

Ye Chen 5341

Chapter 5341

However, if you look deeper, the old man also feels that this matter is not perfect. As far as he can remember, He Yingxiu is disabled, which is a bit of an understatement, and the fact that the Su family's first grandmother is missing an arm is not so good when you think about it.

But what he didn't know at the moment was that He Yingxiu's broken arm had long since been reborn after being recreated with the Remodelling Dan.

After the plane landed, it glided all the way to the hangar, where Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu had been waiting for a long time.

After all, it was the old man who had come all the way here, and the two attached great importance to it, so they came to the airport half an hour early to wait for Sister Ying.

As the plane slowly slid into the hangar, He Yingxiu's hands were trembling with nervousness, mainly because she was not sure whether the strong-tempered and overbearing Master Su would be able to look at her as his future daughter-in-law.

What if he was displeased with her and came down and called her unworthy of his son, what would she do then?

When Su Shoudao noticed He Yingxiu's nervousness, he whispered in her ear, "Don't worry, when I spoke to the old man on the phone about this matter, he didn't express any discontent."

He Yingxiu said apprehensively, "I know the old master's character, his joy and anger do not show, and he is very fond of sudden outbursts, so I am afraid that he is holding a breath in his heart ....."

"It won't." Su Shoudao smiled and comforted, "The old master is no longer the same old master who reigned supreme, his mind is now on raising horses, when I said we were getting married and invited him over, his first reaction was to calculate the time first, it was said that he had bought a horse farm which had several mares that were about to give birth, he didn't want to miss the birth of the foals."

He Yingxiu was slightly relieved, but she was still a little unsure until she got a positive confirmation from the old man in person.

By this time, the step ladder had been docked, the hatch opened and Su Chengfeng, wearing short sleeves and big trousers, stepped down from the plane.

When he saw Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu, he waved to them from the plane with a smile on his face, and his pace quickened a little.

When Su Shoudao saw him smiling and waving, he whispered to He Yingxiu, "Look, the old man seems to be in a good mood!"

After saying that, he had taken the initiative to welcome him and said respectfully, "Dad, you've had a hard journey."

At this moment, He Yingxiu also apprehensively walked up to Su Chengfeng and bowed respectfully, “Greetings, Master!”

Su Chengfeng said with a smile, “You two are going to have a wedding soon, why are you still calling me Master? Besides, I am not the head of the Su family anymore, so there is no need to call me so rudely, I am older than your father, you can call me uncle first and then change your name to Dad on the wedding day.”

He Yingxiu didn’t expect the old man to be so easy-going now, so his heart was relaxed.

Su Shoudao also put his heart down and pointed to the Rolls-Royce behind him and said to the old man, “Dad, let’s go to the hotel first.”

“Good.” Su Chengfeng nodded slightly, while He Yingxiu on the side had already taken the first step to pull open the car door for him, made an invitation gesture and said respectfully, “Uncle Su, please!”

Su Chengfeng subconsciously responded and was about to sit in the car when he suddenly noticed that He Yingxiu was actually making an inviting gesture with both hands, he immediately pointed at He Yingxiu’s right hand and muttered, “Yingxiu ..... you ..... you ..... what is wrong with your right hand .....”

Chapter 5342

Su Chengfeng, who had been a landlord in Madagascar for some time, had no idea what He Yingxiu had been through all this time.

He only remembered that He Yingxiu had had one of her arms chopped off to save her son, and that the shoulder-length wound had almost decapitated her entire right arm.

However, the He Yingxiu in front of him was wearing a half-sleeved long dress, and both arms looked intact and flexible. Su Chengfeng was also someone who had seen the world, and he knew very well that with the current level of science, even the best prosthetics could not be so realistic and flexible.

Seeing his surprised expression, He Yingxiu was about to explain when Su Shoudao, who was on the side, hurriedly said, “Dad, it’s a long story, let’s get in the car and talk about it!”

Su Chengfeng knew that there might be something hidden in this matter, so he nodded and got into the car first.

He Yingxiu then got into the additional, while Su Shoudao drove the car himself.

After the car started, Su Shoudao said to Su Chengfeng, who was sitting in the back row, “Dad, to be honest, Yingxiu’s right arm has recovered as before.”

“Back to normal?” Su Chengfeng’s eyes widened as he blurted out, “You mean, Yingxiu’s broken arm has been regenerated?”

“Right.” Su Shoudao nodded, “That is indeed the case, this matter is too shocking, but fortunately, Yingxiu has been away from Jinling all these years, so not many people know about her, I am afraid that I might have leaked out just now outside, and you should not talk to others about this matter.”

Su Chengfeng was incomparably amazed and asked, “How on earth did this happen? I haven’t heard of such medical technology nowadays .....”

After saying that, Su Chengfeng didn’t wait for Su Shoudao to answer and suddenly exclaimed with wide eyes, “Could it be ..... could it be because of Ye Chen?”

The first thing that came to mind when Su Chengfeng was able to bring the Su family to the top of China step by step was Ye Chen, and apart from Ye Chen, he really couldn’t think of anyone else who could have this kind of ability.

The most exaggerated is the Japanese Ito family’s Ito Yohiko, who was chased by the Takahashi family, jumped off a bridge and had both legs amputated. After taking the elixir given by Ye Chen, both legs grew back intact as well .....”

“Holy shit .....” Su Chengfeng’s entire body was shocked beyond measure as he muttered, “What kind of magical ability does this guy Ye Chen have, such unimaginable things can become reality in his hands, even in mythological stories, I I’ve never heard of any kind of elixir that can regenerate a person’s broken arm .....”

Su Shoudao sighed: “Ye Chen’s ability is beyond the reach of mere mortals like us. Let me tell you this, Ruo Li has been promoted by Ye Chen one after another and is now a five-star martial artist!”

“What?!” Su Chengfeng’s brain was dizzy and he subconsciously asked, “Is Ruo Li a five-star martial artist now? How do I remember that the He family’s old man was only at the level of a three-star martial artist?”

Su Shoudao nodded: “This is the benefit of being promoted by Ye Chen, you also know that day at Ye Ling Mountain, even Wan Breaking Army, also to Ye Chen’s body, with his strength and character, can stay Su family to today, really thanks to Zhiyu and Ruo Li’s blessing, otherwise, Su family is afraid that by now would have been completely trampled... ..”

Su Chengfeng’s hands shook as he let out a long sigh, “Having Zhiyu and Ruoli is a blessing for my Su family .....”

Chapter 5343

After saying that, he looked at He Yingxiu, who was sitting in the passenger seat, and said with a face full of shame, “Yingxiu, when I gave up Ruo Li for the Su family, my heart was indeed extremely ashamed, I still hope that you two mothers will not hold a grudge against me .....”

He Yingxiu turned his head and said seriously, “Uncle Su, I know you had your own difficulties with Ruo Li, and you are not the only one to blame for this, Shoudao is also to blame, if he had not let Ruo Li go on a killing spree in Japan and wipe out the Matsumoto family, he would not have forced Ruo Li into such a passive position... ..”

Su Chengfeng sighed and asked her, “Yingxiu, where is Ruo Li now? When I come back this time, I must apologize to her in person!”

Su Shoudao answered first, “Ruo Li is at the hotel preparing for the wedding site, you will be able to meet her when you go over later.”

“Good .....” Su Chengfeng nodded and asked again, “This time when you got married, did Ye Chen ask Zhi Fei to come back?”

“Came back.” Su Shoudao replied, “Zhi Fei has also just returned to Jinling, but I haven’t seen him yet, he went to Haiqing’s with Zhiyu first.”

“Oh yes.” Su Chengfeng lamented, “I almost forgot, Haiqing is also settled in Jinling .....”

He said, his expression was even more ashamed, and whispered, “At first I killed Hai Qing, and almost killed Zhiyu as well, I have been ashamed of them both in my heart, I don’t know if I have the opportunity to visit them this time, and apologize to Hai Qing, why don’t you ask her for me .....”

“I’ll ask Zhiyu to say hello to Haiqing, and if Haiqing agrees with you, let Zhiyu take you there.”

“Good ..... good .....” Su Chengfeng nodded gently and said from the bottom of his heart: “During this time in Madagascar, I have also considered to be completely open-minded. In the past, I just took the Su family’s wealth and power too seriously, and my family and human feelings have been quite thin as a result, now that I’m relieved of my armor, I realize how hateful I was, I hope that before I go back this time, I can get forgiveness from Ruoli, Zhiyu and Haiqing’s side .....”

When Su Chengfeng was in power, he saw everything, but really after he was stripped of everything by Ye Chen, his state of mind had changed a lot.

As he grew older, what he had done back then had become a knot in his heart, and he truly hoped to be forgiven by his children and grandchildren, and this time, coming back to attend Su Shoudao’s wedding was a good opportunity to untie these knots.

After a moment of silence, Su Chengfeng remembered something and suddenly asked Su Shoudao, “Shoudao, who was the witness for your wedding to Yingxiu?”

“The witness?” Su Shoudao subconsciously said, “We didn’t invite a witness, and besides my family and Yingxiu’s family, we didn’t invite any outsiders to the wedding, so we thought we would just do it in a low profile, and Ruo Li invited a famous male MC from Yanjing to guest officiate, so we didn’t consider the matter of a witness.”

Su Chengfeng nodded and said seriously, “You two should take the time to ask Ye Chen to see if he is willing to be your witness.”

“Ye Chen?” Su Shoudao said awkwardly, “Dad, it’s not that I have anything against Ye Chen, it’s just that when people invite witnesses they invite elders or leaders, there’s no such thing as asking a junior to be a witness .....”

“A junior?” Su Chengfeng laughed and asked him rhetorically, “Shoudao, do you think that with our current situation, we are still qualified to discuss seniority with Ye Chen? Even if you think that he should at least call you an uncle, that’s still a big trust on your part!”

Chapter 5344

“Su Chengfeng’s change was indeed something that many people did not expect.

In the eyes of many members of the Su family, he was the stone in the thatch pit, so smelly and hard that there had never been anyone, who dared to challenge his authority in the Su family, and he, too, had never bowed his head to anyone in the Su family.

But this time, he did have the sense to change his ways.

After he arrived at Buckingham Palace, the first thing he did was to find Su Ruoli, accompanied by Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu, and sincerely apologised to Su Ruoli and prayed for her forgiveness.

He bowed slightly and said to Su Ruoli, “Ruoli, in the past, grandpa treated you with many debts, and even betrayed you repeatedly for the sake of the Su family’s interests, now grandpa does not dare to ask for your forgiveness, but only hopes that you can accept grandpa’s sincere apology .....”

Su Ruoli did not expect that Su Chengfeng would take the initiative to apologize to herself, thinking back to herself as an illegitimate daughter, she had never been acknowledged by Su Chengfeng either, and although she knew that he was her grandfather, she never dared to really treat him as a grandfather, let alone expect him to treat her as a granddaughter.

When she thinks of how she was repeatedly abandoned by the Su family, and even narrowly escaped death at the hands of the Japanese Self-Defence Forces, she is still indignant.

When she thought of the times she had almost died, Su Ruo Li’s tears rolled down her face uncontrollably.

But although she was crying, she said to Su Chengfeng, “You have already paid the price for what you did, and I don’t blame you anymore.”

When Su Chengfeng saw that she could not stop her tears, his heart was also ashamed.

But the good thing was that Su Ruoli was still willing to forgive herself, and this was something that she had achieved for herself.

Afterwards, Su Shoudao called Su Zhiyu and told her about the old man’s desire to visit Du Haiqing at home.

When Du Haiqing learnt of it, she also graciously expressed her welcome.

Su Shoudao wanted to accompany Su Chengfeng, but Su Chengfeng admonished him in a low voice, “Shoudao, since you’re getting married to Yingxiu, you have to keep your distance from Haiqing and stop making Yingxiu uncomfortable in her heart, on Haiqing’s side, I’ll just ask the driver to send me there, and you should find a chance to talk to Ye Chen and see if he’s willing to be a witness for the two of you.”

Su Shoudao pondered for a moment, nodded gently and said, “Okay dad, I’ll find a chance to ask Ye Chen.”

When Su Chengfeng used his sincerity and exchanged it for the forgiveness of Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu's mother and daughter, Su Shoudao took the initiative to give Ye Chen a call.

At this moment, Ye Chen was locked himself up in his Champs-Elysees Spa villa, thinking hard.

After coming out of Du Haiqing's house in the afternoon, he couldn't wait to come here to continue his research on the ring that Lin Wan'er had given him.

Today, the ring was throbbing again, causing Ye Chen to begin to be a little puzzled.

Ever since he had gotten it, this ring had been acting like an aura fraud, no matter how much aura he poured into it, it did not give half a response.

However, since the last time it pulsed inexplicably at Jinling University, and today at the underground garage of Townsend I, it had suddenly pulsed for the second time.

In Ye Chen's subconscious mind, he had always felt that this thing was definitely not simple, because the amount of spiritual energy he had input into this ring was already a sea of energy, and if he used that spiritual energy to activate the Thunderstorm Talisman, the whole of Jinling was afraid that the thunderstorm would not stop or rain for at least three to five days.

However, such a powerful amount of energy could disappear without a trace when it entered this small ring.

He knew that everything in the world had to follow a basic physical rule, and the law of conservation of energy was one of them.

Chapter 5345

The basic principle of the law of conservation of energy is that energy does not arise out of thin air, but it does not disappear out of thin air either.

If we compare aura to electricity and this ring to a battery, then we can see at a glance the unusual aspects of this.

Normally, a battery of the same size would be no more than an ordinary button battery, and the amount of power it could store could be said to be minuscule; a few hundred mAh would already touch the peak of battery technology at this stage.

But right now this ring is like a button battery charged with thousands, if not tens of thousands of kilowatt-hours of power!

So this raises a question.

Such a huge amount of energy, according to the law of conservation of energy, could never have vanished for nothing, so it must have been stored or transformed by the ring in some way.

But how on earth did it do that? And where did it store all this energy?

Although Ye Chen could not figure out these two questions for a while, he could figure out one thing, and that was that this ring was actually able to devour such a powerful aura, which proved that it was definitely not a mundane object, and had even gone beyond Ye Chen's understanding of things.

Ye Chen was naturally scratching his heart as he held such a divine weapon in his hand but had been unable to pry into its mysteries.

Ye Chen also tried to send some spiritual energy into it again, but it still reacted the same as before, accepting all his spiritual energy and sinking into the sea, not giving any response.

The more he did so, the more puzzled Ye Chen became about this thing.

But nowadays, he did not dare to recklessly send spiritual energy into the ring, so he could only hold the ring and examine it repeatedly, trying to find out the mystery of this ring.

However, the ring was a plain ring without any patterns or inscriptions, and the surface was so smooth that there was not even a small puddle.

Just when Ye Chen was at a loss, Su Shoudao called him.

On the phone, after Su Shoudao made a respectful courtesy, he said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, actually I am calling you this time because I have a request, and I hope you can grant it."

Ye Chen then said, "Let's hear it first."

Su Shoudao said, "Mr. Ye, I would like to ask you to be the witness of my wedding with Yingxiu ..... We both could not have come this far without your help, Mr. Ye, and to both of us, you are our greatest benefactor, so it is more than appropriate to ask you to be the witness, and I also hope you can beat ....."

"Okay, I promise you."

To this request from Su Shoudao, Ye Chen agreed after only a slight hesitation.

He felt that since Su Shoudao had begged him for this matter, he should give him this face even if it was for the sake of the two sisters, Su Zhiyu and Su Ruoli, without looking at the face of the monk, not to mention that there were no outsiders at this wedding, it was just the Su family, the He family, and the Ito family.

Su Shoudao, who originally thought that Ye Chen might not agree, was relieved to hear Ye Chen's affirmative answer and thanked him profusely before hanging up the phone.

Ye Chen put the phone aside, his gaze returned to the ring, and he couldn't help but mutter: "Old Tie, you have cheated me of so much aura one after another, without saying a word of thanks or giving any reaction from the beginning to the end, I won't bother with you about that, just can you tell me why you suddenly and inexplicably jumped last time at Jinling University and this time at Thomson's First Class? ? Could it be that these two places, made you feel something?"

After muttering a bit, the ring naturally did not move at all.

Remembering something, Ye Chen added, "Then if I were to take you back to the same place, would you still give the same reaction?"

Thinking of this, Ye Chen's eyes immediately lit up, and without saying a word, he put the ring into his pocket and immediately drove to Jinling University!"

Chapter 5346

Ye Chen used his fastest speed to get to Jinling University.

This time, he did not drive in, but parked his car in the car park near Jinling University, and then walked into the campus.

He clearly remembered that the last time the ring had jumped at Jinling University, it was on his way to drive away from here.

So Ye Chen put the ring on his hand and walked unhurriedly all the way to the Academic Affairs Building of Jinling University.

On this journey, he was very careful to feel the movement of the ring with every step he took.

Ye Chen muttered in his heart, "Last time, it only reacted on the way out, could it be that this thing still recognises the direction?"

Thinking of this, he turned around again and retraced his steps along the way he had come, in reverse.

But until he reached the school gate, the ring still did not give any reaction.

Ye Chen couldn't help but feel a little annoyed in his heart, thinking, "Didn't you jump here last time? Why aren't you jumping this time? Did you fall asleep or didn't find the feeling? Or else I'll take you to the underground garage of Townsend's Ichiban to feel it again!"

The ring didn't give him any response, so he had no choice but to go back to the car park, prepare to get in his car and leave, and then go back to the underground car park on the upper floors of Townsend One to try his luck.

He had just pulled out of the car park when his mobile phone suddenly rang, he picked it up and couldn't help but be a little surprised as the person who had called was actually Shi Tianqi's granddaughter, Chen Xiaozhao.

He knew that Shi Tianqi had opened a medical school in Jinling and was working with Chen Xiaozhao to help the world, but he hadn't been to see the two grandchildren recently because he had a lot of things to do.

Moreover, these two grandchildren seldom bothered him, so he thought it was because he was busy with the medical school, plus he did not want to influence himself too much, so he did not take the initiative to contact them.

So now that Chen Xiaozhao suddenly called him, Ye Chen's first thought was that she and her grandfather, Shi Tianqi, had run into some kind of trouble.

So, he immediately picked up the phone and spoke, "Xiaozhao, you haven't called me for a while."

Chen Xiaozhao said in a somewhat sad voice, "Master Ye ..... Xiaozhao is calling to say goodbye to you ....."

“Say goodbye?” Ye Chen frowned and asked her, “What’s wrong? Is it because you and Dr. Shi are in some kind of trouble?”

“Not really .....” Chen Xiaozhao sighed and said quietly, “It’s my grandfather he’s ready to close the medical school and go back to Yanjing .....”

“Back to Yanjing?” Ye Chen subconsciously asked her, “I seem to remember that divine Doctor Shi said that he would settle in Jinling from now on, this has only been here for a year or so, how come he suddenly wants to leave?”

Chen Xiaozhao said in a vague tone, “This ....., how to say it, is also grandfather’s own decision, I can’t help it ....., he has now taken off the signboard of the medical school, thinking to leave tomorrow, originally he was not prepared to tell you, because he felt he really had no face to say goodbye to you, and wanted to wait until after he left to call you to make amends ....., but ....., but .....”

Chen Xiaozhao said, suddenly whimpered and choked, “But Xiaozhao couldn’t let go of ....., Jinling and Master Ye ....., so he called to ask you to persuade Grandpa again .....”

Ye Chen said without thinking, “Xiao Zhao you don’t cry first, tell me where you are now?”

Chapter 5347

“Still at the Medical Center .....,” Chen Xiaozhao choked out, “Grandfather plans to pack everything up tonight.”

When Ye Chen drove to Shi Tianqi’s Ji Shi Hall, the plaque had already been taken off and thrown aside.

At the same time, there was a plaque wrapped in red silk at the entrance, and it was not yet possible to see what was written on the plaque.

When Ye Chen arrived at Jishi Hall, Shi Tianqi was working with Chen Xiaozhao and the junior staff to pack up the various herbs on the medicine cabinet.

When Chen Xiaozhao saw Ye Chen enter, he excitedly shouted, “Master Ye!”

After saying this, she ran towards Ye Chen and instantly jumped into his arms, wailing and crying.

Ye Chen hurriedly asked her, “Little Zhaoge, what’s going on? Tell me properly.”

Shi Tianqi also saw Ye Chen’s expression at this time and was startled then hobbled over with a face full of shame and sighed, “Master Ye ....., what brings you here? Is it because this girl Xiaozhao told you something?”

Chen Xiaozhao cried, “Grandfather, Xiaozhao doesn’t want to leave Jinling, so I wanted to ask Master Ye to come and persuade you .....”

Shi Tianqi let out a long sigh, “Ai! I, Shi Tianqi, am willing to gamble and accept defeat, since I have lost, how can I be so stubborn as to continue to stay here .....”

Chen Xiaozhao cried stubbornly, "But losing is only losing to Ji Shi Tang! We don't have to leave Jinling because of that!"

Shi Tianqi asked her rhetorically, "My bet with him is that if I lose, I'll give him the Hall of Worldly Harmony, what's the point of staying in Jinling?"

Chen Xiaozhao cried, "But I just don't want to leave Jinling ..... I haven't learned the real Sanyang Needle Technique from Master Ye, I don't want to go ....."

That day, when the Song family's old man was seriously ill, Shi Tianqi brought Chen Xiaozhao to rescue and treat him, but he happened to meet Ye Chen on a narrow path. At that time, Chen Xiaozhao was not convinced of Ye Chen, but after seeing Ye Chen actually use the real "Three Yang Acupuncture Technique", he immediately admired him.

Although the Three Yang Acupuncture Technique was an ancestral medical technique of the Shi family, what the ancestors of the Shi family had learnt was just the skin of it, and the real Three Yang Acupuncture Technique was much more powerful than the one passed down from the Shi family.

Chen Xiaozhao also knew that many of the top national medical techniques had been untold secrets throughout the years, so she had never expected Ye Chen to teach her, and suddenly said so today, but just wanted an excuse to stay in Jinling.

Ye Chen was a little surprised at this time and asked, "Divine Doctor Shi, what exactly did you lose to give up the Hall of Ji Shi to others?"

Shi Tianqi said with a shameful face, "Master Ye ..... is really that I am not as skilled as others, losing is losing, and I have no face to mention it to you again ....."

Chen Xiaozhao, who was at the side, blurted out, "It's an old man who came two days ago! He said that if he won, he would let Grandpa take off the plaque of Jishi Hall and give him this place to run the medical school. ..."

Ye Chen said curiously, "Divine Doctor Shi, it sounds to me like the other party is obviously setting a trap for you to exploit, with your style of acting, you shouldn't fall for this kind of trick! "

Shi Tianqi's face reddened and he struggled for a long time before he lamented, "Master Ye, I'm not going to lie! I thought that if I could win that pot for you, it would ease the burden of your future pill-making." "I didn't expect that I would mess up.

Chapter 5348

Ye Chen didn't expect that the reason why Shi Tianqi wanted to leave Jinling was because he had lost a bet with someone about Ji Shi Tang.

What's more, he didn't expect that the reason this old man had bet with someone else was to win a pill censer for himself.

He asked, somewhat puzzled, "Divine Doctor Shi, the one you bet with, who was it?"

"I don't know." Shi Tianqi replied, "That person is quite wild, he only said his surname was Hong and he was known as Hong Tian Shi."

"Hong Tian Shi?" When Ye Chen heard those three words, he suddenly frowned.

After Gu Qiuyi had delivered the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill for Grandpa, Ye Chen had heard her talk about this name.

According to her, this person was a very senior Daoist priest in the American Chinese circle, known as Hong Tian Shi, who was very close to his own grandmother, and at that time, when Grandpa was critically ill, he had made a special trip to save him, and for this reason, he had a slight argument with Gu Qiuyi.

After seeing the efficacy of the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, this man was bent on finding the person who had made the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill. After hearing his great uncle An Chongqiu talk about the appearance of the Spring Returning Pill in Jinling, he immediately decided to come to Jinling to look for it.

Gu Qiuyi had deliberately reminded herself at the time to be careful of this Hong Tian Shi in the future, but she was still in America at the time, so she did not take this person seriously.

But now it seemed that this man had indeed come to Jinling and had found his way to his side.

He had made a bet with Shi Tianqi, I don't know if he had simply taken a fancy to Shi Tianqi's Ji Shi Tang, or if he had already found out about himself and was specifically looking for an entry point from Shi Tianqi.

However, Ye Chen was not the least bit nervous, in his opinion, a person who could be scared to death by the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill was not capable of anything, so if he was really a bad guy, he could just arrest him and let Hong Wu take him to the dog farm.

The reason why Ye Chen was so arrogant was not because he was blindly confident, it was just that some small details of the other party had penetrated his own bottom.

If a person was appalled at the sight of a Rolls-Royce, then the odds were that this person could not afford a Rolls-Royce for his or her price.

People who could really afford a Rolls-Royce would not find it unattainable even if they did not have one.

So he asked Shi Tianqi, "Doctor Shi, what have you compared with him?"

Shi Tianqi sighed and said, "He wanted to compete with me in pulse taking, and he had to choose a female patient who had given birth to a child at random to compete, and there were three points. The third point is to number the number of pregnancies of the opponent, whoever is closest to the actual number of times, whoever counts as the winner ..... A total of three games, three games and two winners finally wins ....."

Ye Chen couldn't help but say awkwardly, "Doctor Shi, let me say something off topic, isn't it a bit inappropriate for you two doctors to compete and guess the number of times a female patient has her menstruation and pregnancy?"

Shi Tianqi was busy explaining, "Master Ye, you don't know, these have traditionally been the content of pulse-taking competitions between ancient imperial doctors, although it does sound a bit indecent, but in reality, as women have many more physiological stages than men, it is gynaecology that best reflects a healer's ability to take a pulse;"

"An ordinary healer can tell a woman's happy pulse in the early stages of pregnancy, a healer at a higher level can deduce the date of a pregnant woman's labour by taking her pulse, a healer at a higher level can even tell how many times the other woman has conceived and given birth, and it is said that there are top imperial doctors who can even tell the sex of a foetus by taking its pulse, although such people have only been seen in ancient texts. "

"Okay." Ye Chen sighed helplessly and asked him, "Two out of three, how many games did you lose?"

Shi Tianqi lowered his head and said in shame, "Back to Mr. Ye, old man lost three games ....."

Ye Chen couldn't help but frown: "The other party is just a Daoist priest, as far as I know it is often the way of alchemy that he studies, he shouldn't be too proficient in the art of healing, would you really lose three games to him?"

Chapter 5349

Shi Tianqi buried his head even lower and spoke, "I don't know why this Daoist priest's medical skills are so superb, but I am really not as skilled as others ....."

Ye Chen asked again, "How did you choose the person for the competition at that time? Could there be a possibility that this person planted a patient over in advance, then came to the door to kick the door, proposed the method of the competition, and then secretly colluded to win you?"

"This ....." Shi Tianqi pondered for a moment and muttered, "I don't have any evidence that can prove it, but I can't rule out this possibility."

Saying that, Shi Tianqi added with a serious face, "However, Grandmaster Ye, Taoism has always been about cultivating the heart and nurturing the soul, that Hong Tian Shi should not be so shameless, right?"

Ye Chen smiled with seemingly deep meaning and said casually, "If he really cultivated his heart and nourished his nature, why would he come here to bet with others? Just like the monks in that temple and the priests in the church, if they hang around with those powerful people all day and get all smelly, how would they really go to cultivate their hearts and souls?"

Ye Chen said this because, according to Gu Qiuyi, that Hung Tian Shi had quite a friendship with his own grandmother.

And in Ye Chen's opinion, the first thing that a person with true faith must do is to be indifferent to fame and fortune; if he spent all his energy on befriending the powerful, how could his heart be pure?

This Hong Tian Shi was naturally the same.

For someone like him to befriend the kind of top-notch powerful people like his own grandmother is, without exaggeration, absolutely as difficult as ascending to heaven.

If he did not have to spend decades meticulously operating himself, promoting himself as well as packaging himself, how could he have made it into his grandmother's eyes?

It is also clear that this man must have been very utilitarian.

Is it any wonder that a person with a strong sense of utilitarianism would make a little move when it comes to betting?

Chen Xiaozhao suddenly came to his senses and said, "You're right, Master Ye! I think that man is very shrewd! At that time, he only said a few words in front of the patients, and Grandpa was so embarrassed by him that if he hadn't agreed to him, he wouldn't have been able to get off the stage! So when you say that he might have planted fake patients in advance, I think it's really possible!"

Shi Tianqi sighed: "It's too late to talk about this now, there were so many patients who watched me lose to him on the spot, my name, as well as the word Ji Shi Tang, has been ruined in Jinling, now even if I know that he cheated, there is no way to undo it."

Ye Chen smiled faintly, "That's not necessarily true."

After saying that, he remembered something and asked Shi Tianqi, "By the way, Doctor Shi, you said he had an ancestral medicine pot, what kind of medicine pot was it?"

Shi Tianqi hurriedly said, "It is the pottery furnace used by Daoist priests to make pills, the whole is about the size of a rugby ball, it looks like it is made of copper, the shape of the vessel is long and three-legged with heavenly ears, there is a matching lid, the whole surface of the pottery furnace is covered with silk-pinching dragon patterns, it looks very beautifully crafted, according to him, it was handed down from his ancestors and is specially used to make pills. "

After saying that, he asked Shi Tianqi, "Did that person say when he was coming over?"

Shi Tianqi busily said, "He said he would come at eight o'clock tomorrow morning, sharp, to hang the plaque he had placed at the door."

Standing in front of that plaque, Ye Chen unceremoniously reached out and tore open the red silk on it, revealing three large gilt letters in a flash: Heavenly Master Hall.

Ye Chen grunted, then pulled the ladder aside, picked up the already removed Ji Shi Hall plaque with one hand, and hung this plaque back up again.

Shi Tianqi said nervously, "Master Ye, don't do it ..... if you hang the plaque, then I'll be an old scoundrel who is willing to gamble but won't accept defeat ....."

Ye Chen laughed: "Not in the way, the plaque hanging, is to let him know that this matter has taken a turn for the worse, he will certainly rush over to deal with, when I come to meet him!"

Chapter 5350

Ye Chen knew that this Hong Tian Shi had come for the Spring Return Pill this time, and since he had now approached Shi Tian Qi, he could not allow him to continue to stay in Jin Ling like this, regardless of whether he knew his identity or not.

Therefore, the best thing to do at the moment was to take the initiative.

However, Ye Chen had also considered one thing, and that was that since Hong Tian Shi was familiar with his grandmother, would he have also met his parents before.

If he had met them, then given the similarity between his own appearance and that of his father, he might guess his identity.

Ye Chen's intention was that if Hong Tian Shi questioned his identity, then he would simply hold him back without a second thought.

With that, he then said to Shi Tianqi, "Divine Doctor Shi, you and Xiao Zhao go home first, don't worry about this place, I will come over early tomorrow morning, on time!"

Shi Tianqi hesitated for a moment, but nodded his head in agreement and said respectfully, "Okay Master Ye, I'll come back tomorrow morning!"

Ye Chen waved gently at Chen Xiaozhao, called her to his side and whispered a few words in her ear.

Chen Xiaozhao immediately nodded without thinking and said, "Yes Master Ye, Xiaozhao will definitely get it done!"

Ye Chen nodded and said comfortingly, "Don't worry, I will definitely help you guys out in this matter, no matter what, I won't let anyone take off the brand of Ji Shi Tang!"

The next day.

At this time, the notice that the clinic was closed for the day had already been put up in the Ji Shi Tang, while the plaque of Ji Shi Tang was still hanging above the main entrance, while the plaque of the Heavenly Master Hall was still put aside.

Shi Tianqi had changed into his long shirt early and waited here apprehensively, and when he saw Ye Chen enter, he hurriedly greeted him and spoke, "Master Ye, you're here!"

Ye Chen nodded and asked him, "Divine Doctor Shi, has Xiao Zhao come?"

Shi Tianqi hurriedly said, "Back to Master Ye, Xiao Zhao just called me to say that it was almost here."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded slightly, then he smiled and said, "Divine Doctor Shi go to the back to rest for a moment, I'll wait here for that Heavenly Master Hong to come to the door!"

Shi Tianqi asked busily, "Master Ye, do you want me to wait here with you?"

“No need.” Ye Chen said indifferently, “I will call you when I need Divine Doctor Shi to come out.”

“Good!” Shi Tianqi nodded, arched his hand to Ye Chen and respectfully said, “Master Ye, old me will wait for your summons at the back!”

After saying this, Shi Tianqi turned around and went to the lounge at the back of the Jezebel Hall.

Ye Chen got up and carried the plaque of the Heavenly Master Hall over and laid it directly in front of the chair, then he sat back down on the chair and his feet naturally stepped on the plaque of the Heavenly Master Hall.

This man was Tian Shi Hong, who had flown all the way from the United States to Jin Ling to look for clues to the Spring Return Pill.

At this moment, when Hong Tian Shi saw that the plaque of Jishi Hall was still hanging above, his expression immediately surged with displeasure, and with his hands behind his back, he walked into Jishi Hall with big strides. He said that he would pack up and leave last night and take down the plaque of Jishi Hall, why hasn't he done so by now?”

Ye Chen, who was sitting on a chair, looked at Hong Tian Shi and saw that although there was no spiritual qi in this person's body, he had a few bases of true qi and had reached the level of an eight-star martial artist.

A Daoist priest who could have the strength of an eight-star martial artist did impress Ye Chen somewhat.

At this moment, when that Hong Tian Shi saw that he had called out to no one, he could not help but get a little angry again and opened his mouth to ask: “Where is Shi Tian Qi? You dare to keep the signboard of the Ji Shi Hall, but you yourself are hiding and don't dare to meet people?!”

At this time, Ye Chen deliberately coughed twice, stretched and stood up, and said discontentedly, “What are you yelling about so early in the morning? Have your brains been squeezed by the door? If your brain is really squeezed by the door, you'd better call 120 to go to the hospital for emergency treatment, we can't do it here!”

Hong Tian Shi looked at Ye Chen who had suddenly stood up and asked with a frown, “Who are you?”
