RECAP

A nurse came in with three bottles and tells us its time to feed the pups, mom and Maggie grab one of the pups each from me and all three of us start to feed the girls. As we are burping them the council walks in to the room and looks at us and then at Patty, they then walk us to Maggie, mom and me and look at the girls.

"Congratulations on the new arrivals alpha" one of the council man said

"Thankyou council, what can I do for you" I asked

"Well we have come to the decision that the two packs need to become one, both you and Patty belong together and no matter what Patty does to keep away from you we all know she still loves you" he said

"Does mom know about the decision you all had made" Alex asked

"Yes we were suppose to tell you all the day she was kidnapped" he said

PATTYS POV

I wake up to people talking around me and some what in pain but not so much, I try to move but I am stopped right away by strong arms holding me down.

"Don't try and get up sweetie your still weak from everything you went through" my dad says

"Can you open your eyes for us" some one says

As I open my eyes I am hit with bright lights and force my eyes to shut right away, I place my hands over my face and try to blink the bright spots in my vision away.

"Okay try to open your eyes again we dimmed the lights down" my dad says

I open my eyes to see my dad in front of me and then my kids, as I turn to see who all is in the room I remember giving birth to my pups.

"My pups where are my pups" I say

"Calm down they are right here" Johnny says as he, Maggie and his mom bring my pups to me and place them on my arms and lap

"They are so beautiful" I say

"Just like their mother" Johnny says

"What are you going to name them" dad asked

"Hope, Faith and Joy" I say

"Why did you pick those names" Alex asked

RECOVERY PART ONE

"Because I had hope that we would get out of that place, faith that you would all find us and joy because I am finally with my loved ones" I say

"Well it suites them very well" Johnny says

I look at him and then I remember him being with me since the moment they found us to the moment when I gave birth and till this moment he is still here by my side agreeing to the names I have chosen for our girls, I give him a smile that reaches my ears and at that moment I realize that I don't want to be anywhere away from him.

"Well we should be going and let you and these beauties rest" dad says

"Thanx dad" I say

When every one leaves the room I am left with Johnny and our girls, I keep looking at them not wanting to take my eyes off of them for one instant until Johnny starts talking.

"How are you feeling" he asked

"A little sore but im okay, it was for a very wonderful thing" I said

"Yeah they are so perfect, thankyou for letting me be by your side during their birth" he said

"You are their father and it wouldn't be right to not let you be here after you weren't their when Alex and Axel were born" I said

RECOVERY PART ONE

"What will be their full name" he asked

"The same as Alex and Axel" I said

"And that would be" he asked

"Hope, Faith and Joy Depp Lopez" I said

"Really after everything I did to you, you still gave them my last name" he asked

"They had to have something from you" I said

"Well Hope, Faith and Joy Depp Lopez welcome to the family" he says

I slide to one end of the bed and pat the empty space next to me so he would get next to me, he picks up Joy and sits down next to me and I lay my head on his shoulder and he places his head on top of mine. We stay like that looking at our girls until I fall asleep with my head on his shoulder, feeling safe and secure with him next to me was the only thing I care about at this moment. I knew that he wouldn't let anything happen to me or the girls while we were asleep, the girls woke up just ones during the night to feed and then fell back asleep as well as me.

The next morning I woke up with the sounds of a camera going off, as I open my eyes I see Maggie with her phone pointed towards us on the bed.

"What it was a picture perfect moment" she says

"What was a picture perfect moment" Johnny asked

"You two sleeping with the triplets" she says

"It sure was but there are four people missing in the picture" my dad says

"Who" Maggie asked

"You, Alex, Axel and Jack, go next to them and I will take the picture of the whole family" my dad says

Maggie gives him her phone and my dad waits until we are all together as Alex and Axel get on Johnnys side of the bed while Jack and Maggie get on my side of the bed before he takes the picture, he then gives Maggie the phone back and she walks over to us and shows us the picture. I look over at Johnny and he is smiling at me and without thinking I place my lips to his and kiss him, it takes him a few seconds but he starts to kiss me back before we hear one person giggling and four people clearing their throats which makes us pull away.
