

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1397

In just a quarter of an hour, the people of the nether world hall were completely annihilated. All of them were killed.

“Wow! Lan Luochen, so you’re so awesome! You really hid it too well!” Yun Chujiu said in surprise.

Lan Luochen revealed a faint smile. “I didn’t expect you to have such a powerful puppet. Well, your spiritual power materialization technique is also very strange.”

Yun Chujiu scratched her head in embarrassment. “Hehe, it’s just so-so. Why did you suddenly appear?”

“I was looking for earth-penetrating spiritual mushrooms nearby. I heard the sounds of fighting here and rushed over.”

“Ah, so it’s like that! Since you’re so powerful, let’s form a team. We’ll kill all those people from the Netherworld Palace. HMPH, you actually want to kill us all? Dream On!”

Lan Luochen nodded his head lightly. “Alright!”

With Lan Luo Chen's participation, Yun Chujiu's confidence increased greatly. In the following period of time, the two of them worked well together. They easily destroyed ten teams from the Netherworld Hall and saved some of the people who were captured.

Yun Chujiu also discovered that Lan Luo Chen's culinary skills were surprisingly good. A simple roast meat could produce a different taste. Yun Chujiu was beaming with joy as she ate.

"Lan Luo Chen, you are really an all-rounded good man. When my good friend Qi Qi comes, I will introduce you to her. The two of you are really a match made in heaven." This guy wanted to keep a good man for Yun Qi whenever he saw one, he completely ignored the question of whether Yun Qi would transmigrate over.

When Lan Luo Chen heard Yun Chujiu's words, a trace of hurt flashed in the depths of his eyes. He said with a teasing tone, "Oh? Am I really that good? Then what do you think of Me?"

Yun Chujiu naturally replied, "I think you're very good, just like my brother."

Lan Luo Chen smiled bitterly in his heart. Brother? I don't want to be your brother. There's no rush. There are plenty of opportunities. I'll definitely let you find out that I'm more suitable for you than Di Beiming.

The two of them chatted for a while more, Yun Chujiu sighed and said, "We've already killed fourteen teams and four teams. I don't know where they are. I'm really worried about senior brother Feng Ming and the others."

“Cultivation is full of dangers. They have their own good fortune. You Don’t have to worry too much.”Lan Luo Chen comforted her.

The next day, the two continued to walk forward.

Lan Luo Chen suddenly made a hand gesture to Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu understood and the two of them found a bush to hide in.

“Dharma Protector Lin, do you really think that something happened to the other teams?”

“Although there is no definite news, since the news of our infiltration has already been leaked and we haven’t met anyone after walking for so many days, there is a high chance that something has happened.”Dharma Protector Lin Sighed.

“There are sixteen people in each team, and their spiritual power is not low either. How could something have happened?” He really could not figure it out. However, Dharma Protector Lin, you are wise. With our four groups gathered together, we are not afraid even if we encounter people from the Tian Yuan continent. Furthermore, we have captured so many hostages.”

When Yun Chujiu heard that there were hostages, she looked behind them. Indeed, there were dozens of people tied up by ropes. They were sitting on the ground with blood stains all over their bodies.

Yun chujia saw Feng Ming and the other two at a glance. Her heart was mixed with joy and worry. It was great that Feng Ming and the other two were not dead, but there were sixty-four of them. She and Lan Luoche could not deal with them at all, how could she save them safely?
