

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1916

Mo Fangqin wanted to say something, but she did not know where to begin. Therefore, she excitedly followed Yun Chujiu back to Tinghe Xuan.

“SIS, I originally thought that you were there to anger grandmother. I never expected that you were there to convince grandmother. How did you know that grandmother and Luo Shi did not get along?” Now that Mo Fangqin had a backbone, she might as well address Luo Shi directly.

“I guessed! which parent wouldn't want their son to live closer to them? Even if the idea of starting a family was father's idea, grandmother would only blame second aunt. I was only fanning the flames!”

“Then how did you know that Grandmother would listen to your explanation? Aren't you afraid that grandmother will really arrest you and punish you?”

“Tch! She wouldn't dare! Didn't you see that grandmother saw grandfather like a mouse seeing a cat? She wouldn't dare to go against grandfather. Moreover, what I said was all reasonable and reasonable. She would definitely believe it. “Third sister, I'm telling you, as long as you give me the right opportunity, there's no one I can't fool!” Yun Chujiu said proudly.

This fellow also felt that this matter was done too beautifully. It could be said to be killing three birds with one stone. Firstly, he had temporarily removed old madam Liu's hostility. Secondly, he had successfully dragged madam Luo down with him. Thirdly, he had even managed to rescue Aunt Qiu. It was perfect!

Mo Fangqin wanted to retort Yun Chujiu, but she couldn't find any fault with her. This country bumpkin was simply too good!

"However, this is only a temporary victory. We need to continue working hard to consolidate our victory," Yun Chujiu understood that Mo Xiaoting and Old Madam Liu were both cold-blooded and heartless people, this pitiful impression of her could not be maintained for long.

If she did not show her worth as soon as possible, Mo Xiaoting would quickly give up on her. At that time, she would once again fall into a dead end. But, how should she show her worth?

Alchemy? Talisman-making? Puppets? Not afraid of being struck by lightning?

Yun chujiu rejected every single one of them. Although these skills were valuable to Mo Xiaoting, it was very likely that they would put her in a new crisis. Who knows, Mo xiaoting might even send her to some powerful organization and lock her up to serve them.

Yun chujiu did not have any good ideas at the moment, but this person was very generous. In any case, she wouldn't have any problems for at least eight to ten days. She wanted to enjoy herself first.

The next morning, after having breakfast, Yun Chujiu and Mo Fangqin arrived outside Mo Xiaoting's study room.

Mo Xiaoting had not arrived yet, so the two of them naturally could not enter. They could only wait outside the courtyard.

Yun chujiu did not let go of any opportunity to win their hearts. She turned to the guards and said, "Thank you for your help yesterday. These snacks are for you."

The guards quickly declined. Yun chujiu smiled and said, "They are just some snacks. They are not worth much."

Seeing that Yun Chujiu insisted, the guards had no choice but to accept the snacks.

They were more or less touched. It was not because of the snacks, but Yun Chujiu's tone and words. Yun chujiu said "Give" rather than "Reward", which somehow made them feel comfortable.

Mo fangqin watched from the side and remembered what Yun Chujiu said to her yesterday:

"Third sister, never underestimate these small figures! Although they are weak and their positions are not firm, as long as you can make good use of them, they will be a huge force. Not only that, but you can also get a lot of useful information from them.

Some of the information in the words that I lied to my grandmother was from the people in Jinchuan city. So, I have to use every opportunity to gain a good impression and gain sympathy!”
