

RECOVERY PART TWO

JOHNNYS POV

When Maggie gives Lucifer the phone he waits until we are all together to be able and take the picture, Alex and Axel on my side of the bed and Maggie and Jack on Pattys side. Once he took the picture he gives the phone back to Maggie and she walks back to us and shows us the picture, I turn to look at Patty with a big smile on my face and out of no where she places her lips on mine it took me a while but I start to kiss her back before we hear people giggling and four other clearing their throats making us pull away.

I couldn't believe that Patty had kissed me out of the blue with out any reason, just kissed me allowing me to feel her soft lips once again after so many years. We started to hear people giggling and then someone clear their throat making us pull apart which made me give a low growl, the girls wiggled in our arms which earned me an evil glare from Patty. We rocked the girls until they settled down and Maggie helped me put the girls in their cribs before I sat down next to Patty and brought her close to me allowing her to place her head on my chest, while I rapped my arms around her body feeling her warmth close to me.

"Wait we are missing Mark and Jr in the picture"

Patty says

"We can always take another one later today" I say

"So what are you going to do now" Lucifer asked

"Well we will have to talk about that" I said as I looked at Patty

"Mom Mark and Jr want to come and meet the girls" Alex said

"When could we bring them here so they can meet the girls" Axel asked

"When ever you guys can bring them here would be okay" Patty says

"Johnny what are your plans now that you have Patty, the boys and the girls with you" Lucifer asked

"Well now that I have my family back I am going to do everything in my power to prove that I love them and don't want to lose them again" I said

"Well you will have to work hard although I think you have already won Patty over" Lucifer said

"What are you talking about papa" Patty asked

"I mean that after the kiss that you both shared it means that you are starting to give yourselves a second chance" Lucifer said

I looked at Patty to see her looking at me with those beautiful eyes of hers, I brought my hand up to her cheek and felt her lean her face on to my hand. I leaned in and placed a soft kiss on her forehead making her smile, I couldn't believe I had her in my arms after so many years and going through all that she went through these past few months only for us to be able and find her when she had gone into labor with our beautiful girls. Before long mom and dad come in to the room and right away ask for our pup and we have to correct them and tell them that we had three beautiful baby girls, they seemed shocked until Hope starts to stir awake and they turn to where they are and see our three little angels. Mom gets Hope and starts to rock her to calm her down before she wake up her sisters, dad moves to the cribs and looks down at our girls still asleep.

"I will get everything you will need for the girls to your room" dad said

"No not to my room" Patty says

"Then where do you want them to be put then" dad asked

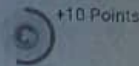

"To Johnnys room if that is okay with him" Patty says

"Are you sure you want to stay in my room" I asked

"Yes, if that is okay I mean" Patty says

"Yes that is fine I will move to the room next to it so incase you need help I will be close by" I said

"No Johnny I don't mean that you need to move out of your room" she said

"Than what are you saying" I asked

"She is saying that she wants you to share your room with her and the triplets dummy" Allison said

I look at Patty and I see her smile at me and then looked down, I place my index finger underneath her chin and lift her head up so she is looking at me. Once she is looking at me I move my hand to her cheek and lean in to her placing my lips on her giving a kiss, as she responds we hear several cameras going off but we don't pay any attention as we enjoy our kiss until the girls start to cry and at that moment we pull away and I walk to my girls and pick them up walking them back to Patty so she could feed them while mom gave a bottle to Hope. Mom and Allison loved the names Patty chose for the triplets, they said it made so very proper for everything we have gone through, Alex and Axel went to get Mark and Jr so we could take a family picture with them in it but while they came, I was thinking about asking them and Maggie if they wanted me to be their father that way they wouldn't feel bad that the triplets, Alex and Axel had one and they didn't but then I thought that it would be best if I talked to Patty first before doing anything I didn't want to do something without talking to her first and screw up the chance that she has given me.
