

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1751

Sheng nv thought that something was wrong with her ears. "What, what do you think is in this?"

Yun chujiu giggled and took out a huge stack of burst talismans from the sacks. "Burst Talismans!"

Sheng NV took two steps forward and grabbed it. This huge stack was really a burst talisman! Moreover, it was a super grade burst talisman!

Sheng nv felt that her brain was not enough. She stiffly looked into the sack and saw that it was filled with talismans. Sheng nv casually grabbed a bunch and took a look. It was a super grade burst talisman! He grabbed another bunch and it was a super grade burst talisman!

"Little, Little Jiu, what you have here are all super grade burst talismans?" Sheng nv could not believe her eyes.

"That's right! They are all in those sacks. I still have a few hundred sacks in my storage ring. When I first came here, I had already thought about it. If I really have no other choice, I will blow the Netherworld Palace to the ground," Yun Chujiu said darkly.

Sheng nv stumbled and almost fell to the ground. A few, a few hundred sacks of burst talismans? Or supreme-grade burst talismans? Oh God, was it because she was inexperienced, or was little jiu too perverted!

“Little, Little Jiu, where did you get so many transcendent-grade sudden rupture talismans? Did Di beiming give them to you?”

“I drew them for fun when I had nothing to do. I can draw other things, but this sudden rupture talisman is more convenient to use.” “Mother, you can play with these first. I’ll give them to you when they’re used up. There’s plenty of this damn thing!” Yun Chujiu said smugly.

Sheng nv looked at the superior-grade burst talisman in the sack and felt that her worldview had been refreshed. When did the superior-grade burst talisman become a damn thing? Not to mention the superior-grade burst talisman, even ordinary burst talismans could not be bought with money!

Sheng NV took a long time to recover from her shock before putting the big sacks into her storage ring.

Sheng NV had intended to tell Yun chujiu to be careful, but when she thought of the hundreds of sacks that this little pervert had mentioned, she felt that it was better not to say anything. Even if she had to be careful, it should be others who should be careful.

“Beautiful mother, remember to give my father two sacks so that they won’t bully him. Just tell them that I gave them to him as a gift,” Yun Chujiu reminded Sheng nv before they parted.

Sheng nv nodded and returned to the back hall to see Yun Zhangqing. "Husband, Little Jiu gave you some gifts."

"Gifts? What gifts? The war is about to start, and this little girl still has the time to give me gifts?" Although Yun Zhangqing said this, he was looking forward to it.

"Nothing, it's just some talismans." Sheng nv decided to let him feel some shock. After drinking Little Jiu's medicine, his body was much better, and nothing would happen to him.

"Ah, so it's talismans. I heard from you that little jiu is very talented in drawing talismans. What talismans did she give me?" Yun Zhangqing didn't know that his wife had already been blackened by his mischievous daughter.

Sheng nv calmly took out a stack of superior-grade burst talismans and handed it to Yun Zhangqing. Although Yun Zhangqing had been sick all these years, he had always been cultivating and reading books. His knowledge was no longer the same as before, therefore, he immediately recognized that this was a superior-grade burst talisman.

"This is a superior-grade burst talisman? There are twenty to thirty of them in this stack, right? Little Jiu drew them all by herself?" Yun Zhangqing asked in surprise.

The SAINTESS nodded. "And these two big sacks were also given to you by Little Jiu!" Sheng NV said

“What’s in these sacks?” Yun Zhangqing couldn’t help but feel puzzled when he saw the sacks that the SAINTESS threw on the ground. He had never heard of anyone giving gifts in sacks. Could it be that little jiu gave me spirit rice and spirit noodles?
