

Ye Chen Wade 2381

Chapter 2381

Ye Chen did not expect that Sun Yufang would suddenly invite herself to her home for dinner.

I was thinking of finding some excuse to decline, as a result, Sun Yufang did not wait for her to say, and then hurriedly said: "Just tomorrow Saturday, winter snow is not working, can help me at home, more dishes."

Wang Chengyuan, who was in the hospital bed, also spoke in agreement: "Yes, Xiaoye, come home and have a meal with us, as if you were recognizing the door."

Only, Wang Chengyuan didn't know that Ye Chen had actually been to his home earlier.

Seeing that Sun Yufang and Wang Chengyuan both said so, Ye Chen was more or less embarrassed.

He didn't really want to agree to the dinner party, but he didn't think it would be a good idea to disagree with them.[Get Fastest Update www.avracity.com]

Just when he was in a difficult situation, Wang Dongxue hurriedly said, "Mom, I have something to do tomorrow, the company has to work overtime, how about another day?"

"Huh? Still working overtime tomorrow?" Sun Yufang was very dissatisfied and said, "It's the weekend, why are you still working overtime?"

Wang Dongxue didn't really want to work overtime, but she saw that her parents might be quite fond of Ye Chen, and guessed that they might want to take the opportunity to invite Ye Chen to dinner to get to know him better.

So, she also guessed that her parents must not know that Ye Chen was now married, otherwise they would not have acted so directly.

So, she was going to postpone the matter of inviting Ye Chen to her home for dinner, and then make it clear to her parents that even if she couldn't tell them his real identity, she would at least let them know that Ye Chen was already married, so that they would stop thinking about him.

I've been thinking about it for a while now, and I'm very serious about it," she said, "Mom, I really have something tomorrow.

Sun Yufang heard her say so, also know that there is no way to continue to insist, what she wants is Ye Chen to come home to eat with their family of three, but if her daughter is unable to come, she and her husband to invite Ye Chen to eat at home, more or less strange.[Get Fastest Update www.avracity.com]

So, she had to say: "That's fine, then we won't ask Xiaoye to come to the house for dinner this week. Depending on your work situation next week, let's set it early and try to invite Xiaoye to the house for dinner next weekend."

After saying that, she looked at Ye Chen again and said with an apologetic face, "Xiao Ye, I'm really sorry, then let's meet up again next week, what do you think?"

Ye Chen nodded his head and said with a smile, "Auntie, I can do it."

Sun Yufang then hurriedly said to Wang Dongxue: "Dongxue, next week you can't work overtime on weekends again!"

Wang Dongxue said awkwardly: "It's not up to me to decide whether I want to work overtime or not, just in case there is something really important I need to do next week, I can't just leave it behind.

Sun Yufang was a bit dissatisfied and said, "You work too hard every day, why does your boss have to give you so much work? Isn't that exploiting the employees?"

Ye Chen, who was on the side, was somewhat embarrassed when he heard this.

After all, he was the boss who was squeezing the employees, as Sun Yufang said.

Ye Chen spoke at this time, "Uncle and aunt, it's getting late, so I won't bother you much."

Sun Yufang knew that she had delayed Ye Chen a lot of time, hurriedly said: "Okay little Ye, auntie send you out, let Dongxue send you to the parking lot." [Get Fastest Update www.avracity.com]

Ye Chen smiled: "No auntie, I can walk on my own."

Wang Dongxue busy said: "Ye Chen, how about I'll go see you off!"

Ye Chen waved his hand: "Okay Dongxue, you don't send me, stay here with the aunt and uncle, in addition, if the uncle is ready to leave the hospital tonight, you also have to hurry and busy to get the discharge procedures done."

Hearing these words, Wang Dongxue did not insist.

She was very grateful and said to Ye Chen: "Thank you so much for today"

Ye Chen waved his hand: "No need to be so polite, you stay, I'm leaving."

Chapter 2382

Wang Dongxue sent Ye Chen to the door, saw Ye Chen leave, which only then returned to the hospital room.

Just into the hospital room, Sun Yufang rushed over, pulling Wang Dongxue's hand, concerned about the question: "Dongxue, that Little Ye and you what is the relationship?"

Wang Dongxue was busy saying, "Just an ordinary friend."

"Ordinary friend?" When Sun Yufang heard this, she hurriedly asked her, "So do you have that kind of affection in your heart for Xiaoye?"

Wang Dongxue said in a panic, "Huh? I I'm not!"

Sun Yufang shook her head in disbelief and said, "Is your mother that gullible? You can tell at a glance with this expression that you must have a crush on Little Ye!" [Get Fastest Update www.avracity.com]

Wang Dongxue didn't know how to reply at once.

She naturally had a good feeling in her heart for Ye Chen, and the good feeling was very deep.

Especially this time, not only did Ye Chen help himself to punish Walter who poisoned his father, he even saved his father's life with an incomparably precious divine medicine.

This made her heart's affection for Ye Chen reach an unprecedented level.

However, she knew very well: "Ye Chen is the young master of the Ye family, an imperial group alone is worth more than 100 billion yuan, how could I possibly be with him with such a status?"

"Not to mention, he was already a married man, even I and his wife Xiao Churan, also did not have a lot of dealings in the work"

Thinking of this, Wang Dongxue's heart is still more or less a bit confused: "Why did Ye Chen marry Xiao Churan? Xiao Churan I have also come into contact with a few times, she is really pretty, but her ability to really do things is not really outstanding"

"If it wasn't for Ye Chen who has been secretly helping her, she wouldn't have been able to get the cooperation of the Emperor Group for the Xiao Clan in the first place"

"Even the design studio that she started her own business to engage in, the overall strength is not considered first class, if she followed the normal process, her studio would not have been able to get any project from the Dihao Group, or even qualified to bid for the Dihao Group's projects." [Get Fastest Update www.avracity.com]

"However, it's because Ye Chen spoils her that she's all kinds of building bridges and paving roads for her"

"Moreover, Xiao Churan's family conditions are not too good, and when the Xiao Group was at its peak, it was just a very worthless, third-rate family"

"So"

"In terms of ability, I am not inferior to Xiao Churan;"

"In terms of family, I'm no worse than Xiao Churan"

"Even in terms of looks, I can't say it's hard to distinguish from her, but at least it's not much different"

"It's a pity that Ye Chen chose Xiao Churan, a girl who is not too brilliant, this, is Xiao Churan's luck, I may not have such an opportunity in this life"

Thinking of this, Wang Dongxue was inevitably a little melancholy.

At this time, Sun Yufang said seriously: "Dongxue, Mom really think, you and Xiaoye you two, is really a good match, and Xiaoye this young man is really quite good, people are so concerned about our family matters, is probably also a bit interesting to you, plus you are also interested in him, you can't go along with the boat with him focus on the development of development? "

When Wang Dongxue heard her mother's words, the whole person was embarrassed and said, "Oh my mom, what are you thinking about? People Ye Chen has already been married!"

"Huh?!" When Sun Yufang heard this answer, she exclaimed in shock and asked incredulously, "Did you say that Xiaoye got married! Seriously?!" [Get Fastest Update & More amazing stories www.avracity.com]

Wang Dongxue said helplessly, "Of course it's true Can I still lie to you about such things?"

Sun Yufang at once became incomparably sorry, sighing and saying, "Hey, how do you think this good boy is getting married one by one"

Chapter 2383

Hearing her mother's emotion, Wang Dongxue was also very despondent deep inside.

In her heart, she was also full of good feelings towards Ye Chen.

But unfortunately, she knew that she had little chance to do so.

The only thing she can do is to work well in the Dihao Group, to bring the Dihao Group to a higher height, so as to repay Ye Chen's kindness to himself, and at the same time, so as to rest her own deep-seated feelings for Ye Chen.

Finger pointing."

Wang Chengyuan on the side also couldn't help but exclaim, "Dongxue, your mother is right! We used to think of your own problems from the point of view of how we think about them, and this kind of thinking really lacks respect for you, and from now on you will make your own decisions, and Mom and Dad will never interfere again"

When Wang Dongxue heard this, her heart was grateful.

Between children and parents, there is often a lack of a generation gap, and there are all kinds of misunderstandings.

But in fact, this generation gap and misunderstanding arises not because of material things, nor because of money, but because of a lack of understanding.

Parents lack understanding for their children, and so do children for their parents.

Most parents want their children to go to a good university, find a decent and lucrative job, and then settle down in as big a city as possible and have a good life. [Get Fastest Update at www.avracity.com]

But they never know what their children really want.

Perhaps their children don't want to go to a good university, they just want to pursue their passions.

Maybe they don't want to make lots and lots of money in the big city, they just want to be able to travel the world with their dreams.

Maybe they don't want this life to go so smoothly that it goes a little flat.

Maybe they just want to be able to experience some of the ups and downs of their once-in-a-lifetime life.

It's as if, very often, parents will look for an overall very good match for their children, and in their eyes, the children will be able to marry such a match and have a stable and carefree life.

However, the children do not pursue stability and carefreeness as they think, what they pursue is a strong and unforgettable love.

That's why, almost all the great works on love in the past and present, at all times and in all countries, have a tragic core of rebellion against parents for love, and ultimately, martyrdom.

This is the story of Romeo and Juliet in the West, and it is also the story of Liang Shanbo and Zhu Yingtai in China.

So this kind of lack of understanding between parents and children is not a phenomenon unique to modern society, but one that runs through almost the entire history of human development.

Wang Dongxue has always felt that her parents did not understand her enough. They did not understand her own work ethic, nor did they understand that she preferred not to have too much affection.

They felt that they did not have to work hard for the sake of work, and even delayed their own private life.

They also felt that they should find a boyfriend as soon as possible in all aspects of the conditions can be said, as soon as possible to get married and have children, so that their lives stabilized.

There was a time when Wang Dongxue felt anxious because of her family's pressure to marry her.

Chapter 2384

At that time, her greatest wish was for her parents to understand her one day.

Unexpectedly, at this moment, this wish has come true![Get Fastest Update at www.avracity.com]

Thinking of this, Wang Dongxue was actually moved by red eyes, a sore nose, almost about to shed tears.

In order to prevent her parents from seeing her cry, Wang Dongxue hurriedly said to them: "Mom, Dad, you two wait for me for a while, I'll do the discharge paperwork now, let's go home!"

Just when Wang Dongxue was discharging his father Wang Chengyuan from the hospital, Richard Chen and Hong Wu had already caught Wang Dongxue's American classmate, the eldest son of the American Hogwarts family, Walter Hogwarts, as well as all of Walter's men, in Hong Wu's kennel.

Hong Wu's dog breeding farm, not only to raise fighting dogs for his competition, but also to deal with a lot of gray matters for him, so from the time of construction, a great deal of thought has been put into it.

First of all, Hongwu's kennel was built in a remote suburb, which is already sparsely populated, and in order to further eliminate the problem, Hongwu registered an agricultural technology company and leased all the farmland around the Xiangyang factory.

In order to avoid suspicion, Hongwu chose a group of his horses who had farmed before to cultivate a large piece of farmland around the dog breeding farm.

In this way, the dog farm is more secure and will not attract attention.

Not only the outside, but also the inside of the farm, where the security equipment is more complete.

The fence of the dog farm doesn't look very high, and from the outside, it doesn't look like a very important place to talk about high-voltage power grids or tribbles.

However, on the inside of the fence, there was a high-voltage power grid ninety degrees across a meter wide.

For the people locked inside, the high-voltage power grid was right above their heads, and it was impossible to climb up, so there was no way to escape.

Inside the kennel, there is a large row of kennels, all of which are welded steel cages with only one very, very strong iron gate.

The locks on each of these iron bars are not ordinary mechanical locks, but mechanical locks with fingerprint locks and remote electromagnetic locks, which form three strong lines of defense.

So, whether it's an extremely lethal fighting dog or a very strong personal martial arts expert, if you're really locked in here, it's basically impossible to have a chance of escape! [Get Fastest Update at www.avracity.com]

Walter's helpers were all housed in one of the cages, and Walter enjoyed the unique privilege of having a cage to himself.

The outside of the cage was connected to a set of special dialysis equipment, because of the cage, so all kinds of piping can easily pass through, and will not prevent Walter from receiving dialysis inside the cage.

At this time, Walter was dragged into the iron cage by Hongwu's men like a dead dog, and was still shouting in despair: "You can't do this to me, I am the eldest son of the Hogwarts family and a relative of the Rothschild family!".

A man in black beside him snorted and cursed, "What the fuck is the Witschschild family, when it comes to Warsaw, any foreign family will have to be honestly dishonored! Do you really think that Warsaw is your backyard, where you can come and go as you please? What do you think you are?"

He grabbed Walter's collar, opened Walter's mouth, poured a bottle of liquid into his mouth, and then covered his mouth despite Walter's struggle, waiting for him to swallow all the liquid before letting go.

Walter coughed a few times and questioned in horror, "What the hell did you give me to drink?!"

Richard Chen stood outside the cage and sneered, "Aren't you the one who likes to secretly poison people with mercuric dichloride? Why can't you taste your favorite thing?"

Chapter 2385

"Mercury dichloride?!"

When Walter heard this, his face turned white as a sheet!

He plopped down on his knees, kowtowed to Richard Chen, and cried, "I know I was wrong, I really know I was wrong, please, please let the doctor come and clean my stomach, it will be too late."

"Giving you a stomach pump?" Richard Chen sneered, "Walter, now you know you're scared? When you harmed someone, why didn't you think about how they felt? Now it's your turn and you're scared and want to give in? Do you really think you can solve the problem by giving in? I'm telling you, it's impossible!"[www.avracity.com]

Walter broke down in despair and cried out loudly, "Please call Young Master Ye, and tell him that I really know I was wrong, and that I am willing to be an ox for him for the rest of my life, as long as he can spare my life."

Richard Chen disdainfully said, "To be an ox for our young master, do you think you have the qualifications?"

"Exactly!" Hong Wu disdainfully left his mouth and said in a cold voice: "This kind of dog, not to mention being an ox for the young master, even if I were to be a dog for him, I wouldn't fucking like him! What Something!"

Walter refused to give up and cried out in pain, "Please help me talk to Master Ye! I would do it if he would agree to let the doctor pump my stomach, even if he had to keep me here forever! If I can't, I'm willing to stay here and work all my life to reform myself and pay for my sins with my labor."

As soon as Walter said this, a man who was cleaning another cage not far away, snarled, "Hey! Don't you Yankee fart around here! You have offended Master Ye, and you still hope that Master Ye will let you go? You're just dreaming! Besides, I already have my Kobayashi Jiro in the Fifth Master's dog farm, so I don't need your dog thing!"

The one who speaks is Kobayashi Ichiro's brother, Kobayashi Jiro.

Ever since he was sent here by Ye Chen to raise dogs, he has been dreaming of one day escaping from this place.

However, Hongwu's dog farm is extremely heavily guarded, and he can't escape by running away, so there are only two possibilities left for him to leave here.

"The first possibility of leaving this place is that my brother Ichiro Kobayashi made a mistake and was given up by Ye Chen, thus causing Ye Chen to voluntarily trade him for me to get out."

"However, I still remember clearly how my brother was flattering to Ye Chen, and with me as his negative example in this dog farm, I think my brother should now walk on thin ice and never make any mistakes."

"So, that leaves only the second possibility!"

"That is, Ye Chen is willing to take the initiative to let me off the hook!"

"But the likelihood of that is almost negligible, about zero."

"After all, I work hard every day at a dog farm, and my status is so low that I'm not even as good as the dogs here, and even Master Hongwu rarely gets to meet them, let alone meet Ye Chen."

"Because of this, I work hard every day in the hope that the people under Master Hongwu will see my efforts and report my performance to Master Hongwu."

"Now that Master Hong V has finally come to the dog farm himself, how can I, Kobayashi Jiro, let go of such a great opportunity to show my loyalty!"

Hongwu didn't expect that Kobayashi Jiro, who was working in the kennel, would rebuke Walter with righteous indignation.

However, after a few moments, he understood Jiro Kobayashi's motives.

Chapter 2386

So he smiled and said, "Kobayashi Jiro, you've been raising your consciousness very quickly lately."

Kobayashi Jiro hurriedly ran all the way to Hongwu's front, abruptly gave a 90-degree bow, and said loudly, "Master Hongwu! Thank you for your recognition of Jiro, and Jiro will definitely continue to work hard!"

Hongwu nodded in satisfaction and smiled, "Jiro, seeing how you've been doing well lately, I'll talk to the chef later and give you an extra chicken wing every day from now on!"

As soon as Kobayashi Jiro heard this, he hastily compensated with a smile and begged, "Fifth Master, why don't you ask the kitchen to give me an extra chicken leg? I've been a little malnourished from all the work I've done and the little food I've eaten."

Hong Wu looked at Kobayashi Jiro's withered appearance and smiled: "Jiro, you are quite good at bargaining."

The first thing I noticed was that I was not able to get enough food to eat every day, and I didn't mean to bargain with you.

Hong Wu nodded and smiled, "Okay, I know, let's say, since you've been working quite hard lately, I'll have the chef give you an extra chicken wing every day, and an extra chicken leg every Monday and Thursday!"

As soon as Kobayashi Jiro heard this, he hurriedly bowed excitedly, "Thank you, Fifth Master! Thank you, Master V! Please thank Master Ye for me, too."

I'm sure Jiro will work hard at the kennel!"

Hong Wu smiled: "Okay, since you're so sensible, I'll have a chance to meet Master Ye, and I'll definitely put in a good word for you in front of him."

Kobayashi Jiro was so excited that he bowed vigorously, nodded his head and said, "Jiro, thank you, Master V."

Hong Wu then turned to look at the pale Walter and sneered, "Walter, as you can hear, I don't need trash like you working for me in my dog farm, so just get down to business and stay here while you get ready for your daily dialysis."

Walter broke down and cried, "Five! Fifth Master! I am at least the young master of the Hogwarts family, and the family's assets are over ten billion dollars, plus I am over one meter tall and work out all year round.

Hong Wu laughed shamefully: "Walter, do you think that your Hogwarts family, with assets of over 10 billion, is a big deal? I'll tell you what, just that skinny, short Japanese guy you're talking about is the former chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co. in Japan, and do you know how much assets Kobayashi Pharmaceutical had before that?"

At this point, Hongwu paused and said coldly, "I tell you! The Kobayashi family once had assets of more than $30 billion, which you Hogg

Three times the Watts family!"

When Walter heard this, he was dumbfounded and mumbled, "Is that Japanese man the former chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co.

"Exactly! It's Jiro Kobayashi!" Hongwu said, continuing to mock, "Look, a man like Jiro Kobayashi, whose family assets are three times yours, is just a servant who feeds and shovels dog poop for me every day, and a trash like you wants to stay here and do hard labor? Take a piss and look at yourself, do you fucking deserve it?"[www.avracity.com]

Walter was suddenly speechless and desperate, wondering: "I really didn't think that there was a second young master of Xiao Lin Pharmaceuticals in Hongwu's dog farm."

"The Kobayashi family is completely different from the Hogwarts family in that the Kobayashi family itself has only two offspring, Ichiro Kobayashi, the eldest son, and Jiro Kobayashi, the second son, with 30 billion in assets equally divided, and another 15 billion dollars for one person."

"And we Hogwarts are all too damn fertile, my siblings and cousins, nearly twenty of them combined, and $10 billion in assets to divide up, and each of them doesn't get much at all."

"So, compared to Jiro Kobayashi, I'm a million miles behind."

"Even he has a dog here, so wouldn't I really have no chance?!"

Chapter 2387

The mercuric dichloride that had been poured into Walter's mouth soon took effect, and Walter felt more and more discomfort and pain.

He knew that this must be why the kidneys were beginning to deteriorate so rapidly!

It wasn't until this moment that Walter truly realized what a mess he had gotten himself into.

He used to think that with his status, position, and family history, he could walk around anywhere in the world.

After all, most things in the world were too cheap in front of him compared to a $10 billion family fortune.

When he was in the United States, he didn't cause much trouble, but even if he did kill someone, he could at most take out a few million dollars to fix it, and it wouldn't cause him any trouble at all. [www.avracity.com]

If the poisoning of Wang Chengyuan is in the United States, once the east window is exposed, he only needs to spend a few hundred thousand dollars, he can immediately arrange a scapegoat.

Even if the whole world knew that he was behind it, what if the whole world knew that he was behind it?

He could find tough enough connections in the US justice department to pin all the crimes on one scapegoat and never get himself into any trouble.

However, the bad thing is that he even offended Ye Chen this time.

Since he offended Ye Chen, it's not something that can be solved with money!

In just a few hours, Walter went from being a strong young man to a terminally ill patient who had lost almost all mobility and could only lie on the floor crying out in pain.

The doctors that Richard Chen had arranged in advance were following up on Walter's physical condition, measuring his blood creatinine every half an hour.

In half an hour, Walter's blood creatinine value went from 75 at the beginning to 200, 500, 800, 1000, and even soon exceeded 1500.

This figure meant that Walter's kidneys had been completely destroyed.

After that, the doctor immediately put him on dialysis equipment.

The dialysis equipment, to be frank, was an artificially created mechanical kidney.

When one's own kidneys are no longer functioning, such a device is used to replace the kidneys to perform the tasks of detoxification and filtration.

So, when the dialysis equipment is activated, Walter's life is saved.

However, although his life is saved, he can't get rid of the dialysis equipment no matter what!

At the same time, New York City, USA.

In a Manhattan skyscraper, a white man in his fifties is pacing anxiously in his office.

He was Walter's father, Steve Hogewitz.

It was already three o'clock in the afternoon in New York, and Steve had been trying to contact Walter since nine o'clock in the morning, and had been unable to reach him until now.[www.avracity.com]

Fearing that anything bad might happen to Walter in Warsaw, he contacted Walter's entourage again, but, without exception, all of them disappeared.

The other family executives who had followed Walter to Jinling could be contacted, but they had no idea where Walter had gone after sunset.

In order to determine Walter's whereabouts, the executives immediately alerted the Jinling police, but the Jinling police couldn't find any trace of Walter either.

It was as if the man had disappeared from the face of the earth.

After receiving the feedback, Steve immediately realized that the situation was very bad.

He pressed the phone on his desk and sternly commanded, "Arrange a plane immediately, I want to go to Warsaw."

The next day.

Jinling in the morning, looks no different from the usual

Chapter 2388

The dozen or so people who went missing, including Walter, did not make much of a difference to the nearly 10 million people in Jinling.

Ye Chen slept soundly this night, plus he had Ma Lan to worry about breakfast, so he was still asleep.

At the same time, Du Haiqing drove alone from the Du family residence to the door of Ye Changya's former residence.

Ever since she came to Jinling, Du Haiqing has been dreaming about the coma every night.

Last night, in particular, she dreamed that she became the wife of Coma Ye, dreamed that Coma Ye took her away from Yanjing and came to Jinling, and also dreamed that she accompanied Coma Ye, in the yard that will be auctioned, living a happy life with husband and wife.

It was because of this dream that she couldn't help but want to come back and take a look at the old courtyard.

Du Haiqing parked her car outside the gate, pushed open the courtyard's worn iron gate, and stepped inside.[www.avracity.com]

At that moment, all she could think about was the shadow of Ye Changba, and she didn't even notice that someone was secretly taking pictures of herself with a camera.

Ten minutes later, Yanjing, the Ye family.

Ye Zhongquan was so excited that he called a meeting with his three sons.

Ye Changkong, the eldest, Ye Changyun, the third, and Ye Changjun, the fourth, received the notice, immediately got out of their beds and hurried to Ye Zhongquan's study.

Ye Zhongquan looked at his three sleepy-faced sons and said excitedly, "I asked you to come over so early because I have found another way to strike the Su family

Good idea!"

Ye Changkong asked in surprise, "Dad! What's the best way?"

Ye Zhongquan smiled mysteriously, picked up a tablet, opened a photo, handed it to the three of them, and smiled, "See for yourselves!"

Ye Changkong and his two brothers immediately leaned in for a closer look.

It was a photo of a woman, and it could be seen that the photographer was using a telephoto lens and had taken it from a relatively distant location.

Then Ye Changkong was the first to recognize the woman and exclaimed, "Isn't this Su Shoudao's wife, Du Haiqing?"

The third, Ye Changyun, hastily agreed, "It's really her! Dad, why did you ask someone to secretly film Du Haiqing?"

Ye Zhongquan sneered: "The Su family's reputation has suffered a great blow because of Su Ruoli's affair. That old fox, Su Chengfeng, even betrayed his son, Su Shoudao, for the sake of his own reputation, and Su Shoudao also fled to Australia to avoid the limelight.

Ye Changkong asked, "Dad, what does this have to do with Du Haiqing? I heard from the grapevine that Du Haiqing has already planned to divorce Su Shoudao."

Ye Zhongquan smiled, "Do you know where Du Haiqing is now?"

The three sons all shook their heads involuntarily.

They had always regarded the Su family as their great enemy, but they did not pay much attention to Du Haiqing, the daughter-in-law of the Su family.[www.avracity.com]

When Ye Zhongquan saw that his three sons all looked dumbfounded, he smiled casually and said:

"Du Haiqing is now in Jinling!"

"Jinling?" Ye Changkong was surprised and asked, "Is there anything strange about her being in Jinling?"

Ye Zhongquan pointed to the photo on the tablet and asked him rhetorically, "Can't you see where this photo was taken?"

Ye Changkong looked seriously at the dilapidated courtyard in the photo and said blankly, "Dad, isn't this just a dilapidated courtyard? What's so special about it?"

Ye Zhongquan sighed lightly and said slightly forlornly, "This ruined little courtyard is the place where Changga lived in Jinling back then."

Ye Changkong and the other three brothers were suddenly enlightened.

Ye Changkong was the first to react and sighed, "Du Haiqing went to Changga's old residence, is it because he still has feelings for Changga in his heart?"

"Well!" Ye Zhongquan nodded his head and said, "In my opinion, see it must be so!"

It's a good idea to go all the way to Jinling just to take a look at the old home of the coma."

Ye Zhongquan sighed: "Not only that, the courtyard where the coma lived will soon be judicially auctioned off, and Du Haiqing has also signed up to attend the auction on Monday!"

Ye Zhongquan sneered and added, "This is our chance to strike the Su family! As long as we have this photo sent out, and spread the news that Du Haiqing is still in love with Changba, and even wants to buy Changba's old home, the Su family's last bit of face will be gone."

Chapter 2389

This weekend, the entire Yanjing's high society, once again, a bombshell broke out.

Du Haiqing, the wife of Su Shoudao, the son of Su's patriarch, has gone to Jinling without divorcing Su Shoudao yet!

Moreover, she went to Jinling to remember Ye Changyan, who had been dead for almost twenty years!

What's even more amazing is that Du Haiqing is going to participate in next Monday's judicial auction to bid on the old house that Ye Changba lived in back then!

Could it be that she is trying to see the world for what it is?

Could it be that she loves Ye Changba so much that she is so deeply in love with the marrow?

Otherwise, how could they still love Ye Changba so lowly so many years after her death?[www.avracity.com]

In addition, the photo of Du Haiqing was taken secretly, she was very sad, and when the telephoto camera captured her beautiful and touching face, it actually captured two lines of tears.

It is important to know that Du Haiqing was the founder of the Yanjing

From Du Haiqing's approach, the high society of Yanjing immediately understood one thing.

That is: it turns out that Du Haiqing has been thinking about Ye Changba for so many years, even though she has been married to Su Shoudao for over twenty years and has given birth to a son and a daughter for Su Shoudao!

All of a sudden, the whole

The high society of Yanjing was abuzz with discussion.

On the one hand, people were amazed that Du Haiqing had such a deep love for Ye Changba.

On the one hand, it mocks Su Shoudao, who has not been able to win Du Haiqing's true love for so many years, and in Du Haiqing's mind, is not even comparable to a dead man who has been dead for twenty years!

The Su family, which had already been ridiculed and mocked by the world because of the revelation of Su Ruorui's betrayal, has suddenly added a new and huge laughing stock!

Su Chengfeng angrily drops several expensive porcelain pieces in his residence in Yanjing!

After a clanking sound of broken ceramics, he shouted angrily: "This Du Haiqing, at this time, actually went to Jinling, to the place where that dead man Ye Changya lived, and also fake tears, call his mother is to hit our Su family's face!".[www.avrcity.com]

Su Shou Dao was out of the country, so the representative of the next generation of the Su family became his younger brother, Su Shou De, and at this point, Su Shou De looked furious and said, "Dad! I didn't expect that my brother had married her for so many years and hadn't matured this white wolf yet."

"Now when our Su family is on the cusp of a storm, she did such a shameless thing to add to our troubles, I think she is simply deliberately trying to bring disgrace to our Su family!"

Su Shouxin also immediately echoed, "Yes Dad! I never imagined that my sister-in-law would do such an ungodly thing! After all, my brother and her are not divorced yet."

Su Shouli hurriedly said, "Dad! The most serious thing is that if your sister-in-law really buys Ye Changya's former residence, then we will really lose face."

"Right! Only then did Su Shoudeh react, impatiently cursing, "Damn it! That b*tch! Before divorcing my brother, he went to buy the place where the dead man in Ye Changyan lived, what the f*ck does that mean? Is a man who has been dead for 20 years stronger than my brother? No matter how bad my brother is, he can't be worse than a f*cking dead ghost, right?"

Su Shoude's words not only scolded his sister-in-law, Du Haiqing, but also his elder brother, Su Shoudao.

The implication of his words was to let the old man know that his big brother was a punk, a punk who couldn't subdue his woman, or even a punk who couldn't compare to a dead man!

The old man, Su, naturally, could also hear what Su Shoude's words were saying.

What's more, he actually agreed with Su Shoude's words from the bottom of his heart.

In the past 50 years, he has never been so full of anger toward his eldest son as he is now!

Chapter 2390

In his opinion, the Su family is in today's situation, Su Shoudao is overwhelmingly responsible!

Therefore, in his eyes, Su Shoudao was not only not a qualified family heir, he was not even a qualified bloodline heir.

The so-called family heir was the one who would inherit the entire Su family in the future and become the head of the Su family.

The requirements for the so-called bloodline heirs were naturally much more lenient, as long as they were from the Su family.

The current Master Su believed that Su Shou Dao was not only not qualified to be at the helm of the Su family, he was not even qualified to inherit the Su family's bloodline!

So he said in an angry, cold voice, "Shoude! Call your brother! Make him stop Du Haiqing from participating in that judicial auction next Monday no matter what! I will never allow this woman to make the Su family the laughingstock of the entire Yanjing and Huaxia once again." [www.avracity.com]

Su Shoude's heart was already blossoming with joy when he heard this, while his mouth said solemnly, "Dad, don't worry. I'm calling my big brother!"

Su Shoude took out his cell phone and prepared to dial the number.

Su, who was on the other side, said coldly, "Put it on speakerphone! I want to hear what this adversary is going to say!"

Su Shoude was delighted, busy

I had to call my big brother Su Shoudao.

At this time, Su Shou Dao did not know what was happening in Yanjing.

When he received Su Shoude's call, his heart was immediately filled with disgust.

Although he wasn't in Yanjing these days, he could imagine in his mind exactly how his younger brother would ruin himself when he wasn't with the old man.

Now, at this critical moment, it is equivalent to the ancient emperor's dissatisfaction with the crown prince and his desire to depose him.

In front of the huge interests, brotherly love is nothing, not even a fart.

Therefore, he was so irritated that he didn't even bother to answer Su Shoude's phone call.

Su Shoude called once and saw no answer, so he immediately said to the old man: "Dad big brother he does not answer the phone, do not know what he is doing."

"Rubbish! What a waste!" Master Su cursed, "I told him to go to Australia to get away from the limelight, and he's done nothing but this, and he's still not answering his phone! Keep fighting!"

"All right!"

Su Shoude immediately called Su Shoudao again.

Su Shoudao, who was in Australia, was distracted by the phone ringing

I was so annoyed that I thought I'd just turn it off, but then I thought about it and suddenly realized: "The old man is not happy with me right now, and if I don't answer Su Shoude's phone, he'll sue me again in front of the old man, and that will be more than I can handle."

When he thought of that, he immediately pressed the answer key and asked in a cold, unkind voice, "What can I do for you?"

Su Shoudeh immediately said, "Brother! Why don't you pick up the phone when there's such a big thing going on in China!"[www.avracity.com]

Su Shou Dao didn't expect his younger brother to come up with a series of accusations against him, so he was very dissatisfied and asked: "I've been sent to Australia to escape the limelight now, do domestic matters still have anything to do with me? Shouldn't you be the ones to deal with domestic issues?"

As soon as he heard this, his face pulled down, but he didn't make any sound, instead he made a silent gesture to Su Shoude, which meant not to let Su Shou Dao, who was on the other end of the phone, know that he was also listening on the other end of the phone.

Su Shoude immediately understood and hurriedly said, "Big brother! Sister-in-law ran to Jinling, ran to Ye Changba's former home, but also in Ye Changba's former home in tears, all of which were photographed by the paparazzi, exposed! And sister-in-law she also signed up for next Monday's judicial auction to buy Ye Changba's former home! Our Su family's face has been disgraced by this b*tch."
