

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1436

When the people of the Tian Yuan continent saw that Yun Chujiu's talisman brush was broken, they immediately cried out in disappointment.

"F * ck! Yun Chujiu's talisman brush is broken too! How can she be so unlucky? ! How can she draw a talisman if her talisman brush is broken?"

"Yeah, she's really unlucky! I originally thought that Yun Chujiu would be able to turn the tide, but it seems like she won't be able to! The first place in this round will definitely be taken by that Li Wei from the Nether Academy!"

"Sigh! Our Tian Yuan Academy has lost this round of Dao Talismans competition again. The total score is 3 to 1. We're definitely going to lose this first stage of the competition."

"What do you think is so coincidental? Xu Feng and Yun Chujiu's Dao Talismans broke just like that? I think there's something fishy going on here."

"So what if there's something fishy going on? There's no evidence at all. Didn't you see that two people from the Netherworld Academy also broke their Dao Talismans?"

"Damn it! The people from the Netherworld continent are all treacherous. We are really mute and unable to say anything."

Dean Huangfu also let out a sigh. He knew that Yun Chujiu was learning talismans with that dry old man, so he was rather confident in this round of competition. He had not expected that he would be met with Si Tushi's words. It was really too aggrieved.

Di Linhan was also feeling very regretful. He knew that Yun Chujiu's talent in talismans was very shocking. The last time when they fought in the Hall of Immortals and the Netherworld Palace, Yun Chujiu had blocked the face of the palace Lord's wife and drew quite a number of explosive talismans.

The palace master's wife naturally told this matter to Di Linhan. Di Linhan still did not believe it at that time and the palace master's wife had given the transcendent grade explosive talismans that Yun chujiu had given her to Di Linhan. Only then did di Linhan believe it.

Si Tushi was feeling very pleased with himself. Fortunately, I had made all the necessary preparations. Otherwise, Yun Chujiu, that wretched girl, would have succeeded once again.

Vice Palace Master Liu was rather satisfied with Si Tushi's arrangements for this round. This Si Tushi had some brains after all. The arrangements for this round were pretty good. We would definitely be able to win this round.

Yun chujiu stared at the broken talisman pen in her hand and was extremely vexed. Damn it, she had actually been schemed against. She was really aggrieved!

Just admit defeat like this?

Definitely Not!

There must be a way. Calm down, calm down. I will definitely think of a way!

Yun Chujiu took out a chair and sat on it. She closed her eyes and thought of a way.

From the looks of it, Yun Chujiu had completely given up. However, it was also true. The Talisman Pen was broken. What else could she do if she did not give up? It was not that we were not strong. It was just that Si Tushi was too sinister.

Time passed quickly. There was less than an hour left until the end of the competition. Li Wei had already finished drawing four high-grade explosive talismans. Before the end of the competition, the sixth explosive talisman would also be completed.

As for the others, they had only completed three talismans. Li Wei felt that the first place was already in his bag.

The people of the Tian Yuan continent had already given up hope. They would definitely lose this round of talisman competition.

At this moment, Yun Chujiu, who was leaning against the chair, suddenly opened her eyes. After putting the chair into her storage ring, she stood in front of the workbench once again and spread out a piece of talisman paper.

Everyone was stunned!

What was Yun chujiu doing?

Was she sleepwalking? Without the talisman pen, why did she spread out the talisman paper? Did you want to draw with half of the talisman pen?

That was impossible. The principle of the talisman pen was to use a specially made pen rod to transfer spiritual power to the tip of the pen. Once the pen rod broke, the talisman pen could not be used again.

Then, what did Yun Chujiu want to do?
