

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1795

The golden-winged vermillion-beaked eagle threw the two-horned sheep to the side, and its huge beak pecked at Yun chujiu. Yun chujiu pulled her neck and howled.

The golden-winged vermillion-beaked eagle was shocked. While it was in a daze, Yun Chujiu jumped to the side and said loudly, "Sir Eagle, Stop! Stop! I have something to say."

The golden-winged Vermillion Beak eagle was stunned. However, it felt that Yun chujiu could not escape from its palm, so it was ready to listen to what she had to say.

"Lord Eagle, you have seen it too. I am a good-for-nothing without spiritual power. Aren't you curious how I Got Here?"

The golden-winged Vermillion Beak Eagle thought about it. This human little girl did not have spiritual power at all. How did she get here?

"Lord Eagle, let me tell you the truth. Your child, this small eagle, will be the overlord of this sky in the future. Her future is limitless!" Yun chujiu paused at this point. On one hand, this fellow was trying to whet her appetite, on the other hand, this fellow was trying to figure out an excuse.

The golden-winged vermillion-beaked eagle did not know what Yun Chujiu was thinking. When it heard Yun chujiu say that the small eagle would be the overlord of a region in the future, as a mother, it was naturally very happy. It called out a few times proudly and then stared at Yun Chujiu, it signaled her to continue quickly.

“Sir Eagle, although the future of the small eagle is limitless, it is still young. It still needs to learn a lot of things. Other than the various knowledge that you can teach it, it also needs to learn some human military tactics and strategies. Only then can it become a true overlord in the sky.

As for me, I am the lucky one who was chosen by Tian Dao. I am the private tutor for the small eagle! Why did Tian Dao choose me? Because firstly, I don't have any spiritual power, so I won't be harmful to small eagle. Secondly, although I can't cultivate, I'm familiar with all kinds of military tactics, so I'm the best candidate to teach small eagle.”Yun Chujiu said nonsense with her eyes wide open.

The golden-winged vermillion-beaked eagle was skeptical. Tian Dao helped its child choose a private tutor? Why did this sound so unreliable? Would Tian Dao specially help its child choose a human girl to be a private tutor?

“Master Ying, do you think this matter is somewhat unusual? This is because your child is already unusual!”

Yun Chujiu said until here, looked around, and said in a low voice, “Master Ying, let me tell you, the bloodline of the small eagle has the bloodline of the ancient Divine Beast, the golden-winged great ROC!”

The golden-winged vermillion-beaked eagle was stunned when it heard Yun Chujiu!

Ancient Divine Beast, the golden-winged Great Roc?

The golden-winged vermillion-beaked eagle immediately became excited. Yun Chujiu had hit the jackpot. This golden-winged vermillion-beaked eagle was really a branch of the golden-winged great ROC. Of course, this branch was basically irrelevant.

Every Demon Beast was proud of the bloodline of the Divine Beast. When the golden-winged vermillion-beaked eagle heard that the small eagle had the bloodline of the golden-winged great ROC, it was naturally very excited. It selectively ignored the loophole in Yun Chujiu's words.

Yun chujiu saw that the golden-winged vermillion eagle's gaze was somewhat relaxed, she immediately continued to say, "Lord Eagle, the small eagle's background is extraordinary. I, a trash without spiritual power, can't harm it at all. You can keep me to try it for a few days. If you feel that it's not up to standard, then you can eat me. Anyway, I can't run away."

The golden-winged Vermillion Eagle Thought for a moment and agreed.

Yun chujiu finally heaved a sigh of relief. No matter what, she had managed to stay alive for the time being. However, she had said that she did not have any spiritual power, so naturally, she could not take anything from her storage ring to eat. What about her food for the next few days? She could not eat raw meat, right?
