still want to finish the pilgrimage this time."

Ye Chen said expressionlessly, "Think carefully, it will be more difficult further on, you will enter the mountains, enter the plateau, enter the no-man's land, and even go over several mountains at an altitude of four to five kilometres, you will no longer be surrounded by modern cities, instead, there is an almost untouched primitive world, where the environment is treacherous, surrounded by wild animals, it is likely that an ordinary A normal plateau reaction could kill you."

Su Zhi Fei nodded and said sincerely, "I know the road behind me will be tough, but I still want to finish this and not give up halfway I'm not going to lie to you, I didn't have faith or awe before, but through these months of experience, I've got my own faith in my heart, and this faith is not a religion, but perseverance towards a goal, I hope I can have the character to never give up, and walking through this pilgrimage is the first step to having this character, if I give up now, then I might not even get another chance in the future"

Ye Chen couldn't help but be a little impressed with Su Zhi Fei.

To be able to say these words, Su Zhifei had indeed not wasted these past six months.

Thus, he nodded and spoke, "Since you have already made up your mind, then I won't say much more, there is still a long road ahead, in the process, if you feel pressure and difficulties, you can quit at any time, I won't blame you, let alone stop you."

Su Zhi Fei arched his hand and said, "Okay Mr. Ye, I understand!"

Ye Chen added: "However, for the rest of the journey, if you are not prepared to quit, then you will not be given the chance to come back and rest halfway, you will have to keep walking to the end, and when you reach the Da Zhao Monastery, I will arrange for a plane to pick you up and bring you back."

"Good!" Su Zhifei said without thinking, "Please rest assured, Mr. Ye, I will definitely succeed in reaching Dazhao Monastery!"

Ye Chen nodded, stood up and said to Du Haiqing, "Auntie Du, I will not disturb your family reunion, I will come back to pay a visit another day!"

Du Haiqing didn't expect Ye Chen to leave so soon, and in this instant, she suddenly figured out the purpose of Ye Chen's visit, and thought to herself, "Ye Chen should not have come here today to pay a visit, but to test Zhi Fei, to see what choice he would make after getting the termination right, and now that Zhi Fei has made his choice, Ye Chen is ready to leave"

Thinking of this, she also roughly guessed Ye Chen's deeper purpose and could not help but feel a little joy in her heart.

She also stood up and said to Ye Chen very politely, "Then auntie will see you off!"

At the side, Su Zhiyu did not expect Ye Chen to suddenly leave, so she subconsciously asked, "Mr Ye, won't you sit down for a while?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "I won't sit down, another day."

After saying that, he got up and walked out.

Du Haiqing, with his pair of children, sent Ye Chen out the door, and only after Ye Chen got into the car did he let out a long breath and turned to Su Zhi Fei and said, "Zhi Fei, it seems that you have passed the test Ye Chen gave you!"

Chapter 5339

"A test?" Su Zhi Fei looked at his mother with some confusion and asked in confusion, "Mom, what do you mean by that?"

Du Haiqing said seriously, "Ye Chen's main purpose in coming over today should be to ask you that question and see if you will take this opportunity to end this pilgrimage."

Su Zhi Fei asked her, "Then what is Mr Ye planning to test me for? To test the sincerity of my heart?"

"Something like that!" Du Haiqing nodded slightly and explained, "Ye Chen's style of action is still very much like his father's. Although I don't know Ye Chen, I know Ye Changye, and what makes Ye Changye different from most leaders is that his primary prerequisite for hiring people is not ability, nor origin, but character."

After a pause, Du Haiqing added: "In his eyes, no matter how capable a person is, as long as that person's character is not proper, he will not make deep friends, let alone put them into his career blueprint."

"But nowadays many people don't care about this, many bosses themselves start from a point of no good intentions, he just wants to squeeze out the ability and value of the other party and then discard it at will, so they use people, first of all, they look at ability, not character, but such people, often also a double-edged sword, even if they can create a certain value in a short period of time, but two unsuspecting, both who want the winner takes it all, how can they create a win-win situation? Therefore, this situation must do more harm than good in the long run, and it is precisely because of this that the first and foremost prerequisite for Ye Changtao's hiring of people is that they are of good character;"

Speaking here, Du Haiqing added: "Ye Chen let out to let He Yingxiu put your father under house arrest, I think he must have some intention, as long as Su Shoudao can think straight and meet Ye Chen's criteria for testing him, Ye Chen will give him his freedom, if you don't believe me, wait and see, after the wedding on the eighth, he will definitely be able to regain his freedom."

Su Zhi Fei was surprised and asked, "Mom, do you mean that Mr. Ye intends to use me?"

Du Haiqing said seriously, "It may not be that he uses you, it could also be your sister."

Su Zhiyu nodded and spoke, "Then when brother returns from his pilgrimage, he will be able to return to work at Su's Group!"

"That's right." Du Haiqing sighed, "Ye Chen tested your brother, I think it's also for you, his mind is as fine as his father's."

Su Zhi Fei was silent for a moment, then suddenly realized, "Mom, I understand what Mr. Ye means He wants me to be down-to-earth and share the burden for Zhiyu without any distractions, but only if he feels that my character has changed qualitatively from before, if I am still the same person who turns back at any time for the sake of profit, he will definitely not let me get my hands on the Su family's business."

Du Haiqing nodded and said, "That's right, that's it, so you absolutely can't have any other thoughts either, if you let him down again, he may never give you any chance again."

If you let him down again, he may never give you another chance." Su Zhi Fei said without a second thought, "Don't worry, I am not the same person who still wants to inherit the Su family, and this pilgrimage has made me understand that I must not let my loved ones down. Even if it's just the money in my own account, it's still enough for me to live a carefree life."

Chapter 5340

The first time I saw Su Zhifei say these words from the bottom of my heart, I nodded with relief and said to Su Zhiyu, "Zhiyu, as the head of the Su family, even if Ye Chen allows your brother to return to the Su Group in the future, it will be up to you to decide whether to let him go back or not, you can consider this on your own, mum won't interfere, but mum only has one request for you. "

Su Zhiyu said, "Mom, you can say anything!"

Du Haiqing said seriously, "In a family business, it is normal to use your own family members for important positions, but you must be objective and impartial, and you must be fair in all matters.

Su Zhiyu nodded heavily: "Don't worry, mum, I'll make a note of it!"

Three o'clock in the afternoon.

A direct flight to Hong Kong Island took off at Jinling Airport.

The thoughtful Liu Manqiong sat on the plane, looking out of the window at the increasingly distant Jinling, and couldn't help but think of the time when she met Ye Chen in Hong Kong Island.

The chance sight of Ye Chen walking with Nana-chan today, although it made her heart feel inferior for a short while, did not affect the strong love for Ye Chen in her heart in any way.

Now, all she can think about is how fast time will pass in the future. She can't wait for the day when Jinling University starts, and she has even decided that after the school year starts, she will call Ye Chen to inform him that she is coming to Jinling for business and ask him to come out to meet her, and when they meet, she will tell him that she has joined Jinling University.

And Liu Manqiong was prepared for the worst, even if Ye Chen was unhappy when he found out, or even wished he had left Jinling, he didn't care, he was also coming to this world for the first time to experience life, and when he met someone he liked, he just wanted to be closer to him, and no one could persuade him.

Just as her plane was gradually flying away from Jinling, another plane slowly landed on the runway of Jinling Airport.

This plane had taken off from Madagascar in Africa and had flown 10,000 kilometres all the way to Jinling, and the passenger on board was the old man of the Su family, Su Chengfeng, who was already a large landowner in Madagascar.

He had received an invitation from his son, Su Shoudao, and had come all the way from Madagascar to attend the wedding.

When he found out that his son was getting married to He Yingxiu, Su Chengfeng's first thought was surprise, and his second thought, relief.

The relief was not because he was satisfied with He Yingxiu, but because he was not used to seeing his son licking the dog in front of Du Haiqing for so many years.

Everyone knew that Du Haiqing had agreed to marry Su Shoudao because he had begged Ye Changyang but was unable to do so. At first, he also wanted to stop his son from marrying Du Haiqing, after all, he was also a man who wanted to save face and was afraid of being teased for treating his son as a treasure even though he had picked up something that others did not want.

However, in the end, he could not resist Su Shoudao, who only wanted to marry Du Haiqing, and finally he could only acquiesce to the marriage.

But the old man had never been able to untie this knot in his heart for so many years.

Now that his son has finally ended his marriage of more than 20 years to Du Haiqing and married He Yingxiu, who loves him with all his heart, in the eyes of the old man, this is the best place for Su Shoudao right now.

After more than 20 years of sharing a bed with a woman who did not love him, it was time to change to someone who loved him.
