

Ye Chen 5411

Chapter 5411

Although the Middle East is already in turmoil, at this time in Jinling, everything is calm as usual.

As for Su Shoudao, since he had already decided to settle in Jinling, he was still temporarily staying at the He family villa after the wedding was completed, and at the same time, since he had regained his freedom, he also began to work with He Yingxiu to find a suitable house in Jinling.

The wooden table she had asked Sister Xian to buy and use for painting was placed in the living room on the ground floor, and on top of it, an eight-foot ink painting had taken shape.

In the middle of the mountains, there is a high mountain lake, surrounded by thousands of mountains, which looks peaceful and serene.

With her brush in hand, Lin Wan'er meticulously paints over the painting, and her brush, which is on the slope of the mountain next to that alpine lake, is outlining a large tree with lush branches and leaves.

At that moment, the sound of a door being buttoned came from outside the door, and Old Zhang said respectfully outside the door, "Miss, Old Slave has something important to report!"

Lin Wan'er's brows knitted slightly as she put down her brush and slowly stepped out the door.

When she opened the door, she saw Old Zhang standing outside the door with a nervous look on his face, so she asked curiously, "What has happened, how can you be so alarmed?"

Old Zhang said cautiously, "Miss, it's better for old slave to go in and talk!"

Lin Wan'er nodded and staggered to let him into the courtyard. Old Zhang trembled and closed the door behind him before he whispered, "Miss, I have just received a tip-off that something big has happened!"

"Something big?" Lin Wan'er was surprised and asked, "What's the big deal?"

Old Zhang explained, "I heard that the four Earls of the Qing Breaking Society have all left the mountain, this is an unheard of big move!"

"Oh?" Lin Wan'er frowned and muttered, "I guess they're running after me and my father's ring."

Lin Wan'er asked him, "Is the information accurate?"

“Accurate.” Old Zhang said, “This matter has made a lot of noise in the Broken Clear Society, and basically everyone above the middle level of the Broken Clear Society already knows about it.”

Lin Wan’er grunted and said, “I have left them a message and told them that the ring is not on me, how come they have not restrained themselves instead of intensifying their efforts, maybe they are looking for Ye Chen in addition to me and the ring

“It’s possible!” Old Zhang said approvingly, “As you said, that Mr. Ye is very capable, not only does he have a way to be able to cure the poison of the primus guards, but he also took those primus guards under his command back then, this is definitely a big problem for the Broken Qing Society, they will definitely try to investigate by all means.”

Saying that, he asked Lin Wan’er, “Miss, should we find a way to inform that Mr. Ye and ask him to pay some attention?”

Lin Wan’er smiled lightly and said casually, “It’s just that, don’t mind them, the more they make such a fuss, the more it proves that they don’t have any substantial clues, the world is so big, and they have so many things to investigate, it’s unlikely that they will find Jinling for a while.”

Old Zhang said somewhat nervously, “Miss, old slave heard from old Qiu that you are preparing to go to university, isn’t this a bit unsafe?”

“There’s nothing unsafe about it.” Lin Wan’er said seriously, “Let them do nothing, a bunch of people have been thinking hard for a whole year, it is impossible to think that after I was almost caught by them, instead of finding a deep forest where people are rare to hide, I ran to Jinling to study at university, that is unexpected.”

Chapter 5412

Old Zhang sighed and said respectfully, “Miss, please forgive my old slave for talking too much, if you take refuge here in Zijinshan Village, it is definitely a good choice, but if you go to school, then you will have to come into contact with many people at once, although they are all university students, as long as there is increased exposure, there will definitely be risks!”

Lin Wan’er nodded: “I understand this, but I have no other choice now, with the resources and power I can gather, it’s a fool’s errand to try to fight against the Broken Qing Society, and I don’t want to hide for the rest of my life, the only chance I have to change the status quo is to join forces with Ye Chen, if I don’t go to this university, I’m afraid it’s hard to have a chance to reach a partnership with Ye Chen So even though this decision is a bit risky, I am willing to give it a try!”

Old Zhang said with fear and trepidation, “It’s because my old slave was blinded, I didn’t know that Miss had already thought it through, and I even presumed to propose it to Miss, I should really die

Lin Wan’er waved her hand, “Old Zhang, there are risks in everything, what I want to do is to choose to take more risks to gain a better future, if I die because of this, I am willing to do so, as long as Ye Chen can protect my father’s ring and not let it fall into the hands of the Qing Breaking Society, I will be satisfied.”

Old Zhang nodded gently and said respectfully, “Miss, old slave understands! In that case, old slave will not bother you anymore!”

At the same time.

Ye Chen received a call from Chen Xiaozhao, and as soon as the call was answered, Chen Xiaozhao lowered his voice and said, "Master Ye, that Hong Tian Shi has come to look for my outer communiqué to arrive!"

"Is that so?" Ye Chen smiled faintly, "Then it seems that this old boy has made a breakthrough, how is his attitude?"

"The attitude is quite good" Chen Xiaozhao said awkwardly, "But he had to come to Ji Shi Tang to give my grandfather a hand, we don't have much use for him here, so now he's just sitting in the shop all the time"

Ye Chen laughed, "It's alright, let him sit for now, I'll come over later."

"Good!" Chen Xiaozhao said gratefully, "Master Ye, I am so grateful to you for what happened this time, if it wasn't for you, Grandpa's reputation would have been ruined at the hands of this man named Hong."

Ye Chen said indifferently, "It's just a handful, no need to be so polite, next time you encounter something you can't solve, notify me at the first opportunity."

At this moment, inside the Hall, Shi Tianqi was taking Chen Xiaozhao to see a patient, and the shop's staff was taking medicine for the patient who had already been seen and prescribed.

The fellow muttered discontentedly, "I won't let you do it, what am I going to do if you do it?"

Hong Changqing said in exasperation, "Do you know how to respect the old and love the young, you little character? Since Master Ye asked me to come here to report to Dr Shi, I can't just sit here! At least find something for me to do! I'll help you with the medicine, and you can go and rest for a while."

"No." The man said disdainfully, "You think so? I won't give it to you! If you have the guts, you can beat me up and see if Master Ye will take care of you then!"

"You!" Hong Changqing's face was blue with anger, but in the face of this kid, he didn't dare to really make a move, so he could only say resentfully, "Kid, how about this, let's make it easy for each other, I'll accept you as a name disciple, and you'll definitely be of infinite use in the future!"

The man said, "Who wants to be your disciple? Should I learn how to steal and cheat from you?"

Hong Changqing had an indignant face, pointing at the fellow, so angry that he couldn't say anything.

Chapter 5413

After seeing Ye Chen step in, he immediately greeted him and flung both knees to the ground at a distance of two to three metres from Ye Chen, before saying gratefully, "My subordinate, Hong Changqing, thanks Master Ye for his kindness!"

After receiving the pills gifted by Ye Chen, Hong Changqing had successfully stepped into the Ming realm of his dreams after a short period of seclusion.

Therefore, when he saw Ye Chen again, he was as grateful as if he had seen his life-saving benefactor.

Hong Changqing's kneeling really attracted a lot of patients who were seeing him, and they didn't know why this old man was kneeling to a young man, so they all looked sideways.

Ye Chen shook his head helplessly, took a step forward, reached out to help him up and whispered, "In the future, don't call me Master Ye in front of outsiders, let alone perform this big salute to me."

Hong Changqing thought that Ye Chen was being polite to him, so he hurriedly said, "Master Ye, you have shown your subordinates a renewed kindness, isn't it only natural for my subordinates to worship you?"

Ye Chen said in a spirit: "Then it's not too late for you to worship when there are no outsiders, then you can worship as much as you want, I will never stop you!"

Hong Changqing had no choice but to nod and said, "Okay Master Ye, my subordinate follows orders"

Ye Chen's face was unhappy as he gave a hmm, then he spoke, "Alright, I think you should stop being in the way here, now come with me to a place, I have something to communicate with you."

Hong Changqing hurriedly nodded his head and said, "No problem Master Ye, my subordinates are at your command!"

Ye Chen gave a hint and then said to Shi Tianqi and Chen Xiaozhao, "Divine Doctor Shi, Xiaozhao, I will take Grandmaster Hong out for some business, I will pay a visit some other time."

Chen Xiaozhao did not expect Ye Chen to leave just after arriving, so he subconsciously stood up and said with a face full of reluctance, "Master Ye, you are leaving just after arriving?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I will take Grandmaster Hong out for a trip and come back to see you and Divine Doctor Shi another day."

Chen Xiaozhao was helpless and said with a somewhat lost expression, "Alright then, I'll see you out then!"

After Ye Chen and Divine Doctor Hong said goodbye to Chen Xiaozhao at the entrance of Ji Shi Tang, Ye Chen drove him all the way out of the city and towards the Champs-Elysees Spa Hotel.

Hong Changqing sat on the passenger side with an excited look on his face, although he still didn't know where Ye Chen was taking him and what he was taking him to do, he just couldn't contain the joy and ease in his heart.

After all, he was now an expert at the Ming realm of great perfection, and this feeling of excitement was like a motor that was always electrified, naturally spinning non-stop for a moment.

In Ye Chen's view, Hong Changqing looked immortal and had a long beard, long hair, a Daoist bun and a long Daoist shirt, and when he was not smiling, he did look like a Heavenly Master.

He then said, "Master Hong, from now on, you'd better not smile, you look particularly lewd when you smile."

Hong Changqing was slightly stunned and subconsciously said, "Master Ye, it seems that my subordinate is not smiling, right?"

Chapter 5414

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Look in the mirror yourself, your mouth is almost grinning to the roots behind your ears."

Hong Changqing hurriedly flipped down the dressing mirror on the passenger side and saw that he was indeed wearing a kind of lewd and full-blown smile, he hurriedly curbed his smile and said awkwardly, "Sorry Master Ye, it is my subordinate who has lost his temper"

After saying that, in order to relieve the embarrassment, he hurriedly asked again, "Master Ye, where are you taking my subordinate to?"

Ye Chen said, "I'll take you to the place where you'll be working next."

"The place of work?" Hong Changqing was startled and subconsciously asked, "I wonder what kind of work Master Ye has arranged for my subordinate?"

Ye Chen casually said, "During this next period of time, you will be a teacher master in Jinling, I have gotten a site and will get you a group of students in a couple of days, you will be responsible for helping me teach them martial arts."

"Ah? Teach martial arts?" Hong Changqing blurted out, "Master Ye! The martial arts technique that my subordinate has refined is a secret that is not passed down from the Tai Chen Dao, and the old ancestor of the Tai Chen Dao has long established a rule that this technique must not be passed down to the outside world, or else the heavens will strike you down!"

Ye Chen nodded: "Good, just pass one on to me and see if it will strike the heavens with lightning."

"This" Hong Changqing said awkwardly, "Master Ye, I am not making excuses in front of you, it's just that as a martial artist, you naturally know that what martial artists value most is the martial arts heart method, and the vast majority of martial arts families and sects Most martial arts clans and sects are unable to produce a complete martial arts method, unlike my Tai Zhen Dao, which has never been lost. If I were to pass it on, and others were to pass it on to more people, then my Tai Chen Dao's advantage would be gone!"

Ye Chen grunted and asked him, "Who told you that your Tai Chen Dao's martial arts heart method must be complete?"

Hong Changqing said seriously, "Master Ye, the martial arts teachings of the Tai Zhen Dao are written down in bamboo slips, the bamboo slips are a product of the pre-Qin era, the entire slips have not been destroyed for more than two thousand years, the original version is still preserved in my Tai Zhen Dao cave, so naturally they are complete teachings!"

Ye Chen said disdainfully, "As far as I know, a truly complete martial arts heart method can allow a person to cultivate to at least Dark Realm Great Perfection, and a higher level martial arts heart method can even allow a person to break through to the Transformation Realm, or even the Patriarchal Realm, your division is guarding a complete heart method, and has not produced a Dark Realm expert for so many years, how dare you tell me that your heart method is complete? "

In the records of the Nine Xuan Heavenly Scriptures, martial dao, in fact, was the introduction to the cultivation of spiritual qi for many people, and many people, because they did not have the talent to control spiritual qi, had to first enter the dao with martial arts, cultivating true qi with martial arts mind techniques, while opening up the dantian and meridians, and after their strength broke through the Zong Shi realm, they would have the ability to transform their true qi into spiritual qi.

Chapter 5415

Moreover, it is also mentioned in the Jiu Xuan Tian Jing that in ancient China, martial artists were as numerous as cattle and there were many sects, just like the rivers and lakes in martial arts novels.

The reason why martial arts novels are all fond of snatching high ranking gongfu is similar to the pursuit of high ranking martial arts heart techniques by martial artists back then.

Martial arts novels are full of martial arts techniques that can make one a world-beating master.

And a high-ranking martial arts heart technique can make a person achieve an extraordinary body.

If a person cultivates a heart technique and is unable to reach the Dark Realm Great Perfection realm, it may be that the person is not strong enough or talented enough.

But if dozens of generations had been practising this Heart Method for thousands of years and not a single person had reached the Dark Realm Great Perfection realm, then it was proof that this broken Heart Method was simply bullshit and was either the trash of trash or simply a remnant scroll.

When Hong Changqing saw Ye Chen questioning the heart method that had been handed down by the master for thousands of years, he instantly turned red and stammered: "Impossible absolutely impossible This is a heart method that has been handed down for thousands of years, how could it be incomplete? Besides, where are there any experts of the Realm of Transformation and the Realm of Patriarchs now"

Ye Chen said with a smile, "Since there is the Realm of Transformation and Patriarch realm, it proves that someone has definitely reached this height, why can't people nowadays reach this height anymore? Could it be that modern people eat well, dress well and live longer?"

Hong Changqing was speechless for a while.

Ye Chen said again, "You might as well write out your Tai Chen Dao's martial arts heart method for me to see, whether it is complete or not, I will know at a glance."

Hong Changqing's face shrouded in a layer of blue, depressed, said: "Master Ye, if you want my Tai Zhen Dao's heart method, just one word from you, my subordinates immediately write it down to you, you don't need to treat my subordinates as three-year-old children to fool" " said, he explained with a sincere face: "It is not that my subordinates are not willing to tell you this heart method, mainly because I am worried that this technique has been passed on, and I will have no words to face the ancestor in the future" "

Ye Chen grunted: "You old brat, you claim to be loyal to me, but in your heart you still miss your master, you are really hypocritical!"

Hong Changqing hurriedly waved his hands, "Master Ye is wronged, Master Ye! My subordinate really serves you with all my heart, I dare not be negligent, my subordinate's gravity can be seen by the sun and the moon!"

Ye Chen smiled contemptuously and asked him, "Hong Changqing I ask you, now in your mind, which is greater, me or your division?"

"This" Hong Changqing smacked his lips, pursed his lips and scratched his head before he spoke with difficulty, "Master Ye, it's not that I, Hong Changqing, am cheating, when I first joined Tai Chen Dao, I made two poisonous vows to my master. One was that I would never betray my master in my life, and the other was that I would not pass on the untold secrets of the Tai Chen Dao to outsiders, not even ordinary disciples of the sect, and the other was that I would find the next successor to the sect and spare no effort in nurturing him so that he would inherit the mantle of the Tai Chen Dao.

Chapter 5416

At this point, Hong Changqing said with a pained expression, "But now I have sworn to follow your lead.

Ye Chen said in a cold voice: "Old slick, I asked you to tell me which is bigger, what are you doing here with me for half a day?"

"This", Hong Changqing said stiffly, "Master Ye, my subordinate believes that you and the division, should be generally bigger! Therefore, I am willing to serve you as a dog and horse, just don't let my subordinate break the oath he made to his master at the beginning" "

"In that case." Ye Chen nodded, "It seems that you are indeed loyal to your master, and it does seem a bit forced for me to ask you to choose between me and your master at this time."

Ye Chen laughed: "According to you, both I and your master are the ones you have sworn allegiance to, but you swore allegiance to your master first, so by definition, your master is your original mate."

Ye Chen parked his car at the roadside at the foot of the mountain, looked at Hong Changqing and said seriously, "You don't need to be nervous either, I, as a person, have always been the most reasonable, in that case, I think you should go back to America, go back and carry forward your division properly, don't let those master teachers of yours get cold feet."

Hong Changqing already had his own little thoughts, although he was grateful to Ye Chen and willing to saddle up for him, he would never be willing to take out this divisional heart method.

Therefore, when he heard Ye Chen's serious expression, he thought to himself, "If that's the case, I might as well take advantage of the situation and go back to the United States and continue to be the head of Tai Chen Tao. What's more, I am now at the full completion of the Bright Realm, and my future breakthrough into the Dark Realm is just around the corner!"

Although Hong Changqing knew that Ye Chen had a magic pill in his hand that could help him improve quickly, he felt in his heart that the pills were after all extremely precious, and if Ye Chen could give himself one, I was afraid that he would not give himself a second one.

What chance to stay was put aside first, just the matter of taking out the sect's heart method was something he could not accept.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly complied with Ye Chen's words and bowed his hand respectfully, "My subordinate thanks Master Ye for his generosity! Your kindness, my subordinate will not dare to forget it in this life and in this world!"

Ye Chen shook his head with a smile and said, "You, no need to be so polite with me, after all, you are considered close friends with my grandmother, so naturally I cannot force you to do anything."

As he said that, he gently patted him on the shoulder, and a few bits of spiritual energy quietly crossed in, looking at Hong Tian Shi, he said bitterly, "Hong Tian Shi, when you go back, you must cultivate your martial dao more diligently, after all, you are already so old and only a mere five-star martial artist, to be honest, it's really a bit unworthy of you!"

Chapter 5417

When Hong Changqing heard this, he was slightly stunned, then he smiled sarcastically and said, "Master Ye, you are too good at joking, although my strength is inferior to yours, but at least thanks to your blessing, I have broken through to the Ming Realm Great Perfection"

Ye Chen pretended to be surprised and asked, "Oh? Is that so? How come I didn't see that you were at the Ming Realm Great Perfection?"

Hong Changqing compensated with a smile, "You are really a noble man who forgets things You personally gave your subordinate a pill, you wouldn't have forgotten, would you?"

Ye Chen nodded: "I remember giving you the pill, but when did you become a Ming Realm Great Perfection?"

Hong Changqing did not know what Ye Chen meant, his heart was a bit hairy, but his mouth could only say, "Master Ye are you angry with me In fact, if you don't want me to go back to the United States, I am also willing to be by your side"

Ye Chen said in a serious manner, “No, no, no, Master Hong misunderstood, I am not angry with you, nor do I need you to stay by my side to saddle up, what I mean is that you really only have the cultivation of a five-star martial artist, there are still three of your eight meridians that have not been opened, don’t you have any idea in your own mind?”

“Ah? How could that be” Hong Changqing subconsciously said, then subconsciously his eyes slightly closed and mobilized his body’s true qi, only to discover to his horror that three of his eight originally opened meridians had been blocked for no reason!

If one’s meridians were blocked, one’s strength would definitely regress significantly, and if three of the eight meridians were blocked, one’s strength would almost be halved!

His first reaction, apart from panic, was that he thought it was impossible!

All eight of his meridians had been opened one by one in the past few decades. Funky Corner

Since ancient times, when practicing martial arts, we have only heard of meridians becoming more and more open and smooth, but we have never heard of meridians that have clearly been opened being sealed up again

Suddenly, he aimed his gaze at the smiling Ye Chen at the side and murmured in a terrified tone: “Ye Master Ye subordinate those three meridians, were they sealed by you? You just tapped your subordinate’s shoulder, you should have taken advantage of that time to strike”

Ye Chen laughed, and then said with a serious face, “I didn’t ah, you have to show evidence before you talk nonsense, don’t spout blood!”

Hong Changqing looked at Ye Chen’s undisguised and pro-active expression, and knew that this matter must be his doing.

But at this moment, he couldn’t care less about his anger and rage, he was only thinking in his heart with immense fear: “What level of expert is this Master Ye? Why was he able to seal three of my meridians in a matter of moments? I know that it took me at least ten to twenty years to open up all three meridians, but Ye Chen sealed them all up in less than a second this is too terrifying!”

Thinking of this, he cried and begged, “Master Ye, it’s not easy for me to cultivate step by step to this day, I beg you to have a higher hand, don’t tease me this is my nearly 20 years of hard work ”

Ye Chen said with a serious face: “Hong Tian Shi, how can you be like this? I already told you that I didn’t do it, you don’t believe me do you?”

Hong Changqing choked back a sob with red eyes, “Master Ye if it wasn’t you who did it who else could have done it? I have trained in martial arts for decades, but I have never heard of a regression of existing cultivation or the closing of opened meridians You must have complained that I was unwilling to hand over my master’s teachings just now, that’s why you teased me so much ”

Chapter 5418

Ye Chen said very seriously, “Heavenly Master Hong, you may have really misunderstood me, I did not make your cultivation regress.”

Saying that, Ye Chen deliberately pretended to suddenly remember something, a slap on the head spoke: "Sorry ah Hong Heavenly Master, maybe there is a problem with this car of mine, this car of mine has a special function, that is, whoever sits on the passenger side of this car, this car will make his meridians gradually close, and his cultivation will get lower and lower, so I advise you to get out of the car quickly, lest your cultivation continue to decline."

Hong Changqing was really close to tears, that expression was ten thousand times worse than crying, pleading, "Master Ye, please don't make fun of my subordinate, my subordinate is not a three year old child, how could I possibly believe such nonsense"

Ye Chen laughed, "You really don't believe it?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly, and a few points of true qi were transferred into Hong Changqing's body across the air, sealing one more of his true qi.

Afterwards, Ye Chen said very seriously, "Look, I said you didn't believe me, now it's become four stars, right?"

Hearing this, Hong Changqing once again ran his true qi and this time his face turned instantly pale with fear!

He didn't expect that in a few words, one of his meridians had been sealed again!

He was scared out of his wits and hurriedly pushed open the car door and ran out of the car with a crawl.

Hong Changqing sat down on the cement ground by the roadside, turned around and looked at Ye Chen's BMW 530, and then thought about how he had somehow fallen from the Ming realm to a four-star martial artist in one breath. How can it still steal people's cultivation! I went back thirty years this night and my cultivation is still not as high as my closed disciple, what face can I have to face the ancestors of Tai Zhen Dao"

The first thing I'd like to do is to send the car back to the United States and I'll arrange a flight for you."

Hong Changqing looked up at Ye Chen and saw his smiling expression, so he snapped out of it and hurried back to the car, crying, "Master Ye, I know you must have done this. I beg you to spare me this time for the sake of all the years of hard work I have put into cultivation! If you want my subordinate to produce the martial arts techniques of the Tai Zhen Dao, my subordinate will give you every word of it!"

Ye Chen put away his playful smile and said with a serious expression, "Hong Changqing, you are really interesting, didn't you just say that you promised the old ancestor that you would never pass it on, or else you would be struck by lightning? How come you are now willing to pass it on?"

The first time I saw you, I said, "Master Ye didn't know what to do. You are a person of great power, you can seal my four meridians with a snap of your fingers, your strength is far above me, even far above the ancestors of Tai Zhen Dao."

The most important thing is that you have to be able to do something about it. The most important thing is that it is a good thing.

Ye Chen listened patiently and smiled slightly, then after a moment of deliberation, he shook his head and said, "Master Hong, as the saying goes, a master's order cannot be disobeyed, I suggest you not to disappoint the ancestors of your Tai Zhen Dao."

Saying that, he looked at the time and spoke, "Master Hong Tian Shi, I have some business, I have to go to Champs-Elysees Hot Spring, besides, I may square you up in this car, so you don't have to take it, you take a taxi back to where you live first, I will have someone contact you when I arrange a flight later, I'll go first, bye!"

Chapter 5419

When Hong Changqing saw that Ye Chen wanted to leave, he subconsciously begged, "Master Ye You don't have to leave in a hurry, Master Ye! My subordinate really knows that I am wrong, just please give my subordinate another chance to reform!"

Ye Chen laughed, "Look at what you said, what's wrong with you following your master's orders? Don't deny yourself, don't be presumptuous, I have something to do, I'll leave now, let's talk later."

Hong Changqing dared not let Ye Chen leave like that, in case Ye Chen really turned his back on him, wouldn't his four meridians be finished?

So he could only pull at the car door and said with a snuffle and a tear, "Master Ye, cultivation is not easy! Please see that my subordinate has a good attitude in admitting his mistakes and give him another chance"

Ye Chen smiled faintly: "Sorry, I really can't give it, but it's just four meridians, you go back and close up well, in 30 or 50 years it will be flushed open again."

Hong Changqing choked and said, "Master Ye, my subordinate is in this condition, how can I have 30 to 50 years to live"

Ye Chen was unwilling to continue to talk nonsense with him and said in a spirit of face, "Master Hong, close the door of my car, I have to go, thanks!"

As he spoke, he sent out some more aura into Hong Changqing's brain, and Hong Changqing subconsciously closed the car door, Ye Chen didn't wait for him to come back to his senses, and drove the car away with a kick of the gas.

It was only after Ye Chen left that Hong Changqing came back to his senses and shouted from behind, "Master Ye! Master Ye, you can't leave your subordinate here, Master Ye!"

Ye Chen didn't care what he said, and in the blink of an eye, the man and the car had disappeared.

Hong Changqing chased after him for a few hundred meters but failed to catch up, and when he saw Ye Chen's car drive onto the elevated bridge to the suburbs, he sat down on the ground in despair and said in tears, "Master Ye, your grandmother and I are also close friends, so I am also half your elder, we don't have to bully people like this!"

But Ye Chen didn't care what he was crying about, he had already run towards the Champs-Elysees Spa.

In fact, according to Ye Chen's plan, he would let Hong Changqing work as a teacher at the Champs-Elysees Hot Spring, and he would help him perfect his master's martial arts techniques, or simply give him a new one, so that he could properly teach the He family and the young potential martial artists of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, and as long as he did a good job, he would definitely not treat her badly, and would definitely help him break through the Dark Realm and become a Dark Realm expert in no time.

However, he did not expect that this old master had so many petty calculations, not to mention whether his reluctance to reveal his master's heart method was genuinely out of principle, just his attitude of being a two-named slave was not worth reusing himself at all.

Therefore, in Ye Chen's opinion, to deal with him, he had to be completely convinced in one breath, otherwise, those petty schemes in his heart would definitely always be there and would become an unstable factor sooner or later.

Using his aura to seal his four meridians was as easy as pie for Ye Chen, meridians were something that was indeed troublesome to unblock, but it was really too easy to block.

It was like digging a ten kilometre tunnel and trying to get it completed and open to traffic, not only was the amount of work vast, the amount of manpower and resources invested was astronomical.

But if you want to make a ten kilometre tunnel, which is already open to traffic, inaccessible to traffic, all you need to do is to get a truckload of earth and pile it into the hole, and everything is solved.

Moreover, the most interesting thing was that Ye Chen blocked his meridians, using spiritual qi, although it was only a very small amount of spiritual qi, but he, Hong Changqing, did not have such a thing as spiritual qi in his body, and spiritual qi was a descending blow to him, and he had no way to deal with it.

Chapter 5420

Ye Chen had just fooled him, saying that he would be able to break through in 30 to 50 years, but in fact, he was just having fun with him, if he was really allowed to go back to his closed-door training, he would not be able to break through even one meridian in a hundred years.

It could be said that Ye Chen's little bit of spiritual energy had completely locked up Hong Changqing's future martial arts future.

This was not as simple as going back 30 years, this was locking him out 30 years ago.

At this moment, Hong Changqing did not know exactly what it meant to have his meridians sealed by Ye Chen, he only knew that he absolutely could not just walk away in disgrace.

At a certain moment, he thought about calling Ye Chen's grandmother and asking her old man to come and help judge him.

But then he turned around and suddenly felt that he absolutely could not make such an impulsive move.

Because Ye Chen had already explained to himself before that he must not reveal his identity to her grandmother, if he knowingly did so, then once he really annoyed Ye Chen, not to mention the four meridians being sealed, his person might even be killed by him.

The disheartened Hong Changqing thought about it and felt that he must find a way to gain Ye Chen's forgiveness, and only then could he get his original cultivation back.

So, thinking back to what Ye Chen had just said, that he would take himself to the Champs-Elysees Spa, he immediately stood up and stopped a taxi at the roadside.

It was the first time the taxi driver had seen such an old man dressed as a Daoist priest, and since Hong Changqing did have some immortal style, he saw him get in and asked in a very respectful manner, "This Daoist priest, where are you going?"

Hong Changqing spoke, "I'm going to the Champs-Elysees Spa."

"To a hot spring?" The taxi driver was a little puzzled, wondering why an old Taoist was going to a hot spring hotel.

Without waiting for Hong Changqing to say anything, he remembered something and said casually, "By the way, Taoist Master, the Champs-Elysees Hot Spring Hotel is no longer in business, saying that it is going to be upgraded and the opening time has not yet been decided, I have also pulled a few waves of guests over the past two days, but they all fell through.

Hong Changqing shook his head and said, "I'm not going to the hot spring, I'm looking for someone to do something."

"Oh, no wonder!" The taxi driver said with a smile, "I told you that a Taoist master like you, who at a glance is a master who is dedicated to asking the Tao, could not possibly have the leisure to go to some hot spring."

He then asked, "Master Dao, I wonder which Taoist temple you usually practice at? My mother is a firm believer in Taoism and usually goes to Tian Hou Gong to burn incense."

Hong Changqing nodded and said, "I am not local to Jinling, I am from America and my Daoist temple is also in America."

"America?" The taxi driver said with a surprised face, "Master Dao, isn't this Daoism in China? How come there are still Taoist temples in America?"

Hong Changqing gave him a blank look and asked, "Aren't there any churches in China?"

"There are" The driver smiled and said, "I understand when you say that, so you must have come from China to the United States as a missionary some years ago, right?"

Hong Changqing had an embarrassed expression and smiled sarcastically, "I have been busy diving into cultivation all my life and have not preached or given sermons."

The driver gave him a thumbs up and praised him, "As soon as I saw you, I felt a kinship with you, you look like a serious Taoist priest, not one of those fools!" Fun Corner

Hong Changqing ignored him and looked out of the window, thinking back to the hardships and difficulties of his years of painstaking training in the United States, and then to the fact that he was so old that he had come all the way to China to look for a chance, but who would have thought that he would have regressed to a four-star martial artist after only two days of happiness

The more you think about it, the more aggrieved you feel, and the more tears flowed out of your eyes.

The driver saw this and quickly asked him, "Daoist, why are you crying, did someone bully you?"
