

THE BIRTH

JOHNNYS POV

"We have to get her to the pack house fast or this pup will be born here she is almost completely ready to start pushing" the doctor says

"I will drive" Alex says

"Fine but we need to get her their fast" Axel says

"Good thing mom taught us how to race" Alex said

"You did what" I asked Patty

"Don't ask" she says

I don't know how fast Alex was driving but we were able to make it to the pack hospital before any body else and they were running in their wolf form, once at the hospital Patty was placed on a bed and taken to a room with me right by her side holding her hand. The doctor came in with an ultrasound machine and got on the opposite side of me and turned on the machine, I looked at him trying to gure out what he was going to do.

"Don't worry alpha im just going to see how many pups we are needing to get ready for" he said

"How are you feeling Patty" he added

"In a lot of pain" she said

"Okay well we need to get ready to receive three pups" he said

"Three" we both say

"Yes and for what I can see they are all healthy and ready to meet you both" he said

Before anybody could say anything Patty lets out a loud whimper and the doctor starts to check her before running out and coming in with three nurses, as I try to help her breath through the contraction the doctor and the nurses start to get everything ready for the arrival of out pup.

"When you feel another contraction I need you to start pushing Patty" he says

As another contraction Patty grabs my hand tighter and starts to push our rst pup out, she relaxes her grip on my hand before taking another breath while squeezing my hand and starts to push once more before long we heard the cries of our pup.

"Its a girl" the doctor said

He allowed me to cut the cord before passing our pup to a nurse then he turned to Patty as another contraction hits her and she starts to push once more, after pushing for a few more times the room was lled with the cries of our second pup.

"Another girl" the doctor says

I cut the cord and she was passed to the next nurse as another contraction hits Patty and she starts to push, after a few more pushes one last cry is heard in the room.

"Another girl" the doctor says

When I turn to look at Patty she had her eyes close and I started to panic, I try to get her to open her eyes but she wouldn't do it.

"Don't worry alpha she is just sleeping giving birth to three pups plus everything she has gone through has taken a toll on her" the doctor said

"How are our pups doing" I asked

"They are very healthy alpha, would you like to hold them" one nurse asked

"Yes, of course" I said

I sat down on the lazy boy that was in the room and they place all three of our girls in my arms and lap, as I was looking at them the doctor and nurses left the room leaving me alone in the room with Patty and our girls. I was looking at my girls when I heard a light knock on the door and before I was able to say anything the door opens slowly to reveal Alex, Axel, Maggie and Jack as well as Jefferey and my parents.

"Three pups" mom asked

"Yes, three healthy baby girls" I said with a big smile on my face

"Girls" Alex and Axel said at the same time

"That's right" I said

"How is mom doing" Maggie asked

"She is tried out the doctor said that it was due to giving birth to three pups and everything she went through but she will be ne" I said

"What are their names" Jack asked

"Don't know yet, im waiting for Patty to wake up so we can name them together" I said

A nurse came in with three bottles and tells us its time to feed the pups, mom and Maggie grab one of the pups each from me and all three of us start to feed the girls. As we are burping them the council walks in to the room and looks at us and then at Patty, they then walk us to Maggie, mom and me and look at the girls.

"Congratulations on the new arrivals alpha" one of the council man said

"Thankyou council, what can I do for you" I asked

"Well we have come to the decision that the two packs need to become one, both you and Patty belong together and no matter what Patty does to keep away from you we all know she still loves you" he said

"Does mom know about the decision you all had made" Alex asked

"Yes we were suppose to tell you all the day she was kidnapped" he said
