

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 223

Just as Yun Chujiu was mumbling to herself, the strange grass in her Dantian started to become restless. Yun Chujiu had no choice but to take a look inside, only to see that it was trembling non-stop, as if it was having cramps.

Yun Chujiu was delighted. Could it be that this strange grass was about to choke? That would be great!

It shook for a while, and then a drop of crystal clear liquid seeped out from one of the leaves. Yun Chujiu subconsciously reached out her hand, and that drop of liquid magically appeared in Yun Chujiu's palm.

Little Black kept shouting in the spiritual beast bag, "It smells so good! It smells so good! Master, What's that smell? It smells really good, just like the smell on your body!"

Yun Chujiu was stunned. The grass kept urging Yun Chujiu with its consciousness, and Yun chujiu dripped the crystal clear liquid on the Golden thread grass although she did not understand why.

Then, Yun Chujiu was surprised to find that the Golden thread grass was changing at great speeds visible to the naked eye.

Fifteen minutes later, the flower bloomed, and another fifteen minutes later, the fruit slowly turned from red to purple.

Yun Chujiu quickly took out the jade box that Elder Qi gave her yesterday and put the fruit away.

Yun Chujiu's heart pounded violently!

She seemed to have discovered something amazing!

The liquid secreted by the strange grass could actually accelerate the ripening of the herb!

The effect was so astonishing! It only took less than two hours to accelerate the ripening of a 300-year-old herb!! Moreover, it was an earth-grade high-grade herb!!

'Oh my God!'

She needed to calm down!

She felt a little uncomfortable with such an earth-shattering revelation!

She needed to be quiet!

This matter was too heaven-defying! She must not let anyone find out! Otherwise, it would be a crime to possess such treasure. It would be terrible if someone coveted it!

Yun Chujiu was stunned for a moment before she began to deal with the aftermath.

She carefully broke off the newly grown twig of the Golden thread grass, also known as witch hazel grass, and put it into her storage ring so that Elder Qi would not discover it! As for the fruit in her hand, she could not hand it over to Elder Qi right now. Otherwise, Elder Qi would think that she had caught the thief and had stolen it herself! 'When I find a suitable opportunity, I will find an excuse to give this fruit to him.'

At that moment, the strange grass in her Dantian started to clamor for food. Seeing that there was no one around, Yun Chujiu took out a bunch of super grade blood coagulation pills and swallowed them.

After the grass quickly finished eating, it continued to clamor for food.

Yun Chujiu swallowed several hundred pills in a row, and it finally calmed down.

Yun Chujiu could not help but complain. Indeed, there was no free lunch in the world. Although the weird grass' secretion was heaven-defying, it was probably formed from the medicinal efficacy of these pills. Its consumption of them was really shocking, and she was almost running out of them already.

Yun Chujiu once again began to gather resources. She gathered a lot of medicinal herbs and put them into her storage ring. Now, she only needed the east wind of the fifth level of spirit enhancement.

Little Black grumbled unhappily in the spirit beast bag, "Master, you still haven't told me what it was that smelled so good just now? Did you secretly eat something good?"

Yun Chujiu explained with some amusement, "Am I such a tasteless master? It was a drop of liquid secreted by the strange grass in my Dantian. It catalyzed the golden thread grass to ripen."

"Master, you're so ungrateful! Why didn't you leave half a drop for me? That liquid must be good! I was so hungry that I couldn't stop salivating."

Yun Chujiu pouted. "Forget it, I don't think it's that good! Something that can accelerate the ripening of medicinal herbs is similar to the aging pill. If you eat it, you might give birth to another black bird!"

"You're so bad! I'm a male bird! A male bird! A male bird!!" Little Black protested in grief and indignation.
