Chapter 413

Chapter 413 Why Would I?

When Jenny arrived at Paul's villa, she saw Stephanie waiting at the door and was relieved to see her standing upright.

She approached Stephanie and asked warily, "Where's Paul?"

Stephanie glanced toward the villa, indicating someone was inside. When Jenny pulled her to her car, Stephanie said, "It's fine, Jenny. This is my business."

"It's my business too, Steph. Am I not your friend?"

Stephanie smiled wryly. Because Jenny was her friend, she didn't want to trouble her with her own problems.

However, Jenny pressed on. "No matter how powerful he is, he's not omnipotent, trust me. Let's go. If anything goes wrong, I'll take care of it for you."

She pulled Stephanie toward the car, but Stephanie resisted, saying, "Jenny, my family can't beat him. It's an undeniable fact."

Jenny disagreed with her. "Even if your family can't, my brothers and I are still here for you. I don't believe that we can't do anything about him." Jenny knew that Paul was a force to be reckoned with, a capable man in his own right.

Stephanie understood that Jenny had her best interests at heart, but the more Jenny insisted on helping, the more Stephanie didn't want to involve her. After spending so much time with Paul, she realized how unpredictable and dangerous he was, and she couldn't risk Jenny getting hurt.

Stephanie pulled Jenny aside and said earnestly, "Actually, I've been thinking...maybe Paul isn't that bad. He doesn't have a girlfriend now, and I still have a chance with him."

Jenny's response was harsh. "Stephanie, do you think of yourself as his lapdog? Paul is an asshole, don't waste your time with him."

Stephanie's face turned pale, and she looked pained.

Jenny continued, "Think about it; if your family finds out, would they agree? They care about you and wouldn't want you to suffer like this. Your parents would rather lose their business than have this happen to you."

Jenny knew just how much Stephanie's parents doted on her. If they knew how many wrongs Paul had done against her, they might even murder him.

Stephanie knew Jenny was right, but she couldn't give up on her family.

Jenny sighed and asked, "If I can resolve the issues your family is facing, will you leave him?"

"If it wasn't for my family, why would I put myself in this situation?" Stephanie asked, finally admitting it to Jenny.

Jenny nodded in understanding. "I'll figure out a way to help you. In the meantime, protect yourself, and don't let that bastard bully you."

Stephanie was worried. "What are you planning to do? Go head-to-head with Paul?"

Knowing about Jenny and Alec's breakup, Stephanie felt it would be difficult for Jenny to handle the situation alone. She was afraid that Jenny might put herself in danger without Alec's help.
