

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2041

Yun chujiu knew that she was in the wrong. This matter was indeed thoughtless. She knew that the danger was high, yet she still insisted on going in. If di beiming had not arrived in time, the consequences would have been unimaginable.

Therefore, even if di beiming had a cold face, this fellow was still smiling like a flower, trying to please her. He was just short of wagging his tail.

When it was time to sleep, the pitiful dark wind took the initiative to alert the night shift. Yun Chujiu took out her all-purpose tent and dragged di beiming into the tent.

A sentence appeared in this guy's mind: Fight at the head of the bed, fight at the end of the bed. Whether or not the gigolo can be appeased depends on tonight!

After di beiming entered the tent, he put on his clothes and lay down, still ignoring Yun Chujiu.

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and said slyly, "My Prince Charming, my dear Prince Charming, I was wrong, I know I was wrong! I shouldn't have listened to Xiao Hei's slanderous words and entered the dangerous place without caring about the danger. I Won't dare to do it again next time."

The Little Black Bird in the spiritual beast bag almost fainted!

Master!

You Won't have any friends like this!

You clearly know that the pretty boy is in a rage. If you sell me out like this, I will lose my life, okay? !

As expected, di beiming said coldly, "We'll deal with that stupid bird tomorrow! Black Thing, do you think you're very powerful? Do you think that you're invincible just because of your sharp tongue and talisman seal?"

Do you think that you can play the Mo family in your hands and be unafraid of the difference in spiritual power levels? Do you think that you can not cherish your own life just because Tian Dao did not kill you?"

"Black Thing, do you think that I will forgive you for anything you do because of my feelings for you? "Do you know that if you really die like this, I, I, HMPH!"

Di beiming did not say the rest of his words, but the meaning was obvious. If Yun Chujiu died, then what was the point of him living? !

Yun Chujiu was stunned by di Beiming's series of questions!

Her heart trembled. She thought about di Beiming's words and felt that it made sense. She had indeed been a little complacent these days!

Although the reason why she went in today was partly due to Xiao Heinia's bewitching, but more importantly, it was because she was complacent!

She felt that so what if her spiritual power was low? ! Wasn't the Mo family still fooled by her? Didn't the Luo family still get destroyed by her ? ? ! Not to mention, she even earned a huge amount of spirit stones. It was as if her IQ was on the line, and she had a sense of superiority.

However, today, in front of those powerful demonic beasts, all of her schemes and tricks were useless. If it wasn't for the gigolo who descended from the sky, she would most likely have lost her life in the fallen Phoenix Forest, and she would even implicate an Feng and a few other dumb cuties.

This fellow had one advantage, and that was that she knew her mistakes and would change them. After she understood, she threw herself into di Beiming's arms and began to howl, "Wa wa, Prince Charming, you're right, I was wrong! I'm just a fool who is complacent!"

It was late at night, and Yun Chujiu's cries were too penetrating! An Feng, who was standing guard outside the tent, was shocked. F * CK, did His Majesty beat up Miss Jiu? ! Why was she crying so miserably?

Di beiming saw that Yun chujiu was crying so hard. On one hand, he felt sorry for her, but on the other hand, he was afraid. He did not dare to imagine that if he had not come to take a look because he was distracted, if he had not arrived in time.., what a terrifying outcome that would have been!

Therefore, even though Yun chujiu was sobbing, di beiming didn't coax her. He retracted his raised arm, a mere sixth level spiritual venerable dared to charge into the middle of a group of high-level demonic beasts. It was simply audacious!

He should teach that black thing a lesson. Otherwise, she would be able to destroy the sky!
