

Ye Chen 5421

Chapter 5421

The taxi driver's concern and question made Hong Changqing's heart even more aggrieved.

In the Chinese community in North America, he was really a well-known figure, and there were many people who had to pay homage to him when they saw him, and there were many dignitaries and nobles among them.

But he had never dreamed that he would be bullied by Ye Chen to the point of tears of aggression after coming to Jinling.

What hurt him most was not the aggression he had just suffered, but the fact that even after he had suffered so much aggression, he had to take a taxi with tears in his eyes to go to Ye Chen to atone for his sin.

This was the consequence and downfall that one had to bear after offending the wrong person.

In his heart, Hong Changqing also understood that the main reason why Ye Chen wanted to do this to himself was that his own little thoughts had made him angry.

When he thought back on it, the pill that Ye Chen had given himself was worth a lot of money, and could even be said to be priceless. The reason why he had given himself this pill was also very obvious, that he wanted to make himself serve him wholeheartedly.

However, he had promised himself well on the surface, but he still had many petty thoughts in his heart, and he was even obsessed with the idea of saying goodbye to Ye Chen on this and returning to America to continue being his own Hong Tian Shi.

Thinking of this, Hong Changqing couldn't help but curse himself in his heart: "Hong Changqing, Hong Changqing, you really have a weak heart and a snake that swallows an elephant, that Ye Chen is so strong, how could he have eaten your dumb loss? You've been superficially flattering and duplicitous to him, and it's strange that he would let you go back to America! Where in the whole world would such a good thing happen?"

After realising how shameless and stupid he had just been, Hong Changqing regretted it in his heart.

He had thought that since he had already eaten the pills given by Ye Chen anyway, there was no way he could spit them out and return them to him, plus he was his grandmother's old friend, with this relationship, he couldn't keep himself imprisoned in Jinling, right?

He also said he would let him go, so he could go along with it, whether he was sincere or not.

But who would have thought that a waterfall would lie beneath the boat and a cliff would lie beneath the donkey?

So he silently made up his mind: when he arrived at the Champs-Élysées Spa Hotel later, no matter what attitude Ye Chen had towards himself, he had to be firm, from now on he would be loyal to him, let himself go to understand himself, never go west, let himself face south, he would never face north! Only then would it be possible for Ye Chen to net himself out so that he could restore his cultivation.

At this moment.

Ye Chen, who had set off first, had already arrived at the mountain entry junction of the Champs-Elysees Hot Spring.

In the middle of the road at the junction, a very prominent sign was erected, which read: The hotel is closed for renovation, temporarily closed for business, please understand if there is any inconvenience.

There were also two cars parked on the roadside with several security guards in security uniforms.

When he saw Ye Chen's car turning from the main road, one of the security guards stepped out of the car and stopped in front of it. After the car stopped, he went to the driver's side and said, "Excuse me, sir, our hotel is being upgraded and is no longer open for business these days.

Ye Chen casually laughed, "What, your hotel is no longer open for business, so you won't even let me go down the road?"

The man immediately explained, "Sir, this road does not belong to the municipal road, it was built by our hotel at our expense, and the land occupied by this road was also purchased by our hotel, so after the hotel stopped operating, we also have the right to close this road."

Saying that, he took out a document from behind the blocking sign and showed it to Ye Chen through the window, saying, "Let me show you first, this is our relevant document about the right of way of this road, this is approved and stamped by the city."

Chapter 5422

Now the Champs-Elysées had completely stopped opening to the public, and since it was a cut-off road at the foot of the mountain itself, no one could come here anymore when it stopped opening to the public.

The hot spring hotel at the foot of the mountain had been closed, not to mention the hot spring villa halfway up the mountain. This hotel, which had over two hundred rooms, occupied a huge area and had a natural closed terrain, naturally became Ye Chen's best choice to train his experts.

After the hot spring hotel ceased to operate, Chen Zekai replaced all the people here with his own inner circle, and Hong Wu also sent a number of trustworthy brothers from his own men to be in charge of security patrols here, so as to ensure that the place would not be approached by outsiders.

The security guard who was talking to Ye Chen at this moment was one of Hong Wu's men.

Ye Chen put the window down and asked him with a smile, "This whole hotel is mine, don't I have the right to go in?"

As Ye Chen had only opened the window a crack at first, he did not see Ye Chen's face clearly, and when Ye Chen lowered the window, he was immediately stunned and said with fear and trepidation, "Master Ye, how come it's you I didn't know it was you driving the car, I took the liberty to offend you just now, I'm really Sorry, please forgive me"

Ye Chen smiled, "It's okay, you were also doing your job and doing it well."

The man was immediately relieved and quickly said respectfully, "Master Ye, our fifth master is busy inside right now, should I inform him?"

Ye Chen said casually, "No need, I'll drive in and find him myself."

The man hurriedly said, "Okay Master Ye! I'll move the sign for you!"

After saying that, he hurriedly moved that warning sign aside and respectfully made a gesture of invitation to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen admonished him, "By the way, if an old man surnamed Hong tells you later that he knows me and wants to go in to find me, you must not let him in."

The man immediately said, "Master Ye, don't worry, I won't let him in."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Good, thanks for your hard work."

After saying that, Ye Chen drove towards the hot spring hotel.

Inside the hotel, Hong Wu was directing a group of junior brothers to dismantle and rectify some of the public facilities of the spa hotel.

He probably knew that Ye Chen was going to train some martial arts masters here, so he discussed with Chen Zekai to dismantle the entire interior of the large report hall of the Hot Spring Hotel, which was exclusively for guests' group meetings, and directly reinstall it into a large indoor training venue, and then re-upgrade the fitness equipment to suit the needs of those martial arts people.

There was also a very extensive project to replace all the external opening doors and windows with one-way glass that would absolutely guarantee privacy, further ensuring that no one would know what the actual use of the place was.

In addition, Hong Wu had also built an area outside the hotel full of construction materials, not only preparing a large amount of cement, yellow sand and other building materials, but also a lot of scaffolding and decorative raw materials, as if to make the illusion of really carrying out a large-scale renovation of the place.

When Ye Chen arrived at the entrance of the hotel, he saw this scene in front of him and sighed at the dedication of Hong Wu and Chen Zekai. Although these two people were not martial artists and did not have much practical combat ability, they were really very competent in being their right-hand men.

Although Hong Wu's little brother had promised Ye Chen not to inform Hong Wu, after all, Hong Wu was his boss, so as soon as Ye Chen arrived at the door, Hong Wu had already cheerfully and quickly greeted him.

When he saw Ye Chen, Hong Wu was very happy and said with a respectful smile, "Master Ye, why did you come here today without a greeting?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "I have found a head instructor for this place, and I intend to bring him over to familiarise himself with the working environment."

“Oh!” Hong Wu nodded and, seeing Ye Chen himself, asked with some confusion, “Mr. Ye, where is the head instructor you mentioned?”

Ye Chen grunted and casually said, “It’s in the back, let’s not let him in today first!”

Chapter 5423

“You won’t let him in?”

Hearing Ye Chen’s words, Hong Wu asked with a surprised expression, “Master Ye, weren’t you going to bring that instructor over to familiarize himself with the environment? Why don’t you let him in again? I really can’t quite figure out

Ye Chen grunted and casually said, “He’s a little bit uninformed, to this kind of uninformed person, definitely need to knock knock, otherwise there’s no telling how he’ll fall off the chain in the future.”

Hong Wu instantly understood in a second and said with a smile, “I understand Master Ye! In that case, let’s ignore him for now, I’ll show you around first, and by the way, I’ll tell you about some of my adjustment ideas, if you have any needs feel free to mention them to me, I’ll do my best to make them happen.”

Ye Chen nodded his head and said to Hong Wu, “Let’s go!”

Meanwhile.

The taxi that Hong Changqing was riding in had already driven to the fork in the road that was manned by Hong Wu’s minions.

The taxi driver slowed down, pointed to the sign in the middle of the road and said to Hong Changqing on the passenger side, “Daoist Master, you won’t be able to pass this way, you’ll have to get down and walk over if you want to go to the Champs-Elysees Hot Spring.”

The taxi driver stopped the car and Hong Changqing paid, pushed the door and walked down from the car.

At this time, Hong Wu’s little brother greeted him and asked, “Master, where are you going?”

Hong Changqing’s eyes were still red and swollen, and he said in a disheveled and incomparable manner, “I came to see Master Ye Chen Ye

As soon as that little brother heard this, he knew that this person should be the old man surnamed Hong that Ye Chen had mentioned.

However, to be on the safe side, he still asked, “What is your surname?”

Hong Changqing arched his hand, “Free of your surname, Hong.”

The little brother hemmed and hawed, “Sorry, Mr. Hong, this place is being renovated and upgraded, so it is not allowed to enter for the time being.”

“Not allowed to enter?” Hong Changqing hurriedly said, “Please tell Mr. Ye that Hong Changqing wants to see you!”

The little brother shook his head, “Not to mention that I don’t have Master Ye’s contact information, even if I did I wouldn’t tell him.”

Hong Changqing was puzzled and asked, “Why? Did Mr. Ye say he wouldn’t let me in?”

The little brother hemmed and hawed, “Then you can figure it out yourself.”

Seeing that little brother’s smile as if he was watching a good show, Hong Changqing immediately knew that this must be what Ye Chen had explained.

At this moment, although he was so depressed in his heart that he wanted to die, he knew in his heart that if Ye Chen didn’t let him enter, he just couldn’t go in. Even if this kid in front of him didn’t have any cultivation at all, with his current strength of a four-star martial artist, it would be more than enough to deal with him, but he still couldn’t go in.

So, he could only let out a long sigh and said in a dejected manner, “Then I’ll wait for him here

The little brother shrugged his shoulders, “Whatever you want then.”

Hong Changqing had no choice, so he walked to the roadside alone in silence, found a tree under the shade, crossed his legs and began to meditate.

It was not that he really wanted to cultivate or be at peace, on the contrary, he was on the verge of exploding, after all, when he thought back on today’s encounter, the more he thought about it, the more depressed and stifled he became.

But this had little effect either, as his heart still hurt like a knife.

At that moment, his mobile phone suddenly rang. Although he was distracted, he took it out and looked at it.

It was because the caller was no other than Ye Chen’s grandmother.

When Hong Changqing looked at the name of the caller, tears came out of his eyes uncontrollably.

But he still resisted the urge to cry out and pressed the answer button, his voice a little hoarse as he said, “Old Mrs. An

Chapter 5424

Old Madam An asked with some surprise on the other end of the line, “Master Hong, you sound tired, did you encounter something?”

Hong Changqing wiped his tears and said with a forced smile, “Nothing, nothing, I’m old, my resistance is weak, I caught a wind chill, I’ll probably be fine in a few days.”

Mrs. An put her mind at ease and said, “The An family will be preparing to leave for Jinling soon, I wonder how long Master Hong will stay in Jinling?”

As soon as Hong Changqing heard this, he became excited.

He thought to himself, "I've been bullied by Ye Chen, and I'm worried that there's no one to do anything about it, so if Old Madam An comes, she might be able to do me justice. When the time comes, Ye Chen can't go too far with me even if he doesn't look at the face of the monk!"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly asked, "Old Madam, which day are you planning to depart?"

Old Mrs. An said, "The An family has a lot of things to do, and many things have to be arranged in advance, but it will definitely be as soon as possible, and we will definitely arrive in Jinling within this month, but I don't know when Master Hong intends to return to the United States?"

Hong Changqing was busy saying, "Back to Old Madam, I will not leave Jinling for the time being, so when you come to Jinling, I will definitely be there."

"That's wonderful!" Mrs. An said with a smile, "I would also like to ask Master Hong to tell our fortune to see if we will be lucky or unlucky in Jinling."

Without thinking, Hong Changqing said, "Don't worry, Madam An, I will come to your door to tell your fortune!"

"Good!" Old Madam An said with relief, "Then thank you in advance, Master Hong!"

"No, no." Hong Changqing said sincerely, "I have always respected you, Old Madam, and it is my good fortune to be able to serve you."

Old Madam An said, "Master Hong has spoken highly of you! You are a master of the Taoist sect, it is a blessing for the An family to have your help!"

The two exchanged pleasantries and hung up the phone. Hong Changqing put away the phone and sighed in his heart, "Old Madam you are saying this now because you don't know what your grandson is capable of, if you knew that I was being rubbed on the ground like a dog by your grandson, you would know how I can still be considered a Taoist master! You are waiting for me to help you with your advice, I am still waiting for you to do justice for me here"

At this time, on the other side, the Champs-Elysees Spa Hotel.

Hong Wu took Ye Chen through the hotel, and about how the hotel would be renovated next, he also talked to Ye Chen about his ideas.

Hong Wu's idea was still to keep a low profile as much as possible, so he put all the venues indoors in the hotel. Although the hotel also had a large square and green area, and it was very easy to transform it into a standard sports ground, Ye Chen was going to do secret training here after all, and if some people found out that there was a group of people here every day to drill in the internal playground, they would definitely be suspicious.

So it would be relatively much more concealed for all the personnel to live and train indoors at that time.

The Champs-Élysées is located in the mountainous suburbs of the city, and since it is closed for renovation, if the rooms are lit up at night, it will give people a very strange feeling. If only the first floor had lights and the upper floors were all dark, it would be relatively reasonable.

Ye Chen found that although Hong Wu seemed to be an old man and not very educated, he was still relatively comprehensive in his considerations and his execution was also very good, so he said to him: "Hong Wu, I see that you have considered everything thoroughly, so I will leave the renovation work here to you."

Hong Wu immediately said, "Master Ye don't worry, I will definitely do my best to work overtime!"

"Good." Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and smiled, "It's getting late, I'll go back to the city first, let's call if there's anything."

Chapter 5425

When Ye Chen drove out, Hong Changqing, who had been waiting for a long time at the fork in the road, saw the BMW he was driving from a long distance.

He got up and jogged to the roadside, squeezing a smile onto his face as he waited for Ye Chen to arrive.

Ye Chen also saw Hong Changqing from afar.

In fact, Ye Chen had long guessed that he would definitely come and would definitely be waiting for himself here.

So, when he drove up to his heels, he deliberately slowed down his car, then stopped beside Hong Changqing, opened the window and said with a smile, "Yo, what brings Heavenly Master Hong here? Want to take a dip in a hot spring, huh?"

Hong Changqing hurriedly said in a low voice, "Master Ye subordinate subordinate is waiting for you here ah"

"Waiting for me?" Ye Chen asked with an amused expression, "Why are you waiting for me here if you don't hurry up and prepare to go back to America?"

Hong Changqing hurriedly begged, "Master Ye, my subordinate really knows that he is wrong, please subordinate you a chance."

With that, he hurriedly took out some sheets of paper filled with words and handed them to Ye Chen, saying respectfully, "Master Ye, this is the Heart Method of our Tai Chen Dao, I have copied it down word by word, please read it!"

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Grandmaster Hong, why have you suddenly made this decision to go against the ancestral teachings?"

Hong Changqing said awkwardly, "Master Ye, you should stop making fun of your subordinates"

Ye Chen laughed, "Master Hong, to be honest, how can I let you do wrong to the ancestors? In my opinion, you should hurry up and take back this piece of paper!"

Hong Changqing gritted his teeth and said firmly, "Master Ye, in the future, I will not be the head of Tai Zhen Dao! I have decided to give up my position as the head of Tai Zhen Dao to my personal disciple, and I will serve you wholeheartedly from now on!"

Hearing this, Ye Chen couldn't help but raise his eyebrows, "The Sect Leader is quitting?"

“No more!” Hong Changqing said with certainty, “You are right in your criticism, Mr. Ye, I cannot be a slave of two surnames, so the only way out of the division is to quit.”

Ye Chen smiled lightly and asked him, “Have you decided?”

Hong Changqing nodded his head repeatedly, “Decided! I will pass on the title of Sect Master to my closed-door elder disciple today! Please don’t worry, Master Ye, from now on, my subordinates will only listen to your orders alone and will definitely bow and scrape for you!”

Ye Chen smiled, opened the central lock, and said to Hong Changqing, “Get in and talk.”

Hong Changqing seemed to grab the straw that saved his life, pulling open the car door and scrambling to get in.

But when his butt was about to be on the seat cushion, he jumped out of the way like he was electrocuted, and asked Ye Chen with a cautious face, “Master Ye are you still squared away in this car?”

Ye Chen looked at his panicked, palpitating look, smiled slightly and spoke, “You just don’t do so many fancy and demonic moths, this car of mine will not square you.”

Hong Changqing said offhandedly without thinking, “Master Ye don’t worry, my subordinate will never dare to move any more fancy things”

Ye Chen nodded his head and said indifferently, “Then get in the car.”

Only then did Hong Changqing pull open the car door and get into the car.

Just as he got into the car, Ye Chen took the piece of paper from his hand, looked at the title on it and said with a frown, “The Taizen Mixed Dao? This is the heart method of your Tai Zhen Dao?”

“That’s right!” Hong Changqing said without thinking, “The founding master of the Tai Chen Dao was the one who created the Tai Chen Dao precisely because he had obtained this Tai Chen Mixed Yuan Dao by chance.”

Ye Chen’s heart was appalled, this ‘Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao’ was also recorded in the Nine Mystical Scriptures, and was the longest of the many heart techniques recorded within the Nine Mystical Scriptures.

There are three volumes and twenty-seven chapters in the entire Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao, totalling nearly fifty thousand words, but what Hong Changqing has written on the paper is only about a thousand words, so it should only be the first chapter of the first volume.

The first chapter in the “Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao” was a complete initiation method, which mainly taught one how to cultivate the martial arts from the beginning, how to sense one’s dantian and meridians, how to transform true qi through exhalation and gradually break through one’s meridians.

At the beginning, although Ye Chen had also taken out the Four Elephants Fist, an internal martial art, to Qin Aoxue, that kind of fist could only improve a martial artist’s combat power and was a combat method, not a heart method that could improve cultivation.

Chapter 5426

Since Ye Chen had mastered the aura, he had not been able to properly sort out the various martial dao heart techniques recorded in the Nine Mystical Heavenly Scriptures, and now he relied on his memory of the Nine Mystical Heavenly Scriptures and pondered over it for a long time before realising that this Tai Zhen Mixed Dao was actually the truly perfect martial dao heart technique.

This martial arts heart method, starting from how to exhale and transform true qi, teaches one to improve one's strength step by step, and then continue to make breakthroughs, eventually reaching the Zong Shi realm.

Once one reaches the grand completion of the Sovereign Master realm, one is able to enter the final stage of the Martial Dao.

Once a martial artist has completed the final leg of the martial path, it will be greeted by the very beginning of the aura.

It is only at that point that he will be able to begin to master the aura.

If the Ancestor of the Tai Chen Dao had received the complete copy of the Tai Chen Mixed Dao, then the Tai Chen Dao would have been able to produce at least a few masters of the Dark Realm, the Transformation Realm, or even the Sovereign Realm, even if he could not produce a top master proficient in Aura.

But what was ruined was that what he had obtained was only the first chapter of the introduction to the Tai Chen Mixed Element Dao.

Ye Chen couldn't help but think: "If I had given the second chapter of the Taizen Mixed Yuan Dao to Hong Changqing, I think his cultivation would have been able to advance by leaps and bounds, and he would have been able to enter the Dark Realm on his own strength in no time."

However, this also strengthened Ye Chen's mind to take Hong Changqing under his wing.

This was because Hong Changqing had practiced the first chapter of the "Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao" for so many years and was already well versed in this heart method, so if he were to give this heart method to other people, he would definitely be able to conclude a method that would allow people to master the "Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao" the fastest through his own experience of so many years.

If it were not for him, and he had just handed over the Heart Method of the Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao to the martial artists of the He Family as well as the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, then I am afraid that they would have needed at least a few years to become familiar with this Heart Method a little bit before they could build something.

In contrast, Hong Changqing would have saved a lot of time by taking over the lead.

As long as Hong Changqing was able to work for himself, Ye Chen would not treat him badly. By then, he would not only be able to obtain the subsequent Tai Zhen Mixed Dao, but would also be able to train a large number of martial arts experts for himself who were proficient in the Tai Zhen Mixed Dao.

However, Ye Chen did not tell Hong Changqing these words, he just threw back the pieces of paper that Hong Changqing had written by hand and casually asked him, "In the middle of nowhere, where did you get the paper and pen?"

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Back to Master Ye, it was the little brother on the roadside who helped me call for an errand from the internet"

Ye Chen hummed and laughed, and his expression gradually became serious as he spoke, "This Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao of yours is not complete at all, it is just an opening chapter."

"How could that be" Hong Changqing subconsciously said, "In Tai Zhen Dao, there are also some collected martial arts mind techniques, but all of them are invariably fragments, only this Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao is a complete mind technique with a beginning and an end! "

Ye Chen laughed contemptuously and asked him rhetorically, "What is the essence of the 'Taizen Mixed Yuan Dao'?"

Hong Changqing blurted out, "Naturally, it's a martial arts heart technique!"

Ye Chen bristled and said disdainfully, "Let me tell you, the essence of The Tao of Tai Chen Mixed Elements is mixed elements, do you know what mixed elements are?"

Hong Changqing frowned and thought for half a day before saying, "It seems to be a rather general term in Taoism, there is nothing particularly clear about its meaning"

Ye Chen shook his head and said indifferently, "Mixed Yuan is the chaotic qi from the time when heaven and earth were undivided, this is also the beginning of Yuan Qi! Its ultimate goal is to allow one to enter the dao with martial arts and ultimately master the power of that mixed element."

After saying that, he pointed at the paper in Hong Changqing's hand and teased, "What you have written throughout is how to exhale and how to break through the meridians, not even half a word is related to mixed energy, this is like having a book in your hand, the title is 'Principles of Power Generation in Thermal Power Plants', but all you have is what teaches you how to dig coal, do you think this, it can be the whole thing? "

Chapter 5427

Ye Chen's words immediately caused Hong Changqing, who had originally felt somewhat condescending, to jaw drop in shock!

Originally, when Ye Chen said that the Tai Zhen Dao's "Tai Zhen Mixed Dao" was not the complete text, he was still very indignant in his heart. After all, for thousands of years, the successive generations of Tai Zhen Dao's sect leaders had been proud of the fact that their sect could possess a complete set of martial arts heart methods and were inappropriate, and even held themselves in high esteem because of it.

However, after listening to the analogy Ye Chen had made, he suddenly realised that Ye Chen was probably not just talking out of his ass! It was likely that the Tai Chen Dao's Tai Chen Mixed Dao was, as Ye Chen had said, only a small part of the real Tai Chen Mixed Dao.

Thinking of this, he asked in astonishment, “Master Ye, the reason why you said that must be because you have a fuller version of the Heart of the Tai Zhen Mixed Dao in your hands, right?”

Ye Chen laughed lightly and said playfully, “How can you be so sure that I have a more complete version?”

Hong Changqing subconsciously blurted out, “Grandmaster Ye, you just said that the real Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao is like the Principles of Power Generation in Thermal Power Plants, while the one in Tai Zhen Dao’s hands only teaches one how to dig coal, so that proves that you have at least read this copy of the Principles of Power Generation in Thermal Power Plants, right... ..”

Ye Chen didn’t hide, nodding and smiling, “You guessed right, I have indeed read the original full version of the Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao, and I can tell you clearly that the entire Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao has a total of three volumes and twenty-seven chapters, and this copy that your Tai Zhen Dao master ancestor got is just the first chapter of the opening chapter.”

“What?!” Hong Changqing’s eyes were about to fall out of those deep sunken sockets as he stammered and asked, “Ye Master Ye you your words Are you serious?!”

Ye Chen asked rhetorically, “I’ve teased you too, what do you think the point of me lying to you now?”

Hong Changqing swallowed his saliva and said offhandedly, “Have we our Tai Zhen Dao for thousands of years and dozens of generations been practicing the first chapter of the Tai Zhen Mixed Dao?!”

Ye Chen nodded his head very firmly and said, “Yes! That’s right! That’s exactly what happened!”

Hong Changqing sat on the spot as if he had lost his mother, and his expression became incomparably despondent and despondent, his eyes lost in focus and bewildered, “A person starts studying from kindergarten and reads all the way to the graduation of a doctor, it is only a mere twenty years, you said that there are three volumes and twenty-seven chapters of the “Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao”, then we, Tai Zhen Dao, are equivalent to reading kindergarten class K1 for so many years

Kindergarten k1 in the United States is basically equal to a small kindergarten class at home.

Ye Chen was amused by Hong Changqing’s analogy, but yet he also felt that his analogy made sense, so he praised it, “Your conversion is indeed very reasonable, strictly speaking, your Tai Zhen Dao has been studying kindergarten k1 textbooks over and over again for dozens of generations over the past thousand years, which is basically equivalent to the stage of learning the 26 English alphabets.”

Hong Changqing cried and said, “Master Ye subordinate is not questioning you just that if it is really as you say, after we have learned the first chapter of the twenty-seven chapters, we already have master ancestors who are able to enter the Dark Realm, which is the martial artist’s second major realm, but there are only a total of four major realms for martial artists, could it be that the remaining three major realms require the remaining twenty-six chapters of content to be able to break through all of them?!”

Chapter 5428

"Yes." Ye Chen nodded and said very seriously, "The path of martial arts is to enter the path with martial arts, if you want to truly enter the path you must cultivate martial arts to the extreme, the Bright Realm is just the introduction, the Dark Realm is just the first hurdle after the introduction, every little level up after that may take a lifetime to achieve, you can cultivate to an eight star martial artist in fifty years, but give you another fifty years, you You may not be able to break through the Dark Realm, and even if you manage to break through the Dark Realm and live another fifty years, do you think you will be able to cross over from the First Sky of the Dark Realm to the Second or Third Sky of the Dark Realm? Not to mention the later Realm of Transformation and the Realm of Patriarch, every step you take is geometrically magnified in difficulty."

Hong Changqing became even more bewildered all of a sudden, and he couldn't help but mutter, "Does that mean that stepping into the Dark Realm is actually only one-twenty-seventh of the way to enter the Dao with martial arts?"

Ye Chen nodded and spoke two words in a flat yet cruel manner, "Yes."

Hong Changqing, dismayed beyond measure, opened his mouth to ask him, "Master Ye, then what is the path that one enters with martial arts? How many years does one have to walk this path again?"

Ye Chen laughed and said, "Then you have asked me, I don't know how many years the path behind me will take."

Hong Changqing lamented, "The path of the martial path is really too long, there are countless dead bones along the way, I just don't know where I will stay with these old bones"

Ye Chen laughed: "You don't have to feel depressed, Voyager 1 has been flying for nearly 50 years, and it hasn't even flown out of the solar system yet, when it does, it may still take tens of thousands of years to get to the next galaxy, think of it as yourself, when you break through into the Dark Realm, it will be the same as Voyager 1 flying out of the solar system, when you think about it like that. Doesn't that make the future feel very vast?"

"Vast?" The corners of Hong Changqing's mouth involuntarily twitched twice: "When you say that, I only feel more desperate, not knowing how far I can go."

Ye Chen laughed, "You should stop thinking so much, this is not something you should think about, after all, you are only a four-star martial artist right now, let alone flying out of the solar system, at best, you will just reach the edge of Mars."

Hearing this, Hong Changqing's heart was even more painful as he hurriedly assured, "Don't worry, Master Ye, I will inform my personal eldest disciple to come to Jinling to inherit the token of the Tai Chen Dao's Sect Leader, after that, I will serve you with all my heart and soul!"

Ye Chen smiled and asked him, "If your personal eldest disciple asks about where your ancestral pill censer has gone, what will you say?"

Hong Changqing laughed awkwardly and said, "Don't worry, Master Ye, the matter of the Medicine Cauldron is a top secret of the Sect, and will only be handed over together with the Sect's token when the old Sect Master passes the Sect's position to the new Sect Master. "犬趣閣

Ye Chen gave him a thumbs up and said with a smile, "You do know how to pass on the throne."

Hong Changqing smiled heatedly and cheekily asked Ye Chen, "Master Ye does not know if in the future, does my subordinate have the opportunity to cultivate the back of the Taizen Mixed Dao?"

Ye Chen raised his eyebrows and laughed: "Originally you had a chance, I asked you to hand over your master's martial arts heart method, just to see how the heart method you cultivate is actually, if it is not good enough, I will give you a better one; if it is not complete enough, I will give you a more complete one, but I did not expect you to retain your selfishness towards me, so now you have ended up in such a situation, you ah, these two days or You should reflect on yourself in the next two days."

Hong Changqing was also extremely ashamed and regretful, and said repeatedly, "Don't worry, Master Ye, if I dare to have any second thoughts about you in my life, I will die without a burial place!"

Chapter 5429

Eastern Europe at this very moment.

Three container trucks are speeding along the highway in the Turkish port city of Antalya.

The three truckloads of containers carry three dismantled Soviet-made, ak-360 close-in defence guns, along with their accompanying ammunition.

Since the collapse of the Soviet Union, Turkey, Ukraine and Georgia have gradually become the leaders of the black market for arms throughout Eastern Europe.

After the collapse of the Soviet Union and the dramatic changes in Eastern Europe, almost all the countries around the Mediterranean became black markets for arms, and these three countries in particular.

Hundreds of millions of Soviet-made weapons and equipment are sold all over the world from these countries, and the magic of this place goes beyond the sheer volume of trade.

Even the raw materials for nuclear weapons can be saved in these places if you have enough money, not to mention Soviet-made close-in guns.

Turkey has a world-renowned nuclear black market, where most of the fuel rods from dismantled Soviet nuclear submarine reactors find their way onto the black market.

If you had enough money to buy a dozen kilos of enriched uranium from here, it wouldn't be hard to go home and save up a big bomb for yourself.

So, three close-in defence guns are only an insignificant and ordinary deal in a place like this.

Several Eastern European arms dealers escorted the three container trucks to the port of Antalya, where a container freighter was about to be filled to capacity.

Immediately after driving into the port, the three trucks were placed in the berth of this container ship.

The three Americans had been waiting at the berth for some time, and when they saw the three vehicles coming down, they immediately went up to meet the person in charge of the trucks.

The area had been cleared in advance, so that the arms deal had begun in broad daylight.

Neither side said a word, and the man in charge opened the containers of the three vehicles and allowed the three Americans to go up and inspect them one by one.

One of them waved his hand at the freighter, which immediately lowered a six-hundred-kilogram iron box through a small loader.

The person in charge of the escort immediately went forward, opened the iron box and found that it was full of gold bars, so he gave a wink to the people around him, and several people immediately came over with their equipment, took out the gold bars one by one, tested them, weighed them, and then put them into several packages they carried.

The iron case contained five hundred kilograms of gold, all of which had been re-melted before departure and made in a pure flat mould, without even a single steel mark around it, and naturally no clues could be found.

After confirming that there was nothing missing from the five hundred kilograms of gold, the person in charge of the escort came to the three Americans with a smile and said, "There is no problem with the five hundred kilograms, the price of gold has gone up by two points compared to when we negotiated the price, I am not refunding this difference."

One of the Americans said, "No, you don't have to refund the difference when the price of gold goes up, but when it goes down, we'll make up the difference."

The man laughed and said, "To be honest, I like doing business with you Blackwater people, it's simple, efficient and painful."

One of the Americans said in a cold voice, "Remember, if you tell anyone the name of Blackwater, we won't let you off the hook."

"No problem!" The man laughed, then added with a smile, "I still have quite a few NATO weapons from Western Europe here, so if you are interested, I can quote you a price."

The American frowned and asked, "Since when have you been dumping NATO weapons?"

"Ha ha!" The man laughed, "Go to the Ukraine sometime, the weapons from NATO are piling up, more than half of the weapons from NATO member countries are going to the black market, just say what you want, there's nothing I can't get!"

Chapter 5430

The American at the head of the group nodded and said indifferently, "I'll contact you if I need you, we need to get ready to go."

The man said, "OK, we'll be in touch if you need us, good cooperation!"

Soon the gantry crane loaded the three containers onto the ship.

After confirming that they were correct, the three men also waited for the freighter, which then set sail overnight for the Suez Canal.

The ship was on a route from Turkey to South Africa via the Suez Canal, but no one knew that three of the thousands of containers it was carrying were to be disembarked midway.

The straight line distance from Antalya to Cyprus is just over two hundred kilometres, and even to the southern coast of Cyprus it is only three or four hundred kilometres.

By the time the freighter left Turkey and sailed into the vast black sea, it was already dark.

The crew, disguised by a number of Dragon Palace generals, had already begun to work on the three containers.

First they opened the containers and searched the inside to avoid any tracking and positioning devices.

After confirming that there were no errors, they placed their own positioning devices inside the containers, and then began to reinforce the loaded weapons and ammunition. The reinforcement was done by using electric welding machines to weld many clips for fixing inside the containers, and then using thickened lifting straps with a load capacity of tens of tons to firmly fix this weapons and ammunition inside the containers.

Afterwards, they used waterproofing materials to seal the gaps in the container and then fixed a number of oxygen cylinder-like devices around the bottom of the container.

By the time the ship was less than a hundred kilometres from Cyprus, it was already late at night and the sea was suddenly stormy, with the wind and waves gradually getting stronger, so that the visibility on the sea was extremely low, and it was impossible to see clearly from a hundred metres away.

At this time, the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple were on the deck, preparing for the handover of weapons in an orderly manner.

Using gps positioning, they immediately dropped the three containers into the vast ocean after arriving at the predetermined coordinates.

Miraculously, just a few seconds before the containers entered the water, the oxygen tank-like equipment around the containers suddenly burst open, followed by rapid internal expansion and expansion, surprisingly turning into multiple huge airbags, holding the containers steady on the water surface.

As the three containers entered the water one after another, the cargo ship continued to sail towards the Suez Canal without stopping.

The three containers floating on the surface of the sea were successfully captured by a light transport vessel that had been waiting nearby.

The light carrier then sped up and headed for the port where the copper mine was located, and arrived at the dock near the mine before dawn.

The three containers did not attract anyone's attention as the person in charge of the mine had already made all the connections, and after they were unloaded, they were immediately transported inside the mine.

At the same time, Wan Bajun had already brought Lang Hongjun with him and was waiting here early.

Lang Hongjun is proficient in communications technology, and also has knowledge of radar and infrared technology. Wan Bajun had infrared night vision equipment and thermal imaging equipment procured, and this time he asked Lang Hongjun to work with the weapons experts from Wan Long Hall to link these devices with the close defence guns.

At the three high points of the copper mine, Wan Bajun has already had three glass houses erected, which are not too conspicuous.

Once the three guns have locked on to their targets, they will attack them from three directions in a circular motion, thus creating a three-dimensional fire coverage of different ballistics within a few dozen metres of the target.

If a Count of the Qing Breakers were to come to the door, it would be very difficult to get any dna left after a barrage of these three guns
