

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1743

The Saintess was so anxious that she was about to cry. "Husband, do you still have the antidote that Liu Huanhua gave you? Quickly take it out and take it!" Sheng NV said

Yun Zhangqing said with difficulty, "No, I don't have it anymore."

Just when the Saintess was extremely anxious, she saw the porcelain bottle on the table. She quickly picked it up, pulled out the cork, and fed the medicinal liquid inside to Yun Zhangqing.

After drinking it, not only did Yun Zhangqing not get better, he actually fainted with a choking sound!

"Husband! Husband!" The SAINTESS was completely dumbfounded. How could the medicine given by Little Jiu make it worse? Could it be that the Medicine Little Jiu gave was wrong?

The Saintess didn't have time to think too much. She carried Yun Zhangqing and rushed out. Now, she could only go to vice palace master Liu to ask for the antidote to save Yun Zhangqing's life.

The SAINTESS carried Yun Zhangqing out of the back palace like a Crazy Sheng nv and went straight to the exit of the Saintess Palace.

Yun Chujiu was talking to You Chi and the others. When she saw the Saintess carrying a person out, she couldn't help but be stunned. She hurriedly ran over, opened the isolation array, and asked, "Mother, what are you doing?"

The Saintess' eyes were red with anxiety. "Your father fainted after eating the medicine you gave him. I'm going to ask Liu Huanhua for the antidote now. Get out of the way! If you delay any longer, your father will die!"

"That's impossible! The pretty boy is fine even after eating it for a year. Let me take a look!" Yun Chujiu said hurriedly.

Sheng nv was also desperate and put Yun Zhangqing on the ground. Although Yun Chujiu didn't know much about medicine, she saw that Yun Zhangqing's breathing was stable, she checked his pulse with her hand and couldn't help but feel happy. "Mom, my father just fainted. It's nothing serious. Take a look yourself if you don't believe me."

The SAINTESS was stunned. She was also worried and confused. When she saw Yun Zhangqing faint just now, she did not have the time to take a closer look. She subconsciously thought that something had happened. Now that she heard Yun Chujiu's words, she took a closer look and realized that Sheng NV had fainted, as expected, Yun Zhangqing only fainted. The cold sweat on his forehead had disappeared.

The saintess felt relieved and could not help but collapse on the ground. Tears fell from her eyes.

“Cough, cough, mother, this isolation array can only isolate sound, but the situation inside can be seen. You should at least pay attention to your cold and aloof image,” Yun chujia reminded.

Sheng nv finally reacted, carrying Yun Zhangqing and quickly returning to the rear hall.

Yun chujia touched her nose, leaving just like that?

“Miss Chuchu, what happened just now?” You Chi and the others curiously came up to her.

“The man that the SAINTESS was carrying seemed to have some hidden illness. The SAINTESS said that she was going to see Vice Palace Master Liu, but when I saw that the man was not in any serious condition, he just fainted. The Saintess saw that Sheng nv really did have some hidden illness, so she went back. The man was said to be the husband of the SAINTESS, but very few people saw him. It was just that her husband was sick, so why did he go to see Vice Palace Master Liu? They really could not understand it! “Do you know what happened?” Yun chujia asked in confusion.

One of the guards said, “Isn’t it simple? It’s probably because vice palace master Liu poisoned that person, so only vice palace master Liu has the antidote!”

“Vice Palace Master Liu’s methods are too vicious. I was so worried about the saint just now!” Sheng NV said

“Yeah, I wonder if the Netherworld Spirit will punish Vice Palace Master Liu. This is indeed a little too much!”

Yun chujiu coughed and said, “Fortunately, I have opened the isolation array. Otherwise, if what you said just now reaches the ears of Vice Palace Master Liu, you won’t be able to live anymore! Be careful in the future!”
