

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2153

"What do you need me to do?" Mo Fangbing decided to take a gamble. If she won the bet, she would win a new world. If she lost the bet, the worst outcome would be that she would lose the engagement. It would not be a pity if she did not marry Zhu Jinghu.

Yun Chujiu whispered a few words, and Mo Fangbing nodded. "Okay, I can cooperate with you, but you have to swear an oath. Otherwise, I won't believe you."

"Alright, Alright! People just lack trust. Am I a person who will lie to others? ! Heaven above, if I lie to Sister Fangbing, I will be struck to death by lightning ! Sister Fangbing, can you do it now?" Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Mo Fangbing saw that Yun Chujiu had already sworn an oath, so she was relieved. Moreover, she didn't know if it was an illusion, but now she found Yun Chujiu more pleasing to the eye than before, and she didn't seem to be so annoying anymore.

The two of them chatted for a while more about the details before Yun Chujiu got up and went to the Great Elder's courtyard.

"Great Elder, I'm Here!" Yun Chujiu's voice came before she arrived.

Others thought that Yun Chujiu did this because of her hot temper, but in fact, she had her own little jiu jiu. She shouted to give the people in the room a hint so that they wouldn't see or hear any secrets.

When the great elder saw Yun chujui jumping in, he could not help but put on a straight face. "You Little Girl, why didn't you come yesterday afternoon?"

Yun chujui giggled. "Great master, I wanted to come, but I knew that you would definitely discuss the Zhu family with grandfather Xiao Quan, so I tactfully did not come."

The Great Elder's eyes flashed. "Then what do you think the result of our discussion is?"

Yun chujui blinked her eyes. "Great Elder, I said it's fine, but don't blame me if I say something offensive."

"You clever little girl, just say it. I Won't blame you."The great elder scolded with a smile.

"Great Elder, I think that grandfather Xiao Quan's opinion is definitely to ask you to hand over the seven leaf hollow grass and marry sister Fang Bing. As for you, I think you haven't decided whether to do this or not, so you're using the delaying tactic now, so you definitely haven't given the pan family an answer yet. "Am I right or Wrong?"Yun Chujui finished speaking, she tilted her head and asked the Great Elder.

The Great Elder didn't make a comment. Instead, he asked, "Then tell me, why would I hesitate?"

“Great-grandfather, most people would naturally think that this is a great thing. After all, although the seven-leafed hollow grass is precious, it’s nothing compared to the marriage of the Zhu family. But who are you? You are the wisest person in charge of the family, so it is natural for you to think long-term.

These two things may seem like a good thing, but when you think about it carefully, they are both bad things.

Let’s talk about the marriage first. Sister Fangbing’s family background is not as good as the other daughters-in-law of the Zhu family. In addition, she is a married woman, and her personality is cold and arrogant. She can not please her in-laws and husband, so naturally, she will be bullied.

When Sister Fangbing came back and cried, could her parents just stand by and watch? They would definitely negotiate with the Zhu family, but the Zhu family was powerful, and they would not be able to get back any justice. As time passed, the relationship between the two families would naturally deteriorate, and in the end, the in-laws would become enemies.

To put it bluntly, that Zhu Jinghu was not a good person at all. Who knows, one day, he might cause trouble and be killed by someone. At that time, Sister Fangbing would bear the reputation of being a husband’s nemesis, how could the other girls of our Mo family get married?

The marriage was still fine, but the most fatal thing was the matter of the seven leaf hollow grass.

No one knew which idiot told the Zhu family about this, but it was simply a disaster!

The Zhu family had been searching for the seven leaf hollow grass for a long time. When the time came, they would definitely feel that grandfather, you had the seven leaf hollow grass in your hands, but you did not take the initiative to offer it. You really did not know your place!

“Moreover, I don’t know if the doctor that the Zhu family found is reliable or not. If he were to use his medicine, Old Lady Zhu would die instantly. She would definitely vent her anger on our Mo family. When the time comes., “A calamity really fell from the sky!”
