Chapter 421

Chapter 421 You Really Came In

Natalia was a little embarrassed. She could feel Jenny’s hostility, but she understood. After all, she was still Alec’s girlfriend in name.

“I just came to see you,” Natalia said with a dry smile. She didn’t know why she was there; the whole situation felt absurd.

Annoyed, Jenny walked over to open the door. Looking back at Natalia, she said, “Come in and talk.”

Although she didn’t like Natalia much, she hadn’t done anything to her. Besides, it wasn’t nice to make her talk to her at the door.

Natalia didn’t refuse and followed Jenny into the house. Seeing Natalia enter, Jenny tried to intimidate her by saying, “You really came in. Aren’t you afraid that I’ll hurt you?”

Natalia was stunned. She hadn’t thought about that. Both Jenny and she were girls; she assumed that Jenny wouldn’t be a threat.

Seeing how unassuming she was, Jenny wondered what Alec liked about her. Was it her identity or status? Jenny pitied Natalia a little. She walked over and poured Natalia a glass of water.

“Sit,” she said.

Natalia took the water and sat on the sofa but didn’t drink it. Jenny didn’t try to persuade her to drink. It was too late for Natalia to be wary of her now.

“Let’s talk about why you’re here. Is it because of Alec?” Jenny asked, wondering if Alec had treated Natalia poorly.

Natalia didn’t know how to answer at first. Finally, she said, “I just wanted to see what the person he likes looks like.”

Jenny was speechless and thought that Natalia had misread Alec’s intentions and that she was not the person Alec liked. “You’re his girlfriend now, so why look at other girls?” Jenny asked.

Natalia smiled, feeling a little embarrassed. “Being his girlfriend doesn’t mean anything. We could break up at any time.”

Jenny agreed with Natalia. It had happened between Alec and her. She asked, “So, you had a fight with him?” She couldn’t find any other reason for Natalia’s visit.

Natalia nodded. “That’s right. He wanted to break up, but I didn’t want to, so we fought.”

Jenny was surprised that they were about to break up despite only being together two days ago. She felt angry that Alec didn’t take relationships seriously and might have deceived Natalia.

“Why did he want to break up?” she asked, sounding miffed.

*Probably because of the person he likes,” Natalia said, sneakily glancing at Jenny to gauge her reaction.

Jenny’s expression turned ugly at the thought of Quinn being the person Alec liked. She felt angry that he was hurting others, especially someone as innocent as Natalia.

“Are... are you okay?” Natalia asked softly, noticing Jenny’s distress.

“I’m fine.” Jenny shook her head, trying to calm down. “Since he wants to break up, why don’t you just go along with it? Don’t waste your time with that bastard. There are many good men in this world. It’s a waste of time to hang on to him.”
