

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1448

“Even if you had eight chicken legs, you would not be able to successfully tame a beast! Judge, I request to expel Yun Chujiu! She has repeatedly interrupted my secret technique, it is really too much.” Li Han felt his head buzzing, he did not know whether he was angered by Yun Chujiu or he had lost a little too much blood.

The hawk-nosed judge was about to speak, Yun Chujiu said angrily, “Referee!” Li Han insulted my ancestral secret technique. He had broken my weak and tender heart into a hundred and eight pieces! “Moreover, I was using my secret technique. I was about to succeed, but he interrupted my secret technique. I request that he be expelled from the stage.”

Li Han was stunned!

The other contestants were stunned!

The host and the referee were stunned!

Everyone below the stage was stunned!

F * * K!

There was no one else who could be so shameless!

You used a broken chicken drumstick to fool me and that was your ancestral secret technique? Aren't You Shameless?

Besides, is your indestructible heart still weak? Still immature? ! Who are you lying to? !

The hawk-nosed referee snorted. "You don't need to quibble anymore. You have been disqualified from the competition. Leave immediately!"

Yun Chujiu's little face darkened. "This referee, you have to live up to your conscience and your identity as a referee! "What right do you have to disqualify me from the competition? "Host, let me ask you. When you announced the rules, did you forbid the contestants from speaking?"

The host shook his head. "No."

"Did you hear that?" "Since the rules did not forbid the contestants from speaking, what's wrong with me speaking?" "Besides, when I was using my ancestral secret technique, Li Han even interrupted me. Why didn't you send him out?" "If you want to punish me, that's fine too. But you have to treat everyone equally and send Li Han out as well. Otherwise, not only am I not convinced, but everyone in the Tian Yuan continent is also not convinced. Don't you think so?" Yun chujiu waved her hand at the people below the competition stage.

The people from the Tian Yuan continent immediately started to clamor. "Right! Yun Chujiu is right! She didn't say that she wouldn't be allowed to speak, so what right do you have to punish Yun Chujiu?"

"Don't tell me that when you are fighting with the Demon Beasts, you don't even allow the Demon Beasts to call out?"

"Pui! I think this judge must have taken money from the Netherworld Academy. How Shameless!"

The eagle-nosed judge was so angry that his face turned red. He pointed at Yun chujiu and said, "You, you..."

"What, what did I do?" "Besides, there are ten referees in total. Why are you the only one who owes me so much?" "You don't even believe that you confiscated the benefits from the Netherworld Academy, do you?" "Judges of Justice, am I Right?" "Since the rules don't prohibit me from speaking, what's wrong with me speaking?" Yun Chujiu said with the eagle-nosed referee, she looked at the other nine referees who were dumbfounded.

The other nine referees discussed with each other. Indeed, the rules did not prohibit one from speaking. Thus, an older referee said, "Since there are no restrictions in the rules, the competition will continue."

Yun chujiu looked at Li Han proudly. “Li Han, the attitude of this Beast Tamer is very crucial. You Can’t be impatient! “Let me give you a good suggestion. If you really feel that my words are disturbing you, you might as well use something to cover your ears!”!

Li Han only felt his head buzzing. He glared fiercely at Yun Chujiu. “Do you think that you can disturb me with this method? The first place will definitely be mine!”

“TSK TSK, your name is ‘Li Han’, not ‘awesome’. Do you really think that you are so amazing?”? Ptui!
“Unless that little fox is out of her mind, she would not establish a spiritual connection with you. What the Heck!”Yun chujiu pouted and said.
