

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2092

Under normal circumstances, people from the western continent were not allowed to enter the eastern continent. However, there were two special exceptions.

One was that once a person's spiritual power reached the spiritual void realm, they would gain the status of a resident of the eastern continent and would be able to freely travel between the eastern and western continents.

The other was that if a third-class family from the eastern continent sent out an invitation, the person invited would be granted a temporary pass. The duration of a temporary pass and the number of slots were related to the family's level. For example, the Mo family was only a third-grade family, so Mo Xiaoting's temporary pass only had a two-month period and only had two slots.

Hei Shi and the others were not qualified to receive a temporary pass, so they had no choice but to wait near the border according to Mo Xiaoting's arrangements.

Meanwhile, Mo Xiaoting and Yun Chujiu, accompanied by manager Liu, successfully obtained a temporary pass and set foot on the east continent.

An Feng had managed to break through to the spiritual void realm a few days ago, otherwise, Yun Chujiu would have been left with nothing.

An Feng naturally did not travel with them. Instead, he obtained the identity of a resident of the eastern continent the next day and swaggered into the eastern continent.

After Yun Chujiu and the others passed the border inspection, they boarded the flying spiritual device and headed towards the Mo family's home, Fu Hu city.

Yun chujiu looked out of the flying spiritual device's window and felt that there wasn't much difference between the eastern continent and the western continent. The only difference was that the spiritual energy was slightly stronger. However, this didn't matter to her at all.

Mo Xiaoting couldn't hide his excitement as his hands began to tremble. He had finally set foot on the eastern continent once again. It would be even better if he could become a resident of the eastern continent in the future.

If he wanted to become a resident of the eastern continent, there wasn't only one path for him to become a resident of Lingxu. There was another path.

As Mo Xiaoting's branch was a branch of the Mo family, as long as the Mo family agreed to include the branch in their own family and pay a huge sum of money to the Eastern Continent Alliance., mo Xiaoting's branch would be able to obtain the status of a resident of the eastern continent.

For Mo Xiaoting, the huge sum of money wasn't a problem. After all, the Mo family was extremely rich. But, how to get the Mo family to agree to include the branch in their own family was a difficult problem. So, he could only take a long time to think about it.

After another eight days, the flying spirit tool finally arrived at Fu Hu city.

After everyone got off the flying spirit tool, they walked into Fu Hu city.

Fu Hu city was very lively. People came and went on the streets. It was a prosperous scene.

Yun chujiu could not help but sigh. The spiritual power level of this eastern continent was indeed much higher than that of the Western continent. Only a few people on the streets were at the level of Spirit Paragon, and the vast majority were at the level of Ling Xuan or even higher.

"Manager Liu, what is the spiritual power level of people my age in the eastern continent?" Yun chujiu asked manager Liu in a low voice.

"This, this is not very unified. It still depends on the talent and the family. The small families are around the eighth level of the spiritual venerable realm, the third-class families are around the first level of the spiritual profound realm, the second-class families are around the third level of the spiritual profound realm, and the first-class families are around the fifth level of the spiritual profound realm.

“If it were those super sects, they would be around the seventh level of the spiritual profound realm. If it were those prodigies, some of them would already be at the first level of the spiritual void realm.” Manager Liu was very well-behaved now. He simply said whatever he knew.

Yun chujiu nodded. The gap was still very big. She had to continue working hard.

This guy’s attention was quickly attracted by the snack shop by the roadside. My goodness, the eastern continent was indeed better than the western continent. There were many things in this snack shop that she had never seen before..
