

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1526

"Little, Little Jiu, let's go out. There aren't any treasures in here anyway. This big mushroom is too strange," Nangong Luoyue said with a slight stutter.

Before Yun Chujiu had the time to answer, the green stone slabs on the ground had all exploded. The mycelium of the big mushroom extended out from the ground and swept toward the seven people.

Fortunately, everyone had already activated their defensive spirit tools according to Yun Chujiu's instructions. The mycelium was blocked outside by the defensive barrier, but the mycelium was constantly secreting a kind of liquid, and the defensive barrier was quickly corroded.

Everyone hurriedly used their spirit energy to attack the mycelium. Unexpectedly, the mycelium was extremely powerful, and even fire attacks were ineffective. It wrapped around everyone tightly, and once the defensive barrier was corroded.., everyone would die without a doubt.

Nangong Luoyue and the others were in despair!

They did not expect that after escaping so many disasters, they would turn into the nourishment of the mushroom in the end. What a coward!

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes. The guai Cao in her dantian was constantly shouting. Damn it, did she have to absorb the poisonous liquid of this big mushroom again?

However, it seemed that there was no other way. Let's do it then!

Yun chujiu stretched out her hand from the defensive barrier and pulled a strand of mycelium into it.

"Little Jiu! Little Jiu! What are you doing? ! Let Go!" Nangong Luoyue and the others were so scared that they almost fainted!

Yun chujiu ignored them because this guy was holding the mycelium with both hands and sucking the venom. The strange grass in his dantian was obviously very useful. The leaves were all stretched out and slightly swayed, it was extremely similar to how Yun Chujiu looked when she was showing off.

Nangong Luoyue and the others were scared to death when they saw Yun Chujiu's Valiant (courting death) behavior. Oh My God, Little Jiu, are you crazy? ! The mucus in the mycelium was extremely corrosive. Aren't you courting death? !

It's over! It's over!

Little Jiu was about to be corroded!

They didn't expect that little jiu, who was clever and muddleheaded all her life, would actually do such a stupid thing. She was dead for sure!

Wait a minute, there seemed to be something wrong!

Why did it seem that not only was little jiu not corroded, she seemed to be drinking happily! On the contrary, the mycelium quickly withered. How, How was this possible?

Seeing that the mycelium in her hand had withered, yun chujiu immediately grabbed another mycelium and continued to suck the venom inside.

Yun Chujiu's sucking speed became faster and faster, so much so that the mycelium around her was so afraid that they did not dare to come forward. This fellow was slightly proud of himself. Although this method was a little ugly, it was really easy to use, and it worked every time!

Yun chujiu walked forward, and the mycelium retreated. Later on, it simply drilled back into the soil, and even the mycelium that was wrapped around Nangong Luoyue and the others also retreated back into the soil.

Nangong Luoyue and the others were clearly still a little confused. What was going on? How could this work? Little Jiu was relying on eating to scare away the mycelium?

Why was little jiu not afraid of the corrosive poison?

Perhaps the longevity hall had some kind of pill that was impervious to all poisons. Yes, that should be the case. That was why Little Jiu was not afraid of the poison.

After everyone finished imagining the 'truth', they saw Yun chujiu hopped towards the big mushroom and anxiously shouted, "Little Jiu! What are you doing?"

Yun chujiu turned around and bared her teeth. "I wasn't full just now. I want to drink enough this time!"

Nangong luoyue clearly saw the big mushroom tremble when it heard Yun Chujiu's words. What made them even more surprised was that the big mushroom quickly shrank and finally became the size of an adult's fist, it burrowed into the rock wall next to it and disappeared.
