

Ye Chen 5391

Chapter 5391

Speaking here, Ye Chen took a deep breath and said seriously, "I am saying this to tell all the guests here today that my parents have told me through their practical actions that the greatest fortune in life is not how much wealth you have or how big your achievements are, but that you can meet the right people at the right time and do the right things with the right people. three right things, then you are the happiest and the most successful;"

"So here I am, and I sincerely hope that the two couples will also be able to join hands for life and be happy for the rest of their lives on the basis of these three corrects! Thank you all!"

Ye Chen's speech from the bottom of his heart made everyone present unable to help but be moved.

While they kept applauding, they could not help but feel admiration and yearning for the love like that of Ye Chen's parents' divine couple.

Moreover, all these people present, knew Ye Chen's identity.

They knew how despondent Ye Chang Ying had been when he left Yanjing with his wife An Chengqing and his son Ye Chen, and they knew that they had perished shortly after coming to Jinling.

But they did not know that even after they had shed the glamour and background of the great family, there was no downfall or resignation; they were still able to face life with optimism and run their little family to the utmost perfection.

Even if they did not rely on the Ye family for everything, Ye Chang Ying was still able to build a boat for her own little family, as the song goes, and then wash her hair, climb up the mast and hold up the vine branches and leaves of her home.

And An Chengqing was able to give up all her glamour to be by his and his son's side wholeheartedly, and to make this little family warm and beautiful with her heart.

At this moment, everyone was even more impressed with Ye Changyang and An Chengqing.

Su Shoudao was ashamed of himself, thinking back to his anger and resentment after the loss of power in the Su family, but he was still a hundred thousand miles away from Ye Chang Ying.

It was only at this moment that he understood why his own son was just a straw man with bright education and experience, while Ye Changyao's son, even though he grew up in an orphanage and on a construction site, was still able to excel.

The real difference is Ye Chang Ying's attitude towards life and his family, his openness, his responsibility, his passion and his heart, which he could never catch up with.

The old man of the Su family had just been cursing his son and grandson for being untalented, but at this moment, he realised that the untalentedness of his son and grandson stemmed to a large extent from his own education and influence on them.

Both himself and his own son were not as great as Ye Changyang, so neither he nor his son had a son as good as Ye Chen.

Ito Yohiko had long since burst into old tears at this point.

He was able to spoil Ito Nanaiko with his life in this life, but his greatest regret deep in his soul was that he had not been able to leave a son to continue his family name and mantle.

Hearing Ye Chen's words this time, this regret was instantly magnified countless times again.

The regret was instantly magnified so much that he felt in his heart that there was only one chance to make up for this regret, and that was to let Ye Chen be his son-in-law.

A son-in-law is half a son, and even in Europe and America, a son-in-law is called a son-in-law, which directly translates to a son on a legal level.

Ito Yohiko could not help but cry out in his heart: Damn it! A son in law is still a son!

And at this moment, all of Ye Chen's confidants on the stage had long since reddened their eyes.

They knew that Ye Chen had not had an easy time for many years since his childhood, and only today did they realise that what he had lost was such a perfect pair of parents. If it were anyone else, I'm afraid that the fall from heaven to hell would have been a devastating one.

At this moment, they, too, coincidentally asked themselves a question in their hearts: in Ye Chen's mind, who was the right person, really?

Chapter 5392

With Su Shoudao kissing his bride on stage, the wedding came to a close.

When they were seated for the meal, Ye Chen was at the same table with the two elders and Feng Zidong. Apart from giving tea to the two elders during the wedding ceremony, the first person to toast was Ye Chen after the toasting session began.

As they toasted, the two brought along their best man and bridesmaid in a humble and grateful manner.

Su Shoudao raised his glass to Ye Chen, bowed slightly and said with a face full of respect, "Mr Ye, you are a great benefactor to our family, a thousand words are in the wine, I toast you!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "Mr. Su, from today onwards, you are a free man, under the universal sky, where you want to go and what you want to do, I will no longer interfere in any way."

Su Shoudao said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Ye, for your generosity, I have decided to settle in Jinling with Yingxiu!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Jinling is a good place, if you settle here, you will be closer to both Ruoli and Zhiyu, and Ms. He can also be closer to Old Mr. He, if you need anything in Jinling, you can always talk to the two sisters, and if you need any help, you can also look for me, or for Chen Zekai."

Su Shoudao said with a grateful face, "Thank you Mr. Ye for your generosity!"

Ye Chen returned the smile, lifted his glass of wine and drank it down in one go.

He Yingxiu then filled the glass for Ye Chen with his own hands and said gratefully, "Mr. Ye, I am too stupid to say anything, but your kindness will always be remembered by the entire He family.

Ye Chen smiled lightly and said seriously, "Auntie He, in the future, you can trust Ruo Li with the affairs of the He family, and as for yourself, you can live a good life as a couple."

He Yingxiu nodded gratefully, she knew that Ye Chen had always taken good care of Su Ruoli, knew that Su Ruoli had become a five-star martial artist with Ye Chen's help, although she did not know that Ruoli had become an eight-star martial artist, but in her opinion, even a five-star martial artist was already the most powerful existence in the He family, so the future He family must rely on Ruoli to carry forward.

By 1:30 pm, the wedding banquet had come to an end, Chen Zekai walked over to Ye Chen and whispered in his ear, "Young master, the helicopter is ready, it can leave anytime."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and asked Feng Zidong, who was at the side, "Uncle Feng, if it's convenient for you, let's set off in ten minutes?"

Without thinking, Feng Zidong said, "Good! I'll say goodbye to my righteous father and Sister Yingxiu."

Saying this, he got up and said goodbye to the bride and groom, as well as the He family who were very close to him.

Ye Chen said to Su Ruoli, "Ruoli, why don't you also come with me later."

Su Ruoli knew that Ye Chen was going to talk to Feng Zidong about something very sensitive and even highly confidential, but she did not expect Ye Chen to let herself come along.

So, she heavily nodded her head and respectfully said, "Yes Mr. Ye, Ruo Li follows orders."

With his glass of wine in hand, Ye Chen came to Ito Yuuhiko and Ito Nana-chan and spoke, "Mr. Ito, Nana-chan, I have some important matters that I need to leave first later, so you should not leave China for the time being, right?"

Ito Yohiko, who was in a happy mood after having a few glasses of wine, said with a smile, "I am listening to Nana-chan, I will stay in China for as long as she says."

After that, he turned his words around and teased, "If Nana-chan thinks I'm too much of an old man and asks me to go back first, that's fine with me, I'm ready to pack up and go."

Ito Nanaeko shamefully snapped, "Odo-san what are you talking about who would mind you being in the way"

Ito Yohiko sighed and said seriously, "I was afraid I wouldn't be in the way! You say how nice it would be if I were in the way"

Chapter 5393

The smart Ito Nanaeko, who instantly understood the meaning of her father's words, blushed with shame and said in a low voice with a furious look on her face as she clenched her jade hands into fists and kept tapping them on the table, "Odo-san! You are becoming more and more disrespectful!"

Ito Yohiko laughed heatedly and turned to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, I don't think we'll be leaving Jinling anytime soon, so we can get together some other time." Fun Corner

When Ito Nanaeko saw her father getting serious, she also hurriedly adjusted her mind, stroked her hair at her temples again, and said softly to Ye Chen, "Ye Chen-kun, if you have something to do, go ahead and get busy, my father and I do plan to stay in Jinling for a few days, we've been busy with the wedding for the last few days, and I haven't had a chance to make a date with sister Wanting and Miss Qin."

Ye Chen nodded gently and smiled, "That's good, when I'm done with the matter at hand, I'll host a banquet for the two of you, as well as your aunt Ms. Ito and Mr. Tanaka, at the Tian Xiang House then."

"Good!" Ito Nanaeko smiled sweetly and said without thinking, "Anyway, Jinling is Ye Chenjun's territory, so we'll do whatever Ye Chenjun wants here!"

The three of them took a helicopter from the top floor of the hotel and headed straight to the Champs-Elysees Hot Spring Villa.

This hot spring hotel, together with the villa at the back of the hill, was all Ye family's property, and it was far away from the city, with a peaceful and undisturbed environment, so Ye Chen planned to keep it as one of the bases for training Dark Realm experts in the future.

The Hot Spring Hotel has now stopped operating to the public, and as for the Mid-Levels Villas, since some of them have already been sold, Chen Zekai has now started buying them back.

In view of the Ye family's strength and the fact that Richard Chen has made an offer that far exceeds the market price, the owners of these villas have all readily agreed to buy them back and have now signed up to move out one after another and have started to go through the change of ownership agreement.

After these property rights are bought back, this will be the highest level of security for Ye Chen in China.

The helicopter landed in the courtyard of Ye Chen's hot spring villa, and by the time the three of them stepped into the villa, the helicopter had already re-taken off and was headed to the hot spring hotel waiting at the bottom of the hill.

Ye Chen brought Feng Zidong and Su Ruoli to the basement where Su Ruoli had previously broken through to an eight-star martial artist, and here, invited Feng Zidong to take a seat before speaking, "Uncle Feng, this place is absolutely safe, so anything you have to say, you can say whatever you want."

Feng Zidong nodded and said without dragging his feet in the slightest, "Before the wedding started we talked about why I changed careers to be a host, so I'll start with that topic still."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and made a please gesture, waiting for Feng Zidong's next words.

Feng Zidong slowly said, "The reason why I want to change my career to become a host is because I want to find out the whereabouts of my parents, as I told you before, when I was six years old, my parents put me in foster care with the He family, and then my whereabouts were unknown."

Ye Chen asked, "So you hope that after you become a well-known presenter, they will have a chance to see you?"

"Right." Feng Zidong's gaze was like a torch as he spoke, "In fact, I used to think that they should have met with misfortune, which is why they never came back to me."

Speaking of this, Feng Zidong sighed and added, "Until twenty years ago, just a few days before your father's accident, he sent me an email, and he was the one who told me that the odds were that my parents were still alive."

Ye Chen frowned slightly and asked him, "My dad? How did he know about your parents' situation?"

Chapter 5394

Feng Zidong did not answer Ye Chen's question, but looked at Ye Chen and said in a very serious manner, "Ye Chen, do you know why your parents wanted to return to China back then?"

Ye Chen said, "I heard that it was my father who wanted to come back to revitalise the Ye family, and as for my mother, I think she came back with him out of the mindset of marrying a chicken and following a dog."

Feng Zidong laughed, "See, that's how brilliant your father is, if he doesn't want others to see through his true purpose, then in this world, no one will be able to see through him."

Ye Chen frowned and asked, "Uncle Feng, what exactly do you mean? According to you, my parents' return to China back then was actually another hidden agenda?"

Feng Zidong smiled mysteriously and said to Ye Chen, "In everyone's eyes, Ye Changye and An Chengqing were a pair of geniuses in the business field and a divine couple in the financial industry, but in fact, from the time I met your father, he was a person who was very interested in martial arts, as well as traditional Chinese culture, and even those superstitions and metaphysics that were spurned by the senior intellectuals, he was willingly;"

"As for me, I happened to practice a little bit of martial arts as a child, and grew up in a martial arts family clan like the He family, and although my own martial arts had been abandoned for many years, I was better at understanding more, so even though the two of us were several years apart, we still got on very well."

"Your father, although he has no talent for martial arts himself, has been researching the roots and underlying logic of martial arts, and so has your mother, they have even spent a lot of human and financial resources investigating the origins of martial arts and metaphysics all over the world."

Ye Chen frowned and said, "I never seem to have any relevant impression of my father"

Feng Zidong laughed, "You can interpret your father as, a scholar who tried to decipher the kernel of martial arts and metaphysics in a scientific way, his goal was not to cultivate martial arts, but he hoped to decipher the laws of martial arts like Newton deciphered the law of gravity, he often discussed with me what true qi was and why martial artists could run true qi with their meridians and dantian and serve to enhance physical fitness and their own strength;"

“Using science to decipher the kernel of martial arts and metaphysics?” Ye Chen’s expression was blank, and in his heart he couldn’t help but ask himself, “Can this kind of thing really be explained by science? Just like the rejuvenation pills that can bring back the dead and prolong life, is there any scientific method that can be researched on this? I know quite a lot about martial arts and aura, but I don’t know, what is the underlying logic in this, dad is not even a martial artist, how is he going to study the underlying logic in this?”

At this point, Feng Zidong remembered something and added, “By the way Ye Chen, although your mother seems to be quiet, she is actually more interested in these, even more fanatical than your father, moreover, even your father, may have been influenced by her.”

Speaking of this, Feng Zidong said to Ye Chen, “Your mother even had a team that specialized in this type of study, and back in the nineties, she used her connections and background in the United States to set up a supercomputer computing centre, at that time, there were only a few countries that could have that type of supercomputer, and the only few countries that did, were using supercomputers to predict global climate, simulating nuclear test data, calculating the orbits and distances of the planets in the solar system, and exploring the mysteries of the birth of the universe, while your mother, on the other hand, was using the world’s top supercomputer at the time to deduce the underlying logic of the I Ching and Bagua and the secret art of Feng Shui;”

Ye Chen’s jaw dropped as he listened, he had never dreamed that his mother could be so mysterious.

Chapter 5395

Feng Zidong remembered something and added, “Oh yes, your mother even once dragged your father, for a period of time before and after the marriage, all over China, to participate in at least dozens of archaeology related to martial arts.”

“Archaeology?” Before Ye Chen could be surprised by his mother’s interest in I Ching and Bagua, he subconsciously said, “I’ve never heard of them engaging in archaeological work

Feng Zidong laughed, “Naturally they won’t let you know, because their archaeology, to put it bluntly, is not officially approved, to put it nicely it is archaeology, to put it bluntly, it is tomb robbing.”

Saying that, Feng Zidong asked him, “Can you imagine? Two top rich second generation, usually super elite who go in and out of Wall Street or Yanjing’s cbd, but at night, they change into night clothes and become the gold-digging lieutenants described in novels

“This” Ye Chen already felt very confused, and he couldn’t help but mutter, “I have the impression that my parents were always focused on business matters before they left Yanjing, and I never heard that they were interested in archaeology or tomb raiding. I can’t find any relevant memories at all from my early childhood memories.”

Feng Zidong said, “Your parents were both extremely intelligent people, and they never let anyone know what they were really up to, except for me, of course.”

Saying that, Feng Zidong added, “Back to the topic of your parents returning to China, in fact, your parents’ decision to leave the United States and return to China was not what the outside world thought, that your father wanted to return to China to revitalise the Ye family and your mother wanted to marry a chicken;”

“In fact, they did not intend to return to China at first, or did not intend to return to China in such a hurry, but suddenly one day, your father found me and told me that he had made a very significant discovery in the United States and had to rush back to China as soon as possible to corroborate the authenticity of this discovery, I asked him what the significant discovery was, he did not tell me clearly, he just said that if it went well, he would be able to crack the questions and doubts he had been having.”

When Ye Chen heard this, he felt that his three views had been turned upside down.

Just at the time of the wedding speech at noon, he still felt that he knew his parents incomparably well.

But to his surprise, only an hour or two after this, Feng Zidong had given himself a picture of another them that he had never seen before.

After about two minutes of silence, Ye Chen asked Feng Zidong, “Uncle Feng, before my father’s accident, what else did he say other than telling you that your parents might still be alive?”

Feng Zidong’s expression rose seriously as he said word for word, “Your father also said that he and your mother had left Yanjing, and left because your mother had offended a very old and powerful mysterious organisation that had existed for at least three or four hundred years, and that its strength and background far exceeded all that one could imagine for a mysterious organisation to unfold. ”

Ye Chen was surprised in his heart and looked at Feng Zidong and asked him, “Uncle Feng, this organisation you are talking about, is it called the Broken Qing Society?”

“You know about the Broken Qing Society too?!” Feng Zidong was dumbfounded for a moment, looking at Ye Chen with an expression full of shock.

Ye Chen nodded and said truthfully, “I’m not going to lie to you, I’ve had some contact with the Broken Clear Society, but not much.”

Feng Zidong was astonished and asked him, “How did you come into contact with the Broken Qing Society?”

Ye Chen said frankly, “I came into contact with the Qing Breaking Society by coincidence, they tried to assassinate my grandparents in the United States, I captured one of their captives, and then followed that captive and found some clues related to the Qing Breaking Society.”

Feng Zidong was surprised and asked, “Twenty years have passed, and the Qing Breaking Society still won’t let your mother’s family go?!”

Ye Chen smiled bitterly, “More than not letting go, my third aunt, who was married to my third uncle for almost twenty years, but no one expected that she would be a member of the Qing Breaking Society.”

“What?!” Feng Zidong’s eyes widened, “Why would the Broken Qing Society hide in the An Family for twenty years your parents are gone, what is the significance of hiding in the An Family to them?”

Chapter 5396

He also did not understand why the Broken Qing Society had invested such a huge amount of effort in his grandmother's family, even going so far as to plant a bomb that had been delayed for twenty years before exploding.

If it was said that they were greedy for the An family's money, this reason would hardly hold water, because the Broken Qing Society's wealth should be much more powerful than the An family's, and they controlled so many dead soldiers, primus guards, special envoys, sectarians and even the Dark Realm experts from the Huben Battalion, making money was simply the easiest thing for them to do, and there was absolutely no need to keep an eye on the An family.

So that meant that they had other plans for the An Family.

And what confused Ye Chen the most was that he did not know what this other intention was.

So, Ye Chen could only say to Feng Zidong, "Regarding the Broken Qing Society's intentions towards the An Family, I don't actually understand it, saying that they are doing it for money seems a bit unreasonable; saying that they are angry at the An Family because of my parents also seems not quite tenable, after all, if they were to settle the An Family's intentions, with their strength they definitely wouldn't need to wait for such a long time."

"You're right." Feng Zidong sighed and spoke, "Perhaps, the Broken Qing Society is trying to get some special things from the An Family, maybe."

Ye Chen shook his head, "I can't think of anything they would be interested in from the An Family either, apart from money, the rest of the An Family is actually not enough, and there are no martial artists in the An Family's immediate family, much less any gong methods or elixirs."

Feng Zidong nodded approvingly and spoke, "I'm afraid that only the top brass of the Broken Clear Society will know about this matter."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Uncle Feng, what information did my father reveal to you before his accident?"

Feng Zidong said, "In the email your father sent me before his accident, apart from mentioning the Broken Clear Society, he also told me that my parents were most likely in the Broken Clear Society, and he said that there was an existence in the Broken Clear Society that specialized in training Dark Realm experts."

Ye Chen spat out three words from his mouth, "Tiger Ben Battalion!"

Feng Zidong's expression was even more appalled: "You also know about the Huben Battalion?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Only eight-star martial artists have the opportunity to join the Huben Battalion, and as long as you join the Huben Battalion, you will definitely become a Dark Realm expert within ten years, am I right?"

"Right" Feng Zidong nodded and looked at Ye Chen: "It seems that your knowledge of the Qing Breaking Association is already similar to mine, my knowledge of the Qing Breaking Association goes up to the Huben Battalion."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Uncle Feng, I'm curious, how do you know all this? Did you get in touch with your parents?"

Feng Zidong spoke, "Yes, my parents are in the Broken Qing Association, and they are both in the Huben Camp!"

Ye Chen had already vaguely guessed that this would be the case, so he could not help but sigh, "It seems that all martial artists in the world can hardly escape the temptation of becoming a Dark Realm expert"

After saying that, he asked Feng Zidong, "Uncle Feng, is this what my father told you?"

Feng Zidong nodded and said, "Your father knew about the existence of the Huben Camp, he mentioned in his email to me that someone had seen a male martial artist surnamed Feng and a female martial artist surnamed Xu inside, and that they were also husband and wife, which just happened to match my parents' surnames, so he presumed that these two should be my parents."

Saying that, Feng Zidong added, "It was also because of this that I decided to change my career to become a host, hoping that my parents would one day pay attention to me and subsequently get in touch with me."

Chapter 5397

Ye Chen was busy asking, "Have you succeeded?"

"It was successful." Feng Zidong nodded and said, "Almost ten years ago, I think, I established contact with my parents."

Ye Chen said with a shocked expression, "The internal structure of the Broken Qing Society is extremely strict and the management is extremely strict, how did you get in touch with your parents?"

Feng Zidong smiled faintly and explained, "I have to boast a bit here, when I was young I had a high IQ and was considered extremely smart among my peers, I used to play a game with my dad, we both used to make up codes with different laws and then hide the codes in a certain passage of text and then hand them to each other to decipher;"

"At first, my dad would always give in to me and make the pattern very simple, for example, at first using the pattern of hidden poems, using the first word of each sentence as the hidden content, this pattern, the password is 1;"

"If you take the second word of each sentence as the hidden content, then for this pattern the password is 2;"

"But this difficulty is basically the same as nothing for me, so he gradually upgraded his password from 1212, to 1234 or 4321;"

"If it's 1234, it means, take the first word of the first sentence, the second word of the second sentence, the third word of the third sentence and the fourth word of the fourth sentence, because the password is only four digits, so starting with the fifth sentence, you have to use it as the first sentence of the next cycle, and repeat 1234 again until you have found all the hidden words that piecing together the words you want to tell each other;"

“But then I realised that this pattern was also easy for my dad to guess, so then I upgraded it to my birthday, May 13th, so the password became 513, but even then my dad could still guess it with some time;”

“So I realised then that if you use your own birthday, or your loved ones’ birthdays as passwords, it’s actually very easy for someone to crack;”

“So, then I came up with a new encryption, which was to use my birthday, plus 1234 as the password;”

“I was born on the 13th of May, so the base password is 0513, add 1234 to each of these four numbers and it becomes 1747, so 1747 is the password to crack my text, later on my father was always unable to decipher my password, so I told him the way I upgraded my password.”

Speaking of this, Feng Zidong added: “Ten years ago at that time, blogging was popular and I was a celebrity, so my blog had a very high number of views, so I often published some essays in my blog, but in every one of my posts, I would use the password of 1747 and put ‘I miss you all very much, please contact me!’ These ten words are hidden and added in, and I believe that no one else in this world will be able to read them except my father.”

Ye Chen couldn’t help but give a thumbs up: “You and your father have a secret way of communicating, and you are a household name, if your father was still alive and had the opportunity to browse the internet, he would definitely follow your movements, so he would also definitely see your blog, so naturally he would be able to see the content you left behind, this is indeed a brilliant solution!”

Feng Zidong smiled modestly and said, “It doesn’t matter whether it’s brilliant or not, it’s most important that it works.”

Saying that, Feng Zidong added: “Ten years ago on the 13th of May, which was my birthday, I received a private message from a stranger, the content of the private message was very ordinary, it only said that he liked my hosting and also liked the words of my blog, he thought I was a very talented person and hoped I could continue to work hard;”

“I get dozens and hundreds of these private messages almost every day, but what makes this one different is that if you put in the code for 1747, it just comes out with six words: we miss you too.”

Chapter 5398

At this moment, Ye Chen could not help but feel some excitement in his heart.

He asked Feng Zidong, “How did your parents bypass the surveillance of the Broken Qing Society to contact you?”

Feng Zidong explained, “According to my father, when he was in the Huben Battalion, although his qualifications were only the worst grade, he was trusted by the head of the Huben Battalion because he could handle people, plus he had another son and daughter with my mother during his ten years in the Huben Battalion, so his overall stability was much stronger in the eyes of the Broken Clear Society;”

“Later, the Broken Clear Society dispatched them to Sa’udi in the Middle East, ostensibly as a couple running a Chinese restaurant in Sa’udi, but in reality they were secret sentries planted in Sa’udi by the Broken Clear Society to keep an eye on the Sa'udi royal family as well as other powers, and once the Broken Clear Society had an order, they had to carry it out immediately."

Ye Chen exclaimed, "You can still have children in the Huben camp?"

"Yes!" Feng Zidong nodded and said, "This was a way that my father had come to his own realization and was able to paralyze the senior management of the Qing Breaking Society. No one had children in Huben Camp, and my parents were the first pair ever, and my father felt that as long as he had a child in Huben Camp, he would be able to prove with practical actions that he and my mother had a deep bond between the two of them, that they were each other's ties and weaknesses, and that they were willing to have children under the Qing Breaking Society's control to have a child, it would also prove that they recognized the Broken Qing Society itself enough, and that after the child was born, in the eyes of the Broken Qing Society, it would be the same as an ancient pledge, so the Broken Qing Society would trust them even more."

Saying that, Feng Zidong added, "It was also because of this that my parents were able to have the opportunity to be sent out, and those who could really be sent out were those who were deeply trusted by the Broken Clear Society, because the Broken Clear Society would give them maximum freedom in order for their identities not to be exposed."

Ye Chen suddenly understood and sighed, "In that case, that third aunt of mine should also be deeply trusted by the Broken Clear Society."

Feng Zidong nodded and said, "Maybe it was the Broken Qing Society that raised her from a young age, my two younger siblings that I have never met have been raised in isolation by the Broken Qing Society."

Ye Chen asked, "What is isolated cultivation?"

Feng Zidong explained, "It means that the children are isolated from their parents, the parents are sent away and the children stay with the Broken Clear Society to be nurtured until they reach adulthood, although the Broken Clear Society may also send the children to the world early on to pack their identities for emergencies."

Speaking of this, Feng Zidong asked Ye Chen, "You said your third aunt is from the Broken Clear Society, how did she and your third uncle meet?"

"College classmates, I guess." Ye Chen said, "It seems to be my third uncle's school sister."

Feng Zidong nodded and said, "Then it's likely that in order to take care of your Third Uncle, the Broken Qing Society has arranged a dozen girls of different identities, backgrounds and even races around your Third Uncle at the same time, and whichever one your Third Uncle sees is the one, they can do such things."

Ye Chen faintly froze, but quickly recovered as normal.

At first glance, this possibility Feng Zidong mentioned seemed to raise a lot of people, but in reality, this was the way to ensure that nothing would go wrong.

At that time, only Third Uncle was still unmarried in the An family, and if the Broken Qing Society wanted to plant a bomb within the An family, Third Uncle was the best breakthrough point, and it was the only chance.

If only Third Uncle was sent alone, in case she failed, the line would not be able to advance.

The best way was to arrange a large number of girls of all kinds, and all of them were very good and innocent women, so that these women would appear one after another at Third Uncle's side, and as long as one of them succeeded, the mission would be successfully completed.

Chapter 5399

Ye Chen marvelled at Broken Qing Hui's mind to the point that he asked Feng Zidong again, "Uncle Feng, your parents are still in Saoudi?"

"Yes." Feng Zidong nodded, "They have always been there and have always been able to complete the tasks given to them by the Broken Clear Society with excellence, so they have always been trusted."

Saying that, Feng Zidong added, "And my father didn't think about breaking away from the Broken Clear Society, he just saw my message and wanted to get in touch with me, other than that, he didn't do anything to wrong the Broken Clear Society, so it has always been safe."

Ye Chen asked him, "Your father did not want to break away from the Broken Clear Society, was he a diehard loyalist of the Broken Clear Society, or was he forced to do so by the poison of the Broken Clear Society?"

Feng Zidong said, "The main thing is the poison and my younger siblings. The poison, at the moment, has no solution, as long as they leave the Society and do not receive the antidote, they will definitely die within half a month. There was no way to break away either."

Ye Chen nodded and asked, "Then have you and your parents met in the past ten years?"

"No." Feng Zidong said, "I once offered to go to Saoudi to meet them on a business trip, I could even pretend to be a patron of their restaurant, go and have a silent meal and leave, but my father did not agree. would be executed and made an example of just the same, so for the past ten years, we could only communicate through my blog."

Ye Chen wanted to tell Feng Zidong that he had the antidote to the Qing-breaking Society's toxin, but on second thought, even if his parents could be detoxified, his younger siblings were still under the control of the Society, so it would still be a fool's errand to turn his parents against him.

As long as his parents had no intention of leaving the Society for the time being, it would be redundant to give them the antidote and would probably expose himself.

He then said to Feng Zidong, "Uncle Feng, if your parents decide to leave the Qing Breaking Society one day, you can contact me."

Feng Zidong nodded, but smiled bitterly and said, "I don't think it's likely anymore, not only will they die if they leave the Qing Breaking Society, but my younger siblings will also die."

“Yes.” Ye Chen said approvingly, “This is how the Broken Qing Society controls its internal members, the vast majority of them should not be able to escape, but there may be exceptions to everything, if they want to break away, I may not be able to help your younger siblings, but I can help them.”

Feng Zidong was slightly startled, he wanted to ask why Ye Chen was sure he could help his parents, but on second thought, it was not appropriate for him to ask about such things, so he gave Ye Chen a fist hug and said, “I’ll make a note of it, thanks!”

Ye Chen asked again, “Your parents, have they told you anything else about the Broken Qing Society?”

Feng Zidong thought about it and suddenly spoke, “Right, he told me the other day about an opportunity that would allow their family of four to break away from the Broken Qing Society and regain their freedom.”

Ye Chen frowned and asked, “What kind of opportunity?”

Feng Zidong said, “It seems to be a clue to find a girl, be it a dead soldier, a primus guard, or a dark realm expert out of the Huben battalion, as long as they find that girl, they will be able to restore the family’s freedom.”

Hearing this, Ye Chen instantly thought of Lin Wan’er, whom he had saved by chance in Northern Europe.

He immediately asked, “What girl? Is there a clue about it?”

Feng Zidong said, “My father did not make it very clear, he only said that the girl was the person named by the Ying Master of the Qing Breaking Society, and that capturing her would lead to the first merit of the Qing Breaking Society

Speaking of this, Feng Zidong added: “Oh yes, my father also said that the girl had a ring, and whoever could find that ring could likewise receive the first merit.”

Ye Chen deliberately asked him, “The huge Broken Qing Society can’t even catch a girl?”

Feng Zidong said truthfully, “My father said that someone nearly caught her in Northern Europe some time ago, only for her to escape

Chapter 5400

At this moment, Ye Chen subconsciously touched his trouser pocket.

The ring that Lin Wan’er had given him, he hadn’t figured out what exactly its use was until now, but he had always kept it close to him, fearing that something might slip through or be lost by himself.

The reason why Ye Chen valued this thing so much was not that it was so precious, but that he had invested too much aura in it, and if he converted the aura into labour, it was almost like he had worked hard for this thing for three years, and then was still owed not a single cent of his wages by it.

So naturally, he could not let this thing get out of his control.

Through his trouser pocket, confirming that the ring was still there, Ye Chen was slightly relieved, but he couldn’t help but think of that girl named Lin Wan’er in his heart again.

He was wondering what was so special about this ring, and that girl, that both of them could make the Ying Master of the Broken Qing Society pay so much attention.

Ye Chen could not help but regret a little, regretting that he had not carefully approached Lin Wan'er in Northern Europe to ask her about it, when he had already used his aura to give her a psychological hint that he should have taken her to a safe place first, and then given her a chance to get to the bottom of it.

Now, Lin Wan'er had gone to nowhere, and it was as difficult as heaven to unravel this doubt now.

Feng Zidong did not know that the ring that the Broken Qing Society had been racking their brains to get was currently in Ye Chen's jeans pocket.

In his eyes, Ye Chen was the son of a deceased person and his parents were both dead, so he naturally took a bit more care of him, so he opened his mouth and said to Ye Chen, "Ye Chen, I have received news that the Broken Clear Society has made great moves recently, you have had friction with the Broken Clear Society, the Broken Clear Society will definitely try to find you out by all means, so you must keep a low profile and low profile again."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Uncle Feng, what big moves has the Broken Clear Society made recently?"

Feng Zidong said, "I don't know exactly, but my father told me that the four Earls of the Qing Breaking Society have come out one after another, which is unprecedented in the history of the Qing Breaking Society, the four Earls, are the strongest existences under the British Lord, and their strength has long surpassed that of martial artists, and can take the head of the enemy in the midst of ten thousand armies, if anyone is targeted by them, I'm afraid it's bad luck! "

"Taking the head of an enemy general in the midst of ten thousand armies?" Ye Chen frowned and repeated in a low voice, thinking in his heart, "These four Counts, I think they should be as proficient in Aura as I am, if they are only targeting me, I still have the confidence to fight with them, but if they are targeting those around me, I am afraid I will be unable to separate myself from them"

So, Ye Chen asked him, "Uncle Feng, are these four earls from the Broken Clear Society out to find that girl and that ring?"

Feng Zidong said, "I think so, my father doesn't know much, his level is still too far away from these people."

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Please also ask Uncle Feng not to mention anything about me to your father, so that word doesn't get out."

Feng Zidong said without thinking, "Don't worry, I will keep your matter absolutely confidential, just be more careful yourself during this period of time."

"Good!" Ye Chen arched his hand, "Thank you Uncle Feng!"

Feng Zidong smiled faintly, "Your father is my big brother, you don't need to be polite to me, if you need my help with anything in the future, just contact me."

With that, he took out a business card and handed it to Ye Chen.
