

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1383

Not long after, the sound of footsteps was getting closer and closer. Because of the fog, Yun chujiu could not see the person's clothes and appearance clearly. She could only see about a dozen people.

Could they be from the Yin Family?

"There's a cave here! This is great! We don't have to spend the night outside," someone said excitedly.

"That's right, ever since we entered the misty forest, we've been suffering! We Can't see the Sun all day long, and we're almost turning into mushrooms! It's a pity that not many people came to the misty forest this time to look for earth-burrowing spiritual mushrooms. I'm afraid it's impossible to catch some big fish."

"What you said isn't right. This time, not only can we catch a big fish, but we can also catch the biggest fish! The second-year students of Tianyuan Academy are all here, and there's the person we're looking for the most. We can use this opportunity to catch her!"

"Are you talking about that smelly girl, Yun Chujiu?"

"That's right. Last time, Dharma Protector Tao only had time to send two words to vice palace master Liu — Yun Chujiu, Vice Palace Master Liu sent someone to investigate. It turns out that Yun Chujiu is the daughter of the palace master's wife's old friend."

“The last time Dharma Protector Tao attacked the temple of Immortals, that smelly girl was a guest at the Temple of Immortals. Dharma Protector Tao would not say her name for no reason. I reckon that our plan last time was ruined by her hands!”

“This, this isn’t possible, right? Isn’t Yun Chujiu just a teenage girl? How could she be so capable? Dharma Protector Tao might be trying to convey something else.”

“No matter what, let’s capture her first. Even if she didn’t do it, it’s not a bad idea to use her to blackmail the temple of Immortals. There are also other people. capture them alive if they are useful. Kill those who are not!”

..

Yun chujiu was shocked. They were not from the Yin Family? They were from the Netherworld Palace? They had sneaked into the Misty Forest to kill them? With just a dozen of them? Was there something wrong with them?

At this moment, those people had already started a bonfire and were chatting while eating:

“Boss, we can’t let the other teams get ahead of us. If we can capture that Brat Yun Chujiu, that would be a great achievement!”

Yun chujiu suddenly realized that there were other people. As she said, these dozen people were simply overestimating themselves.

Yun Chujiu touched her chin. There were sixteen people here, and none of them could be seen through by her. At the very least, they were at the sixth level of the spirit Saint Realm. How could she kill them all?

Release Poison?

Something was wrong. The wind direction was not right, and the poisonous smoke could not blow into the cave.

Release puppets?

It was also not right. There were too many of them, and she did not have the confidence to win.

What should she do?

Yun chujiu raised her head and looked around. She found that the cliff was very steep, and it was very high. She rolled her eyes and had an idea. Hehe, scum, there will be a good show to watch!

After more than an hour, the people in the cave left one person to guard while the others fell asleep. Yun chujiu took out the sticky silk and quietly climbed up the cliff.

“Gou Weiba, your chance to redeem yourself is here. Hurry up and hook up with the Demon Beasts. I want to turn these scum into food for the Demon Beasts!”

Gou Weiba had been in the wrong recently. He was eager to have a chance to please Yun Chujiu, so he started to hook up with the Demon Beasts.

In the cave, those people were sleeping soundly, the person in charge of guarding the cave suddenly shouted, “Wake up! Wake Up! Why is the ground shaking? and listen, there seems to be a lot of demonic beasts roaring. Could it be a beast tide?”
