Chapter 375

Chapter 375 Didn't Want to Interrupt

Meanwhile, Jenny had gotten right into her scheduled surgeries after reaching the hospital, not getting a moment's rest. When she didn't see any text messages from Alec afterward, she couldn't stop the disappointment from rising in her chest.

Jenny then called her boyfriend. After all, it wouldn't do well for this relationship to be one-sided.

*Jenny? Finished all your work?"

"Mhm. Have you? I thought we could grab dinner together."

Alec hesitated for a moment before answering, "No, I still have some things to work on here. Might have to go overtime."

"I can send you dinner then?" Jenny asked.

Alec blinked, pleasantly surprised. Jenny had never wanted to go to his workplace before. "Sure."

"What're you in the mood for?"

Alec wasn't a picky eater, so he just said he was fine with whatever Jenny got him.

After hanging up, Jenny went to get some takeout before heading to Faust Group HQ.

Vincent was already waiting for her when she reached. He couldn't exactly disobey his boss' instructions. Mr. Faust had been concerned the front desk would give Jenny a hard time as it was her first time there.

"Miss Walter," Vincent greeted. Jenny nodded in greeting.

Before they headed for the elevator, however, Vincent led Jenny to the front desk. "This is Miss Walter. From now on, let her through if she's here to see Mr. Faust, understand?" He had to make an effort to ensure the front desk knew Jenny, lest they upset Mr. Faust if they stopped her.

The receptionists nodded in understanding. Only then did they go into the elevator.

"Who's that? What do you think her relationship with Mr. Faust is?" one of the receptionists whispered to her colleagues.

"You don't know? She's Mr. Faust's ex-wife."

"Ex-wife? What's she still doing here, then?" To them, divorcees shouldn't be involved with one another anymore. That's why Jenny coming to meet Alec was strange. Still, they didn't figure anything out in the end. Only one thing was clear: they couldn't offend Jenny Walter in any way.

Vincent knocked on Alec's office door before letting Jenny go in. Alec was reading his documents when she stepped in, seemingly not noticing her arrival.

"So handsome," Jenny sighed internally as she gazed at him. She didn't usually see him so focused on work.

"Is she here yet?" Alec asked. He seemed to think Jenny was Vincent.

Jenny stayed silent, waiting for the man to look up at her after several seconds.

When their eyes met, Alec grinned. "Hi. How long have you been standing there?"

"Not too long. I didn't want to interrupt your work." Jenny beamed and sat on the lounge, arranging the takeout on the coffee table.

Alec sat beside her, documents in hand. "You wouldn't be interrupting at all. I'm happy you're here."

"Really? I thought you only cared about work," Jenny teased, giving him a fork.
