

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1257

Yun chujiu giggled. "Master, I can tell that you are knowledgeable. What are you best at? Teach me!" The dry old man smiled proudly. "I know a lot of things. However, I am best at the art of puppets. I was the one who refined the iron puppet during the Tian Yuan Academy's Test." "PFFT! Master, you were the one who refined that stupid puppet? I wanted to learn a few moves from you, but it seems that I should just forget about it now." Yun chujiu curled her lips and said. The old man was furious. "What do you mean by stupid? The iron puppets that I refined are very powerful. How are they stupid?" "Cheh!" You still don't admit it? The refined iron puppet you refined has a fatal flaw. It only attacks those who have spirit energy fluctuations. If those who don't have spirit energy fluctuations approach it, it won't react at all. However, master, I still have to thank you. If it weren't for that trash puppet you refined, I wouldn't have been able to earn a few million high-grade spirit stones. Hahaha." The dry old man was stunned! Without a doubt, he had never considered such a problem before, however, he defended himself, "HMPH! What you said makes sense, but how can there not be people with spiritual power in the Tian Yuan continent? So, this isn't a problem..." Before the dry old man could finish his words, he saw that there was no spiritual power fluctuation on Yun Chujiu's body. He stammered, "You, you, how can this be?" "Don't be surprised, right?" "That's why I said that your broken thing isn't good enough!" "Moreover, each of them is extremely stupid. They don't even have their own judgment. I reckon that they can't even distinguish between friends and enemies. If I were to create a puppet, I would create a clever one. Not only would I be able to distinguish between friends and enemies, but I would also be able to find the weakness of the enemy's puppet. At that time, whoever dares to provoke me, I will let the puppet army kill them!" Yun Chujiu said smugly. The dried-up old man laughed so hard that he fell back and forth, he almost cried from laughing. "Little girl, aren't you afraid that the wind will hurt your tongue? If you have your own judgment, how can you still call yourself a puppet? Then you will become a spirit! Don't even think about it! Not to mention that kind of puppet, even those refined iron puppets that I refined, you wouldn't be able to make them without ten or eight years! Truly, a newborn calf is not afraid of a Tiger!" Yun chujiu said unwillingly, "Humph, don't look down on people. Sooner or later, I will refine that kind of clever puppet." The dry old man snorted coldly and said, "You should learn the refined iron puppet first. You really have high standards but low experts. Before learning the puppet technique, you have to learn the talisman art first. Otherwise, it would be impossible to refine a puppet." "Talisman technique. I haven't learned it yet. Then, let's start learning." Yun chujiu inexplicably thought of the fire outside the Wuwei Tower. Back then, she used the corners of the talisman and dipped her finger in the blood of the Demon Beasts to draw the talisman, however, there was no reaction at that time, but it caused a fire in the middle of the night. Later, she didn't think about it carefully and just let it go. The dry old man first explained the basic knowledge of the talisman, then began to teach Yun chujiu the first level fire talisman. After the dry old man calmly finished drawing a flame talisman.., with a sullen face, he said, "Go back and practice diligently. You will succeed after practicing it a thousand and eight hundred times. You Can't use tricks to learn this talisman. Don't dream of becoming a fat man in one bite. No one can succeed after practicing it for dozens of times..." The dry old man was so surprised that he couldn't even speak properly. He saw Yun chujiu pick up the talisman pen and dip it in the blood of the Demon Beast. She finished drawing a flame talisman in just a few strokes. Moreover, it was a high-grade flame talisman..
