

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2210

Yun chujiu walked and looked around. Not only did the Xingtian Academy cover a large area, but the buildings inside were also very simple and unadorned. Some of them even had a hint of a prehistoric aura. As she walked, she couldn't help but feel a sense of reverence.

Of course, the reverence referred to other examinees. Yun chujiu would never have that kind of thing!

Compared to those buildings, this fellow was more interested in the spirit fruit trees on both sides of the road. He couldn't help but wonder, are the students of the Heaven Punisher Academy All Idiots? These spirit fruits were already ripe, yet no one picked them. What a waste of heavenly gifts!

This fellow looked at the spirit fruit tree and swallowed his saliva. Little Babies, wait for me! After I enter the examination, I will definitely bring all of you away!

After walking for nearly two hours, everyone finally arrived at the legendary Heavenly Dao Cliff.

Yun Chujiu looked at the Heavenly Dao cliff in front of her and could not help but be greatly disappointed.

This was the Heavenly Dao Cliff? It did not look as spectacular as the stone wall that had imprisoned little flame back then. It was just a broken cliff. Was there really an inheritance inside?

The examinees were still some distance away from the Heavenly Dao Cliff. Below the Heavenly Dao cliff was a bottomless valley that was covered in clouds all year round.

There were also people who wanted to explore what was below, but none of them returned. Even the spirit beasts that were put down to explore the path did not survive.

As time passed, no one went down to take risks anymore. The deep valley below was also known as the Deep Valley of Hell.

Teacher Pang saw that the examinees had already sat down according to the order and nodded. "From now on, you should start comprehending the inheritance on the Heavenly Dao Cliff. The more concentrated your thoughts are, the easier it will be for you to succeed."

After teacher Pang finished speaking, he left the Tian Dao cliff, leaving a few teachers on duty. Since they were comprehending the inheritance, there wouldn't be any problems.

The examinees followed teacher Pang's instructions and after meditating, they concentrated their thoughts and looked at the Tian Dao cliff not far away.

Yun Chujiu, this fellow, also meditated very seriously at the beginning. However, after looking at it for a long time, other than the bare broken stones, she didn't see anything else, let alone any inheritance.

This fellow was getting impatient. Did she really have any so-called inheritance? Could she be lying? If there was an inheritance, the teachers of the Xingtian Academy would have long fought over it. Why would they leave it to them? HMPH! It must be a lie! Even if there was an inheritance, the rest of the inheritances wouldn't be that good.

In fact, Yun Chujiu had really judged a gentleman's heart with her petty heart. Everyone only had one chance to obtain the inheritance of the Heavenly Dao Cliff. Hence, the students and teachers who were studying had tried it before.

The principal of Xingtian Academy also found that the students who had received the Heavenly Dao cliff inheritance were more perceptive, so the Heavenly Dao Cliff inheritance was set up for the Fourth Test.

Yun chujiu took out a spirit fruit from her storage ring and started to chew on it.

Diao Shaoyan was sitting behind her. When he heard Yun chujiu chewing on the spirit fruit, he immediately shouted angrily, "Stupid girl, do you have any sense of morality? Do you know how you affect others?"

This time, Yun Chujiu didn't say anything more, because this guy felt that what Diao Shaoyan said made some sense, so he obediently put away the spirit fruit.

Seeing that Yun Chujiu didn't dare to argue this time, Diao Shaoyan snorted proudly, "At least you know your place. With your talent, it's impossible for you to get the inheritance. Quickly give up and get lost!"

Yun Chujiu suddenly stood up and stared at Diao Shaoyan with an ice-cold gaze. Diao Shaoyan couldn't help but tremble, and he shouted with a fierce look, "You, what do you want to Do?"
