

Ye Chen 5381

Chapter 5381

Seven o'clock in the morning.

Su Shoudao's wedding caravan left on time to pick up the bride from the He family villa.

It was a big day, with hundreds of couples having weddings in Jinling City, like a long steel dragon weaving through the streets and alleys of Jinling.

When Su Shoudao's wedding caravan arrived on time outside the He family gates, the He family's juniors and ladies welcomed Su Shoudao's family, headed by Su Shoudao, through the door, and Su Shoudao went straight to He Yingxiu's wedding room, holding flowers.

As Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu were both over fifty years old, their wedding reception was not as lively as that of the young people. The He family did not block the door and the Su family did not make a scene, all of them watched Su Shoudao walk step by step to He Yingxiu with a smile of blessing.

He Yingxiu was dressed in a red wedding dress, and although her face showed some signs of age, it was still radiant.

In contrast, Su Shoudao's face was already more wrinkled with the vicissitudes of fate and hardship during this time.

Su Ruoli, who was wearing a bridesmaid's dress, saw her father come in with flowers and said hurriedly, "Dad, I hid Mum's shoes behind the door!"

He Yingxiu couldn't help but tease her, "Ruo Li, you're really looking out for your dad, even if you don't block the door, you won't even let him look for your shoes?"

Su Ruoli said with a smile, "Mom, I'd like to put the shoes in Dad's hand so that you two can get married in a hurry!"

For Su Ruoli, she knew that it was not easy for her parents to get together, they had been through so many trials and tribulations over the past 20 years, and in this case, all she wanted was for them to get married as soon as possible.

He Yingxiu naturally knew her daughter's intentions, and could not help but gently take Su Ruoli over, using her forehead to press her forehead gently, her tears reaching her eye sockets, and then holding them back.

Su Ruoli's eyes were slightly closed, only to feel the hotness of her eyes, feeling her mother's pampering with all her heart, the whole person did not move.

Although no one said anything, but that mother-daughter love, even if outsiders look at it, they are also deeply moved.

Su Shoudao saw this scene, and his heart was also full of emotions.

He finally understood what it was like to marry a woman who loved him.

Moreover, unlike Du Haiqing, his ex-wife, who did not love him at all, he already had love for He Yingxiu in his heart.

It was at this moment that he became even more excited about his life after marriage. He only wanted to live an uneventful life with his new wife, and money and status were no longer important, so much so that his face unconsciously overflowed with happiness.

Although he knew that He Yingxiu had interfered in his parents' marriage, he knew that his parents' marriage was not so healthy, so forcing them to be together was not good for either of them.

In the past two days since his return, he had stayed in the old courtyard where Ye Chen had lived with his parents when he was young, and he had watched his mother tending to that small courtyard every day with satisfaction and tirelessness, and he had realised just how strong his mother's love for Ye Changye was, so strong that even if she just kept the small courtyard where Ye Changye had lived, she could feel more content and happy than ever.

And today, he saw with his own eyes the rare appearance of happiness in his father, which made him realise the truth that sometimes, what seems to be complete and whole may not be truly complete, and that it is better to break and then stand.

Without Ye Chen, with his father's status, it would have been impossible for his mother to divorce him, and with his father's character, he would never have let go.

Chapter 5382

Seeing that his father was still frozen there, Su Zhi Fei turned around and found the red shoe from behind the door, carefully picked it up and quietly handed it to his father.

Su Shoudao was slightly stunned, and only when he saw the red shoe did he come back to his senses.

When he saw that it was his son, Su Zhi Fei, who was handing him the shoe, he could not hold back his emotions and his tears came out instantly.

Su Zhi Fei did not expect his father to suddenly burst into tears, so he hastily swept him up, bending his legs slightly and using his shoulder to help him absorb the tears.

Su Shoudao did not expect such a thoughtful gesture from his son, and when he thought that Su Zhiyu was still waiting at the hotel to attend his wedding, he had a feeling that even death would be enough.

It was only at this moment that he realised that he had lived for fifty years and only today did he truly understand.

There is nothing that can compare to the happiness and harmony of a family.

Although he and Du Haiqing might not see each other in the future, the fact that he had gained true love and the support of his three children was more than enough for him.

Su Zhi Fei gave his father a gentle pat on his back. Su Shoudao controlled his tears and looked up again, then he saw his son pointing to the flowers in his hand.

He came back to his senses and hurriedly knelt down on one knee, held the flowers in front of He Yingxiu with both hands and said loudly, "Marry me, wife!"

At this moment, the Su family members who were travelling with him, as well as the He family members around him, were deeply moved and all echoed loudly, constantly shouting to marry him.

He Yingxiu could not hold back her tears, so she smiled while shedding tears and nodded her head, saying equally loudly, "Yes!"

Afterwards, she reached out and picked up the bouquet of flowers.

Although it was just a formality, Su Shoudao was still grinning happily.

Su Ruoli, who was at the side, hurriedly reminded, "Dad, quickly put on mum's shoes, there's still tea to be served to grandpa!"

Su Shoudao nodded hastily, lifted the red quilt and put the red shoes on He Yingxiu's feet.

There were cheers and shouts of approval, and the young descendants of the He family even took out hand-pulled firecrackers and pulled them off one after another.

Immediately, the couple arrived at the villa's living room, where Master He was by now sitting upright on the sofa, waiting for his new son-in-law to come and toast the tea and change his mind.

Before her partner left, she was most concerned about He Yingxiu, who had lost an arm. She felt that since her daughter had become disabled and had given birth to an illegitimate daughter, it might be difficult to find a man who could accept her in the future, and even if a man could accept her, I was afraid it would be difficult to accept Su Ruoli.

When she was leaving, she also urged the old man that if in the future Yingxiu married someone and the man did not treat Ruo Li well, the He family must bring Ruo Li back, but never just let Yingxiu get a divorce, because in her case, it was not easy to find a man to marry her.

However, how could she have imagined that her daughter would still seek the best outcome today, as she regained her arm, which she had lost for more than twenty years, and got together with the man she had loved for thirty years, and Su Ruoli did not have to acknowledge a strange man as her stepfather, as her biological parents had finally gotten together.

Thinking of this, the old man, who was still elated, was suddenly overwhelmed with emotion.

When people flocked Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu, a couple over 100 years old, to come out of the wedding room and prepare to offer tea to the old man, they suddenly found that the old man was sitting alone on the sofa, already like a child, crying until he couldn't help himself

Chapter 5383

No one understood why the old man, who had always been tough, was bawling like a child, crying while taking turns to wipe the tears that rolled down his face with both sleeves.

Su Ruoli quickly ran to him and asked him nervously, "Grandpa, today is such a good day, why are you crying"

The old man realized that he had lost his temper somewhat and hastily covered his face trying to control his emotions, but the more he did so, the more he couldn't control them, tears flowed through his fingers and through the pale folds of his hands, while his body, too, trembled uncontrollably from crying, which was heartbreaking.

At this moment, He Yingxiu was the only one who read her father's heart.

She knew that her father must have been sad that her mother had not been able to see this scene with her own eyes.

Sometimes, people who are still alive would feel that after waiting for years for the best outcome, they would go to the grave to share it with their deceased relatives, who would be very relieved to know that they are still alive.

When they think of this, they will also feel much more relieved.

However, some people are not so open-minded in the way they look at things.

They may feel that this is the outcome that their loved ones were looking forward to, but why they did not live to see it, and then they get stuck in it.

The latter is clearly the case with Master He.

In fact, He Yingxiu was also the latter.

People of the martial path believe in strength and pursue to change their fate against the heavens.

And in order to change one's fate against the heavens, the most important thing is to live!

Therefore, they do not believe that there is another world after a person dies.

They know that a person's death is like a lamp going out.

When one dies, one is dead.

If their loved ones died with regrets, then it would be the greatest regret of the living for the rest of their lives.

So, He Yingxiu didn't try to persuade her father, knowing that if she didn't let him cry his eyes out, it would be hard for him to walk away.

After crying for a while and releasing his heart's clogged depression into tears, he felt a little more relieved.

Knowing that today was a happy day, he hurriedly wiped away his tears and said with a smile, "Sorry for making everyone look funny, isn't it time to give tea to me, an old man?"

Su Shoudao also wanted to hurry up and let the old man turn over a new leaf, so he hurriedly asked the people around him, "Where's the tea? Why hasn't it been brought over yet? I have to give tea to my father-in-law!"

"Here it is!" A young man hurriedly brought two cups of tea to the front.

Su Shoudao pulled He Yingxiu, and the two of them knelt down in front of the old man, left and right.

Su Shoudao then picked up a cup of tea from the two cups, handed it to Elder He with both hands respectfully, and said in a loud voice, "Dad! You please drink the tea!"

Master He smiled and nodded, receiving the tea handed over by Su Shoudao into his hands, holding the tea in one hand and opening the lidded bowl with the other, directly drinking the tea in the cup cleanly.

Afterwards, Elder He set the cup of tea aside and took the cup of tea handed to him by his daughter, and after he had also drunk it in one go, he looked at Su Shoudao and said seriously, "Shoudao, I have only one request for you when you marry Yingxiu."

Su Shoudao said with a respectful face, "Please speak, Dad!"

Chapter 5384

Master He held He Yingxiu's hand, looked at Su Shoudao and said with a serious expression, "You love Yingxiu, I don't care where you two go to live or what kind of life you lead, you can not visit me for a year, you can not visit me for three years or five years, or even ten years or eight years, I am not angry with you and I am not picking on you, I only ask that you must treat Yingxiu well, and if you don't love her anymore, you must not Don't dislike her, let alone bully her, as long as I am still alive, you let her come back to the He family in peace, I, He Hongsheng, will not blame you; if I am no longer here, you let Ruo Li accompany her back and let her retire in the He family, the He family will not blame you either, can you do that?"

When the old man said these words, both He Yingxiu and Su Ruoli cried their eyes red.

On the side, Su Shoudao was also ashamed in his heart.

He knew that the Su family had always had a bad reputation.

His own master had even gone so far as to kill his ex-wife, Du Haiqing, for the sake of the family's reputation, but fortunately, Ye Chen had saved them both, mother and daughter.

It was also this incident that made the whole country, and indeed the whole world, spit on the Su family man.

I'm afraid that the He family's old man said this because of this incident, so he had some worries.

The shameful Su Shoudao immediately raised his right hand and swore, "Dad, don't worry, I have already decided that after I marry Yingxiu, I will stay in Jinling and settle down, so that not only can I spend more time with Ruo Li, but Yingxiu and I can also come back to see you more often. If I fail to do so, you and the Ho family can kill me with your own hands at any time!"

Master He nodded in satisfaction, handed He Yingxiu's hand to Su Shoudao and said with relief, "Since that's the case, there's nothing else I want, you can take Yingxiu away!"

Su Shoudao was grateful and said respectfully, "Thank you, Dad! Dad, don't worry, I will never let Yingxiu suffer in the future!"

“Good, good!” Elder He said three good words in a row and waved his hand with a smile, gesturing for the two to leave.

The two men looked at each other, got up and walked out of the house.

He Yingxiu, accompanied by Su Shoudao, boarded the first wedding car.

Su Ruoli and the other Su family ladies also rode together in the car, heading to the hotel together.

According to the custom of Chinese weddings, Su Shoudao was originally supposed to receive He Yingxiu to his home to pay respects, and then, together with He Yingxiu, go to the hotel for the wedding.

However, the Su family was not a family in Jinling, plus Ye Chen intentionally did not want people to know that today was the wedding of the Su family’s son, so he prepared a presidential suite for Su Shoudao at the Buckingham Palace Hotel, treating it as Su Shoudao’s main venue.

This is quite common in wedding customs, except that in the past, it was always the woman who came from abroad to the man’s city and got a room at the hotel to be used as the wedding room for the hairdresser.

So, according to common sense, it would be He Yingxiu’s family who would check in at one of the hotels in Yanjing, and then Su Shoudao would go to the hotel to take her home to pay her respects and get married.

However, Ye Chen had specified a location for Su Shoudao, which had to be at Buckingham Palace, and there was no other choice, so Su Shoudao then had to do the opposite of the norm.

At this moment, most of the Su family, including the old man and Su Zhiyu, were waiting in the hotel’s presidential suite at this time.

The Ito family, the invited guests, were also waiting here at this time.

In addition to this, there was a well-known male host from Yanjing, forty-six-year-old Feng Zidong.

Feng Zidong is a household name in China and is considered a top-class MC.

He was invited by Su Ruoli to officiate at the wedding because his parents were once martial artists and had a close personal relationship with the He family, and because he grew up in the He household when he was young.

Su Ruo Li was not worried about outsiders knowing about her father’s marriage, nor was she worried about outsiders seeing her mother’s arms intact, after all, only the Su and He families knew about her disability back then.

What she was worried about was Ye Chen, who was coming to be a witness to the marriage, and that Ye Chen’s identity might leak out.

Feng Zidong himself had grown up in the He family, and was the offspring of a martial artist, and had been brought up under the watchful eye of Elder He, so his character was completely trustworthy, so he would certainly keep his mouth shut about today’s events as well.

Chapter 5385

By the time Ye Chen arrived at the hotel, Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu had already finished paying their respects to heaven and earth.

The couple took a short rest in their room, while most of the others moved to the Sky Garden to begin preparations for the upcoming wedding.

Ye Chen was not a fan of crowds, so he came straight to the Sky Garden, while Ito Nanaeko, as well as the two sisters Su Zhiyu and Su Ruoli, happened to be here as well.

As there were not too many guests and outsiders were not allowed to enter the Sky Garden, the atmosphere was not too boisterous and warm.

The wedding ceremony was a solemn but warm atmosphere, thanks to the joint efforts of Su Ruoli and Ito Nana-chan, and the flower arrangements prepared by Nana-chan herself added a touch of elegance and class.

Today's Ito Nanaeko, who had even put on a ceremonial grand kimono, saw Ye Chen coming and trotted up to him with broken steps, saying joyfully, "Ye Chen-kun, you're here!"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, looking at the flowers that covered the entire banquet hall, he couldn't help but ask her with a little bit of heartache, "Did you prepare all these flowers? It must have taken a long time, right?"

Ito Nanaeko smiled and said, "I arranged them, but there were still quite a few maids who helped me with the sorting and correction of the flower branches, otherwise I would not have been able to do it all by myself."

At this time, both Su Zhiyu and Su Ruoli came to Ye Chen. Su Zhiyu saw Ye Chen chatting intimately with Ito Nanaeko, and could also see that Ye Chen was not looking at Ito Nanaeko in the same way as he was looking at other women, so she couldn't help but feel a bit tasty in her heart.

She was different from Su Ruoli, who grew up as an illegitimate daughter and came to the Su family as Su Shoudao's bodyguard when she became an adult, so she didn't have any arrogance in her bones that all girls from big families had in their bones.

Although Su Zhiyu was not usually indulgent or arrogant, she had been held in the hands of the Su family since she was a child, so although her pride was not obvious, it was all over her body. She was the eldest daughter of the Ito family, and she was no worse off than her, and the Su family was even stronger than the Ito family.

But Su Ruoli was different. Even though she was now an eight-star martial artist, and she was the strongest except for Ye Chen at the wedding, she did not have any arrogance, but on the contrary, the more she felt that Ye Chen had treated her too well, and that she had too many favours to repay.

When she arrived in front of Ye Chen, Su Zhiyu called out respectfully, "Hello, Mr. Ye."

Su Ruoli, who was at the side, also said softly, "Hello, Mr. Ye!"

When Ye Chen nodded, Su Ruoli asked him in a whisper, "Mr. Ye, aren't you going to be the witness today? Why aren't you wearing a suit?"

Ye Chen looked at himself in a casual outfit and said with a smile, "When I went out, I didn't want to make my in-laws suspicious, so I didn't wear a suit, but I brought it with me, so I'll go and change into it before the ceremony starts."

At this time, Song Wanting, who was wearing a dress, also hurriedly arrived, and when she saw that Ye Chen had already arrived, she quickly stepped forward and said respectfully, "Master Ye, you have arrived."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and said with a smile, "Wanting, I heard that you have worked hard for this wedding, thank you for your hard work!"

Song Wanting hurriedly said, "You are too kind, Master Ye, I should have done all this."

Ye Chen asked her, "How is the old man doing lately?"

"Quite well." Song Wanting replied, "Grandpa has been talking about you recently, saying that he wants to invite you to a small gathering at home, but he is afraid of delaying your business."

Chapter 5386

Ye Chen smiled, "When you go back, tell the old man that I will definitely pay a visit sometime."

Song Wanting's heart was overjoyed, her eyes shining with excitement, she nodded without thinking and said, "Okay Master Ye, I will tell grandfather when I go back, he will be very happy!"

A girl ran over and said to Su Ruoli, "Miss Ruoli, Teacher Feng wants to ask you if the witnesses have arrived yet, and if so, wants to reconfirm the process with you and the witnesses."

"It has arrived." Su Ruoli nodded, looked at Ye Chen and asked him, "Mr. Ye, is it convenient for you to go with me to meet Mr. Feng? He's the officiant I hired from Yanjing to guest emcee my parents' wedding."

Ye Chen said cheerfully, "Good, go and meet him."

Su Ruoli breathed a sigh of relief and asked the girl, "Where is Teacher Feng now?"

The girl said, "Teacher Feng is in the back lounge."

"Good." Su Ruoli nodded and said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, let's go over there!"

Ye Chen followed Su Ruoli through the banquet hall in the sky garden to the lounge at the back of the banquet hall.

She knocked at the door, and a middle-aged man's voice came from inside, "Please come in!"

Su Ruoli pushed the door open and saw a middle-aged man with a distinguished appearance, holding a manuscript and reading it in silence.

This middle-aged man was Feng Zidong, a famous news presenter who was very famous in China.

Although Ye Chen seldom watched television, he often followed the biggest news programmes in the country, and naturally recognised this top host.

Su Ruoli said respectfully to Feng Zidong at this moment, "Uncle Feng, this is Mr Ye, the witness to my parents' wedding."

After saying that, she then said to Ye Chen, "Mr Ye, this is Feng Zidong, who is also my god-uncle, he grew up in He's house since he was young and is my grandfather's righteous son."

Ye Chen had seen Feng Zidong on television, but he had never expected that when he met him in person, he would realise that Feng Zidong was actually a martial artist.

Only, his cultivation level only stayed at the one-star level of initiation.

Feng Zidong also looked up at Ye Chen at this time, and for a moment couldn't help but be a little stunned as he subconsciously murmured, "Too much of a resemblance is too much of a resemblance young man, Ruo Li just said that your surname is Ye?"

Ye Chen frowned slightly, but still nodded frankly and said, "That's right, my surname is Ye."

Feng Zidong asked him with some excitement, "Young man, what is your relationship with Ye Chang Ying?!"

Ye Chen's heart was appalled, but at the same time he asked, full of caution, "Mr Feng knows my father?"

When Feng Zidong heard this, he was even more excited and said offhandedly, "You're really Elder Ye's son! They said you had disappeared, but I didn't expect you to be alive!"

Ye Chen nodded and asked him, "May I ask, what is Mr Feng's relationship with my father?"

Feng Zidong blurted out, "Thirty-two years ago, when I was fourteen years old, I went to America to study and was your father's schoolmate."

Ye Chen was astonished, "You and my father were alumni?"

"More than alumni!" Feng Zidong said excitedly, "I was the youngest in that year's class, and your father took great care of me back then."

Saying that, he asked Ye Chen, "You were able to come to Ruo Li's parents' wedding today, so I guess you must have returned to the Ye family already?"

Ye Chen knew that this must be a smart person in front of him, so he didn't hide it and nodded, "I have returned, but the outside world basically doesn't know about it yet."

Chapter 5387

Feng Zidong nodded and said gratefully, "I have never understood why the Su family seemingly joined forces with the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall to win over the Ye family, but then suddenly changed the head of the family afterwards, this does not fit the commonality and basic logic of those tough old family heads of the great families, seeing you on this occasion today, and you are also the witness of today's wedding, I think I probably understand what is going on! "

Saying that, he could not help but sigh: "Elder brother Chang Ying was a dragon and phoenix among men back then, and now it seems that his son is also absolutely extraordinary!"

Ye Chen arched his hand, "You have praised me!"

Saying that, Ye Chen curiously asked the question in his mind, "Mr. Feng, you studied abroad at the age of fourteen, so you must have studied very hard, but I see that you still have martial arts background, could it be that you also studied martial arts as a child?"

Feng Zidong raised his eyebrows in surprise and asked him, "You are also a martial artist?"

Ye Chen thought for a moment, "Sort of!"

Feng Zidong couldn't help but sigh, "I didn't expect that Senior Brother Chang Ying's son, who has been missing for so many years, would still be a martial artist!"

After saying that, he smiled slightly, "I was forced to learn martial arts by my parents when I was very young, and then after being adopted by Ruo Li's grandfather, I chose to study instead and did not continue to practice martial arts."

Ye Chen asked in disbelief, "Martial artists have always been single-minded in their pursuit of martial arts, and can even give up everything for the sake of martial arts, few are like you, giving up martial arts for the sake of their studies, why did you make such a decision?"

Feng Zidong smiled mockingly, "My parents and everyone I came into contact with when I was young were always whispering in my ears about the supremacy of the martial arts and how one can die on the eve of hearing the Dao, so naturally I was deeply influenced by them."

Speaking of this, Feng Zidong sighed and continued, "However, what I didn't expect was that in my parents' eyes, martial arts was much more important than me, so when I was six years old, the two of them fostered me in the He family in search of a breakthrough, and from then on, my whereabouts were unknown for forty years."

"Uncle He wanted to pass on my martial arts dao, but I was determined not to become like them because I couldn't forgive my parents for abandoning me, so I gave up the martial arts dao and chose to study hard."

Ye Chen asked in confusion, "Mr Feng, my father went abroad to study business studies back then, why did you become a host again if you also entered business studies?"

Feng Zidong said, "I did study business abroad, majoring in economics, until twenty years ago, I was still working in finance-related jobs in the U.S. Twenty years ago, I quit my job and came back to apply for a position as a financial analyst on a TV station's financial channel, and then I made it step by step to become a presenter of a financial programme, and finally went to Integrated One as a news presenter."

Ye Chen couldn't help but say, "This span of yours seems a bit too big."

Feng Zidong sighed, "Because I had unintentionally learned something back then, I decided to do everything I could to become a presenter, hoping that my parents, if they were still alive, would be able to see me on TV, read my name and hear my voice, so that they might suddenly appear in front of me and identify with me"

Ye Chen couldn't help but ask, "So have they appeared yet?"

Feng Zidong hesitated for a moment and said seriously, "Mr. Ye, this is something that we can find a safe place to talk about slowly after the wedding is over."

Realising that he might have something to hide, Ye Chen said, "Mr Feng, this is as safe as it gets."

Feng Zidong shook his head and smiled, "I believe you and I believe Ruo Li, but the people outside are not completely trustworthy to me, and the people I want to talk to you about must be completely trustworthy to hear, even if there is only a one in ten thousand chance that they are not trustworthy, I will not say even one word."

Chapter 5388

Ye Chen understood that Feng Zidong must know something significant and hidden, otherwise he could not have been so cautious.

Thinking of this, he spoke, "Mr. Feng, if it's convenient for you, after the wedding is over, I'll take you and Ruo Li together and go to an absolutely safe place."

"Good!" Feng Zidong nodded and agreed readily, saying, "But I have limited time, I originally planned to rush back to Yanjing after the wedding at noon, because I have to broadcast live at 7pm, and the programme team has a regular meeting at 6pm, I have to rush back to the station before 6pm."

Ye Chen then said, "How about this, after the wedding is over at 12:30, you will be seated for dinner first, I will have a helicopter prepared, we will go there by helicopter after you finish eating, we can get there in ten minutes, after we are done, I will arrange a special plane to take you back to Yanjing, then you can take the helicopter to the airport directly from the place I said, there will be absolutely no delay in your work at night. "

Feng Zidong smiled faintly and nodded, "Then I'll be at your disposal!"

Su Ruoli didn't expect the two to have a slight connection, so she didn't interrupt, and when she saw that they had agreed, she said, "Uncle Feng, if it's convenient for you, please touch base with Mr Ye about the wedding process."

Feng Zidong hurriedly nodded and smiled, "Good, Mr. Ye, let's pair up."

Ye Chen arched his hand and spoke, "You are my father's friend, I'll call you Uncle Feng, and you don't have to call me anything Mr. Ye, just call me by my name, my name is Ye Chen."

Feng Zidong nodded and said with a smile, "I know, although I have never met you, I know your name."

He immediately took out a piece of paper and handed it to Ye Chen, "This is the flow of the wedding ceremony, I will open the ceremony, the groom will come on stage, I will do some simple interaction with the groom, and then we will move on to the bride coming on stage, the bride will come on stage accompanied by her father, there is also a part where the bride's father will hand the bride to the groom, and then they will come on stage together. You as the witness will be ready to take the stage."

Ye Chen nodded his head and said, "OK, I understand."

Feng Zidong asked him, "Have you prepared the witness's speech?"

Ye Chen nodded, "I've probably prepared some, it's in my head."

"Good." Feng Zidong nodded and smiled, "There aren't too many guests at today's wedding, those who come are the relatives of the man and woman, so we won't deliberately incite emotion, the style I envisage on my side is solemn and warm, but if your speech is more incendiary, I can also make some adjustments as appropriate to pave the way for you."

Ye Chen laughed: "I'm actually not too good at sensationalism either, let's go by what you said, solemn and warm!"

"Good!"

11:58pm.

The wedding ceremony officially began.

After Feng Zidong, as the master of ceremonies, opened the wedding, Su Shoudao, dressed in a decent suit, stepped onto the main stage of the wedding.

During his interaction with Feng Zidong, Su Shoudao, without any concealment, told the story of his journey with He Yingxiu from the time he met her, to the time he had his daughter Su Ruoli, to the time he decided to propose to her again.

In the process, he not only expressed his shame to He Yingxiu and Su Ruoli, but also expressed his gratitude to Ye Chen, even saying bluntly, "Taking this opportunity today, I would like to sincerely thank Mr Ye for his help to our Su family, his tolerance towards the Su family, and his personal discipline towards me."

Chapter 5389

"If it wasn't for Mr Ye, I'm afraid it would have been difficult for me to find a suitable opportunity to really quieten my mind and think seriously about what I really want, and it was only in this process that I realised that what I want is not money or power, what I want is an ordinary life, and simple happiness."

His words made Su Zhi Fei, who was the best man, agree very much, and he even couldn't help but nod his head repeatedly.

Without Ye Chen's hammering, both he and his father would surely still be living in that arrogant shell of self-righteousness and complacency today.

Su Chengfeng, the old man of the Su family, could not help but curse in his heart as he saw his eldest son and grandson getting Stockholm syndrome from Ye Chen: "What a waste! You could have been the head of the family, now you're directly the head of the family and her father, and you're still here thanking Ye Chen? He put you under house arrest in the He family, and you're thanking him instead? Then I was sent to Madagascar by him to feed the giraffes, do I have to be grateful to him too?"

After scolding Su Shoudao, he looked at Su Zhifei and grinded his teeth: "Su Zhifei, you're a loser too! Damn kowtowing all the way for half a year, even if you don't want to kill Ye Chen, you still look grateful, how come my Su family bloodline has produced a loser like you?"

Su Chengfeng, who was indignant, was more or less holding fire in his heart, and his expression was not too good.

At this time, Ye Chen, who was sitting not far from him, spoke up and asked, "Elder Su, I see that you don't seem to be in a good mood?"

"Huh?" Su Chengfeng instantly came back to his senses, his whole body was nervously stunned, and he hurriedly said, "No no, I'm in a good mood, Mr. Ye you why did you say that."

Ye Chen smiled: "I see you seem to always gnash your back teeth and look very upset, I don't know who has offended you."

"Where is it" Su Chengfeng waved his hands repeatedly, his heart apprehensive, his mouth accompanied by a smile, "Today Shoudao married Yingxiu, I don't know how happy I am as a father, biting my teeth is probably because my teeth are not too comfortable, you also know, older, and there are a few dental implants, in the mouth is not so obedient"

Ye Chen laughed: "I thought the old man was displeased with me in some way."

Su Chengfeng's face turned white with fear and he panicked, "How could that be! Mr. Ye you are a great benefactor to our Su family, we can't thank you enough"

Su Chengfeng actually did not dare to have any dissatisfaction with Ye Chen, let alone any thoughts of disobedience or confrontation.

He actually knew that in this situation with his son and grandson, the two of them, whether they were sincere or not, in fact had little ability to resist.

The reason why he was upset was that Su Shoudao was actually complimenting Ye Chen on this occasion. Although Su Zhi Fei, who was beside him, did not say anything, the way he was nodding his head was like repeating five words over and over again: My father is right!

Su Chengfeng was also angry with these two people for their indisputable appearance, but he did not dare to have any temper with Ye Chen.

At this moment, Feng Zidong on stage said solemnly: "After listening to the groom and the bride's emotional journey, I would like to say that they have missed out for too long, and I really hope that they will never miss each other again from today, from now on! So, next, let's invite our most beautiful bride, to shine and make her entrance!"

The solemn and sacred music rang out, the main doors of the ballroom opened and He Yingxiu, dressed in her wedding gown, accompanied by her father, slowly walked up to the far end of the t-stage with the live background music

At this moment, He Yingxiu, dressed in a white wedding dress, combined with her figure and temperament that far exceeded those of her peers, instantly stunned the whole audience.

Although Su Shoudao had accompanied her to choose the wedding dress for her to try on, seeing He Yingxiu in her wedding dress on the wedding stage now, Su Shoudao still felt his eyes lit up.

Then, guided by the MC, he stepped in front of He Yingxiu and Elder He, took He Yingxiu from Elder He's hand, and then led her to the stage.

At that moment, the MC spoke, "Next, we are going to invite a special guest, who is the witness specially invited by the couple today, both couples had told me that they said that the two of them could come together thanks to the help of this witness, so we will now invite the witness, Mr. Ye Chen Ye, to make a speech on stage!"

The guests on stage applauded, while Ye Chen, who had changed into a suit, also slowly stood up and walked towards the stage.

Before he went on stage, the Buckingham Palace staff handed Ye Chen a microphone, which he accepted before striding onto the stage and arriving at the couple's side.

Holding the microphone, Ye Chen paused slightly for a moment and then spoke, "I am honoured and terrified to be invited by the two elders to such a meaningful wedding venue to be their witness, I have not prepared any long speeches this time, I just want to say something from my heart to the two elders and all the guests."

Saying that, Ye Chen paused for two seconds and continued, "My parents left very early, but unfortunately, they gave me a perfect family atmosphere when I was young, they loved each other and were able to tolerate, understand and support each other in life;"

"And with their practical actions, they taught me the truth that if you meet the right people and find the right direction in life, you will be able to overcome all the obstacles along the way;"

"This kind of thorny path is not about ability or wealth, nor is it about strong enemies or danger, this kind of thorny path is about all the negative and meticulous aspects of life;"

"My memory is that even when they ended up with nothing but a small, shabby, ramshackle house to rent with me, they loved each other and loved life;"

"My mother, who would do her best to clean up every corner of the house every day, who would make every ingredient on the table with the utmost care, and who always had a warmth and a smile on her face."

"My father, on the other hand, would work as hard as he could to find a way to support his family in the city, and even when he came back covered in dust and sweat stains, still kept his enthusiasm and smile the same as my mother;"

"He worked very hard during that time, but never complained about the discomforts and hardships of life, because in his eyes there was no hardship in life as long as his wife and son were by his side;"

"Also, they never neglected my education because of the hardships of life;"

“As far as I can remember, the last time my father taught me how to read was from the Song Dynasty literary scholar Fan Zhongyan’s ‘The Records of Yueyang Tower’, and when he got to the passage about ‘not being happy with things and not being sad with oneself’, he put down the book and told me that in this life, one should not expect to live this life with much wealth, nor should one expect. As long as one has been doing what one wants to do and doing the right thing, even if one looks like one is doing nothing to outsiders, one’s life is still not in vain;”

“My father’s education has always deeply influenced my outlook on life and values, and has also enabled me to truly not be happy with things and not to feel sorry for myself, so that even when I am sleeping on the roof of a thirty-storey construction site and looking up at the stars, I still remain enthusiastic and smiling about life;”
