

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1954

However, everyone was still on the fence. Maybe these four people just liked this style of dress, so they came to buy it.

Just as everyone was wondering, more than ten people came to Mian Xiu Zhuang to order the heaven, earth, mountains, rivers, and moonlight dress. There were middle-aged women, young girls, and some seemed to be young ladies from big families, some of them seemed to be servant girls or maidservants.

There was even a middle-aged man who came to inquire if shopkeeper Guo had any men's styles.

Shopkeeper Guo said with a wooden face, "There aren't any men's styles for the time being, but they will be released one after another in the future."

The middle-aged man was immediately beaming with joy and immediately handed over the deposit for ten sets of men's clothing.

The onlookers, especially those who were quick-witted, could not sit still and tried to find out what those people had to say. Unfortunately, those people kept their mouths shut. In the end, it was the youngest girl who let the cat out of the bag:

"You Really Don't Know? I heard that the plain brocade used in this heaven, earth, mountains, rivers, and moons dress looks like a defective product of dyeing flowers, but in fact, it's soaked in a special spirit herb. After wearing it, you can increase the speed at which you absorb spirit Qi."

What? !

The spectators lost their composure immediately!

This heaven, earth, mountains, rivers, and moons dress actually had such an effect! No wonder these people came all the way here to buy it. If it was really like this, not to mention two hundred thousand, even five hundred thousand wouldn't be expensive!

Many people were skeptical. They ran to Jin Xiu Zhuang and asked shopkeeper guo, "Shopkeeper Guo, I heard that this heaven, earth, mountains, rivers, and moonlight skirt increases the speed of absorbing spiritual essence. Is It True?"

Shopkeeper Guo said with a cold face, "I've never heard of anything that increases spiritual essence but not spiritual essence. If you want to buy it, then hurry up. If you don't want to buy it, then look at other styles. Anyway, there is a limited number of heaven, earth, mountains, rivers, and moonlight skirts, and they will be sold out very soon."

People were like that. If shopkeeper Guo said it in an exaggerated manner, the onlookers might think that he was exaggerating. But, shopkeeper Guo actually denied it. What was the reason for this?

Normally, shouldn't people praise their own products for the sake of sales? Why did shopkeeper Guo Deny It?

Someone slapped his thigh and said, "I know! This profiteer must want to raise the price! Think about it, when he saw that the sales were so good, and those people even said that other places had already sold for 500,000 high-grade spirit stones, how could he not be tempted? Perhaps the price will rise tomorrow!"

"That makes sense! It must be like that. No, I have to order a few pieces. Otherwise, the price will definitely rise tomorrow, and it might not even be possible to buy them."

"Where can I find such beautiful and effective clothes? Two hundred thousand is indeed not expensive. I'll order a few pieces too!"

"I'll go too! I reckon that this quantity is definitely not much. If I go too late, I reckon I won't be able to get them!"

People all had the mentality of following the crowd. With a few people shouting like this, many people who were originally uncertain immediately made up their minds.

In addition, once they heard that they might not be able to buy it, the heaven, earth, mountains, and rivers, and moonlight dresses instantly became lofty in their hearts and swarmed toward the Brocade House.

Shopkeeper Guo was so scared that he was dumbfounded!

Oh God, are... are these people crazy? !

Shopkeeper Guo recalled the letter Yun Chujiu gave him and said loudly, "Everyone, listen to me. The Heaven, earth, mountains, and rivers, and moonlight dresses use a limited amount of plain brocade, so the number of ready-made clothes is also limited."

Hearing shopkeeper Guo's words, everyone immediately became anxious. "Shopkeeper Guo, what do you mean? Do you not want to sell it to us or do you want to raise the price? You have already sold the foreigner, why don't you sell it to us? !"
