

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1143

After more than two hours, other than two deep pits on the ground, Yun Chujiu was not only unharmed, but she had also roasted a pile of spiritual potatoes. Wu Yun in the sky was trembling with anger. This was too much! This was too much! How could such a perverted little monster appear in the Tian Yuan continent? ! Last time, they did not kill her and thought that they had underestimated their enemy. However, this time, they had already used all their strength. Why was it that they still could not kill her? ! Wu Yun was naturally unwilling to give up, and lightning struck down one after another. The three malefic stars in Yun Chujiu's body hadn't eaten their fill last time, and now they were letting out Huan'er's swallowing of the lightning spiritual force that was continuously surging into Yun Chujiu's body. The black bead was especially like a black hole that couldn't be filled, it always looked like it was starving to death. Although the lightning spiritual force was very violent, Yun Chujiu's tendons and meridians had already become very strong after several times of washing. Therefore, although these lightning strikes were fierce and earth-shattering, to Yun Chujiu., it was just a mobile power source to replenish the Lightning spiritual force. Six hours had passed, but Yun Chujiu was still unharmed. This fellow felt that roasting the spiritual potato was not difficult anymore. He took out a snow rabbit and started to roast it. He used his body to block the heat and had a great time. Wu Yun was so angry that he was about to cry! Wu Wu, the baby had never met such a pervert. He was so angry that he was going to die! Deputy Dean Yin, who was standing outside the courtyard, initially stood quite far away. However, when he saw that there was nothing much going on, and he was really curious about what was happening in the courtyard, he subconsciously got closer and closer to the courtyard. Wu Yun, who was in the sky, clearly had a good memory. Damn it, it was this person who had insisted on staying so close to the child that he owed him. He was accidentally struck by them, and in the end, they were all punished. Today, he shamelessly came forward again. This was a blatant provocation. Damn it, if we can't kill the little pervert, why can't we kill you? ! Deputy Dean Yin was stretching his neck to look into the courtyard when several bolts of heavenly lightning struck down on him! Deputy Dean Yin's mood was like that of a mad dog. was there something wrong with these heavenly lightning bolts? ! Why are they always striking him? ! ! Deputy Dean Yin had learned his lesson from last time. After using his spiritual energy barrier to block the lightning bolts, he ran all the way. In any case, these lightning bolts were coming for Yun Chujiu. As he was a little further away from the courtyard, he reckoned that they wouldn't chase after him anymore. Clearly, Deputy Dean Yin had underestimated the wrath of the lightning bolts. A piece of dark cloud chased closely behind him. It struck Deputy Dean Yin until he vomited blood and fell to the ground. Only then did it float back to the top of Dean Huangfu's courtyard. The dark clouds discussed among themselves. In any case, they wouldn't be able to kill this little pervert today. Let's call it a day! Yun chujiu saw that the dark clouds had stopped striking and looked like they were going to float away. She hurriedly shouted, "Hey, don't go. Just strike a little longer!" Wu Yun was so angry that he was trembling. This was the first time he had met someone who asked them to strike a little longer. This person wasn't even human. He was just a pervert! "I'll sing a song for you guys. It's specially written for you guys. You guys will be very touched after listening to my song. After you're done, you can stay for a while longer!" "You're the most beautiful cloud in the sky. You Asked Me to keep you with all my heart. You're the most beautiful cloud in my heart. Why didn't I let you stay..." After listening to Yun

Chujiu's song, not only did Wu Yun not stay, she ran even faster. Damn it, this little pervert must be up to no good. Why did she keep them here? Who knows, there might still be some bad tricks waiting for us. They should just run away quickly. The next mission to split her up should be up to them. They would never want to see this little pervert again..
