

Ye Chen 5481

Chapter 5481

Then, Ye Chen deliberately looked her up and down flirtatiously and laughed, "For a woman as beautiful as Miss Long, how can I be so mean as to ask for your money? Since you like that medicine censer, then just go ahead and take it, I can take none of the money, as long as Miss Long remembers to owe me a favour."

Seeing that Ye Chen's eyes were full of teasing and frivolity, Long Siqi guessed that he was intentionally teasing her, and her expression could not help but become even colder as she said in a stern voice, "Sorry Mr. Ye, I appreciate your kindness, but I, for one, never owe anyone a favour! You'd better make a price!"

Ye Chen had long guessed that Long Siqi would definitely say that, so he deliberately brushed his mouth off and said, "Aiya Miss Long, you are a bit too full of words, aren't you?"

Long Siqi said with a proud face, "I, Long Siqi, have always said one thing, I don't say any big words!"

Ye Chen smiled narrowly and said, "I'll know if it's a big lie or not once I try."

Long Siqi frowned, "What do you mean?"

Ye Chen said with a smile, "Miss Long might as well hold out your hand and let me read your palm."

"Denizen!" Long Siqi scolded in a stern voice, "I didn't expect you to be so nasty-minded in addition to your oily tongue!"

Ye Chen smiled, "Miss Long misunderstood, I didn't mean to take advantage of you, I just simply wanted to verify whether your statement that you never owe people favours was bragging or not!"

Long Siqi snorted coldly and gritted her teeth, "I, Long Siqi! At any time! Will never brag!"

Ye Chen nodded, "Then Miss Long hold out your hand, and we will see in a minute."

With anger, Long Siqi extended her hand in front of Ye Chen and said in a cold voice, "I want to see what kind of medicine you are selling in your gourd!"

Ye Chen smiled blandly and reached out to gently hold Long Siqi's soft, white and delicate palm, teasingly saying, "Miss Long's skin is really well maintained, her little hand is smooth to the touch."

Long Siqi wanted to pull her hand back in anger, but before she knew it, she could not move her palm at all when it was held in Ye Chen's palm.

Just as she was horrified, Ye Chen looked at her and smiled wryly, "Come, I'll send you a chance!"

With that, he sent his spiritual energy into Long Siqi's slender, tender white palm, and the powerful spiritual energy instantly surged into Long Siqi's dantian, instantly opening up all three meridians in her body that had not yet been opened!

Long Siqi only felt a surging masculine power surging into her body, and before she had time to cry out in pain, she felt the power rushing wildly against her meridians and dantian.

The next second, she suddenly felt as if her entire spiritual platform had instantly cleared up, and her entire perception had instantly undergone a transformative change!

She couldn't help but mutter, "I ..... how did all my meridians suddenly open up?!"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Miss Long, congratulations, you are now a Ming Realm Grand Perfection Realm martial artist!"

"What?!" Long Siqi and Hong Changqing both cried out in shock!

Long Siqi had regarded the Ming Realm Grand Perfection as his ultimate goal for his entire life, and had never dreamed that he would now achieve it in an instant.

On the other hand, Hong Changqing was shocked beyond belief, he knew that Ye Chen was very strong, but he didn't know that Ye Chen was so strong that he could not only seal his four meridians in the middle of a conversation, but also open all three meridians that Long Siqi had never opened in the blink of an eye!

The simple Long Siqi, whose mind was only filled with the excitement and joy of suddenly becoming a Ming Realm Great Perfection expert, had absolutely no time to think about what was going on here.

But at that moment, Ye Chen suddenly used his spiritual qi to reseal those three meridians she had just opened, looked at her and said with a smile, "Aiya, sorry Miss Long, originally I did want to give you a chance, but I just remembered that you clearly said earlier that you never owe anyone a favour! How can I make things difficult for you?"

Chapter 5482

Long Siqi had not recovered from the reality of instantly breaking through to the Great Perfection of the Ming Realm, and his mind was still buzzing, so he was even more confused as to what exactly Ye Chen meant by his later words. You can't even understand what Ye Chen meant by his words.

Before she could react, Hong Changqing at the side suddenly looked at Long Siqi and exclaimed, "Siqi ..... you ..... how did you turn back into a five-star martial artist again?!"

A startled cry was like a pot of cold water that completely woke up Long Siqi.

Only then did she realize that her own cultivation level, which had changed again in a very short period of time, had regressed back to a five-star martial artist ..... from the Ming realm's Great Perfection just now.

Her heart was appalled, she simply couldn't figure out how Ye Chen had managed to do that, how he could play with her cultivation in the blink of an eye!

It was also at this moment that she realised that Ye Chen's strength was so strong that it had exceeded her imagination!

And immediately after that, her heart instantly became extremely lost again.

The loss was because she had really just become a top expert of the Ming realm at the Great Perfection!

That was her lifelong dream! It had come true so easily in such an inadvertent moment!

Unfortunately, this dream was like a shooting star, although bright and dazzling, but it was fleeting .....

At this moment, Long Siqi seemed to have awakened from her dream, and her whole heart was already extremely lost.

When she looked at Ye Chen again, the pride and superiority she had previously felt was gone from her eyes; what was there was only a lonesome and shameful look that was hard to describe and wanted to be said.

Ye Chen then let go of Long Siqi's soft jade hand, looked at Hong Changqing and spoke, "Master Hong, you two discuss how to pass on the throne, I will not disturb you first."

After saying this, he took a step and walked out.

Hong Changqing hurriedly followed, and respectfully said, "Master Ye, take your time, my subordinate will definitely settle all the matters regarding the succession of the headship today!"

After saying this, he took the first step to help Ye Chen open the door to his room.

Hearing the sound of the door opening, Long Siqi subconsciously turned to look over and saw Ye Chen's back disappearing outside the door, and his heart became even more lost.

Hong Changqing sent Ye Chen out the door before he came back at a trot, closed the door and said to Long Siqi with regret, "Siqi, you are confused! I have trained in martial arts for most of my life, but I have never seen an expert with Master Ye's ability. It is already a great chance to meet Master Ye, and to be enlightened by Master Ye is even more of a chance. ...."

Long Siqi's expression was somewhat dumbfounded as he asked, "Master ..... What is the origin of this Mr. Ye ..... Even if a martial artist with strong natural talent it would take at least a few years, if not a dozen years, to cultivate from the fifth star to the Ming realm of great perfection, how on earth was he able to open up three of my meridians in a flash?"

Hong Changqing sighed and sighed, "Siqi, Master Ye's magical ability has long exceeded your knowledge and mine, why I want to pass on the position of Sect Leader to you is to follow Master Ye's side and serve him as a dog and horse in the future, and also seek a bit of chance by the way ....."

The first time I saw a woman, I was a little bit of a nuisance.

Chapter 5486

Long Siqi looked at Hong Changqing with dumbfounded eyes and said offhandedly, "Master! Tai Chen Tao has trained you for so many years, and now you are starting to forget your roots?"

Hong Changqing looked at Long Siqi and said solemnly, "Siqi, it is pointless for you to engage in moral kidnapping with me here, even if I did obtain the contents of the back of the Tai Zhen Mixed Dao, without Master Ye's approval to leak these contents out, do you think Mr Ye would let me go? Also, even if you had obtained the contents of the back of the Tao of Tai Zhen and Mixed Elements, what could you do? Do you think Grandmaster Ye can let you guys go?"

After saying that, Hong Changqing asked again, "You asked me to quietly pass the contents of the back of the Taizen Mixed Dao back to Taizen Dao, wouldn't that make it a theft?"

Only then did it dawn on Long Siqi and he said in shame, “Master ..... me ..... I also want the Tai Zhen Dao to have a chance to flourish ..... ”

Hong Changqing nodded understandingly and said seriously, “Siqi, you are gifted and intelligent, in the future, under your leadership, the Tai Zhen Dao will definitely have a chance to flourish, in the future, the Tai Zhen Dao is counting on you!”

Long Siqi fell into silence for a while, and after a long time, she suddenly raised her head and asked Hong Changqing, “Master, can I also stay in Jinling?”

Hong Changqing was surprised and asked, “You’re staying in Jinling as well! What about the Tai Zhen Dao ..... I have only trained you as the successor to the sect!”

Long Siqi hurriedly said, “Master, what I mean is not that I alone will stay in Jinling, but for the entire Tai Zhen Dao, to move to Jinling!”

She hurriedly added, “Master, you just said that Mr. Ye even went to the extent of giving you a valuable elixir in order for you to be of use to him, so it seems that Mr. Ye must be in a time of need. pass it on to us, then the entire Tai Zhen Dao could come under his tutelage!”

Hong Changqing was also stunned for a moment and could not help but mutter, “Not to mention ..... this is a solution ..... Master Ye must be in need of people, if the entire Tai Zhen Dao worships under him, it can definitely bring him some If Tai Zhen Dao can grow up quickly, this help will only be greater, Master Ye should not refuse .....”

After saying that, Hong Changqing immediately said, “Let’s do this Siqi, I will try to meet with Master Ye later, tell him your idea and see what he means.”

Long Siqi shook his head and said, “Master, you don’t need to talk to Master Ye, I will return to the United States today and gather all my brothers and uncles to pack their luggage and move to Jinling in the shortest possible time!”

Hong Changqing said, “Siqi, that’s two to three hundred people! How can they settle in Jinling with such a big army?”

Long Siqi said, “These are not the most important things, I can ask my father to help me buy a hotel in Jinling first, so that everyone can set up temporarily, and then slowly find a suitable place from Jinling to be the new mountain gate of Tai Chen Tao.”

Hong Changqing asked her, “Have you ever thought about what if Grandmaster Ye refuses if you get everyone to come to Jinling with such fanfare?”

Long Siqi shook her head, “I don’t know, let’s take one step and see .....”

Chapter 5487

Seeing that her mind was already made up, Hong Changqing did not try to persuade her, but asked, “Siqi, when do you plan to return to America?”

Without thinking, Long Siqi said, “The sooner the better.”

Then, she took out her phone and swiped her airline ticket, muttering, "There is no flight back to the US tomorrow from Jinling, so it looks like I have to go to another city to make a connection."

After saying that, she couldn't help but complain, "If I had known this was the case, I would have asked my dad to arrange a private plane for me."

Hong Changqing asked her, "Then where do you plan to go for a connecting flight?"

"Hong Kong Island, I think!" Long Siqi said, "Hong Kong Island has the highest number of flights at the moment, so I'll go there first thing in the morning."

Hong Changqing nodded and said, "In that case, then I won't keep you any longer, I will wait for you back in Jinling."

"Good!" Long Siqi said, "I will settle everything piece by piece as soon as possible."

Just when Long Siqi had made the decision to return to the United States and move the entire Tai Zhen Dao to Jin Ling, Ye Chen did not really leave Buckingham Palace.

He was in Richard Chen's office, asking him to arrange for his men to help him keep an eye on this Chinese American named Long Siqi.

The reason why he had to keep an eye on her was because Ye Chen intended to find an opportunity to erase all the memories of himself from her mind before she left Jinling, and subsequently this woman, when she returned to the United States, would definitely devote herself to the future development of Tai Chen Tao with the strongest enthusiasm, and would lose any threat to herself, too.

However, he did not expect that Hong Changqing would soon call him respectfully and report to him, "Grandmaster Ye, I have already passed the position of Sect Leader to Siqi, from now on, I have nothing to do with Tai Zhen Dao! If there is anything you need me to do, please do not hesitate to ask! If I have any second thoughts about you, I will be struck by lightning!"

Ye Chen asked in a flat tone, "Where is your personal senior disciple?"

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Back to Master Ye, Siqi has already gone back to her room."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "I see that your disciple doesn't seem to have a very good temper, and she is the kind of person who asks questions to the end, about the Pill Cauldron, how did you explain to her? How could she agree to leave Jinling without getting the Medicine Cauldron?"

Hong Changqing hesitated for a moment and said without thinking, "Grandmaster Ye, I'm not going to hide it from you, Siqi she has been completely convinced by your strength, and this time when she goes back, she is planning to move the entire Tai Zhen Dao to Jinling, and then bring Tai Zhen Dao under your tutelage ....."

To Ye Chen, Hong Changqing did not dare to hold back anything.

He knew Ye Chen's methods.

Once he angered Ye Chen again, he was afraid that his cultivation level would have to revert back to the four-star martial artist segment.

Therefore, he could only choose to reveal the truth to Ye Chen.

Although this would be a shame to Long Siqi, he had nothing else to do at the moment, but to leak the secret in advance.

After all, when Ye Chen had punished him last time, he had clearly expressed his disgust for wallflowers as well as family slaves with two surnames.

When Ye Chen heard that Long Siqi wanted to bring the entire Tai Zhen Dao under his tutelage, he couldn't help but ask in confusion, "This woman has a very strong character, how could she make such a decision? Could it be that you have said something to her?"

Hong Changqing did not dare to hide it, and hurriedly said, "Back to Master Ye, my subordinate did mention a few words to her ....."

Speaking here, he asked with trepidation to explain, "However, my subordinate's original intention is also to recruit for you, there are hundreds of members in the Tai Zhen Dao, among which those with cultivation at three star martial artist and above account for nearly half, if they can all submit to you in the future, it will be like an added wing for you, Master Ye."

Chapter 5488

Ye Chen smiled faintly and asked him, "If I am correct, then Miss Long should have explained to you that the three on this matter must not be leaked freely, right?"

Hong Changqing faintly froze, and then said awkwardly, "Master Ye, you really have a discerning eye ..... Siqi did explain to my subordinates that this matter should not be told to you for the time being ..... but, but my subordinates are now your subordinates, so I naturally have to think of your interests. Everything naturally has to be considered for your benefit, so I rushed to call and tell you this news at the first opportunity."

Ye Chen was quite satisfied with this attitude of Hong Changqing and said with a smile, "You can ah Hong Tian Shi, this time you are quite up to date."

Saying that, he added, "This matter, I will pretend that I have never heard of it."

Hong Changqing hurriedly asked him, "Master Ye, I dare to ask, are you willing to take Tai Chen Dao under your command?"

Ye Chen smiled blandly and said, "There are two kinds of taking under my command, one is that Tai Zhen Dao is indeed loyal to me and listens to my orders, the other is that Tai Zhen Dao treats me as a kaiju and cheats money and resources from me under the guise of defection, which do you think Long Siqi is?"

Hong Changqing subconsciously said, "That would definitely be the first one!"

"Is that so?" Ye Chen sneered, "I can see that just before I left, Long Siqi was still hostile towards me, and she was not even polite to you, so what makes you so sure that she must be able to be heartfelt towards me?"

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Grandmaster Ye, I'm not going to hide it from you, I've probably revealed your situation to Siqi, plus you opened her meridians for three seconds with a lift of your hand, she is also very impressed with you and can't wait to serve you."

Saying and, Hong Changqing added: Master Ye, "To be fair, another part of the reason why Siqi wanted to lead the Tai Zhen Dao to join you in Jinling was because I told her that the Tai Zhen Mixed Dao, which has been handed down for thousands of years, was not complete, and that you, to a certain extent, have mastered the subsequent contents, and if you could obtain some of the martial arts techniques at the back, it would also be of great help."

Hearing that Chen Siqi was after the heart method and pills, Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "Don't worry, Master Hong, if Tai Chen Dao is really willing to join me, in the future, whether it is the subsequent contents of the Tai Chen Mixed Dao or those pills that can even quickly raise their cultivation, I can provide them one after another."

Hong Changqing could not help but ask him a little nervously, "Mr. Ye, what about the subordinates?"

"You ah ....." Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "I have another arrangement for you, I just don't know if you can handle it."

Without saying a word, Hong Changqing immediately said with unparalleled certainty, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, my subordinate will do his best!"

Ye Chen said, "I am going to build a training base in Jinling, there will be dozens or hundreds of martial artists studying and training in the base at the same time, the cultivation level of these people, generally speaking, will not exceed eight-star martial artists, what I need you to do is to teach them the first chapter of the "Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao" without reservation, the more they learn and the better they get, the more credit you will get as a teacher! The more they learn, the better they will be, the more credit you will get as a teacher!

The more they learn, the better they will be, the more credit you will get as a teacher!" As he said this, Ye Chen added, "As long as you can do this duty without reservation, then when the time is ripe in the future, I will definitely pass on the rest of the Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao to you in stages, so that you can also help the members of the training base continue to improve rapidly while improving your own strength!"

Chapter 5489

Hong Changqing knew very well that from now on, the best option for him was to serve Ye Chen without any reservations.

Since Ye Chen had asked him to train martial artists with the Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao, then he should give his best effort without any reservations.

Thus, without thinking, he said respectfully, "Don't worry, Master Ye, I will definitely pass on to the martial practitioners attending the training the knowledge I have gained over the years about the first chapter of the Taizen Mixed Yuan Dao without any reservations!"

Ye Chen said with satisfaction, "Alright, tomorrow morning, you go to the Champs-Elysees Spa Hotel and report to Hong Wu, I will ask him to arrange a dormitory for you, from now on that is where you will be working."

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Okay Mr. Ye, my subordinate will go there first thing tomorrow morning!"

After saying that, he stammered a bit and said, "That ..... Mr. Ye ..... you see that my subordinate's attitude has been quite decent recently, I wonder if I can restore my subordinate's cultivation a bit? If when the students you need my subordinate to teach arrive, when they see that my subordinate's cultivation is only a six-star martial artist, my subordinate is afraid that they will not be convinced ....."

Ye Chen knew that he couldn't wait to restore his cultivation, so he smiled and said, "You go and report first, and when I go over there, I will help you restore your cultivation."

Hong Changqing finally let out a sigh of relief and said gratefully, "Thank you Master Ye! Thank you, Grandmaster Ye!"

Ye Chen gave a hmph and said indifferently, "Let's leave it like this for now, remember to report to me first if there is any movement on Long Siqu's side."

"Okay Master Ye!"

That night, Long Siqu transferred to Hong Kong Island and rushed back to the United States overnight.

Hong Changqing also checked out of his hotel room early the next morning and took a taxi to the Champs-Elysees Spa Hotel to report to Hong Wu.

Hong Wu had arranged a room for him as instructed by Ye Chen, and he was so anxious to make some achievements that he immediately started preparing the lesson plans for his next lecture as soon as he arrived at his room.

Hong Changqing was also aware of his own strengths in teaching martial arts. He had been studying the first chapter of the "Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao" for decades, and apart from his deceased master, no one was more familiar with this heart method than he was, so, like a teacher preparing a lesson, he summarised all his understanding and perceptions of the "Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao" for so many years, and divided the content of the first chapter into eight chapters. In this way, he led the students to learn in a gradual and orderly manner.

Two days later, when Ye Chen arrived at the Champs-Elysées Spa Hotel, Hong Changqing was still in his room perfecting his teaching materials. Ye Chen heard from Hong Wu that the old man had been here for two days and had hardly left his room, so he asked Hong Wu to lead him and arrived outside Hong Changqing's room.

Hong Wu knocked on the door, and Hong Changqing, who was ambling along writing, thought it was the service staff bringing breakfast, and got up to open the door before he was surprised to find that Ye Chen was standing outside the door.

He hurriedly said respectfully, "What brings you here, Master Ye? My subordinate was unable to go out to welcome you from afar, so I hope you will forgive me!" sdLCHxWz.cOM

Ye Chen smiled and said, "You're welcome, Master Hong, I wonder how you've been feeling here for the past two days?"

Hong Changqing hurriedly replied, "Back to Master Ye, my subordinate has basically not left his room much in the past two days, he has been finishing up his next lesson plan."

"A lesson plan?" Ye Chen asked curiously, "I wonder which aspect of the lesson plan Master Hong is organising?"

Hong Changqing explained, "It's about my subordinate's understanding and perception of the first chapter of the Tai Zhen Mixed Dao."

Saying that, he invited Ye Chen and Hong Wu into the living room of the room, then from in front of the desk, he brought a pile of notes and respectfully handed them to Ye Chen, saying, "Mr. Ye, please look through them."

Ye Chen took the lesson plan and first looked at it roughly for a few moments, and then became more and more surprised the more he read it.

Although Hong Changqing only knew the first chapter of the Tai Zhen Mixed Dao, his understanding of the contents of this one had indeed reached a very profound level, and he was even able to cite a number of issues and add a number of personally summarised cultivation tricks in conjunction with the actual situation.

Chapter 5490

Moreover, after the contents of the first chapter were reasonably divided into eight chapters by him, the gradual rhythm of the content was more solid and more convenient for young martial artists to learn.

It seemed that this Hong Changqing was born to be a good material for a teacher.

After Ye Chen finished reading his summarised lesson plan, he praised it without mincing words, "This lesson plan, Master Hong, can show that your understanding of the Taizen Mixed Dao is truly extraordinary."

When Hong Changqing heard Ye Chen's praise, although he was very excited in his heart, his mouth was still very modest as he said, "Master Ye has praised me, my understanding of the "Tai Zhen Mixed Yuan Dao" is no other than my hands are familiar with it ..... After all, I have been studying this set of mind techniques for so many years, even a fool can refine it and understand it. "

Ye Chen waved his hand: "Hong Tian Shi need not be modest, in my opinion, this training base of ours, with you and this lesson plan in place, can be officially put into use right away!"

Hong Changqing was busy asking, "Master Ye, when do you plan to officially open it?"

Ye Chen said, "I will inform the first batch of students selected by the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall to depart today, there is another batch of students right here in Jinling, when they all arrive, you can officially start teaching, at that time your students will all live here with you, and you, Master Hong, will be the teaching director here, in terms of academics, all students must obey your management and arrangements. ”

After saying that, Ye Chen pointed at Hong Wu and spoke, “As for Hong Wu, he is the head of logistics of this school, if you have any needs, feel free to mention them to him, as long as he can meet them, he will definitely try his best to meet them.”

Hong Changqing immediately said respectfully, “Okay Master Ye, my subordinate understands!”

Ye Chen nodded and added, “Master Hong, before the official start of the class, you can feel free to mention any other needs you have.”

Hong Changqing hesitated for a moment and opened his mouth to ask: “That ..... Master Ye ..... subordinate would like to know, among the students this time, what is the strongest level of strength?”

Ye Chen said, “Su Ruoli of the Jinling He family, she is a seven-star martial artist and the strongest among the current cadets.”

Hong Changqing said awkwardly, “Master Ye ..... trainees have all reached seven-star martial artist, I, as a teacher, am still a six-star martial artist ..... this ..... ”

Ye Chen hummed and laughed: “Alright, I know what you mean.”

After saying that, he stretched out his hand and patted Hong Changqing on his shoulder, withdrawing the aura blocking his other two meridians.

Hong Changqing felt that his two blocked meridians were completely unblocked in an instant, and his whole body returned to that peak state of the Ming Realm Great Perfection Realm, and was immediately thrilled, and quickly bowed gratefully, “Thank you, Master Ye!”

Ye Chen nodded slightly, took out a piece of paper from his pocket, handed it to Hong Changqing, and said indifferently, “Master Hong, on this, is the opening chapter of the second chapter of the Tai Zhen Mixed Element Dao, written by my hand, almost one third of the total length of the second chapter, while the students are still in place in these two days, you can study it yourself first, and see if it helps you in your current cultivation. ”

When Hong Changqing heard this, he did not dare to reach for the paper handed over by Ye Chen, but asked with a face full of incredulity, “Ye ..... Master Ye ..... such a precious martial arts heart method, are you so relieved to give it to your subordinate? ”

Ye Chen smiled and casually said, “I have always been suspicious of people and used them, since I choose to trust you and give you the task of teaching here, then naturally I will not doubt you anymore, moreover, although this heart method has only been passed on to you for the time being, it will definitely be passed on to all other students through you in the future, it is here, it is not a secret, moreover, as long as you reserve humbly complete the task I have given you, I will successively pass on to you all the contents of the later parts of the Tai Zhen Mixed Dao, and all you have to do is to use your knowledge of the first one to master these later mind techniques and integrate them as soon as possible.”

Hong Changqing did not expect that Ye Chen would give himself such a precious Martial Dao Heart Method without hesitation, knowing that in the Martial Dao realm, the importance of the Heart Method surpassed everything!

Every family's martial dao heart method was never passed on to outsiders.

And every sect's Heart Method was likewise the sect's greatest secret!

But Ye Chen was able to readily hand over the Heart Method to himself, which was enough to show that Ye Chen's heart and the pattern of his actions.

When he thought back to the time when he had been holding back from Ye Chen and even playing with his heart, Hong Changqing could not help but feel ashamed. He took the paper from Ye Chen with both hands and looked at Ye Chen with moist eyes, saying gratefully, "Master Ye, if I accept this Heart Method, you are my benefactor! Please accept my obeisance!"
