Chapter 5431

When he saw the three close defence cannons being moved out of the container by the soldiers of Wan Long Temple, Lang Hongjun was staggered by what he saw. He had also heard Wan Bu Jun talking about it, asking him to come and help tinker with the close defence cannons.

This was the first time Lang Hongjun had ever seen a close defence gun up close. He had previously thought it was just a large machine gun, but when it was laid out in front of him, he realised that it was so large, especially the six arm-thick barrels, which were so thick and long that they were imposing.

The whole close defence gun looked like the turret part of a tank, the muzzle could move up and down and the turret base could turn around left and right, so the fire coverage was huge.

As Lang Hongjun watched the soldiers of the Wanlong Hall keep assembling it, he couldn't help but say to Wan Breaking Jun at the side, "Wan Hall Master, can you just buy any weapon that is so fierce first?"

Wan Broken Jun nodded and said casually, "In Eastern Europe, it's basically just a casual purchase."

Lang Hongjun was surprised and asked, "Isn't there anyone to control it?"

Wan Bajun shook his head and said with a smile, "No one regulates such things here, and no one regulates private transactions either, the weapons and equipment used by various armed forces in Africa are basically bought from here."

Lang Hongjun said, "I can understand buying an ak47, isn't it a bit arrogant to buy a close defense gun"

Wan Breaking Jun pointed to one of the close defense guns and smiled, "This thing is also an ak, only the caliber is a bit bigger, thirty millimeters."

Saying that, Wan Bajun smacked his lips and said to Lang Hongjun, "Brother Lang, I have a question for consultation."

Lang Hongjun was busy saying, "Go ahead."

The roof of the glass house can be opened, but the installation requirements are very high, to ensure the accuracy of the shot and not to appear palm, when used in the road base, it must be firmly fixed It is not difficult to fix it on a reinforced concrete base, but Mr Ye wants me to be able to remove these three close defence guns quickly after use, and the quicker the better. I'm afraid it will take quite a long time to dismantle it manually, but once this thing really fires, I won't have much time to evacuate it, do you have any way that I can take it down in less than a minute and just lift it away by helicopter?"

Lang Hongjun held his chin, circled around the close defence gun and spoke, "The requirement for this thing to be used is that it is secured with heavy bolts underneath to ensure it doesn't wobble when firing, right?"

Wan Bajun nodded, "Right!"

Lang Hongjun thought for a moment and said, "If you guys can even buy this, then it shouldn't be too much of a problem to buy a few explosive bolts, right?"

"Explosive bolts?" Wan Bajun asked curiously, "What's that for?"

Lang Hongjun said: "Aerospace, multi-stage rockets know it, three-stage rockets are, to put it bluntly, three rockets connected, when launched is the first rocket first ignition, to a certain altitude, the first rocket fuel consumption is almost, to quickly achieve with the second rocket detachment, and then the second rocket quickly ignition and then fly, but the rocket this connection of strong needs also. However, the robustness of this connection is also very high, and its fast disengagement needs to be completed in an instant, so the aerospace scientists invented a kind of explosive bolt, which is, to put it bluntly, a heavy bolt with a built-in blasting device and ignition device, so that when needed, as soon as electricity is applied, the whole bolt can be blown up and then disengaged instantly."

Wan Breaking Jun recalled the image of the rocket launch and instantly came to his senses and said offhandedly, "I see, that thing is really fast and usually blows up in an instant as soon as said booster detaches."

"Right!" Lang Hongjun nodded and said, "This thing is very precise, it ensures that it only blows itself up and doesn't damage the equipment that relies on it being attached, it's not just used on rockets, the fighter pilot's escape seat is also attached by it, and it instantly disengages the hard connection."

If you want to be quicker, you can make the lanyard in advance, and when it's time to blast the connection, the helicopter can just hang the lanyard and take it away."

Chapter 5432

"Good idea!" Wan Bajun clenched his fist with some excitement and said offhandedly, "Thank you Brother Lang, I'll arrange for someone to procure it right now."

Meanwhile.

The Northern European capital, Osu City.

Jian Gong Bo Ou Bojun, who had already split up with Ding Yuan Bo Yun Ruge, was sitting in a bar in Aosu City, drinking.

In the past few days, he had investigated all the way from Bergen to find out where the missing primus guards had actually gone, but had not been able to find any clues relating to them.

In fact, when he was in Bergen, he had thought of two directions.

Since he was checking the primus line, he could, on the one hand, find out exactly where the primus had gone after their disappearance in Bergen, and on the other hand, find out what special conditions the primus had been in before they came to Bergen in the first place.

Of these, the former is naturally the best option.

This was because only by finding the whereabouts of the primus inter pares could we know who had rescued Lin Wan'er.

The latter, on the other hand, could only hope that there was some unseen problem with the Primus Guard itself, otherwise it would basically be a waste of time to investigate further down this line.

So, Ou Bojun took the lead and chose the former, and investigated for days on end in Northern Europe.

He went all the way to Oslo City, but found no clues.

When he was depressed, he simply found a bar in Oslo and had a drink.

However, just as he was feeling a little tipsy, he suddenly received a message on his mobile phone from a virtual number with only six short words: meeting in half an hour.

He put his phone away helplessly, took out two notes and pressed them under his glass, got up and walked out of the bar.

Back at the hotel where he was staying, Ou Bojun washed up and opened a special app on his phone on time.

After opening the software, he first entered and left his password, then did facial recognition and voice recognition, and after passing all of them, his account was automatically pulled into the online meeting room by the system.

At this moment, there were five matchbox-sized frames on the phone screen, one of which was in the middle, while the remaining four were distributed on the four corners of the phone screen.

However, three of the five frames were all black, showing that they had not yet been accessed, and only two of them had been accessed: Ou Bojun, whose live screen appeared in the top right corner, and an old man with a white beard in the top left corner.

Upon seeing the white-bearded old man, Ou Bojun respectfully arched his hand and said with a smile, "Uncle Changsheng, I wonder where you are now, old man?"

"Yanjing." Uncle Changsheng spat out two words indifferently.

Ou Bojun asked busily, "Then has your old man found any clues about Lin Wan'er?"

"No." Uncle Changsheng shook his head, still shying away from words.

Ou Bojun stretched and said with a yawn, "Aiya this girl is really cunning!"

As he was talking, the bottom left corner showed someone accessing, and the face of a middle-aged and elderly man appeared on the screen at once.

Ou Bojun reached out to greet him, "Uncle Zhong Yong, isn't it a great day in New York?"

The man known as Uncle Zhong Yong smiled and spoke, "We are out here this time to help the British Lord with his problems, and to me, it is the same anywhere."

At this time, the screen in the lower right corner also lit up, and Ding Yuan Bo Yun Ru Ge appeared in the screen.

Ou Bojun saw that she seemed to be sitting alone on an official plane, so he asked, "Where is Uncle Ding Yuan going?"

Yun Ruge said indifferently, "I'm going to the Far East to take a look, it's a vast and sparsely populated area that meets the conditions needed for Lin Wan'er to go into hiding."

Ou Bojun was surprised and asked, "To the Far East? Why didn't you say hello in advance?"

Yun Ruge casually said, "You and I have chosen different directions, so there's no point in me saying hello to you."

When Ou Bojun was about to say something else, the middle screen suddenly lit up, and the four people's expressions all flinched, and then one by one, they all stopped talking immediately.

The middle screen turned from pitch black to a white light, and no other objects or even silhouettes could be seen.

Immediately afterwards, a voice processed by a voice changer could be heard asking coldly, "How are you all doing with your investigation?!"

Chapter 5433

Hearing the British Lord's questioning voice, the expressions of all the people were astonished.

Uncle Changsheng was the first to speak up and said respectfully, "Back to Lord Ying, my subordinates are investigating in Yanjing, there are no clear clues yet, but my subordinates think that there will be something in China."

The British Lord asked in a cold voice, "You still think that it is most likely that Lin Wan'er will escape back to China?"

"Yes!" Uncle Changsheng replied, "My subordinate thinks that Lin Wan'er should be in Huaxia."

Lord Ying asked him, "Why are you so sure?"

He said, "I have analysed Lin Wan'er's current situation, and although it may seem like the best choice for her to hide in a sparsely populated barbaric place, I think she has already failed once in Northern Europe, so this time she will definitely go the other way, to the most crowded place. It's definitely the best option for her."

The British Lord was silent for a moment and said, "This demon woman is more cunning than a fox, I cannot understand her either."

Uncle Changsheng clasped his hands respectfully, "I obey orders!"

Lord Ying added, "By the way, since you have arrived in China, take the time to go to Jinling."

"To Jinling?" Uncle Changsheng opened his mouth and asked, "I wonder what Lord Ying has ordered?"

Lord Ying said in a cold voice, "Although you killed Ye Chang Ying and An Cheng Qing in Jin Ling, their son's whereabouts are still unknown. If you can find the whereabouts of that boy, you don't need to report to me, just kill him!"

The first thing I did was to go to the school where the children of Ye Chang Ying and his wife were, in order to eliminate the root of the problem, but I was still a step too late. ”

I am not settling scores after the autumn, just that this matter really makes me uneasy in my heart, you must find him this time when you go over there!”

I will definitely find that boy and kill him with my own hands!”

Lord Ying lamented, “If that boy were still alive, he would be almost thirty years old now!”

Uncle Changsheng nodded, “If I remember correctly, when Ye Changyang and An Chengqing were killed by me, their son must have just turned eight years old.”

“Eight years old” Lord Ying muttered, “Twenty years have passed, so he is now twenty-eight years old.”

Uncle Changsheng said respectfully, “Your Majesty’s wisdom!”

Lord Ying said coldly, “Uncle Changsheng, if he is still alive, don’t let him live past thirty!”

Without thinking, Uncle Changsheng said in a loud voice, “Don’t worry, Lord Ying, as long as he is still alive, I will take his life within two years! If he is already dead, I will dig out his bones and present them to you!”

“Good!” The British Lord said, “When this is done, Uncle Changsheng will be credited with a great feat!”

After that, the loyal Yongbao who was in New York said, “Lord Ying, I am investigating the clues related to the An family in New York, but the venue where the performance was held that day has been bought by the An family and has now been completely overturned and rebuilt. If we want to know how the An family escaped that day and what happened to those dead soldiers, we probably still have to work on the An family.”

I even suspect that the An family is probably sheltered by experts who are proficient in aura.

Immediately, Zhong Yong Bo said, “My subordinate follows orders!”

When Jian Gong Bo Ou Bo Jun saw that both Chang Sheng Bo and Zhong Yong Bo had finished reporting, he said respectfully, “Ying Lord, I am currently in Osu City investigating the clues of the disappearance of the Primus Guards, but I have not made any progress yet, so I ask Ying Lord to reprimand me!”

Chapter 5434

Lord Ying said, “The mastermind behind the disappearance of the dead soldiers in New York and the Primus Guards in Northern Europe is probably the same person or the same organisation.

I think the more important issue than these two losses is that they seem to know our movements very well, those two missions were top secret of top secret, I didn’t even tell the four of you before the missions were carried out, but the other side was able to be informed in advance and snipe with precision, proving that someone from the other side must have infiltrated us. ”

In fact, the last time Lin Wan’er appeared in Northern Europe, instead of sending troops from Cyprus, Lord Ying should have sent any one of the four of us there! I don’t know why this old man didn’t use the four of us, but had to go far away and send a group of Primus Guards to carry out such an important mission!”

Thinking of this, he immediately said, “Ying Lord, next time if there is news of Lin Wan’er, my subordinate is willing to fight to the death to go!”

Lord Ying did not speak for a moment, but waited for a few seconds before directly digressing and speaking, “I think it’s no longer possible for you to find out any clues in Northern Europe, so why don’t we go back up to the source and see at which point we actually let slip the news?”

Jian Gongbo froze slightly for a moment. At first, he could not understand why the British Lord had ignored his expression of loyalty, but at this moment, he suddenly realised that he seemed to have made a big mistake!

He thought to himself with trepidation, “The reason why Lord Ying did not allow the four of us to capture Lin Wan’er in the first place must have been because he did not want us to have the opportunity to come into too much contact with Lin Wan’er, and he was even worried that we had obtained the ring that he had always dreamed of obtaining, and I had even taken the initiative to ask for help, wasn’t that asking for trouble?”

Luckily, Lord Ying was just digressing and didn’t say much to him, so he hurriedly said in a flattering manner, “Lord Ying is wise, since we can’t find out the whereabouts of those people, then my subordinate will go and find out what went wrong with the many links in this!”

I don’t doubt his sincerity, but I doubt that his men would have leaked the news to the public. ”

Without thinking, Jian Gong Bo said, “Don’t worry, Lord Ying, I will do my best!”

At this time, Yun Ru Ge also spoke, “Ying Lord, my subordinate will land in Yakutsk in three hours, during this time, my subordinate will start with Yakutsk and map out the situation on the Far East side to see if Lin Wan Er is hiding here.”

Lord Ying gave a hmph and spoke, “Both you and Uncle Changsheng’s main task is to find Lin Wan’er to get clues, so you must always exchange information and tell me at the first opportunity if there is any wind or movement.”

Yun Ru Ge said without a second thought, “Yes Ying Lord!”

At this moment, Lord Ying added, “All right, that’s all I have to say, I hope you all can do your best and send back good reports as soon as possible, whether it’s catching Lin Wan’er or finding the enemy behind the curtain, I will reward you heavily!”

The four Counts clasped their hands and said respectfully to the camera at almost the same time, “Thank you, Lord Ying!”

Chapter 5435

The following day, it was just dawn in Northern Europe.

Jian Gongbo Ou Bojun, who had just opened his eyes, received a message from a stranger.

The text message consisted of only four words, which read: Naples.

Ou Bojun knew that these four words must be the location of the right army governor's residence.

Even if it wasn't, it should be the first stop on the way to the Capital of the Right Army.

It was a little heartbreaking to say that even Ou Bojun, who was one of the Four Great Counts, did not know the exact location of the Right Army Governor's Palace, or the internal staff structure.

In the Broken Clear Society, although the Four Earls were said to be second only to the British Lord, this was limited to personal strength only.

Although Lord Ying attached great importance to the Four Counts, and had always praised them in front of others within the Society, and had even given them a lot of pills and materials to enhance their cultivation, in fact, he had always deliberately controlled the power of the Four Counts in the Society, and would hardly allow them to have direct control over any large scale and established organisation of the Society.

Neither the Dead Soldiers, nor the Primus Guards, nor the overriding Five Armies Governorate, obeyed any orders from the Four Earls.

The Four Earls were not the real inner circle of the British Lord, but the governors of the Five Armies.

The structure of the Five Military Governorates was the real core of the Broken Ching Society, and under each of them, there were a large number of people, industries, materials, weapons and money.

Under each of the governorates, there was at least one deadly garrison, several thousand deadly soldiers, several hundred primus guards, several section ambassadors and special envoys.

On top of that, there were many expatriates like Feng Zidong's parents who had been sent out to various parts of the world, and many special agents like Ye Chen's third aunt who had been placed in various countries and fields in their normal capacity.

Without the Four Earls, the Broken Clear Society was only missing four super experts of peak strength, but without the Five Armies Governorate, the Broken Clear Society would have been left with its arms and legs broken.

Therefore, Lord Ying himself controlled the Five Armies Capital Mansion and even kept the Four Earls on guard, not wanting them to know too much about the Five Armies Capital Mansion.

Therefore, the four of them, Ou Bojun, were the Four Earls, to put it mildly, but they were actually the Four Mascots of the Broken Qing Society.

At this moment, Ou Bojun did not dare to delay, he hurriedly got up and left the hotel, called a business jet airline and rented a Gulfstream plane for 30,000 Euros, and flew directly from Oso City to the southern Italian city of Naples.

All the way through the flight, Ou Bojun had been analysing the current situation of the Broken Clear Society and the current predicament of the British Lord.

As one of the Four Earls, he actually had a lot of questions he could not understand.

For one thing, he could not understand why Lord Ying was so obsessed with Lin Wan'er; secondly, he could not understand how magical Lin Wan'er's so-called ring was that it could make Lord Ying so obsessed

Thirdly, I couldn't understand why Lord Ying, who had already shot Uncle Changsheng to kill Ye Changyang and his wife twenty years ago, still kept on thinking about the An family, and even suddenly killed the An family after a lapse of twenty years

Fourthly, he wondered why Lord Ying had suddenly asked Uncle Changsheng to find the whereabouts of Ye Changyang's son again.

However, although there were so many questions that he did not understand, he detected a clear change through these circumstances, that is, the British Lord was now relying more heavily on them, the four earls, and gradually began to loosen up from his previous defensiveness towards them at every turn.

So, in Ou Bojun's view, whether he could take advantage of the opportunity to make his mark or not, he would be in a much better position in the future.

After a three-hour flight, the plane in which Oubertjun was travelling landed at Naples airport.

It was his first time in the city, but he had heard a lot about it, thanks to the fact that football legend Diego Maradona had played for Naples Football Club.

Chapter 5436

At this point, he was in two minds at Naples airport, not knowing where to go or who to call.

He waited for his mobile phone to ring, but until the moment he walked out of the airport, he still hadn't received any message.

At that moment, a middle-aged man stepped in front of him and said respectfully, "You have had a hard journey, please follow me, Uncle Jian Gong."

Ou Bojun looked at the man and asked, "Who is your surname and name and what is your status in the Right Army Governor's Office?"

The man hurriedly said, "Back to Uncle Jian Gong, I am Yuan Cheng Ze, the General of the Right Army Governor's Office!"

Ou Bojun nodded slightly and said, "Then please ask General Yuan to lead the way."

As he said this, he sighed in his heart, "What do you mean by a gap? This is a fucking gap. As one of the four earls, I came to this place and didn't know where to go or who to look for, but this man in front of me knows everything about my whereabouts.

Yuan Chengze took Ou Bojun and got into a Maybach sedan with local plates. Yuan Chengze drove the car himself and drove Ou Bojun to downtown Naples.

As he drove, Yuan Chengze asked Ou Bojun, "Have you ever been to Naples, Uncle Jian Gong?"

“No.” Yuan Chengze shook his head, “This is the first time I’ve been here.”

Yuan Chengze smiled, “Since it is the first time, then my subordinate will show you a good tour of Naples later on.”

Ou Bojun said indifferently, “I have important matters to attend to, so I won’t stroll around, I wonder where Governor Wu Shutong is? I would like to meet with him as soon as possible.”

Yuan Chengze said, “The Governor has already booked a banquet at the best Chinese restaurant in Naples, waiting to give you a reception for Uncle Jian Gong!”

Half an hour later.

The Maybach Yuan Chengze was driving stopped in front of a Chinese restaurant called Banyan Tree Records.

The restaurant, which opened at the bottom of a forty-storey high-rise building, entered from the ground floor and its interior had three floors.

He personally opened the car door for Ou Bojun and led him quickly into the restaurant.

The two took the internal lift to the third floor and as soon as they stepped outside, a number of courtly dressed waitresses saluted the two respectfully and shouted out the Chinese words of respectfully welcoming Uncle Jian Gong.

Ou Bojun did not expect these people to know his identity. While shocked, he suddenly discovered that these female attendants, without exception, were all martial artists, and the worst of them had three stars of strength, and the strongest had reached six stars.

It seemed that this place had reached the inner area of the Right Army Governor’s Palace.

Yuan Chengze was leading the way, saying as he walked, “This is Uncle Jian Gong’s first visit to the Right Army Governor’s Mansion, let me give you a general introduction, this restaurant is the property of the Right Army Governor’s Mansion, the first to first floors are normally open to the public, the third floor is said to be a membership system, but in fact it is not open to the public, those who come here are all internal staff of our Right Army Governor’s Mansion, and in this shop, you don’t have to worry about any risk of revealing your identity, because the staff here are, without exception, all children of dead soldiers and primus guards as well as members of other departments.”

Surprised, Ou Bojun asked, “Is this the right army governor’s residence?”

“Yes, and not all of them.” Yuan Chengze smiled faintly, “In fact, the whole of this forty-storey building is our property, and although more than half of this area has been rented out to local businesses, all of this southern portion, which is directly up and down from this restaurant, has not been rented out to the public, and the top three floors are ostensibly rented out to a shipping company, but in fact that company is also ours. And this part is connected to the restaurant by a secret lift, and it is actually the topmost floor here that is the residence of the right army governor’s residence.”

Ou Bojun staggered as he listened.

While he was amazed at the scale of this Right Army Governor's Residence, he also felt that his speculation on the plane had been confirmed. This Yuan Chengze had told himself in detail about the Right Army Governor's Residence as soon as they met, so he thought that the British Lord must have authorized it. It seemed that the British Lord would inevitably have to gradually liberalise the many restrictions on himself and the other three Earls in the future

Chapter 5437

The Right Army Governor's House, one of the Five Army Governor's Houses of the Broken Qing Society.

The Five Military Governorates, with China as the centre, are divided according to the ancient orientation of the emperor sitting in the north facing south.

The Central Military Governorate, covering most of Southeast and South Asia, including China, as well as West Asia,;

The Rear Military Governorate, covering all of Russia, Mongolia, the Arctic Circle, and Turkmenistan, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Kyrgyzstan, and Tajikistan in Central Asia;

The former capital covers all the southern islands of Southeast Asia, including the Philippines, Singapore, Malaysia and Indonesia, as well as all of Oceania and Antarctica;

The Right Military Governorate covers the rest of Europe, except Russia, and all of Africa;

the Metropolitanate of the Left Army covers North America and South America;

The governors of the five military capitals were all served by the true inner circle of the British Lord, and although their individual strength was not as strong as that of the four great earls, the overall combat power under their command was sufficient to kill the four great earls in turn.

At this moment, Jian Gong Bo Ou Bo Jun, was brought by Yuan Cheng Ze to a private box on the third floor, the most inner one.

When he pushed open the heavy door of the box, it was as big as one or two hundred square metres inside.

What surprised Ou Bojun was that after he stepped into this huge box, his ears felt a kind of ringing in his ears.

It was because his ears were completely silent, and the white noise that filled his daily life no longer existed here, so his ears could not hear any sound at once and he had a strange feeling of discomfort.

Ou Bojun knew that this situation must be due to the super strong sound insulation and sound absorption inside the compartment, where no noise from the external environment could be transmitted in, hence the illusion of a vacuum.

At this moment, a middle-aged man in his mid-forties stood up in front of the large dining table inside the box, smiling and striding towards Ou Bojun, extending his hands a few metres ahead of him and saying with a smile, "My name is Wu Shutong, I would like to welcome Uncle Jian Gong to the airport! Please forgive me for not being able to go to the airport to greet you personally!"

Ou Bojun instantly felt a strong sense of unreality.

Even though this Wu Shutong treated him with respect and even called himself his subordinate, his status was actually much higher than his own.

It was only today that I learnt that the governor of the Right Army was called Wu Shutong, and before that, I knew nothing about him.

One could say that one's rank within the Qing Breaking Society was not enough to know his true identity.

If one were to say that one was an expert within the emperor's side back then, then this Wu Shutong in front of one's eyes was a vassal and important minister who controlled one side.

Moreover, he was also keenly aware that now the British Lord was beginning to let himself come into contact with these real core members, which meant that he would gradually be reappointed in the future.

So, he also very politely stepped forward, shook hands with Wu Shutong and smiled, "We are all serving the British Lord, so naturally Governor Wu and I do not need to be so polite!"

Wu Shutong laughed and said, "Uncle Jian Gong is indeed an important minister who has served the British Lord for a long time, he has a great style!"

After saying this, he pointed to the table and said with a smile, "I have prepared a small drink to welcome Uncle Jian Gong, please take a seat!"

Ou Bojun arched his hand and said politely, "Together, together!"

The two men were polite and sat down next to each other at the large table.

Chapter 5438

Wu Shutong ordered all the other miscellaneous people to go out, and after the door was closed, he poured a glass of wine for Ou Bojun with his own hands and said with a smile, "Uncle Jian Gong, this is the first time I have met you, so I would like to toast you, and I ask for your kindness!"

Ou Bojun could see that although Wu Shutong's cultivation level was only at the Realm of Transformation, he did not dare to take him lightly, so he hastily lifted his glass and said with a smile, "You are very kind, Governor Wu.

The two of them lightly clinked their glasses and both tilted their heads to drink it all.

Putting down the wine glass, Wu Shutong's expression turned sad and he sighed, "Uncle Jian Gong, I'm not going to hide it from you, I know what you've come to the right army governor's residence for, the last time I carried out a secret order from Lord Ying, there was a big mistake in my hands, I've been feeling guilty and I know it's hard to clear my name! "

Ou Bojun did not expect that Wu Shutong would suddenly cut to the chase so quickly, so he also put down his glass and said seriously, "Governor Wu, I would like to know how the secret order from Lord Ying was passed down to you after it was given to you?"

Wu Shutong said frankly, "The order was given directly to my subordinates, and based on the principle that the fewer people knew about it, the lower the possibility of exposure and the overall risk of leakage, I did not tell the people in charge of the intermediate links about it, but gave the secret order directly to the sectional governor Ni Zhenyu, who was in charge of the dead soldiers' quarters, and asked him to select the most elite members from the Primus Guards to go to Northern Europe. ."

Ou Bojun asked, "Then do these people who have access to the secret order know Lin Wan'er's identity?"

"No idea." Wu Shutong blurted out without thinking, "I'm not going to hide it from you, Uncle Jian Gong, I'm the only one in the entire Right Army Governor's Office who knows Lin Wan'er's identity. girl is the main one of Ying, and there is a heavy reward for catching her."

Ou Bojun nodded, he had guessed that this would be the case, this was the way Lord Ying acted, Lord Ying preferred that those who went to capture Lin Wan'er did not know exactly what identity or what was special about her, so that any risk factor in the middle could be avoided as much as possible.

Thinking of this, he asked Wu Shutong, "Governor Wu, did you later ask that Ni Zhenyu about this matter? He sent the men, so if there is a traitor in this matter, then the traitor must be him or his men, and it might even be him and his men!"

Wu Shutong said, "Back to Uncle Jian Gong, I have reported the whole matter to Lord Ying, and both he and I feel that there should be no traitor within us, because Ni Zhenyu and his men have no idea who the person they are going to catch is. There were no masters sitting around, and a few primus guards would have been enough to capture and bring her back;"

"Therefore, the logic of the whole thing is a bit strange, the only people who know that they are going to capture Lin Wan'er are Lord Ying and my subordinates, who are loyal to Lord Ying, so it is impossible for them to leak to the public. "

Speaking of this, Wu Shutong added, "Before you arrived in Naples, Lord Ying explained to his subordinates that his old man hoped that you could find out in which part of the process we had been caught by the other side, could it be that the other side had already lurked into the Deadman's quarters, or had already secretly monitored the Deadman's quarters, but we were unaware of it?"

Chapter 5439

Ou Bojun was silent for a moment, his brain was racing.

It was just a pity that he was not Li Yalin.

If he were Li Yalin, he would definitely be pulling out the threads and combing through all the possible breakdowns in the entire operation.

If he was given enough time, he would have been able to focus on the air courier company that was used to transport the dead soldiers.

Even if you are capable, you cannot hide the trajectory of a plane with a take-off weight of two to three hundred tons in the sky without a trace. In fact, while small planes still have the possibility of avoiding radar, large planes will be tracked and locked by multiple radar stations at the same time once they take to the sky.

Moreover, all radars are operated by the aviation security departments of sovereign countries, and intercontinental voyages have to be controlled by multiple radar stations in multiple countries in succession, and even if the Broken Clear Society is strong, it is impossible to buy these.

Therefore, Li Yalin's thinking hit the weakness of the Broken Ching Society squarely, and what he was targeting was not the dead man's station, but the plane that deployed the dead man and the primus inter pares.

The Qing Breakers needed to manoeuvre quickly on a global scale, but they had no way to hide the flight paths of their planes. Even if they hid their shipping companies very deeply, they could definitely find clues to them if they diligently searched the civil aviation system information.

Ou Bojun couldn't come up with anything after thinking about it, so he spoke up, "In that case, I'll go to this dead man's station myself and see if I can find any clues!"

Wu Shutong said with surprise, "Uncle Jian Gong's words are right! This is exactly what I want to do!"

Ou Bojun said, "In that case, please help me arrange for a plane, I will go there myself!"

Wu Shutong nodded and said, "It's very close to Cyprus from here, so what time would it be appropriate for Uncle Jian Gong to arrange the plane?"

Ou Bojun's brows knitted slightly as he pondered for a moment, "I'm going to go there without revealing my identity, but to sneak in quietly and observe the operation of the entire Deadman's quarters, and see if there's anything wrong, especially the core members, including the one you mentioned, Ni Zhenyu, and if I'm sure Ni Zhenyu is fine, then I'll look for the families of the missing Primus Guards. Use some tactics and see if you can find any clues."

Wu Shutong immediately said, "Then let's do what Uncle Jian Gong wants! Since we are sneaking in quietly, we must wait until night, as the dead soldiers' quarters are already heavily guarded, so I am afraid it will be difficult for Uncle Jian Gong to sneak in during the day."

"Right." Ou Bojun nodded and said, "Of course we have to wait until night, otherwise I wouldn't have the ability to ward off the hundreds of Primus guards."

Wu Shutong said with a smile, "That's good, I'll have a few drinks with Uncle Jian Gong at noon, I'll arrange the flight in advance, I'll personally take you to the airport at 8pm, it takes about two hours to fly from here to Larnaca International Airport in Cyprus, after landing, it's still about forty kilometres drive from the location of the dead soldiers' quarters, if it goes well, we can reach the quarters at 12am. arrive at the compound, in order not to alert the snake, I won't arrange a vehicle for Uncle Jian Gong over there, after Uncle Jian Gong gets off the bus, he can take a taxi there, this is also more natural."

"Good!" Ou Bojun nodded without a second thought and said, "The early morning time is just right, it's settled!"

Chapter 5440

Meanwhile.

Inside the copper mines of Cyprus.

Wan Breaking Army arranged for a helicopter to lift the three close-in defence guns to their intended location.

The blasting bolts that Lang Hongjun wanted were rare, but they were available on the black market and were small enough to be flown in without wasting too much time.

Once the three guns were fixed with the blasting bolts, the six-barrel turret did not move at all, and there was no problem with the stability of the whole gun.

All the bolts had been attached to the detonators, so that when needed, the bolts would blow off in a flash with the flick of a switch, achieving physical separation.

Once the gun was in position, Lang Hongjun worked with the weapons experts to link the targeting and locking logic of the gun to the infrared radar and thermal imaging identification equipment.

According to the logic developed by Lang Hongjun and the other weapons experts, they first set the entire copper mine fence as the primary alert range, and then set the part of the “back” shaped area within 200 metres of the copper mine fence as the secondary alert range.

Once the identification system is activated, any living creature entering the area from the outside will immediately trigger an alarm, and the system will automatically lock on to the external target while alerting the operator.

At this point, the controller can immediately press the fire button, and once pressed, each of the three close defence guns will fire in a swirling trajectory in the direction of the target and around it.

While the guns were still being fired, Lang got the primus guards to wait outside the secondary guard range.

As soon as the system was activated, he used the intercom to ask one of these Primus guards to run into the secondary alert range, only to see that as soon as this man entered the secondary alert range, the system immediately started to warn him, while the three close-in defence guns were watching him with dead eyes, and wherever he went, the guns moved towards his position in real time.

Seeing this effect, Wan Bajun was shocked and blurted out, “If this is loaded, once the switch is pressed, won’t the locked target be extinguished in smoke?”

“Right.” Lang Hongjun nodded and said, “This identification system is still very powerful, there’s hardly any delay, plus the speed at which the shells are fired, so I guess it’s impossible to escape.”

At this moment, a weapon expert from the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons spoke up, “Hall Master, the trajectories of these three cannons still need to be fine-tuned, considering that the target may be very strong and may be moving very fast, if all three cannons are chasing him, there is a real possibility that they won’t be able to catch up with him.”

“Yes.” Wan Bajun nodded, “I also don’t know how strong the Count of the Broken Qing Society will be, the stronger he is, the more agile his body will be, so you guys should definitely play ahead of time when locking onto the target.”

That weapons expert laughed, "We don't just have to hit a good amount of advance, when the time comes this middle gun chases the target sweeping back and forth horizontally from left to right, hitting a horizontal trajectory, the other two guns, circling around the circumference of the target hitting out of two circular trajectories, the trajectory formed by these three guns then chases the target as a whole quickly clockwise or counterclockwise."

He pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose and pointed at them, "The overall trajectory is like the shape of my glasses, and it is a glasses-type trajectory that keeps moving in a circular motion with a central point, the system will always locate the target in the middle of the glasses, so that it is impossible for him to escape in any direction."

Wan Breaking Jun muttered and repeated, "Glasses shaped, constantly rotating ballistics is what this means, right"

"Right." The weapons expert said, "The three guns would chase after the target and hit a comprehensive coverage of an oversized curtain of shells, this curtain, not the one posted by the netizens on the video website, this curtain, was a canopy of shells formed entirely by hundreds or thousands of 30mm close defense shells, with comprehensive coverage. Moreover, each gun can densely cover an area of hundreds of square meters, and the three guns cross each other's coverage, even a fly can't possibly fly out of the curtain of shells alive."
