

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1130

In the following period of time, Yun Chujiu spent most of her time in the library, except for her regular classes. She was very good at using chicken feathers as a command arrow, and she never allowed the instructors in the library to deduct contribution points, she confidently claimed that she was here to help old man Gan Ba. Old Man Gan Ba obviously had a special status. After Yun Chujiu said this, the instructor who was guarding the library let her in. Sometimes, Yun Chujiu helped the old man copy books, sometimes she studied the ancient characters, and sometimes she read other books in the library. The old man turned a blind eye to this. As long as Yun chujiu gave him the roast chicken regularly, it would be fine. "Master, you've been going to the library so often that you don't have time to cultivate. What will happen to the mid-year competition?" "Yin Xinlian, that little B * TCH's challenge order has already come into effect. In a few months, you'll have to go to the life and death arena with her." Xiao Heiniaofelt that he had broken his heart with this troublesome master, little B * tches kept coming out and jumping around. "Sharpening the knife doesn't delay cutting the vegetables! However, what you said makes sense. It's been two months since I broke through to the third level of the Spirit sect last time. These few days, I'll work harder and try to break through again." After being struck by lightning last time., yun Chujiu had already advanced to the third level of the Spirit sect. However, this fellow was used to pretending to be a pig to eat a tiger and had not adjusted the level of her spiritual power, so others saw her as still at the first level of the spirit sect. Xiao Heiniaofelt and the other two looked at each other. Our perverted master is leveling up as if it's a game. It turns out that her leveling up is very regular. Once every two months? In the next few days, Yun Chujiu and the dry old man applied for leave and began to focus on cultivation, preparing to break through again. That afternoon, Yun chujiu came to the canteen for lunch. Before she had finished eating, she heard a few students running in from outside. "Another important figure has come to our Academy!" "Important figure? Who has come? Your Eminence and Young Master Wuji have come again?" "It's not your eminence and young master Wuji, it's the Lady of the Hall Master of the Temple of Immortals! And it's said that she has brought a lot of good things with her. She wants to reward students who are both excellent in their character and learning." "The lady of the temple master has always been generous. Every time our three pearls of the Academy attends the flower feast, she will be rewarded with a lot of good things. However, doesn't the lady of the temple master rarely leave the Temple of Immortals? Why did she come to the Tianyuan Academy this time?" "Who knows! She probably came out to relax!" "Ah! I know! Yun chujiu is the daughter of the Lady of the temple master's old friend. The Lady of the temple master must be here to see Yun Chujiu!" .. Everyone's eyes were focused on Yun chujiu. Yun Chujiu's heart skipped a beat. The old witch would not be so kind to come and see her. She must be preparing to do something again! While everyone was discussing, Yin Sulian walked in. Ever since she was rebuked by Xue Wuji, she had been quiet for a while. However, she soon showed off her power again. "Hey! Yun Chujiu, the palace mistress has asked to see you. She is waiting for you in the Hall of the Academy! Hurry up! If you are late, you will suffer the wrath of her!" Yin Sulian showed a contemptuous look. She thought that Yun Chujiu held a lot of weight in the palace mistress's heart. However, when she heard the palace mistress's contemptuous tone today, she immediately felt relieved, it seemed that the palace mistress was just pitying her. Yun chujiu glanced at her. "I know." Although Yun Chujiu said that she knew, she still ate her meal slowly and had no intention of getting up. Yin Sulian wanted to urge her, but she had an idea and left with a cold smile.
