

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1052

An Feng handed two things to Yun Chujiu and asked curiously, "Miss Jiu, what do you want this recording stone and irritant powder for?"

"Instructor Zhou, who is our spiritual power instructor, is obviously teaching us badly on purpose. I have to seize strong evidence to expose him away and change him to a responsible and competent instructor." Yun Chujiu's eyes flashed with a trace of sternness, 'If you dare to fool me, I will make you suffer the consequences!'

An Feng lit a candle in his heart for Instructor Zhou. This Miss Jiu of theirs can never be fooled. 'You actually dared to play tricks in front of her. You are simply courting death.'

Yun Chujiu asked An Feng some more questions before she activated the isolation array and began to refine some pills.

Although An Feng had already witnessed Yun Chujiu's abnormal pill refinement methods, he still felt a shock in his heart when he saw it again, 'Damn, Miss Jiu was truly abnormal. She made pill refinement seem like a children's game!'

The main reason was that the pills that she refined were all super-grade pills, and the success rate was 100%. It was really scary!

Yun Chujiu stayed in her room to refine pills for two days and two nights. Then, she handed a few large basins of pills to An Feng and asked him to pass them to Yu Hai of the Thunder sect.

Shopkeeper Qi paced around outside a few times. He was puzzled. What was this Miss Jiu and An Feng doing in the room? Why did they activate the isolation array? Was it to guard against him?

Finally, upon seeing Yun Chujiu come out of the room, Shopkeeper Qi pretended to have just arrived and asked, "Miss Jiu, do you have any orders for me?"

Yun Chujiu glanced at the messy footprints on the ground and said with a smile, "Shopkeeper Qi, you are really thoughtful. You don't have to stand guard for me next time."

Shopkeeper Qi's old face turned red, but he was old and cunning. He laughed and said, "Miss Jiu, I haven't seen you for a long time. I'm anxious to ask if you need any help. Did everything go smoothly in Tianyuan Academy?"

"Not bad. I just accidentally made some noise," Yun Chujiu said and left with a yawn.

Shopkeeper Qi looked at Yun Chujiu's back and asked An Feng, "Commander An Feng, what noise did Miss Jiu make?"

An Feng's eyes twitched. "Well, Miss Jiu led the students of the Huang class to beat up dozens of people from the second grade Tian Class! Then she ran to the gate of the disciplinary department to attempt to hang herself!"

Shopkeeper Qi staggered and almost fell to the ground. What?! How was that 'some noise'?! Miss Jiu, will you turn Tianyuan Academy upside down?!

"Commander An Feng, how did the Miss Jiu get assigned to the Huang Class with her results? Wasn't the Huang Class not set up for many years?" Shopkeeper Qi came back to his senses and said.

"I guess they found out about Miss Jiu selling jade tokens in the fourth round of the test, so she was sent to the Huang Class," An Feng guessed.

"Then how did she become the class monitor? Why did she gang up on the second-year students of the Tian Class? Why did she go to the disciplinary department to hang herself? She caused such a big fuss, but nothing happened? Didn't they say that Tianyuan Academy has strict rules?" Shopkeeper Qi was full of questions! Looking at Miss Jiu's appearance, she seemed like she had not received any punishments at all. How was that possible?!

An Feng rambled on about what Yun Chujiu had told him earlier. Yun Chujiu was such a freak. While refining pills, she told An Feng about what had happened recently.

Shopkeeper Qi was stunned when he heard everything. His mouth did not close for a long time. Oh god, this Miss Jiu was too much of a devil! She had almost messed up half of Tianyuan Academy!

What was even worse was that she was only punished to clean the Beast House for a month after causing such a huge commotion? How on earth did she do that? When did Tianyuan Academy become so lenient?
