

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2152

After listening to Yun Chujiu's words, Mo Fangbing did not speak for a long time. She was much smarter than Mo Fangjiao. Although she did not know what Yun Chujiu's motive was, she admitted that Yun Chujiu's words made sense, Zhu Jinghu was not a good match at all.

After a long silence, Mo Fangbing stared at Yun Chujiu. "What is your motive?"

"To put it simply, Zhu Jinghu almost killed me last time. Naturally, I don't want to see him carry a beauty back." "To put it simply, although we sisters aren't happy, we are still related by blood. How can I bear to see you jump into a fire pit?" Yun Chujiu said with an expression that said, "I'm doing you a favor."

"Humph, you say it nicely. I think the first one is your motive." Mo Fangbing snorted.

"Sister Fangbing, don't bother about my goal. I just want to ask you one thing. Do you want to marry Zhu Jinghu, that pervert who always causes trouble?"

Mo Fangbing's face stiffened. She thought to herself, you've already portrayed Zhu Jinghu as a pervert. Do you think I want to marry him?

Yun Chujiu saw that Mo Fangbing did not say anything and continued, "Sister Fangbing, I know that you have big ambitions. Marrying a bastard like this is definitely not what you want."

“I will give you a clear path. I will think of a way to get two chances to go to a higher education institution or a large sect to take the test. When the time comes, you will go with me.

“With your talent, it is simply too easy for you to stand out! “Moreover, there are many outstanding men in higher education institutions or large sects. Aren’t you free to choose any of them?

“Isn’t it much better than finding a second-rate person like Zhu Jinghu? How about it? If you are willing, you can cooperate with me and we can ruin this marriage.”

After listening to Yun Chujiu’s words, Mo Fangbing was stunned on the spot. Her eyes were actually slowly turning red.

She did not expect Yun chujiu to understand her thoughts so well. She had never been willing to marry and have children at an age like her mother, leading a mediocre life. She wanted to make a name for herself, which was why she hated Yun Chujiu for being favored by the Great Elder.

She had also tried her best to perform, hoping to gain the favor of Mo Xiaoquan and the Great Elder. However, the Mo residence had always prioritized boys over girls, even though her brother was not as talented as her, however, the resources of the family were all stuffed into her brother’s hands.

The family had planned for her to marry into a good family, so she had accepted her fate! At least marrying into the Zhu family could be considered as getting ahead, and she would be the best among the Mo Sisters.

Yun chujiu did not say anything else. She knew that Mo Fangbing had been persuaded by her, but she needed a process of self-persuasion.

In a sense, Yun chujiu liked people with Mo Fangbing's personality more than people like Mo Fangjiao.

A girl like Mo Fangbing had ambition in her heart and the desire to become stronger. Moreover, she was more willing to rely on her own strength to climb up.

Although Mo Fangjiao also had ambition, she mostly wanted to rely on others. Fortunately, she had another advantage. Ahem, ahem. She was simple-minded, so it was not easy to be a big villain.

After a full quarter of an hour, Mo fangbing stared at Yun chujiu and asked, "Can you really get the chance to participate in the test?"

Yun chujiu nodded confidently, "Of course. Even if it's not for you, I will do it for myself."

If Yun Chujiu had said this more than ten days ago, Mo Fangbing would not have believed it. But now, she believed at least 90% . This Mo Fangbing was able to make her great-grandfather look at her differently. She had to admit that she did have some tricks up her sleeve.
