Chapter 396

Chapter 396 I'll Kill You!

How did Yvonne have time to disregard her own problem? Wasn't Simone halfway through taking over her in-law's inheritance?

Jenny stepped past her and took out her keys, ignoring Yvonne.

"You two broke up because you asked about that woman, didn't you?" Yvonne chattered like a magpie. Jenny said nothing, which she took as assent. "How silly of you, Jenny. Don't you know Alec will only get upset by those questions? No wonder he wanted to break up with you." She truly felt like she had finally won.

Irritated, Jenny glared at her. "Why don't you spend the time tittering about whether we broke up worrying about what to do once Simone becomes heir to the Blooms instead."

Yvonne paled almost instantly. "Even if she does, Sam still has shares in the company, so I don't have to worry about being in poverty," she gritted out.

Jenny smiled. "I see. So not being poor is your goal. Then why pursue the inheritance? Haven't you been spoiled your entire life as Ms. Dickman?"

If Yvonne hadn't schemed against Alec and herself and had things come to this, she would still have been the proud daughter of the Dickman family.

Those words stabbed into Yvonne's heart like needles. She glared at Jenny, aching to rip her face. to shreds. "Yes, it's all my fault."

"If it weren't for you, I would've married Alec, and my life wouldn't have come to this," Yvonne thought furiously.

"See? So, it's best you just give up now and go back to your own spoiled life, or I can't guarantee what'll happen to you."

"Are you threatening me?" Yvonne growled.

Jenny shrugged. "Yeah. So? I do have control over what happens to you, you know? I am working with Simone right now."

"Jenny Walter!" Yvonne yelled and was about to lunge at her when Jenny waved a fist in the air, making her stop. She couldn't defeat Jenny when it came to combat, that she knew.

"Leave. You disgust and annoy me," Jenny said, then went into her apartment, closing the door shut.

Outside, Yvonne cried to herself, "You fucking bitch! I'm gonna kill you! I swear to God!"

Jenny was truly unfazed. Yvonne was just another road bump in her life-not worth any lingering thought. She showered and finally got into bed, relaxing under the sheets.

Her thoughts suddenly wandered to Alec.

"Wonder what he's up to now..." Jenny immediately jolted up. She patted her cheek, reminding herself, "We're not together anymore, Jenny. Wake up."

She forced herself to not think of Alec, trying to go to sleep, but it was easier said than done.

Just then, her phone rang. It was an international call.

With a sudden realization, Jenny picked it up. "Is that you, Gilbert?"
