Chapter 385

Chapter 385 What's Their Relationship?

The police came, and the customers soon left. Yvonne didn't understand how Jenny looked so confident. Did she have evidence?

She cautiously went up to Jenny. "Do you have proof that you didn't copy our work?"

"Don't you worry. I'll be handing all our proof to the police. You just worry about whether you missed something. Or your reputation will be ruined once the truth comes out." Jenny grinned.

Yvonne was shocked by her confidence but quickly recomposed herself. "Hmph! We'll see just what you can come up with!" Before she left the premises, she turned around to upset Jenny even further. "Alec hasn't been coming to you recently, has he?"

Jenny frowned but ignored her.

"Don't you wanna know what he's been up to?" Yvonne grinned. "Because I know exactly what's going on with him."

"Nope. We're alright. Thank you for your concern." Jenny turned to leave.

"Really? Then why does it seem like you don't know anything that's going on?" If only Jenny knew about Mortimer Faust, she wouldn't be so confident. "Did you go to his study, by the way? Seen the picture he hides there? She looks like you, doesn't she?" Yvonne called after Jenny was a distance away from her.

Jenny came to a stop, then turned to Yvonne. "Who is she?"

She couldn't ask Alec, nor had she found any answers online. Yvonne was her only lead. Of course, she wouldn't wholeheartedly believe in Yvonne. She only needed a name to investigate that mystery woman.

Yvonne looked annoyingly happy with herself. "Looks like you did see the picture."

"What's her relationship with Alec?" Jenny asked. Unease churned in her chest the more delighted Yvonne looked.

"You'd never imagine a man like Alec would get rejected by a woman, would you?" Yvonne said after a pause.

"Rejected?" Jenny thought, eyebrows knitting together.

Yvonne was in a terribly good mood now, eager to make Jenny as upset as possible. "You don't need to worry too much, honestly. It's not like they were dating."

Her "consolation" didn't help. "What are you saying?"

"I'm saying, as much as Alec did like her back then, they never dated." Yvonne knew a lot more about the man than Jenny did, after all.

"Alec liked her?" The thought made Jenny's heart plunge.

It pleased Yvonne to no end. "The woman rejected Alec when he confessed his love to her. He's never let go of her since. Now he's dating you in memory of her-you're her substitute, Jenny. He's such a jerk, isn't he?" Yvonne nearly floated three inches off the floor with delight.

As aware of Yvonne's ill intent as Jenny was, all this news still upset her.

Was this all true? She bit her lip, doubt now firmly planted in her heart.

Yvonne didn't seem to be lying, given how happy she was telling Jenny all this.
