

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 112

Yun Chuwu was the softest. When she saw the little beggar called Qing Si crying until she was out of breath, she took out a handkerchief and handed it to her. "Don't cry anymore. Wipe your tears!"

Qing si took the handkerchief and wiped it randomly. Then, she said stubbornly, "Who said that girls are definitely not as good as boys? I, Qing Si, want to prove that I am a hundred times better than those useless people in my family!"

"You are ambitious. Let me introduce you to the members of our group. This is my fourth brother, Yun Chusi, and this is my beloved fifth sister, Yun Chuwu..." Yun Chujiu introduced the members of the Yun family to Qing si.

"By the way, Qing Si, how old are you?"

"Fifteen."

Yun chujiu squatted on the ground and clapped her hands. "Haha, this is great. I am still the youngest. In the future, there will be one more person to bully!"

Qing si..

Can I go back on my word?

Why does it feel like I'm on a pirate ship? !

Yun chusi coughed dryly. "Well, now that we're all here, shouldn't we think of a name? Otherwise, how would we announce our name to the public?"

Yun chujiu rolled her eyes. “Why don’t we call it ‘straight up Qing Yun’ ! Coincidentally, our surname also has Qing Si’s Qing character. Aiyo, I’m so talented! ”

Everyone thought that this name was not bad. Not only did it contain the ‘Yun’ character and the ‘Qing’ character, but it also had a good meaning. They all praised Yun Chujiu’s name for being brilliant.

Yun chujiu naturally showed off for a while. Then, she held her stomach and led everyone to the disciple in charge of the test to register.

“Straight to the Qingyun? ” When the disciple in charge of the registration heard the name of the group that Yun Chusi mentioned, he could not help but raise his eyebrows in disdain. Just these seven people in front of him and they still wanted to go straight to the Qingyun? It was simply wishful thinking!

The other groups that were waiting for registration also laughed at him. “TSK TSK, some people are really thick-skinned! To go straight to Qingyun, I think they are really shameless! ”

“That’s right, the most powerful one is only at the fourth level of the spirit enhancement realm, and there is also a trash without spiritual power. If he can really pass the three rounds of tests, I will write his name upside down. ”

“Brother Chi, if your name is upside down, it won’t sound good! Chi Bai, idiot, Hahaha! ”

“Screw you! It’s impossible for them to pass, so of course, I don’t have to really write my name upside down. ”

Qing si’s expression was somewhat unsightly. When she was in the family, she had also been ridiculed and looked down upon like this. Could it be that she had made the wrong bet by choosing Yun Chujiu and the others?

No, it couldn't be wrong! Yun chujiu relied on her mouth to get six test qualifications. She must be hiding her abilities. She must be very powerful, so she decided to follow her!

Yun Chujiu didn't know that she had unintentionally gained a fangirl. This fellow narrowed his eyes and remembered the few people who spoke in his heart. It wasn't too late for Little Jiu to take revenge. Just you wait!

Speaking of which, it was a coincidence. She did not know whether Bai Moyu and the others had come here on purpose or not.

Yun chujiu sized up their group. Other than the Bai siblings and the embarrassed Yun Chushan, there were two men and two women. The two men were at the sixth level spirit enhancement while the two women were at the fifth level spirit enhancement.

When Yun Chuqi saw that Yun Chushan was indeed with Bai Moyu and the others, she was instantly furious. "Yun Chushan, you're really good. You were acting like a little white lotus before, but now you've revealed your true colors!"

Yun chushan snorted coldly, "I don't feel that there's anything wrong with me when I Walk Higher and lower. be more polite with your words. When I enter the Linghua sect, the Yun family and all of you will have to rely on me!"

Yun chujiu tugged at Yun Chuqi's sleeve, she said pitifully, "Third sister, we won't stop you if you walk higher, but you should never have formed a team with our Yun family's sworn enemy. Moreover, you conspired with them to drug me. It really, really makes me sad! "Fortunately, I brought some medicinal herbs. Otherwise, I would definitely be forced to withdraw from the test! "
