

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1549

The palace Lord's wife managed to hold back her laughter with great difficulty. Little Jiu was really a great weapon to deal with a slut like Chu Lingyun. The scolding was really too satisfying!

Di Linhan's mouth opened and closed. Although he was very angry, it was not appropriate for him to speak too harshly to his future daughter-in-law, he could only say to the palace lord's wife: "Look at how Little Jiu has been spoiled by you? Teach her the rules properly. who talks to their guests like that?"

The palace master's wife sneered, "Darling, if you want to talk about spoiling little nine, you seem to be spoiling her even more. I heard that you gave her a few extremely precious spirit tools? Don't you always say that little nine is smart and eloquent? Why are you looking down on Little Nine Now? Forget it, I Won't Stop You and your senior brother and sister from catching up on old times. I'll go check on Little Nine. It would be bad if she really committed suicide in the cafeteria."

After the palace Lord's wife had finished speaking, she completely ignored madam Lan and her daughter and went straight out of the living room.

Di Linhan's old face alternated between green and red, feeling that he had lost all his face. Each and every one of them was just too worrisome!

"Senior brother, this matter has all started because of me. Luo Xue and I will take our leave now." Madam Lan's face revealed an expression of guilt and self-reproach as she stood up and was about to leave.

“Fourth junior sister, it is not easy for you and Luo Xue to come here once. Just stay here as much as you want. Senior Brother is the one in charge of the Palace of Immortals and it is not up to anyone else to tell you what to do.”. Manager Luo, immediately arrange for the two of them to stay here. If there is any negligence, even Jin se will not be able to protect you, do you understand?”Di Linhan said to manager Luo with a dark expression.

Manager Luo had not left with the palace lord’s wife just now because he knew that the Lan clan mother and daughter would definitely not leave. When he heard di Linhan’s orders, he immediately replied: “Yes, Palace Lord.”

“Fourth junior sister, little girl Luo Xue, follow manager Luo to the guest house to stay for a while. I will arrange a banquet to welcome you both in the evening. It just so happens that bei Ming will be back in the evening, you can meet him too.”Di beiming said gently to Madam Lan.

A look of hesitation appeared on Madam Lan’s face: “This... . Senior brother, forget it, I should just go back. Don’t let me affect your relationship with Jin Se and little nine.”

Lan Luoxue said from the side: “Mother, if you go back just like that, Uncle Hall master will definitely feel bad about it. Let’s just stay here for a few days.”

“That’s right, fourth junior sister, Little Lass Luo Xue is right. No matter what, you have to stay here for a period of time and let me do my best as the host.”Di Linhan said hurriedly.

“Then, then alright, then I shall disturb senior brother.” Only then did Madam Lan agree to stay.

Manager Luo laughed coldly in her heart. No wonder the ninth miss said that these were two white lotuses. She clearly wanted to stay here, but she still had to pretend to take advantage of the situation. How hypocritical.

Although manager Luo could not stand the Lan family mother and daughter in his heart, but on his face, he revealed a perfect smile: “Madam Lan, Miss Lan, this way please.”

Only then did the mother and daughter of the Lan family follow manager Luo to the guest house. On the way, Madam Lan introduced the scenery to Lan Luoxue as they walked.

“Mother, why are you so familiar with the longevity palace?” Lan Luoxue asked curiously.

Madam Lan glanced at manager Luo and those servants and said indifferently, “Before senior brother got married, our three junior sisters often stayed in the longevity palace, so we are very familiar with the longevity palace.”

“Oh, so it’s like this. After Uncle Palace Master got married, you and the other two aunts didn’t come to the Longevity Palace?”

“Your Aunt Ye has a heavy heart, so the three of us rarely come. This time, if it wasn’t to express our gratitude, mother wouldn’t have come.”Madam Lan continued to say indifferently.

Lan luoxue gave a meaningful “OH”and didn’t say anything else.
