

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1020

"Instructor Ji Sha, do you have any ready-made ones in your storage ring? Give me a few to satisfy my craving first!" Yun Chujiu said slyly.

This was the first time Ji Sha had been a responsible instructor. He never expected to meet such a weird student. The corner of his mouth twitched and he passed three roast chickens to Yun Chujiu. "I don't have much left. I'll let you try these last three first!"

Yun Chujiu did not bother with manners. She directly broke off a chicken leg and ate it. It was as delicious as she had imagined, she said as she ate, "Only roasted chicken is too boring. instructor Ji, ask Old Ding to get me something else. If you're tired of eating roasted chicken, you can change the taste. Eat something light, such as pork trotters and knuckles."

Ji Sha's eyes twitched, 'Pork trotters and pork knuckles were light?! Are you kidding me?!'

After the Huang class students listened to the other three instructors' explanations, they returned to see their sloppy instructor and Yun Chujiu holding a roast chicken leg in each hand and chatting happily!

Seeing that the students had returned, Ji Sha said lazily, "From now on, she will be your class monitor. Oh right, little girl, What's your name?"

"Instructor Ji, My name is Yun Chujiu."

"Mmm, Yun Chujiu will be the class monitor of the Huang class from now on. If you have any problems, just look for her! Now, go back to your dormitories and get some rest. Tomorrow, we will attend the opening ceremony at Tianyuan Square. You are not allowed to be late. Dismissed!" said Ji Sha as he left after dismissing everyone.

The students of the Huang class looked at Ji Sha's back with a dumbfounded expression. Then, they looked at the three instructors who were still reminding the students about some details. They felt that their future student lives were bleak.

"What are you all thinking about? All of you, be more energetic! What's wrong with the Huang Class? Do you know what the color yellow represents in the secular world? It represents the supreme imperial power! Therefore, there is nothing to be dejected about being assigned to the Huang Class. Believe me, with me as the class monitor, I will definitely be able to lead you from one glorious victory to another," Yun Chujiu said loudly as she jumped on top of a rock.

"Class monitor, although what you said is quite exciting, but as you can see, our treatment can not be compared to those three classes. The instructor is so random and lives in such a remote place. How can we compare to them?"

"The instructors are so random? How is our instructor so random? I feel that our instructor choosing me to be the class monitor is the most typical thing one can do. This is called delegation of authority. This shows that our instructor is open-minded, knows people well, and has wisdom!"

The corners of everyone's eyes twitched.

'F*ck, are you praising instructor Ji or yourself?!

Yun Chujiu glanced at everyone, then, she said, "Also, what's wrong with our dormitory location? Are we cultivators afraid of such a tiny bit of difficulty? Spiritual power needs to be cultivated, and so do movement techniques. The academy has provided us with the opportunity to train our movement techniques for free. What else do you have to complain about?!

Most importantly, the path of cultivation is fraught with difficulties and dangers. How could a mere division of classes defeat you?! Is your ability to withstand blows is so weak?!

Where there's a will, there's a way. If we can pass the one-in-ten-thousand test to enter the Tianyuan Academy, it means that our aptitude and talent are first-class. Suffering will only increase our chances of success, only by constantly challenging ourselves will we reach new heights. Tell me loudly, do you have the confidence?"

"Yes!"

"Yes!"

"Yes!"

"The class monitor is right, what is this little bit of difficulty?! We will be able to turn the tables!"

"That's right! So what if we are from the Huang Class? Isn't it just living further away?! Let's just treat it as training for our movement techniques!"

"As long as we work hard, there will be no difficulties that can defeat us!"

Yun Chujiu looked at everyone with satisfaction as they transformed from defeated kittens into lions that went on the offensive. Then, she jumped down from the rock and waved her hands. "Let's go! Follow your class monitor to the dormitory!"

The other three students and instructors were dumbfounded as they watched the students of the Huang class leave in high spirits.

A thought flashed through the minds of the three instructors at the same time. 'F*ck! If they knew that Yun Chujui was such a smooth talker, they would get her into our class no matter what.. With such a class monitor, we would be able to save ourselves a lot of trouble!'
