

THE RESCUE PART TWO

PATTYS POV

All through out the night I have been getting small sharp pains on my lower abdomen and I am starting to think that I will be going into labor soon which I hoped it wouldn't happened until I got out of this place but the moon goddess has different plans for me on this day, I kept my hopes up that someone would come and get me out of here soon and before I go into full labor. Lily has been trying to get ahold of Cesar but so far nothing although she hasn't given up which I am glad she hasn't given up on letting him know that we need them, both Lily and I have agreed that if Johnny comes and gets us out of here we would give him another chance but when I started to think about being with him my thoughts were cut off by a lot of commotion outside of the room where I was being kept.

"Lily what is going on" I asked

"Don't know Pat, im asking myself the same question" she said

"What do you think is going on, do you smell something familiar" I asked

"Nothing all I get when trying to link with Cesar is complete silence" she said

Just then another sharp pain hits me while I start to hear people running and a lot of yelling before the door swings open and Sebastian comes in with a silver knife in his hand, as I am looking at him he closes the door and locks it then proceeds to walk towards me as I place my hands over my baby bump trying to protect my pup the best I can.

"Well seems like we have company and they are heading this way" he said

"What do you mean" I asked

"Don't you hear him, he is really mad I took you away from him" he said

"Who are you talking about" I asked just then another sharp pain hits me and I tighten my grip around my stomach breathing through the contraction

"Well well well this just got more interesting, it seems like you are in labor my dear girl" he says

"Stay away from me" I growl at him

"You are in no position to tell me what to do" he says as he walks and gets behind me as another contraction hits me

"Don't touch me" I say

Just as the door of the room is thrown to the ground lifting up the dust from the door, when the dust settles down we are able to see Johnny standing in the door frame and as his eyes land on me another sharp pain hits me. As the contraction starts to pass I look up to see my boys, Jack, Jefferey, my father and Johnnys father standing next to him.

"Sebastian let my daughter go" my father says

"Now why should I do that Lucifer, we had a deal and I am here to take what is due to me" Sebastian says

"And what is that" Johnny asked

"The first born of his daughter" Sebastian said

"Well you must be looking for either one of us then" Alex says

"No" I yell at the same time grabbing my stomach as another contraction hits me

"Patty" Johnny calls for me

"Well alpha you seem to arrive just in time to probably see your pup be born or to see your mate and the pup die and this time for real" Sebastian said

"Get away from our mother" Axel says

"No cant do, if I walk away from here the alpha charges and I am dead" Sebastian says

He takes the silver knife that he was hiding behind his back and places it on my throat, I hiss as the silver starts to burn it and making a small cut as well. I try to get away from the knife to no avail, the only thing I do succeed to do is get Sebastian to place the knife even more on to my throat. I look down as I feel something running down my leg and then a sharp pain comes right after, I close my eyes and plead the moon goddess to let me get out of here and have my pup somewhere more clean than this room.

"Well seems the pups arrival will be soon" Sebastian says laughing

"Get away from her, its the last time we are telling you" Alex says

"I am not afraid of you young wolf" Sebastian says

"Well you should" he says

"Oh yeah and why is that" Sebastian asked

Before anyone can comprehend what is going on he looks at me and smiles, I look at him and nod giving him permission to use his power to make the knife that Sebastian had in his hand to fly towards the opposite wall allowing Johnny to get to me and place me in his arms. I lay my head on his chest and take a hand full of his shirt as another contraction hits me, I then feel another person next to me and when they reach for my swollen stomach I react by growling. Johnny picks me bridal style and starts to walk us out of this place as another contraction hits me and I clinch onto his shirt once again, he places me in the back seat of the car and moves out of the way and the doctor that we had brought was in front of me checking my vitals and checking how far I was to having my pup.
