

PREPARING FOR THE BLOOD MOON PART TWO

JOHNNYS POV

I was passing by the house that Paty is staying at and I saw that the balcony door of her room was open and hid in the forest near there to see if I could see her, she came near the doors and I was able to see and I saw her let her hair down from the high pony tail and as she turned I was able to see that her hair was almost down to her waist. Goddess how I wanted to run my fingers through it, feel her body under mine ones again while making her mine over and over again. Just then I heard some kind of chains and it caught my attention so I kept listening and then I heard another set of chains, I staid there and when I heard her turn on the shower I climbed up to her balcony and entered her room and try to find out what were the chains I heard and as I got near her bed I started to smell silver in two bags that were on her bed before I knew it she came out of the bathroom but I couldn't take my eyes off of the bags that were on her bed.

"What is in those bags and why do they smell like silver" I asked

"Johnny what are you doing here" she asked

"Don't change the conversation Paty" I said

"They are silver chains and shackles" she said

"And why do you have them on your bed" I asked

"I got my reasons" she said

"And they are" I asked

"What I do with them is not of your concern, now tell me what are you doing here" she asked

"I wanted to talk with you and get you to please give me one more chance, let me prove to you that I can be the mate that you deserve" I said

She didn't answer me but she walked to the bags and then dropped them by the closet door before walking to her vanity and started to brush her hair, I walked up to her not being able to control myself having her so near as I got closer to her I would be able to touch her. Once I was close to her I placed my head on the crook of her neck placing my nose on her neck smelling her scent, I placed my hands on her shoulders and felt her hold a moan in which made me smile before I started to smell her arousal, I released a growl before moving my hand down her arm, across her stomach and down the her core lling how wet she was I started to rub her clit making her head fall back on my shoulder and releasing a loud moan that made me harder than I have ever been before but just as I was about to push my nger into her hot core the door swung open and we froze in the position we were.

"Sorry didn't know you were busy I will come back later" Allison said

"Don't worry we were just talking, what do you need Allison" Paty asked

"Its about the blood moon this weekend but we can talk later, sorry for interupting" Allison said

When Allison left I still had my hand in her shorts waiting to make sure Allison had really left, once I was sure she was gone I picked up Paty and carried her bridal style to the bed placing her on the middle of the bed before she stopped me and got off the bed. I looked at her as she walked to see what would happen but the only thing she did was go to the bathroom and locked the door so I wouldn't be able to go in, I knocked on the door and asked her to open up but she would not even make a sound. I sat on the bed and waited until she came out and headed towards me before heading out of the room and into the ooe where Zack and Maggie where already waiting for her, when they didn't say anything which I was okay with we all sat down and waited until the door opened to reveal my parents and Lucifer.
