

Ye Chen 5371

Chapter 5371

The difference between himself and Ye Chen was perhaps like the difference between Yugong and those two sons of the Kua'e Clan.

It was at this moment that he suddenly felt extremely grateful for his decision to stay by Ye Chen's side and serve as a dog and horse.

If it wasn't for this decision, I'm afraid I wouldn't have been able to detect the wonderful feeling of the Great Perfection of the Ming Realm until I died!

Meanwhile.

At the Champs Elysees Spa Villa.

Ye Chen had already prepared the herbs that could refine twenty Blood-Scattering Heart-Saving Pills, and decided to use one furnace of Blood-Scattering Heart-Saving Pills to open the pot for this pill censer.

Luckily, the herbs needed for the Blood-Scattering Heart-Saving Pill were not rare, so Qin Gang had prepared a lot for him at first.

The main reason why Ye Chen wanted to use the pill censer to try to refine the Blood Dissipation Heart Saving Pill was because there were enough medicinal ingredients, so it wouldn't hurt if something went wrong during the refining process.

Under normal circumstances, he would have to use at least twenty to thirty catties of various medicinal materials to refine twenty Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pills, whereas his previous way of refining pills was to wrap these medicinal materials with spiritual qi, use the spiritual qi to quench the essence of them, and then use the spiritual qi to condense these medicinal material essences into pills.

The advantage of doing so was that even though there were many medicinal herbs, they could all be refined at the same time as long as there was an abundance of spiritual qi.

However, what Ye Chen was a little confused about right now was that this pill cauldron was not very large and its capacity looked like it could only hold two or three catties of herbs, so wouldn't that mean that only one pill could be refined at a time?

After all, Ye Chen had never used a pill cauldron to refine pills, so he decided to fill it with less herbs first to try it out.

Then, he put about three catties of herbs into the pill cauldron, and then he sent his spiritual energy into the cauldron and urged the formation inside the cauldron to operate.

Immediately afterwards, he felt the formation inside the pill censer start to rotate at high speed, and as soon as the formation started to operate, the full amount of medicinal herbs were instantly sucked in by the formation, and the formation was like a black hole that instantly swallowed these medicinal herbs without a trace.

Ye Chen couldn't help but be shocked, he didn't expect this formation to be so strong in consuming herbs, so he hurriedly diverted his energy to put more and more herbs into it, and the pill censer took them all in, devouring them all.

In the blink of an eye, 20 to 30 pounds of medicinal herbs were all devoured, and the formation was still running fast, without any intention of stopping.

Ye Chen did not dare to slacken off either, and could only feed spiritual energy into it continuously.

Ye Chen saw that the pill censer was devouring spiritual energy in the same way as the pitiful ring that Lin Wan'er had given him, so he couldn't help but feel a little nervous in his heart, afraid that this thing would be just like that ring and would go crazy and drain his spiritual energy.

The formation spun rapidly, and in the middle of the formation, some small spherical objects were soon condensing and growing larger.

Luckily, this Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill was not a high grade pill, so it was not difficult to refine, so the high speed of the formation only lasted for a minute, and then it slowly stopped.

Ye Chen was relieved to see that the formation no longer needed his own spiritual energy to drive it. Although it had absorbed spiritual energy very quickly just now, it did not consume too much spiritual energy because the time was relatively short.

Immediately afterwards, the formation began to slowly decelerate, and Ye Chen could feel that those spherical objects in the centre of the formation were now of the same size as ordinary pills.

The moment the formation stopped running, the spherical objects in it finally revealed their true form, and Ye Chen looked inside the pill censer, and what was lying inside were twenty new pills with a faint golden lustre!

Chapter 5372

In the past, the appearance of the Blood Dissipation and Heart Salvation Pill was black and shiny, like the chocolate beans that children loved to eat, but it was the first time that Ye Chen had seen a pale golden coloured pill.

He took the pill out of the medicine censer and examined it carefully in front of him, and could clearly feel that the aura emitted from this pill was much stronger than the previous Blood Dissipation and Heart Saving Pill, and the smell emitted from the pill alone gave a more mellow feeling.

Ye Chen put the pill into his mouth, and the pure and surging medicinal power quickly flowed throughout his body. The Blood Dissipation and Heart Salvation Pill did not contain spiritual qi and was no longer of much help to his cultivation, but Ye Chen could still clearly feel that this new Blood Dissipation and Heart Salvation Pill was about twice as potent as the previous version!

And what was even more rare was that the new Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill was not only stronger, the medicinal effect also seemed to be more pure, horizontally and vertically, and had been greatly enhanced.

Therefore, Ye Chen speculated that if this new Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill was given to an ordinary martial artist, the stronger and purer medicinal effect would definitely give his dantian meridians and even his entire body a greater boost, and the actual combined medicinal effect might be able to match the previous three Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pills.

With the same quality and weight of herbs, the number of pills refined did not change, but it was the effect of this medicinal censer that made the effect of the pills improve tremendously, which made Ye Chen excited.

He could not help but murmur, "I wonder if the Spring Return Pill and the Peiyuan Pill can also have such an effect if they are made with this pill cauldron. And if the Peiyuan Pill doubles its medicinal effect, it would mean that the spiritual energy contained in it would also be doubled, which would definitely be the best choice for me to replenish my spiritual energy."

Thinking of this, Ye Chen could not help but sigh, "It's just a pity that the ten thousand year old ambergris that I obtained from Xuan Fengnian last time has already been used up, if I want to refine a new Peiyuan Dan, I will have to find a new piece of ambergris of the same quality before I can do so."

Immediately afterwards, Ye Chen called Qin Gang, Chen Zekai and Wan Bajun, asking them to keep an eye out to see if there was any high-quality ambergris for sale in the various markets, and if there was, he must get it at any cost.

After informing the three of them, Ye Chen then called Su Ruoli.

When the call was answered, Su Ruoli asked respectfully, "Mr. Ye, what are your orders for me?"

Ye Chen asked her, "Ruo Li, where are you?"

Su Ruoli said, "Back to Mr. Ye, I am still at Buckingham Palace."

Ye Chen asked again, "Do you have something important at hand?"

Su Ruoli replied, "Nothing important, just some minor details of the wedding, if you have any orders, just let me know, I'll be free!"

Ye Chen then said, "Good, then you can drive to the Champs Elysees Spa Villa now, come alone, don't inform anyone."

"Champs Elysees Spa Villa?" Su Ruoli subconsciously asked, "Is it your mid-levels spa villa in the suburbs?"

"Right." Ye Chen said, "You should hurry and come over now, I'll wait for you here."

Su Ruoli was surprised in her heart.

She did not understand why Ye Chen suddenly wanted to ask himself to meet him at the Champs-Elysees Spa Hotel.

It sounded as if there was something important going on.

So, without thinking, she said, "Okay Mr. Ye, Ruo Li will come over here!"

"Good!" Ye Chen instructed, "Be safe on the way."

Chapter 5373

After hanging up the phone, Su Ruoli did not dare to delay and immediately left Buckingham Palace and drove towards the outskirts.

Half an hour later, she drove the car to the door of Ye Chen's villa in Champs-Elysees Spa.

Su Ruoli was just about to get out of the car and ring the doorbell outside the courtyard when the door opened from the inside and Ye Chen appeared at the door with a somewhat anxious expression and waved at her.

Su Ruoli knew that Ye Chen was asking her to drive straight in, so she drove into the courtyard.

As soon as Su Ruoli got out of the car, Ye Chen pulled her quickly inside and said under his breath, "There's an important matter to ask for your help, the length of time is not yet known, let's hurry."

Su Ruoli was pulled by Ye Chen, in haste, even suddenly surged a few delicate shyness, thinking in his heart: "Mr. Ye would not want to be with me ouch Su Ruoli what are you thinking nonsense... .."

She didn't know what exactly Ye Chen wanted her to do, but she couldn't help but think wildly in her heart, thinking that no matter what Ye Chen asked her to do, she wouldn't hesitate half a second, even if it was a bit too much to ask, she wouldn't hesitate at all.

And all Ye Chen was thinking about at the moment was the golden blood dispersing heart saving pills he had just made half an hour ago.

He couldn't wait to pull Su Ruoli all the way to the basement of the villa, which made Su Ruoli's heart beat faster and she blushed.

However, when Su Ruoli entered the basement where Ye Chen was making the medicine, she instantly smelled a very unique medicinal fragrance.

This medicinal fragrance was much more mellow than any medicinal fragrance she had smelled before, giving her the feeling that the medicinal fragrances she had smelled before were like blended white wine that cost less than a hundred yuan, while the smell she smelled now was a real high-grade white wine brewed with pure grains and stored and aged for many years, and the taste was like a day and a half.

Smelling this medicinal aroma seemed to be able to eliminate all illnesses and make people happy physically and mentally.

At this time, Ye Chen suddenly handed a golden glowing elixir into her hand and spoke, "Ruoli, try this elixir for me."

Su Ruoli looked at the elixir in front of her and was slightly stunned, subconsciously asking, "Mr. Ye, what is this elixir for? Is it a new medicine?"

Ye Chen pursed his lips and said hesitantly, "Yes and no, I have already taken one just now, but it doesn't feel that accurate, so I want you to try it for me."

Su Ruoli hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, Ruoli has already taken quite a few of your valuable pills, and just leapt to become a five-star martial artist some time ago, how can I waste your pills now"

The only thing I can do is to let a martial artist try it out and see if it works. I still have to let a martial artist to try out the effect of the medicine, as far as martial artists are concerned, the martial artist I trust the most is you, so I can only ask you to come over and help me try it out too.”

Ye Chen knew that Su Ruoli did not know that she had a new pill pot and that this medicine was much stronger than the previous Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, so he deliberately said, “What’s more, whether this pill is effective or not is still a matter of debate, and if there are any side effects, you might even be involved, but you don’t have to worry and be afraid, I will be by your side to protect you.”

As soon as Su Ruoli heard this, she quickly took a stand without thinking and said, “Mr. Ye, with you around, Ruoli is not afraid!”

Chapter 5374

The reason why Ye Chen turned around and relieved Su Ruoli not to worry and be afraid was simply to use retreat as an advance, using a provocative method to get Su Ruoli to stop refusing his invitation to let her try the medicine.

He still knew Su Ruoli very well, although this girl had been a bit cruel when she worked for the Su family before, she was a very affectionate and loyal person, and she could be absolutely loyal and unreserved to herself.

It was precisely for this reason that Ye Chen had thought of asking her to help test the pill the first time he refined a new elixir.

He knew very well in his heart that this pill would definitely be stronger than the previous Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, and it would not have any bad side effects, so it would definitely be a good thing for Su Ruoli.

And Ye Chen’s provocation did work, Su Ruoli was no longer thinking about whether she owed Ye Chen too much, she only thought that she must not let Ye Chen doubt her loyalty and guts.

She then took the pill from Ye Chen’s hand and asked in a firm tone, “Mr Ye, will Ruo Li take the pill now?”

Ye Chen nodded, “Take it, I’ll keep watch by your side, there shouldn’t be any problems.”

“Okay!” Su Ruoli nodded slightly, then sat cross-legged on the ground and very dryly put the pill into her mouth.

Su Ruoli had used the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill before, and knew that this kind of pill would turn into pure medicinal power and go straight to her dantian when she entered her mouth, so she also prepared herself in advance, waiting to welcome the surging medicinal power in the pill.

However, she did not expect that the medicinal power inside this pill would far exceed that of the Blood Dissipation Heart Saving Pill she had taken before.

The medicinal power had been described as raging, rapidly surging into her eight odd meridians and merging frantically into her dantian.

Before Su Ruoli could react, her sixth meridian was instantly opened by the medicinal power, and she became a six-star martial artist in an instant!

A six-star martial artist is not often found even in the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, and if you look around the country, it is hard to find anyone else!

However, Su Ruoli didn't even have time to rejoice in becoming a six-star martial artist before the seventh meridian in her body was instantly opened by the power of the medicine!

In the blink of an eye, Su Ruoli jumped up another level, from a six-star martial artist to a seven-star martial artist!

Even Su Ruoli did not expect that the total time it took for her to become a six-star martial artist would only be a mere two to three seconds!

Ye Chen also didn't expect that Su Ruoli would be able to raise two levels in a row, after all, the further this cultivation level went, the harder it was to raise it, a single pill could raise it from five stars to seven stars, this was indeed much stronger than the normal Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pills!

A seven-star martial artist in his twenties, even in the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons, was a rare and rare existence. The He family had been cultivating martial arts for hundreds of years, but to have a seven-star martial artist in his twenties, not to mention the fact that it was out of the question, the successive generations of family heads did not even dare to think about it.

Now, this young girl, who was only in her early twenties, had officially entered the ranks of seven-star martial artists, setting a new record for the He family, and indeed for martial arts families in China.

However, right now, there was still a large amount of medicinal power in Su Ruoli's body, which was continuously rushing towards the eight Qi meridians!

The seven meridians that Su Ruoli had already opened were obviously still unable to carry this powerful medicinal power, which was also rushing towards Su Ruoli's eighth meridian.

Thus, Ye Chen was surprised to find that Su Ruoli's eighth meridian, under the impact of the huge medicinal power, was also already showing signs of loosening!

Chapter 5375

Ye Chen marveled in his heart, "Can it be that this one pill can raise Su Ruoli from five stars to eight stars?!"

And even though Su Ruoli couldn't speak at this moment, her heart had already turned over in shock!

While desperately running her body's true qi, she couldn't help but secretly exclaim: "What kind of elixir did Mr. Ye give me Why does it have such a powerful medicinal effect I'm actually... . surprisingly I am already a seven-star martial artist this is too fast, isn't it?!"

Immediately after that, she also felt the change in her eighth meridian and was even more staggered: "Is this this eighth meridian about to be broken through as well?!"

At this moment, the surging medicinal power was like the lava of a volcano about to erupt, accumulating energy in the crater, ready to erupt.

The crater was obviously unable to suppress the surging energy, constantly trembling and cracking, as if it would be completely burst open at any moment.

Ye Chen was also a little excited as he watched Su Ruoli's situation at all times, waiting for her eighth meridian to open up.

Just at this moment, the raging medicinal power suddenly gushed out from her eighth meridian that was still blocked!

At this moment, Su Ruoli's entire state and aura even underwent a radical change!

It was at this moment that she officially entered the ranks of an eight-star martial artist! All eight meridians in her body had been opened up!

Only then did the powerful medicine finally show signs of weakening, gradually being digested by Su Ruoli's body and slowly returning to peace.

Su Ruoli opened his eyes and felt that he had just undergone a transformative change, his eight-star martial artist senses were clearly on a higher level, and the feeling of enlightenment was so great that Su Ruoli could not believe it was real.

Ye Chen knew that Su Ruoli would not be able to accept it immediately for a while, so he did not rush, waiting for Su Ruoli to adapt.

Su Ruoli had already sobered up a little by now, and when she saw that Ye Chen was looking at her with a smile on his face, she asked him impatiently, "Mr. Ye, what kind of medicine is this, that it has such a powerful effect, all eight meridians in my body seem to be opened up!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "Not seemingly, but indeed all of them have opened up, congratulations you have now become an eight-star martial artist."

Su Ruoli was surprised and delighted, and couldn't help but say, "This is too amazing A month or so ago, I was only a three-star martial artist, and one after another, I broke through to five stars, and even broke through to eight stars Even in her life, Ruoli didn't dare to imagine that she could one day become an eight-star martial artist"

After saying that, she came back to her senses, knelt down on both knees, looked towards Ye Chen and said respectfully, "Everything that made Ruo Li what she is today is because of your promotion, Mr. Ye! I cannot thank you enough for your great kindness! In this life, as long as Ruo Li is still alive in this world, Ruo Li will definitely go through fire and water for Mr. Ye, so as to repay Mr. Ye's kindness!" You can't help it!

Ye Chen reached out to help her up and said, "Ruo Li, after you are done with your parents' wedding, during the next period of time, you need to consolidate your cultivation, your cultivation has recently increased too quickly, although your hard strength has reached the level of an eight-star martial artist, your soft strength such as your mindset, practical combat experience and control of your true qi in your body are still far from the level of an eight-star martial artist. height."

Su Ruoli suppressed her excitement and said respectfully, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye! When my parents' wedding is over, I will definitely close up and cultivate for a while!"

"Good!" Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and said, "At that time, you will stay at the He family's villa to dive into seclusion, and after you have solidified the foundation of an eight-star martial artist, I will help you break through the Ming realm to its fullest extent until you become a Dark realm expert!"

Chapter 5376

"Become a Dark Realm expert?"

Su Ruoli was stunned speechless by Ye Chen's words.

She subconsciously asked Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, Ruo Li is not naturally intelligent, is there really a chance that she can become a Dark Realm expert?"

"There is." Ye Chen said with certainty, "If you want to become an expert, natural talent doesn't matter, what matters is whether you can seize the right time, the right place and the right people, there are some people who have high natural talent, but they will never be able to cultivate to the great completion of the Ming realm in their lifetime, so there is even less to say about becoming a Dark realm expert."

After saying that, Ye Chen looked at Su Ruoli and said very seriously, "You have the right time and right place to become a Dark Realm expert, as long as you can work hard and consolidate your current cultivation solidly, becoming a Dark Realm expert in the future is just around the corner, perhaps in two or three months, you will be able to become a Dark Realm expert."

Su Ruoli's eyes were red with excitement all of a sudden, and even filled with tears.

She had never thought that she would one day have the opportunity to become a Dark Realm expert.

To the vast majority of martial arts experts, the Dark Realm was a supreme realm that could never be reached.

Without a complete set of martial arts techniques, even becoming an eight-star martial artist was an extravagant hope, not to mention entering the Dark Realm.

Many martial arts families and sects have relied on some incomplete martial arts techniques for dozens of generations, but have not even been able to produce a five-star martial artist, as was the case with the He family earlier.

Therefore, the difficulty of raising a Dark Realm martial artist was like climbing to the top of the sky.

Moreover, in the martial path, every level from three-star martial artist to the next is a big hurdle, and if any hurdle is blocked in front of you, you may not be able to overcome it for the rest of your life, and when you reach the level of seven- or eight-star martial artist, it is even more difficult to go up to the next level.

This is why many eight-star and even Ming realm martial artists, who would have become the object of admiration everywhere, willingly join the Huben Battalion of the Qing Breaking Association and remain under its control for the rest of their lives.

To them, the Huben Battalion had a great probability of allowing them to successfully break through the Ming Realm Great Perfection and become Dark Realm experts, and this alone was a fatal attraction to them.

In front of becoming a Dark Realm expert, all money, status, were just floating clouds.

Therefore, Ye Chen guessed that the reason why the Tiger Ben Battalion of the Broken Qing Society was able to train Dark Realm experts in bulk was that there was most likely an expert like himself who was proficient in aura and pills sitting behind it.

Because only aura and pills can ignore the level barrier of martial artists and help them complete their breakthroughs smoothly.

For Ye Chen, although the Wan Broken Jun under his command, as well as Qiu Zhiyuan, Wan Broken Jun's master, had all stepped into the Dark Realm, this was still far from enough.

In addition to that, the original envoy of the Broken Qing Society, Duan Liye, and the sect leader, Ni Zhenyu, although they were also Dark Realm experts, Ye Chen could not consider them as his own people.

After all, both of them were controlled by psychological suggestion, and in case the two armies fought and the people of the Broken Qing Society had the ability to dissolve their psychological suggestion, then they would immediately become enemies.

Therefore, Ye Chen allowed Duan Liye to return to Turkey to continue being his envoy, while Ni Zhenyu was placed by him at the side of Qiu Zhiyuan, the master of the Wan Broken Army.

In the future, if he were to clash head-on with the Broken Clear Society, then he would need at least twenty to thirty Dark Realm experts under his command to stand a chance.

If he wanted to train Dark Realm experts in bulk, a large amount of pills would naturally be essential, and right now this pill censer could help Ye Chen get twice the result with half the effort.

In Ye Chen's mind, he planned to first train Su Ruoli to become the third Dark Realm expert, and then systematically select a group of potential martial artists from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, the He Family and other martial artists to train another group of Dark Realm experts one after another.

Therefore, Ye Chen felt that he could also choose a suitable address and set up an institution similar to the Huben Battalion, and later specialise in training Dark Realm experts from this institution.

Chapter 5377

Seeing that the time was getting late, Ye Chen said to Su Ruoli, "Ruoli, you should go back and continue with the wedding preparations, no one in the He family can tell your cultivation level at the moment, and don't talk about this matter of breaking through to an eight-star martial artist to others for the time being."

Su Ruoli said without thinking, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, Ruoli won't tell anyone."

Ye Chen added: "In the next few days, I will ask Old Chen to buy back all the villas here, and then transform the entire Champs-Élysées Hotel into a private club, so that it will no longer be open to the public, at that time I will reserve a villa for you here, when the wedding is busy, I will contact you, and you will go here to dive into seclusion.”

Su Ruoli hurriedly asked, “Mr. Ye, why does such a large spa hotel need to be converted into a private clubhouse?”

Ye Chen said, “It’s said to be a private club, but it’s actually just a front, when the time comes, this place will completely stop being open to the public, I see that this place is also considered a beautiful mountain and clear water, I plan to transform it into a good place specifically for retreat and cultivation.”

Su Ruoli was surprised and asked, “Mr. Ye, are you going to train martial arts masters here?”

“That’s right.” Ye Chen didn’t hide, and nodded his head very dryly, “To fight against the Broken Qing Society, we still need many martial arts experts like you, in the future I will gradually transform this place into a secret base for cultivating experts, at that time you will be the Grand Master here.”

Su Ruoli asked curiously, “Mr. Ye, Ruoli has a question to ask you”

Ye Chen nodded and said, “You speak.”

Su Ruoli then said, “Mr. Ye, wouldn’t this kind of cultivation base be more appropriately placed at the base of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple in Syria? The Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons has hundreds of plain kilometres of land there, and it’s not under any control, so it feels like it would be more convenient there.”

Ye Chen smiled lightly and explained, “Although it’s good to put it in Syria, I’m afraid I’m too far away to take care of it after all, it’s much more suitable in Jinling.”

Saying that, Ye Chen added, “However, I plan to take two steps for the time being, everyone will first focus on retreating in Jinling at that time, and after their cultivation level is raised, they will immediately be sent to Syria for retreating and training, and also receive modern military training there.”

Su Ruoli was surprised and asked, “You want them to receive military training?”

“That’s right.” Ye Chen said seriously, “Although martial arts masters are rare, many of them do not have any power to fight back in front of modern weapons, so the masters we train in the future should not only be strong, but also proficient in modern weapons, a two-pronged approach will maximize their combat power.”

On the way to drive back to downtown Jinling, Ye Chen gave a phone call to Wan Brejun in order to prepare for the construction of the Huben Battalion.

When the call was answered, Wan Bajun respectfully asked, “Mr. Ye, what are your orders for your subordinates on the phone?”

Ye Chen spoke, “Broken Jun, I want to build a high-security training centre at the base of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, you should start handling it in the near future. ”

Wan Bajun hurriedly asked, "Mr. Ye, what are your requirements for the training centre?"

Ye Chen said, "First of all, the level of secrecy must be high enough, even inside the base of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple, it must be absolutely secret, and it is best to build it completely underground;"

Wan Bajun respectfully said, "Mr. Ye, this is easy to do, the base of the Ten Thousand Dragon Palace already has many underground parts, and there is no shortage of triple defense designs with high defense levels, you can see how big you need and what functions you need to achieve, I will arrange the rest!"

Ye Chen said, "The second thing is, at least 10,000 square feet of floor space is needed, at least 20 to 30 people can be guaranteed to live here in closed training and closed life at the same time, even if they don't come out for a year, there is no problem at all."

Wan Bajun immediately said, "No problem, when the time comes, I will support the construction of the corresponding life support hardware to ensure that your requirements are met."

Ye Chen asked him, "When will it probably be completed?"

Wan Bajun replied, "Back to Mr. Ye, we are now working overtime on the construction, the entire base should be fully operational next year, and I will try to complete the 10,000 square metres you want by the end of this year!"

"Good." Ye Chen said with satisfaction, "There is another task for you during this period."

Wan Bajun said, "Mr. Ye, please do as you wish, I will do my best!"

Ye Chen said, "I want you to do a comprehensive examination within the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, which is not open to the public, and you will select the thirty core members with the strongest strength, best understanding and highest loyalty, and submit the list to me at that time."

Without thinking, Wan Breaking Jun said, "Yes Mr. Ye!"

Chapter 5378

August 8.

Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu's wedding was about to begin.

He Yingxiu and Su Ruoli, who live in the He family villa, got up early before 5am and the make-up artist arranged by Song Wanting arrived on time to do their make-up.

Su Shoudao, who was staying at Buckingham Palace, had also started to get up and change his clothes by now.

In accordance with normal wedding practice, Su Shoudao had to do his groom's look first thing in the morning and then, together with his best man and the wedding car procession, he would go to the He family to receive the bride.

As no outside parties were notified of the wedding, Su Shoudao only asked his son, Su Zhifei, to be his best man.

Su Zhi Fei, who had changed his ways, was also happy that his father's feelings had found their true home, so naturally he agreed to his request very readily.

Just after five o'clock, Ye Chen's pre-arranged bridal procession had also tied up its bouquet and was waiting to depart from the downstairs of the Buckingham Palace Hotel.

At this moment, at the Purple Mountain Villa at the top of the Purple Mountain in Jinling.

Lin Wan'er had already washed and freshened up early and was sitting alone in the courtyard with the door open, admiring the foggy morning view in the Purple Mountain while boiling a pot of Pu'er tea over a gentle fire.

After the experience of the last chance encounter with Ye Chen in the basement of Townsend I, Lin Wan'er did not go out again in the past two days, not even out of the top floor of the Purple Mountain Villa, a special courtyard.

When Sister Xian came up with a wooden basket, she was a little surprised to see Lin Wan'er's courtyard door open and asked, "Why is Miss Lin up so early today?"

Lin Wan'er nodded slightly, smiled lightly and said, "I usually get up early too, but I don't start making tea this early in the morning."

Sister Xian placed the basket in front of Lin Wan'er, half-kneeling in front of her, and opened the basket, which contained some very delicate looking tea.

Sister Xian picked up the plate containing the tea desserts and carefully placed it next to Lin Wan'er's teapot, saying respectfully, "Miss Lin, this is the Chen Pi Pu'er pastry you mentioned yesterday, the pastry chef at home has never made it before, so she tried it for the first time according to the method you mentioned, I don't know if it's to your liking, please try it."

Lin Wan'er nodded, her long white fingers gently pinched a piece, and with the other hand, she put her five fingers together in the shape of a Yuan Bao under her lips and took a small bite.

Sister Xian at the side looked at Lin Wan'er a little nervously, not knowing whether this unfathomable young lady liked it or not.

Lin Wan'er tasted it lightly, her eyebrows furrowed slightly, then gradually relaxed.

She is only 17 or 18 years old and she has such beauty, if she waits for another two or three years, she will still be beautiful

At this moment, Lin Wan'er put aside the Chen Pi Pu'er pastry, picked up the tea cup again and took a sip, smiled and said to Sister Xian, "It's quite good, it's more or less the taste I want, but the tea leaves are still a little bit poor."

Sister Xian was secretly surprised and could not help but say with a smile, "Miss Lin, this is already the best pu-erh tea that my husband can buy."

"Yes." Lin Wan'er smiled and said, "This tea is indeed good, it is just a bit short of my tea but it doesn't matter, I am already pleasantly surprised to achieve this taste, thank you Sister Xian, and thank that pastry chef for me for Sister Xian."

Chapter 5379

Lin Wan'er's words made Sister Xian listen in amazement.

She had known Lin Wan'er for more than a few days, but in all these days, she had never heard Lin Wan'er say the word thank you to herself.

Even if her husband had done so much for her, even giving her the whole Purple Mountain Villa, she had never seen Lin Wan'er say thank you, as if in her eyes, whatever her husband did for her was a matter of course and she was not only ungrateful, but even stingy with the word thank you.

There were times when Sister Xian had something against Lin Wan'er in her heart. She always felt that this girl, who was so young and looked like a lady of the house, was arrogant and lacked manners.

However, at this moment, Sister Xian was amazed and thought to herself, "Sir has been able to give her a huge release for making so many, multi-billion-dollar hard-to-buy, superbly-made other homes for her, but she has never even said thank you, yet today she is saying thank you to both me and the pastry chef for making her the Chen Pi Pu Er pastry she wants to eat, I really don't know what this Miss Lin's world view is like. "

Just as Sister Xian was wondering, she heard the voice of her own husband, Qiu Ying Shan, coming from outside the door, his voice panting but with full excitement, "Miss! Old Zhang is here!"

Lin Wan'er raised her eyebrows slightly, and her beautiful eyes looked towards the door.

A moment later, she saw Qiu Ying Shan and Sun Zhidong together with an old man, and the three of them walked in with each other's arms.

The old man who came up with Qiu Yingshan and Sun Zhidong was the same old man who had been with Lin Wan'er in Northern Europe.

When that old man saw Lin Wan'er, he couldn't hide his excitement and stepped forward, trembling and kneeling in front of Lin Wan'er, he said respectfully, "Miss, my old slave is late, please punish me!"

Lin Wan'er smiled lightly and raised her hand in the air, saying softly, "Get up, you are not late, there is no need to blame yourself too much."

Only then did the old man slowly stand up.

On the side, Sister Xian was already looking dumbfounded.

The old man in front of her looked similar to her husband, conservatively estimated to be around ninety years old, but at such an old age, he was still kneeling for Lin Wan'er.

This also made her mind wonder even more, "This Miss Lin, what exactly is her origin"

At this moment, Qiu Ying Shan said to Sister Xian, "Shu Xian, you can go down first."

Sister Xian nodded hastily and said respectfully, "Sir, Miss Lin, I will leave first."

After saying this, she hurriedly exited the courtyard, not forgetting to close the door again as she went out.

When Sister Xian was far away, Lin Wan'er looked at the old man and asked, "Did Old Zhang still have a smooth journey?"

The old man called Old Zhang hurriedly said, "Back to Miss, it was quite smooth, but I just followed Miss's arrangement and took some extra detours, and I had to take care of too many things with me, so the journey was a bit slow."

Lin Wan'er asked him, "Did you bring all my things over safely?"

Old Zhang couldn't stop nodding and said, "I've brought all your blue and white porcelain, because it was too valuable and I was afraid of attracting the attention of the border control and customs, so I chose to enter by special land route from Kazakhstan for the last part of the journey."

Lin Wan'er then asked, "Where is the stuff?"

Old Zhang said, "It's all down there. Ying Shan has arranged for someone to unpack it and bring it up to you as soon as it's done."

Chapter 5380

Lin Wan'er nodded and said, "You have had a hard journey, take a good rest first, I will probably settle in Jinling for some time to come, so you should also take this time to rest."

Old Zhang said with a respectful arch of his hand, "Old slave obeys!"

After saying that, he remembered something and hurriedly asked, "Right Miss, old slave heard from Ying Shan that you have found the person you are looking for?"

"Yes." Lin Wan'er nodded and spoke, "He is in Jinling, although you no longer remember him, he definitely still remembers you, so during this period of time, you should not leave Zijinshan Village so as not to expose your identity."

Old Zhang respectfully said, "Yes Miss, old servant understands!"

As he spoke, several household servants walked in carrying a large pile of items packed in special foam.

Old Zhang counted them one by one to make sure they were all right before letting them leave, and then said to Lin Wan'er, "Miss, I brought out a total of eighty-three items from Northern Europe that day, and they are all here."

Lin Wan'er nodded and said with some impatience, "Quickly bring me my Chenghua blue-and-white seawater Yinglong jar."

"Miss, wait a moment!"

Old Zhang answered and hurriedly found a blue and white porcelain jar about the size of a basketball from among the eighty-three items, and then handed this jar to Lin Wan'er.

Lin Wan'er opened the lid, and the rich aroma of tea came out from it.

Lin Wan'er took out a piece of Pu'er tea cake from inside and could not help but sigh, "I've been hoping for it for so many days, but finally I've got it."

After that, she picked up the teapot on the charcoal fire and poured out all the tea from it, then she took out a Pu'er tea knife and prepared to separate the piece of Pu'er tea cake in her hand.

But just as the tip of the knife touched the tea cake, she withdrew it and muttered, "This is the last piece"

Seeing this, Old Zhang hurriedly said, "Miss, didn't you say earlier that if you finish this last tea cake early, you won't have to think about it later?"

Lin Wan'er sighed softly and long, looked at this tea cake and murmured, "It's better to keep this last piece, I want to wait for the day when I open up with him and cook it for him personally to taste."

The three old men's expressions were all astonished, and after exchanging glances, old Zhang bowed and said, "Miss, old slave dares to ask one more question, do you really intend to open up with that gentleman?"

"Yes." Lin Wan'er said seriously, "He has saved my life and shares a common enemy with me, if the opportunity is right, I should reveal my life and tell him everything, only then will I have a chance to truly work with him."

After saying this, she suddenly said with some excitement, "Right old Qiu, ask Sister Xian to buy me an eight-foot wooden table, another eight-foot piece of Xuan paper, and two pieces of the best ink, I want to paint a picture."

Qiu Yingshan was surprised and said, "Miss, you want to paint an eight-foot painting? That's a bit too much work and effort, isn't it?"

In Chinese painting, one zhang eight feet means six metres long and two and a half metres wide, which is basically the largest size in Chinese painting, and using such a large size for a painting would be more than a huge undertaking.

Lin Wan'er said with a firm expression, "It's not a problem, there are so many scenes I want to paint, one square foot is barely enough, besides, I have at least twenty days to paint them slowly, there is no hurry."

Qiu Ying Shan smiled and said respectfully, "Yes, Miss, I will arrange for Shu Xian to do it later!"
