

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1856

Mo Fangqin's eyes flashed. Was this country bumpkin saying this on purpose or was it just a coincidence? Could it be that she was more meticulous than Madam Luo?

Mo Fangqin shook her head again. It was impossible. How could a country bumpkin from a lower continent be more shrewd than Madam Luo?

It must be that this country bumpkin was a fool. These people had nothing better to do and were willing to watch the show. That was why they said this.

Yun Chujiu cupped her hands towards the crowd. "I appreciate everyone's kindness, but there's no need for everyone to go to the forest just for my sake. I believe that Manager Xia is not a person who uses public office to seek personal revenge. She definitely won't give me any difficult missions, and she won't intentionally let me get seriously injured. So, there's no need for all of you to go. Really, there's no need to go to the trouble!"

Initially, some people were still hesitating whether they should go to the dense forest. However, after hearing Yun Chujiu's words, they became even more determined to go. "Miss Mo, you're too polite! I originally wanted to hunt a few demonic beasts as a sacrifice. Let's Go Together!"

"That's right. This person's heart is full of secrets. Nothing is absolute. Miss Mo, you have to be careful!"

“That’s right, you can’t have the intention to harm others, but you can’t be careless. Miss Mo, you’re just too kind!”

Manager Xia’s heart was like a dead dog. Kind? Are you sure you’re talking about this country bumpkin? She’s kind? If she was kind, she wouldn’t have cheated the Mo residence of 20 million upper-grade spirit stones! If she was kind, she wouldn’t have pretended to be a ghost to scare the maids! If she was kind, she wouldn’t have used a pile of rotten cabbage as a welcome gift!

Although manager Xia wanted to chase these people away, she could only urge Yun chujiu to leave quickly when she saw that the people inside were from other forces.

Yun Chujiu had achieved her goal, so she didn’t delay. She hopped and chatted with the enthusiastic crowd while walking out of the city.

Mo fangqin had been listening to Yun Chujiu’s small talk in the beginning, but when she heard that they were talking about which restaurant had good food, which family had made a fortune, or even whose mistress had stolen someone, it was all boring gossip, she really could not bear to listen to it anymore, so she simply walked in front and did not want to hear it.

When the crowd compared them, they felt that the eldest daughter of the Mo family was approachable and did not put on airs. She was really a kind and good girl.

Yun Chujiu was talking nonsense with these onlookers. Of course, she was not talking nonsense. She had obtained a lot of useful information from these conversations and was very satisfied.

TSK TSK, this old White Lotus was really a good aunt of immortal essence!

This trial was really killing many birds with one stone! Firstly, she could learn more about the matters of the immortal essence continent and the Mo family. Secondly, she could increase her favorability in front of these onlookers. Sometimes, public opinion was very useful.

Thirdly, they could increase their actual combat experience. They might even have a chance to break through. Moreover, with so many people protecting them, they would definitely not be in danger. This was simply a good opportunity that they could not find even if they tried to beat a lantern!

Yun Chujiu was happy, but manager Xia's heart refused. This was because originally, there should only be twenty or so people from the Mo family following them. But now, there was a group of people following them! ! !

This wasn't a trial, this was simply a group fight! It was simply impossible to achieve the goal of teaching the country bumpkin a lesson. If the mission was too difficult, those who were watching the show would definitely make a ruckus!

Not to mention that she had seriously injured the country bumpkin. Without the country bumpkin saying anything, those who were watching the show would drown her with Spittle!
