

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1666

"Sigh, we are also orphans. We are all poor children who share the same fate. Compared to those young ladies who are saintesses, I would rather an orphan like Lin Chuchu be a saintess. At least she can speak up for us," Sheng NV said

"You Chi, we will definitely help you with this. No matter how bad Lin Chuchu's swordsmanship is, we will let her pass!" Everyone expressed their stance.

You Chi gratefully cupped his hands towards everyone and started to eat lunch.

What You Chi did not know was that Yun chujiu was peeking out from the door. When she saw you chi cupping his hands towards everyone, she snapped her fingers and it was done!

Aiya, this little white lotus was not that easy to act. However, this man really had no resistance towards Little White Lotus!

At this time, Mo Wanwan and the other two had just returned from their meal. They asked in puzzlement, "Chuchu, why didn't you go and get your meal? You Don't even know that the maid had specially prepared a lot of extra food. You Didn't go and get your meal. She left a lot of food behind."

"Ah, that's such a pity! However, I had a divination this morning. I shouldn't be too greedy today, so I decided to eat some leftover food." Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Mo Wanwan and the other two curled their lips. It would be a ghost if they believed you! This guy might not be thinking of some evil idea again!

Yun Chujiu's storage ring had a lot of food in it. Naturally, she wouldn't be hungry. This guy was thinking while eating. As expected, it's better to be prepared. I'll definitely make more during dinner.

In the afternoon, the sword technique test began.

The people at the front had all passed. Finally, everyone's eyes were focused on Yun chujiu.

Jin Zhi and the others thought that if Lin chujiu slowed down again, they would protest. They did not believe that Zheng Mama would still protect her.

Zheng Mama was also a little uncertain. This Lin Chujiu had passed the test by a fluke the day before yesterday. If she still used the same excuse today, it would be difficult to convince the public. If it really did not work, she would have to be eliminated.

"Lin Chuchu, step out!"

Yun Chujiu walked out from the group and summoned her sword to dance. The first few moves were fine and looked decent, but after ten moves, she began to make frequent mistakes. It was not easy for her to finish playing with the Gabriella sword technique.

Jin Zhi and the others were overjoyed. Haha, this Lin Chuchu was definitely going to be eliminated this time! Those guards had their concerns yesterday, but they had no concerns today. No one would raise their hands.

Zheng Mama gestured for the guards to raise their hands to vote. She sighed in her heart. This Lin Chuchu's swordsmanship was really too poor. Those guards already hated her for torturing you chi. Now, they were definitely going to eliminate Lin Chuchu! This Lin Chuchu was also courting death. Why did you torture the guards for no reason? !

Mo Wanwan and the other two were so anxious that their foreheads were covered in cold sweat. Chuchu, OH, Chuchu, why did a smart person like you do such a stupid thing? You Didn't learn how to speak. Even if we didn't sleep last night, we still taught you. Now, the matter is already set in stone. Even if we wanted to help, we can't!

Everyone's gaze turned towards the forty-four guards. In their hearts, they thought that no one would raise their hands. Unless they were blind, only then would they think that Yun Chujiu's azure falling sword technique was qualified.

Then, they saw someone raise his right hand. The person who raised his hand was actually you chi? !

F * ck! Was this you chi crazy? Lin Chujiu had tormented him until he was half dead, and he actually let Yun Chujiu Pass?

Just as everyone was in a daze, they saw the other guards raise their right hands one after another..
